GUINEVERE KELLY TWIGGS

In 1925 was one of the original five girls to start the Cameo Social club.

Her loyalty, faithfulness and dedication stood in high relief as in the true Spirit of the Cameo.

Known to all her fellow-club members, and indeed, to all her friends, as . . . "G W E N"

. . . In memory of my mother, and in an expression of congratulations to the Cameo Social Club on its 50th anniversary.

1958

How do I know that my youth is all spent?
Well my get up and go has got up and went
But in spite of it all, I'm able to grin.
When I recall where my get up has been.

Old age is golden, so I've heard it said
But sometimes I wonder when I get in Bed
With my ear in a drawer, and my teeth in a cup
My eyes on the table until I wake up.
When sleep dim my eyes, I say to my self
Is there anything else I should lay on the shelf.
I am happy to say as I close my door
My friends are the same, perhaps even more.
When I was young my slippers were Red.
I could kick up my heels, right over my head
When I grew older, my slippers were Blue
But still I could dance the foxtrot right through.
But now that I'm old my slippers are Black.
I walk to the store and puff my way Back.
The reason I know my youth is all spent.
My get up and go, has got up and went.
But I really don't mind when I think with a grin,
Of all the grand places my get up has been.
Since I have retired from life's competition
I busy my self with complete Repetition.
I get up each morning dust off my wits
Pick up my paper and read the obits
If my name is missing, I know I'm not Dead.
So I eat a good Breakfast and go back to Bed.
