ACKNOWLEDGMENT

BYLAWS
OF BURNSVILLE ENVIRONMENTAL COUNCIL, INC.

ARTICLE I.

NAME AND LOCATION

Section 1. The name of this corporation shall be BURNSVILLE ENVIRONMENTAL COUNCIL, INC.

ARTICLE II.

PURPOSE

Section 1. The purpose of this corporation shall be to encourage productive and enjoyable harmony between man and his environment; to promote efforts which will prevent or eliminate damage to the environment and stimulate the health and welfare of man; to enrich the understanding of the ecological systems and natural resources important to insure a lasting quality of life.

Section 2. No member, director or officer of this corporation shall have any right, title or interest in or to any property of any kind owned by this corporation, nor any income or other funds received or held by this corporation.

Section 3. Upon the liquidation or dissolution of this corporation or upon the abandonment of its purposes, none of the property of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, director or officer, but all such property shall be transferred to the Sierra Club Foundation or to such non-profit charitable, educational or other organization qualified as tax exempt under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code as the Board of Directors shall then direct, subject to determination by a Justice of the Supreme Court of Minnesota, should the directors be unable to reach a decision.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The registered office of the corporation shall be at 351 Maple Island Road, Burnsville, Minnesota 55378, and the corporation may have such other offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, determine.

ARTICLE IV.

Section 1. Memberships shall be open to all residents of Minnesota interested in proper environmental management. Each member shall have one vote and there shall be one class of membership with a membership fee to be established from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V.

FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of the corporation shall end on the last day of June of each year.

ARTICLE VI.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual meetings of the members shall be held in June of each year at a time set by the Board of Directors and at such time reports of the corporation's officers shall be presented and the election of new officers and directors shall be conducted or otherwise concluded.

Section 2. Written notice of the annual meeting shall be mailed at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting to each member entitled to vote thereat to the last known address of such member as the same appears on the books of the corporation. Said notice shall state the exact date, time and place of said meeting as determined by the Board of Directors. Provided that the Board of Directors shall have the option of a published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area, of the date, time and place of said meeting, in lieu of and instead of, the mailed written notice of said meeting.

Section 3. The Board of Directors shall be elected by a majority vote of qualified members voting as hereinafter prescribed:

- A. The Board of Directors shall appoint a nominating committee consisting of three (3) members designating a chairman, who shall place in nomination one (1) or more members for each office under consideration.
- B. The Board of Directors shall determine whether to proceed with the election by membership voting in person or by membership voting by mail. If such voting is prescribed to be by mail, written ballots shall be supplied each member at least seven (7) days before said annual meeting together with instructions for submitting the vote thereon.

Section 4. A quorum for the membership meetings shall consist of 10 percent of the membership who have paid their dues and who are residents of Minnesota. Where the voting is done by a mailed vote of all the members, a return from 20 percent of the membership in good standing within the time specified shall constitute a valid vote. Each member shall be entitled to one vote and there shall be no voting by proxy.

Section 5. Special meetings of the members, for any purpose or purposes, shall be called by the President, or shall be called by the Board of Directors, or at the request in writing of five (5) members. Such call shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting. Notice thereof shall be given either by publication or by written mailed notice in the same manner as provided for an annual meeting. Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the purposes stated in the call.

ARTICLE VII.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The property and business of this corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors consisting of not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) members. The Board shall be composed of the President, who shall be counted among the five (5), and such other Director or Directors as may be elected at the annual meeting of the members by a majority vote. The members of the Board of Directors shall be initially elected for a term of one (1) year and thereafter the members of the Board shall be elected in such a manner that the terms of one-third of the Board shall expire each year. Any Director shall be entitled to serve his term as specified or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. The Board shall elect from its own membership, a Chairman of the Board, a Vice Chairman of the Board and a Secretary of the Board.

Section 2. The annual meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held upon seven (7) days written mailed notice and within a thirty (30) day period after the annual meeting of the membership.

Section 3. The regular meetings of the Board shall be held upon a regular schedule or upon special written notice.

Section 4. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chairman of the Board at any time and shall be called by him whenever requested to do so in writing by any member of the Board. Notice of special meetings may be given to each director personally or by mail at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting. A special meeting may be called without notice to the directors if a full Board convenes and all agree to the holding of the meeting at such time and place and in writing waive all rights of notice thereof. Any action which might be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if done in writing, signed by all of the Directors.

