Entrance to the Senate Wing of the Capitol.

No person will be admitted to the Senate wing of the Capitol, the Senate galleries, the floor of the Senate Chamber, or the inaugural platform without a ticket or card signed by the Committee of Arrangements, except Members of the Senate and elective officers, Members of the House of Representatives and elective officers, ex-officio Members of the United States Supreme Court and officers (as they appear, and stand), Heads of Executive Departments, the Admirals of the Navy and his staff, the Chief of Staff of the Army and his staff.

Platform Tickets.

Tickets to the platforms on the north and south of the center platform, designated as A and B, DO NOT ADMIT TO THE CAPITOL BUILDING.

Tickets of admission to the east Senate wing door (at the head of the marble steps on the east front of the Senate wing) and south House wing door.

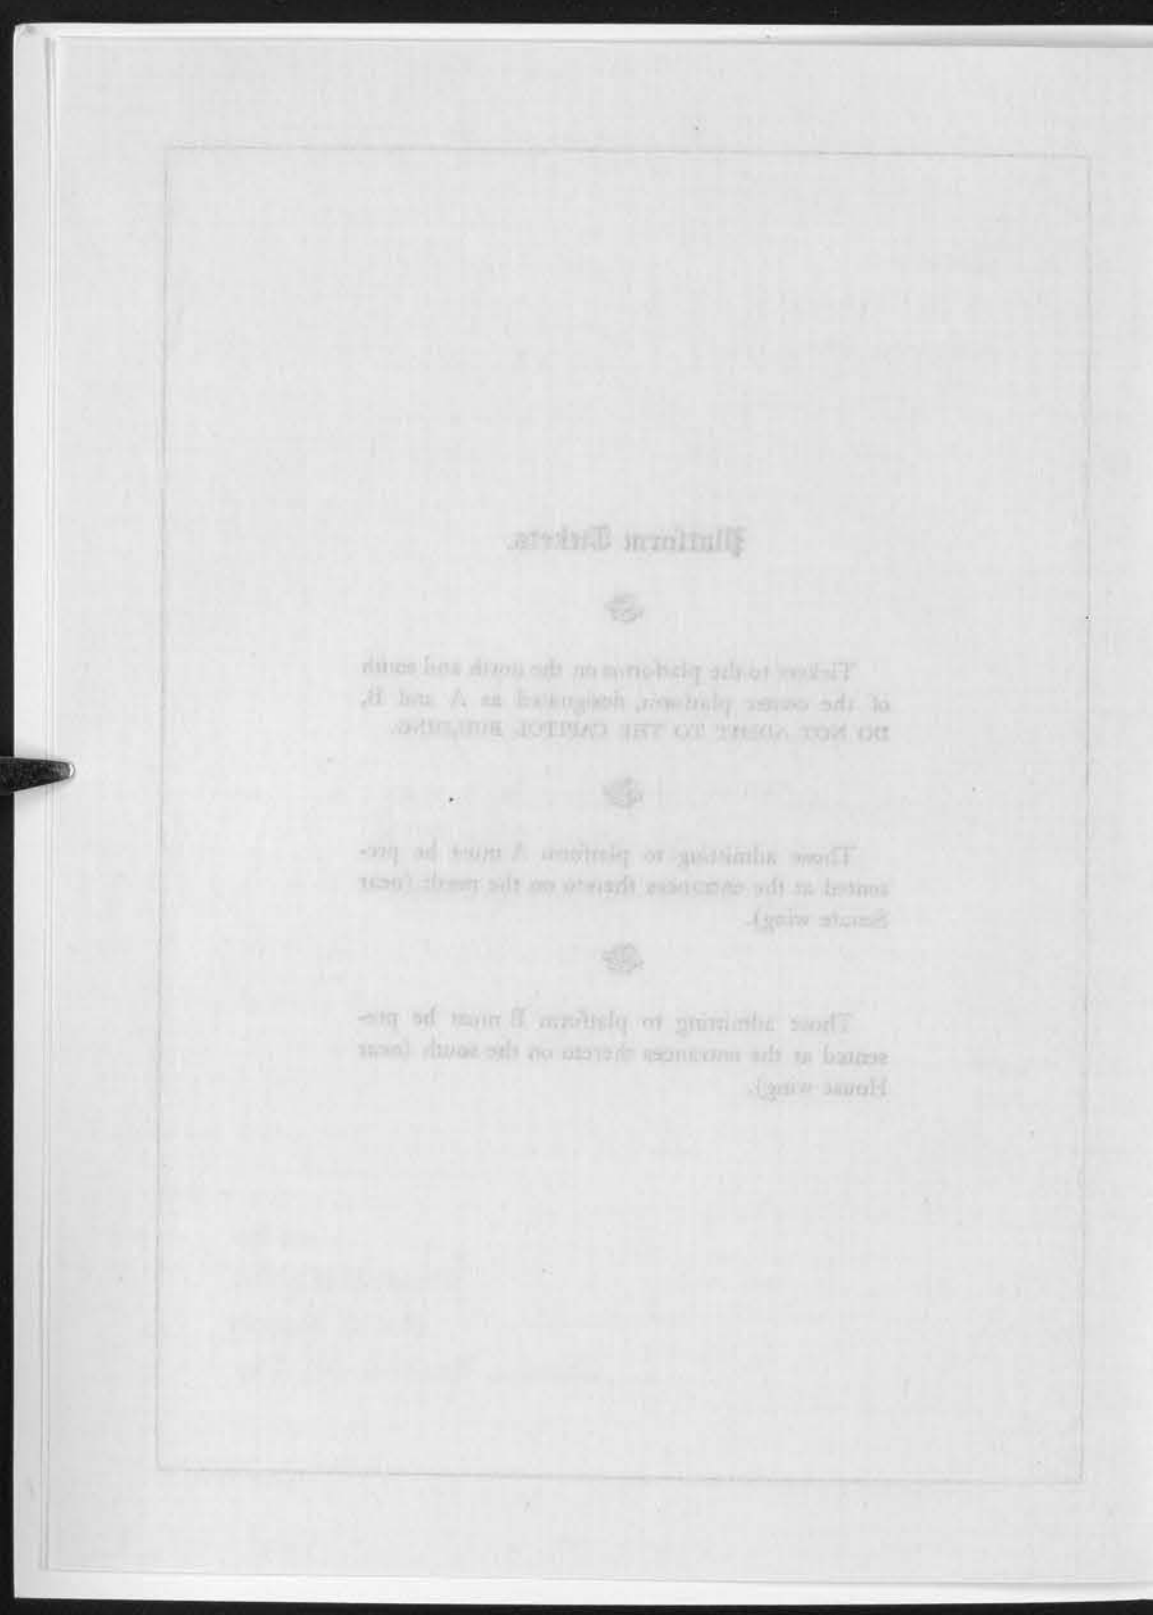

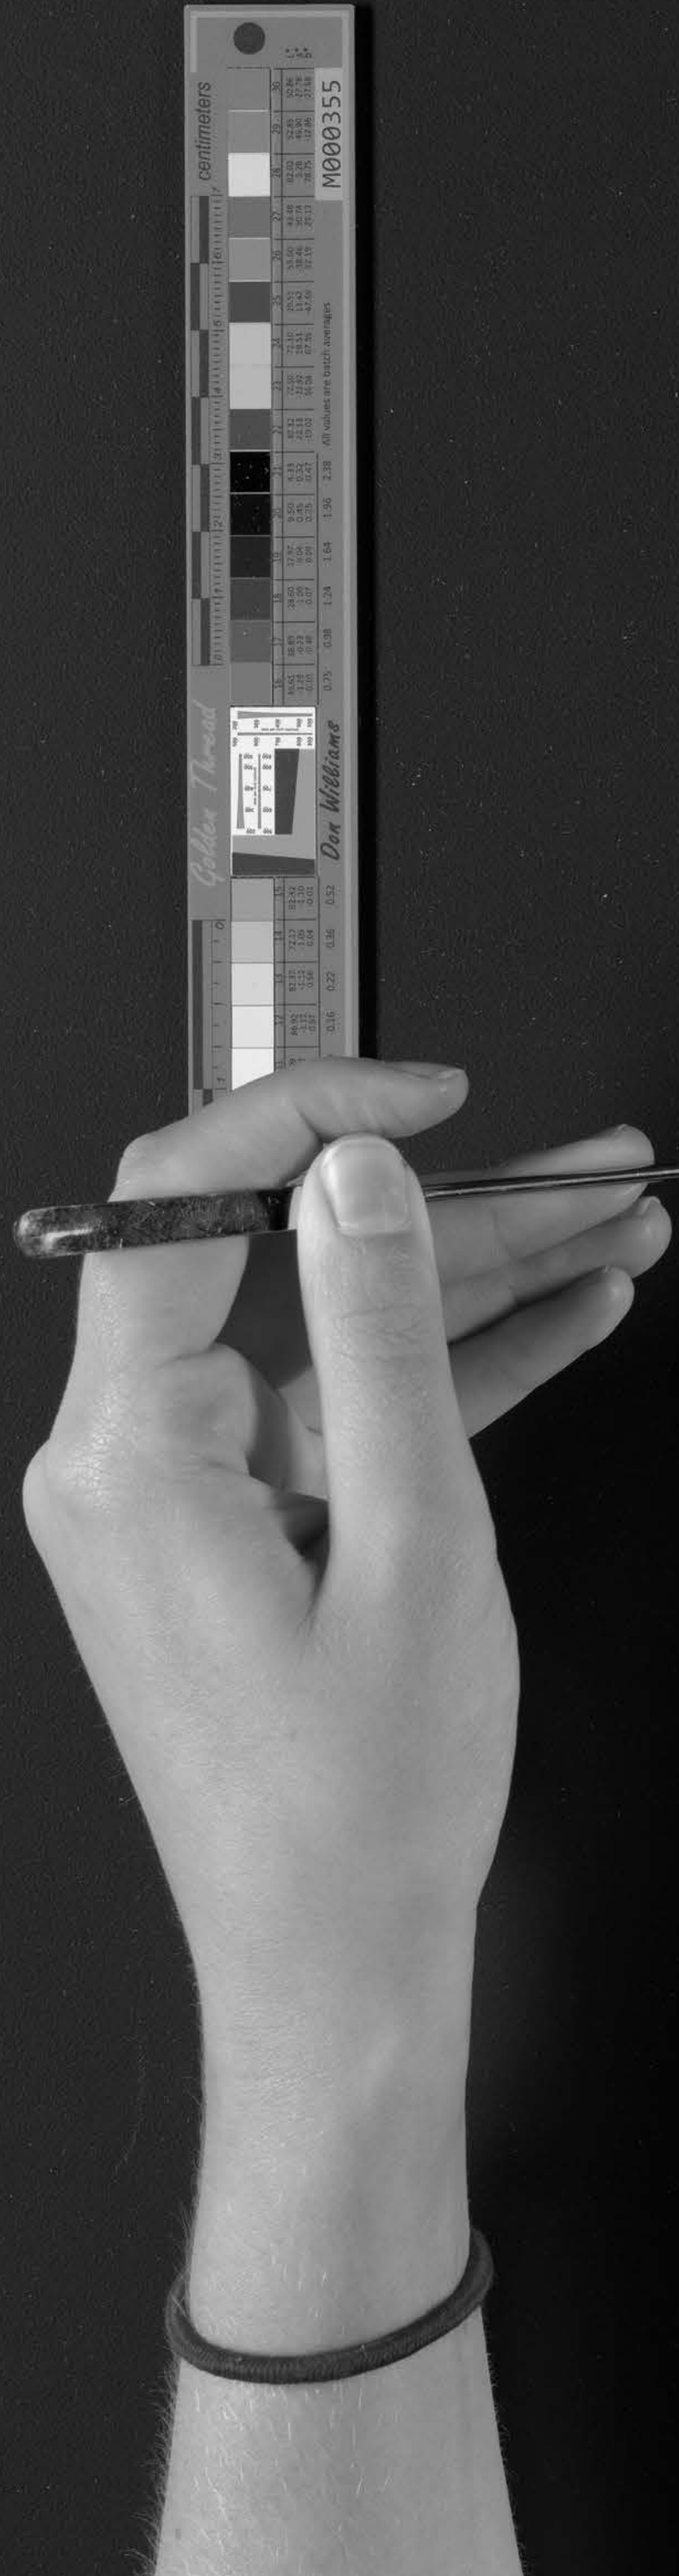

Those admitting to platform A must be presented at the entrances thereto on the north (near Senate wing).

Tickets presenting themselves at any other than these three entrances will be refused admission. This provision is necessary to protect the galleries for the use of the public.

Those admitting to platform B must be presented at the entrances thereto on the south (near House wing).

