TO GRATIA ALTA COUNTRYMAN

Even as one drop in all earth's rushing brooks
Is lost beyond our power to hear or see,
So, to your life, borne on a stream of books,
One more means naught, "to be or not to be."

Yet, lacking other merchandise, I bring
A FEW DRY LEAVES and bind them in a "book."
I hope you'll take love's little offering,
And in your heart give it and me a nook.
