Happy New Year

364 Days
to come

When the new year came in, we were in our own living room. Fire burning in the grate, stones, Leslie, Curran's, Mrs Bomberg, some little refugees from Hitler named Kovars, mother, Dalos & Merian too, a moment after. We brought he down blinking in pajamas. Some children were stranded up us and the radio was playing Star Spangled banner and we all drank wine & toasted England. Stones stayed all night and we had a happy crowded New Year's Day with Rosy for lunch (dear little Rosy) and Jack's party this afternoon and Leslie's this evening. Clear & very warm & summer like. <sup>ground</sup> work.

Back to work. Merian not going back to school, until Monday, but she is busy with thank-you notes and other such things, and will be happy while I work. Delos has gone to the office in good spirits and mother is taking charge of phone and door. Please, Lord, give me a good hard working 1941!

Weather changed. Rain which turned into snow as it fell but melted and did not whiten the ground too much to make snow
the one, so enjoyed it instead. Merian still reading The Telenovela aloud to me. She has started a 5-year diary.

Gray skies & misty rain again. To work, after doing bob & Merian's hair & mending cables in preparation for our visitor.
Grace came about 4 - a tall Finnishish sort of person in a fur hat &
fur trimmed coat &
Russian embroidered dress.
Very hearty & wholesome except for a staccato acquired accent. We had a lovely time - coffee by the fire & later, when Delos came, cocktails and dinner.
Linnie in to serve. Grace was little Grace Nelson or far near married when I last saw her, 40 years ago.
Now Grace La Mar - N.Y. nurse seemed to have changed.

The air had a nip in
it. The sky was full of cold beautiful stars.

2nd Sunday after Christmas

This was a beautiful Sunday. Breakfast in bed - (yesterday Delos bought it up - today said) - homework while Delos took the children to Sunday school - dinner and then we drove over to the ocean. The day was sunshiny and windy.
Many large clouds in the sky, ~~but not~~ purple white. The surf rolled in. The wind was so high we could not stand it outside the car. After coffee Delos & Helen went to the movie. Myra read me "The Talisman" & dismantled the Christmas tree. <sup>about 8:30</sup> singing.

"Betsy - Tacy and Tib or Tey" got ready to grip today. Good!
This afternoon mother
played bridge at Leslie's & I went with her for coffee, by the gym. Merian to Susan's. I was surprised to notice how light it was at 5 o'clock.
I had analyzed picking up Merian up in stone
darkness but twilight
was just fading.
It is so pleasant to see the end of winter evening!

I shortened my work morning a little, dined Merian's lunch, & Katherine & her mother, Elizabeth, my mother & I went out to Stones. A clear cool day.
At Emma's a fire in the grate, old fashioned, sea food with wild
rice, and much gay
talk. Kitty Cochrane came wrapped in the crowd, thinks with her hands, she found just starting to freeze - the book still remains. There was a sunset dinner here. The color just scarlet & blue violet. Still had a trail of white in the landscape.

Again I noticed the rejuvenation of the sunset. It is no longer stone dark when beginning in the night about 6.30. // 8.30, Mrs.
Clarke in her blue coat & black hat, wearing goodly to stand on Clarke as he waits on the corner of an car // Merian happily off for school, after starting a new piece in piano practice // Most of light clouds on pale sky.
Merian & I & Dr. Wheeler to have the hall put on a piece. Some to a copy of - the fire party for Elizabeth, Aunt Emma & Dr. W. DeLoz late but a

Later last night it started to snow, but a little. But this morning there is a thin frost of snow & the color of the sky is like the snow, fresh & pale green.

I had a happy day. I went in town & worked at the library - an 1902 and South American, Mrs. DeLoz
at 5.30 at the Warwick & we called on w.f. & O.
Then we went to Brooklyn & heard the Boston Symphony.
Koussevitzky conducting.
DeLoz was carried away by Beethoven's humor on the # 3. It was a soul refreshing day - what we daily research & hearing music!

This was Miriam's day to hear music. She took hope to the concert & they DeLoz saw us all in early. The weather is like Indian summer again. While the children went to the concert & learned all about concertos, Mrs. DeLoz took in a movie, mine & I shopped for fur coats & bought me one - a black caracul, at Franklin Simon. I love
it! we had the children & DeLoz at the Russian
the name of Borsh with Pirojok & all.
good things. A very nice time. Looked out and saw almost dictatorial papers.

JANUARY

22nd Day343 Days

The sky was during the morning. A heap of colored ribbons coiled & swirling in the east. The moon a little to the south. The air like summer when I was out to close the garage door after Delos. Merian up to his music lesson to town to see Mrs. Patten of macmillans. She won't give a contract on the History of South America & I can't afford to work with her. But I have another idea which Delos thinks is swell.

Lost today (almost) with a headache. Merian excitement over the new plan. Looked an idiot & I am. Merian up dressed & puzzled according to his self-made schedule as he went over his & the final minutes. Weather during & she'd walked around the block. Mother went over to the Nortons for coffee. Lindbergh, Gen. Johnson testified against the Lindbergh kid today. Delos made & I started our release with a frisky. Must stop that. Merian making excuses about to me.

