5th day — 360 days follow

Before we were out of bed the radio was reporting that rain and snow were sweeping down over the Oregon border into California — the rain, at least, as far as Monterey, and that rain at last would reach Sutter California by nightfall — breaking the long drought. Cold and cloudy all day. I wrote to Marian & walked and cleaned my study while Belosky worked on his model & also poured fruit over. I fried him outside this afternoon. Clouds incoming.
Put away the last terrace chair. After a shopping trip & supper, he read aloud from the Bhagavad Gita while I was getting ready for bed, he opened his doors.
It's raining! he announced in surprise. It was, and what a rattle.

} and the day my father died.

After an all-night snowfall, bright sunshine at 8. Glistening snow on the mountains — not only on Baldy but east. --- is it Cucamonga? --- to the right. Lower reaches are covered by patches of steamy cloud. And a flight of silvery birds are circling above. All this with the well-strained and washed and shining laurel, make quite a picture as we eat breakfast --- in the living room, as usual.

3.30 Crystal

This was certainly a stimulating day. By sitting down to it right after a late breakfast, we finished Dr Zivago, a wonderful book, though it petered out at the end, and tonight we saw "The Defiant One", which someone called the best movie she ever saw, & we understood why. Cynthia dropped in — I went to Crystal — and the day was sunny, and mild.

She wrote a note to Bob (Martha Enrique Smith) and I enclosed it in a note to him + sent it on its way. Meeting her was a remarkable coincidence.

afternoon called in The Mrs Hilton is Lily's daughter.

She is an artist too, and lives in the desert - her

The artist had had her mother an apron & was making her bottle pajama.
Home to eat her first supper here. It was fun. A Saturday night crowd, mostly children, dancing a gay time in the pool.
I - I had been getting work from the library. They knew my books. Librarian came out me the 29 Palm children were Betty and Ray. She is not cure it, of course, but greatly relieves it, she says.

Lincoln's Birthday

Mocking birds have been flying around for some days and were very conspicuous this morning as I heard 2 sing by the big window at breakfast. There was snow on the near mountains, large soft puffy clouds in a light sky, and the world so shining clean & wet. Fairly, rosy heads & breasts in our bare flowering peach this afternoon. The precipitation like a blizzard for a while. I went out for the first time in several days this morning.
Bought jalapenos, and David I had pancakes and cereals.
Heard Mary Raymond Chapman

 7.35. Sunny & glorious but icy. This monument is in both the Mojave + Colorado Deserts, famous for its peculiar Joshua trees (lily family). My leaflet gives all the facts about this & the other desert plants we'll see: more oases, Cal Washington palms. 3 plants ^{at 4200 ft} on Packer's Eagle story. Remember how leaves of white palm strip off in light wind like a skirt. There? phasos sand - lit - not clumping to fantastic rocks of all sizes. One purple white actus, a yellow - blooming herb, now the Joshua tree. Joshua

 Mrs Burton, whose daughter, Sherry, attended Payson College. Made return visit to the night.
 The creosote bush is the common spreading green bush we saw in canyon with ocotillo. Sherry ^{then} high small of creosote grayish spreading seed bush has pale yellow radial seeds & pollen. Give shelter to small animals & nests.
 If prickly, leaves stick out like black & packers. In stream looks black like willow.
 I saw a silty flycatcher (cristed) at the river to Jordan Canyon, saw canyon party in cars & trailers with tent & campfire among the giant fantastic piles of rock.
