This is Helen + a friend of hers - the man is the one she has been going with for a long time - he wants to marry her, but she hasn't decided yet -
he is a nice boy +
good as gold - his name is Otto Anderson - this was taken on a
snowy day down
by the lake -

This is the snapshot of which I wrote you. If you already have one, you might send it back. But if not, so keep it. I don't think it's too good of Aunt Emma, but ~~it~~ ^{is} still rather an interesting study of three sisters.

This is D. Patten sitting under a tree at the side of the house where we live. That's the beautiful big old yard where we make bonfires & eat picnics. I wrote you a letter one Sunday morning just under the tree you marked x.
