OBITUARY.
Dr. J. L. Wakefield, of Shakopee.
The intelligence of the death of Dr. J. L. Wakefield, which occurred at his residence in Shakopee on Tuesday morning, will be received with regret. The immediate cause of the Doctor's death is attributable to an over dose of an opiate. It appears that he returned home, and shortly after retiring requested his wife to call him at a specified hour. A short time after, the attention of his wife was attracted by his breathing, and upon attempting to arouse him found herself unable to do so. Assistance was called, but to no avail, and he expired soon after. Dr. Wakefield was one of the old settlers of the Minnesota Valley, having located in Shakopee in 1854, at which place he has resided ever since, except while absent as Indian physician with Major Galbraith. He, with his family, were at the Agency at Yellow Medicine at the time of the outbreak in 1862. His wife and children were taken prisoners, but he escaped with the party that the Indian, John Othertday, brought away in safety. His family remained captives until released by Gen. Sibley. He was a physician of experience and ability, and a graduate of Harvard College; and a brother of Hon. James B. Wakefield, now of the Jackson Land Office. He was well known, and leaves many friends to mourn his death.

DEATH OF MRS. WAKEFIELD
IN MINNESOTA SINCE 1854.
She Was a Prisoner of the Sioux for Six Weeks During Their Outbreak.
Mrs. Sarah F. Wakefield, of Merriam Park, died Saturday evening. She was sixty-nine years old and the cause of her death was blood poisoning, resulting from other ailments. Mrs. Wakefield was an old settler, having come to Minnesota in 1854 from Providence, R. I., where she was born. In 1856 she married Dr. John L. Wakefield, a well known physician of Shakopee. Dr. and Mrs. Wakefield and J. B. Wakefield went to Blue Earth City, and were among the earliest settlers in that town. Dr. Wakefield was appointed Indian physician at Yellow Medicine and he and his wife were there during the Sioux outbreak of 1862. Mrs. Wakefield was taken prisoner during one of the Indian raids, and was held by the Indians for six weeks, when she was released and rejoined her husband at Shakopee. Dr. Wakefield died at Shakopee in 1874, and Mrs. Wakefield removed to St. Paul for the purpose of obtaining better schooling for her children. She is survived by Mrs. John Gigrich, of Merriam Park, and Mrs. Lucy E. Bourk and John R. Wakefield, with whom she made her home. The funeral, which will take place at the residence, 1337 St. Anthony Avenue, to-morrow morning, will be private. The interment will be in Shakopee.