All horses and carriages, except those used in conveying persons to the Senate wing of the Capitol, will be excluded from the north half of the Capitol Grounds until after the conclusion of the inaugural ceremonies.

The two eastern doors and the north door of the Senate wing, as above described, will be open at 10 o'clock a. m. to those holding tickets and cards and entitled to admission.

Entrance to the Galleries of the Senate Chamber.

The person will be admitted to the Senate wing of the Capitol, the Senate Chamber, the floor of the Senate Chamber, or the inaugural platform without a ticket or card signed by the Committee of Arrangements, except Members of the Senate and elective officers. Members of the House of Representatives and elective officers, ex-Officio Members of the House of the United States Supreme Court and officers (not clerks, reporters, and messengers), Heads of Executive Departments, the Chief of the Army and his staff, Chief of the Navy and his staff.

Cards of admission to the Senate floor (except those for Members) will be good only at the Senate Chamber door (at the head of the marble steps on the east side of the Senate wing) and in the lower hall under the arch beneath the marble steps.

Tickets of admission to the east galleries will be good only in the Senate Chamber floor (at the head of the marble steps on the east side of the Senate wing) and in the lower hall under the arch beneath the marble steps.

Tickets of admission to the west galleries will be good only at the north door of the Senate wing.

Ticket holders presenting themselves at any other than these three entrances will be refused admission. This provision is necessary to prevent the galleries for the use of those having tickets, and to prevent persons with no tickets from occupying the galleries through the halls leading from the Senate Chamber and occupying the galleries to the exclusion of the bona fide ticket holders.

All boxes and passages, except those used in connecting between the Senate wing of the Capitol will be excluded from the north side of the Capitol grounds after the conclusion of the inaugural ceremonies.

The two western doors and the north door of the Senate wing, as above described, will be open at 10 o'clock a. m. to those holding tickets and cards and entitled to admission.

The northeast Reserved Gallery and the Ladies' Gallery will be reserved for the guests of Senators.

The three west galleries will be reserved for the guests of Representatives; and the tickets allotted to them will be distributed by the Clerk of the House, to whom Representatives and Delegates should apply for their quotas, on or before March 1.

All tickets to the galleries and all cards of admission to the floor of the Senate Chamber will also entitle holders thereof to places on the inaugural platform.

Entrance to the Gallery of the Senate Chamber