Snow began late this afternoon. Weather forecast for steady rain when Bob came home
we abandoned the idea of driving to town. So Stella + Maria went off to their grand treat

Day 4th Sunday after Easter—Mother's Day

A cool, sunny day + a happy one. After Sunday School — about 11:30 o'clock — Delos & Myriam presented us with bouquet of violets + drove us off with much mystery saying we were going to feed the ducks. As a matter of fact we were to see Popwood with emerald, white, Ethereal in the woods — masses of agalita along the roadside. We went to the Champs-Élysées for Dinner + Mr Lark showed us to frogs legs. Then we went to see Disney's Fantasia — + it was an impeccable experience. Esp

Cold but sunny & lovely + we often
sat out in the sun.
At other times, however,
we sat beside Mrs. and Lillian's stove which was cozy. Took a note with Mrs. Fallon
The damage the hurricane did to this country is pitiful. Mrs. and Mrs.
took a quick ray swim off the dock. A fire in the grate for breakfast.

Thurs. June 26.

Still cold. ~~Fire~~ in the little stove in the hall. But sunny & glorious. We are driving

Merian so sweet + very grown up. Filup his nails + arranging + arranging the flowers, taking the junky baby things off his niches + arranging them beautifully. Some little girls for ice cream this afternoon. One of the ~~the~~ the earliest sunsets I ever saw.

The west a light brilliant greenish blue, the clouds pearl colored. The clouds in the east pink. And all over the whole great arch of sky pink + glowing.

Our usual Saturday morning (it's just of sleep & errands & shopping at the supermarket & sleep
check & doughnuts & bananas in the AM. Cold cloudy &
finally rainy. Made a meat loaf, with Miriam's help.
Tonight the 3 of us in to the Clarkes to see some pictures.
I love the flower
pictures which show
all the fruit trees & shrubs & plants in the neighborhood
unfolding & budding
through the season.

Piley

The Clarke's birch tree, which seemed like an old, came down the beautiful autumn day and much excitement on gathering of neighbors. Mrs. Clarke gave me a beautiful bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. We departed early. Piley out this afternoon, but she was ill. Fortunately the illness came unexpectedly & helped to eat the apple cake I had baked. Mrs. Clarke's garden still has marigolds, nasturtiums, coryopsis, holly etc.

Effie came to work at noon - I had spent the morning
sitting + adjusting
things all over the house. It was heavenly to relax + let her take over. But I can't relax long. She came to help me finish the South American
book. I went for a walk after lunch.
That sunset pale
golden glow is a treasure on the world. Colors had to be in the shin + a sun
on the horizon -
so Marian + I read + soup + played.

Olga bought Maria
a bicycle as a little step in Nicola.
She is an aqua
colored Roadmaster.
She practised riding
it up & down in the moonlight and I don't think I'll ever forget the moment.
All 3 of us so happy.
Eggie continues to be super good. I bought a

 the black on the new aqua like and practised turning around & grip up & other drive ways. She took it to show Marian, Helen & Marilyn Scaff. The weather was beautiful.
 She was as turning
 slowly, not much
 inclination that year.
 Big blue jays make occasional flashes of color. Tonight the 3 of us with HE tried to see a to Wimpstead. There was a wild wind

 with rain in it.
 A young man is painting our house.
 His face with
 very delicate skin, puffed looking — wanted some of his money advanced to take his wife to the doctor + buy her some stockings. Of course Delos shot him a check. Spanish

was very nice,
the children so sweet. Dolores & Marked & did errands & got ready for mother
tomorrow. Mr. Clarke
sent in a big bouquet of chrysanthemums - we shall have some
in our own garden
too. Mary Ann pleased & the eyebrows.

Dolores came to town this beautiful
morning & met
mother at Penn Station. She looked grand. Aged at 4 63 & had her granddaughter's
eyes swollen almost shut and face &
body puffed with white. Look, when she had been anxious & yes, is coughing & had to be shut in the basement.
But Effie had a good
chicken dinner ready & we all had a good visit.

Japan Richard was on us today and started smoking. Richard did not know about it, actually I started about 10
 the afternoon, until six o'clock tonight. We had talked John Lippert, in Michigan, at 5:51. He had been out here for dinner.
 Delos hurried into the bank to get the 6 o'clock news and it was over. We were all heart sick and feel sick and so.

 men + I ate our lunch in front of the radio listening to the President & Congress. The whole country is united,
 together again. It was touching to hear Ham fish go over to the coast. The other isolationist - Wheeler & even Lindbergh are expressing their loyalty. The Pacific coast is having air raid alarms and we are anxious about Foster Truitt to visit.

I was up at 4.00 o'clock - writing. And at noon just as Maria came in we got news that emergency planes were approaching New York and to be placed.
 I called Dolos & he gave us instructions and said I cancel the appointments with Mr. Kelley. All kind alarms sounded here & school was dismissed.
 It was an exciting and confusing - like a dream.
 Probably the whole alarm was a test. When the all clear sounded Dolos phoned that I might take Maria & Kempster and I did.

perhaps to increase the poignancy of the day which is certainly the happiest Christmas we will have in many years.
Miriam came into our bed at ten minutes to six. Mother was already down stairs & we needed coffee & newspaper. Sam had had a fire in the grate, the fire was lighted and we were down stairs looking