Section 5. At all meetings of the Board, a majority of the directors shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. The Board of Directors may from time to time determine the order of business at their meetings. The usual order of business at their meetings shall be as follows:

- A. The meeting is called to order by the Chairman of the Board at the time and on the date of the meeting.
- B. Roll call -- Quorum being present, the meeting proceeds with the business.
- C. Reading by Secretary of minutes of previous meeting and their consideration and approval.
- D. Report of officers.
- E. Consideration of communications -- as previously requested or received in writing and placed on the agenda of the Board.

F. Unfinished business.

G. New business.

H. Motion to adjourn.

Section 7. In addition to the powers and authorities conferred upon them by these By-Laws, the Board of Directors shall have the power to do all lawful acts necessary and expedient to the conduct of the business of this corporation, that are not conferred upon members by these By-Laws, or by the Articles of Incorporation, or by statute.

ARTICLE VIII

OFFICERS

Section 1. The corporation shall have at least four (4) officers who shall be the President, Vice President, Recording Secretary and the Treasurer, no two of which officers may be held by the same member. Said officers shall be elected by the membership as hereinafter provided and the President shall be a member of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. The Board may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary, from time to time, who shall hold their offices for such terms and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the Board.

Section 3. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation; he shall preside at all meetings of the members; he shall have general active management of the business of the corporation, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect. He shall execute all bonds, mortgages and other contracts. He shall be ex officio a member of all standing committees, and shall have the general powers and duties of supervision and management usually vested in the office of the President of a corporation.

Section 4. The Vice President shall, in the absence or disability of the President, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President and shall perform such other duties as the Board of Directors shall prescribe.

Section 5. The Recording Secretary shall record all action taken at meetings of the officers and of the committees as appointed from time to time by the President. He shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the officers and of the committees and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the President, under whose supervision he shall be.

Section 6. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate account of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the corporation and shall deposit all monies, and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the corporation, in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. He shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board, taking the proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and directors, at the regular meeting of the Board or whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation. The Board may require a bond of the Treasurer in such amount as the Board shall specify and which bond shall be paid for by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. If the office of any director or any officer or agent becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal from office or otherwise, the directors may choose a successor or successors who shall hold office for the unexpired term in respect of which vacancy occurred.

Section 8. The Board of Directors may by unanimous affirmative action of the entire Board, designate two (2) or more of the Board to constitute an executive committee, which, to the extent determined by unanimous affirmative action of the entire Board, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board on the management of the business of the corporation. Any such executive committee shall act only in the interval between meetings of the Board, and shall be subject at all times to the control and direction of the Board.

ARTICLE IX.

COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committees shall be authorized by the directors to serve at the pleasure thereof. The chairman of the committee may appoint or remove members thereof on subcommittees and name their chairman. The budget of any such committee or committees shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval and authorization.

ARTICLE X.

BOOKS AND RECORDS

Section 1. Members shall be permitted to inspect the books of the corporation at reasonable times.

ARTICLE XI.

RULES OF ORDER

Section 1. Roberts Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings of all meetings of the corporation in each constituent part, except as provided in these By-Laws.

ARTICLE XII.

AUDIT OF BOOKS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall designate a competent person to audit the corporation's books prior to the transfer of the books of account to the new Treasurer.

ARTICLE XIII.

AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES AND BY-LAWS

Section 1. The Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws may be amended or altered by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the whole Board of Directors at any meeting, provided that notice of such proposed amendment shall have been given in the notice to Directors of such meeting. Such authority in the Board of Directors is subject to the power of the members to prospectively revoke the authority of the Board to exercise the power to amend the said Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws by a majority vote of the members voting at any meeting called for that purpose.

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation of the Burnsville
Environmental Council, Inc..

Article X

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered.

Article XI

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Article XII

In the event of dissolution, any remaining assets shall be distributed to organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Is this Mr. (Mrs., Ms.) _____?

Answer - - - - -

I am _____ from the Burnsville Environmental Council. We are calling supporters of the Burnsville Trail System urging them to vote "YES" for the trail system on Tuesday, September 10. We have your signature on a petition asking for the trail system bond referendum so we are counting on your vote. We would appreciate it if you would call and ask two or three of your neighbors to vote for it.

~~We would also like to put up a lawn sign in your area. Could we have permission to do so on your lawn?~~

Thank you.
