

Inkon we chash ka the beaver, a Sioux Indian, was one of my trusted scouts during the terrible outbreak on the frontier in 1862-63, and was ~~ever~~ a true friend of the whites, from whom his services should secure the kindest treatment.

Respectfully,
W. H. Sibley

St Paul, April 8th 1885,

I most cheerfully join in all Genl Sibley has said about this beaver and add that he and Choska were true and faithful when Lieut - Freeman and myself were in trouble with - hostile Indians in July 1863

Respectfully
Geo. A. Pruesitt

I cheerfully endorse
these recommendations
C. V. Collins

I fully endorse all that is said by General Sibley -
