Rev. J. W. Pond.

Will you please box
up the things, which we left in your care last summer, & send them to me, addressed to the "Care of Humphrey & Co. Quincy Adams Co. Ills."

The Tent & Kettles, you may retain until we return; or send them back to our Lac-gui-palle friends, if you please.
By any convenient opportunity you may have.

I have not yet determined
when we shall be able to return.

Mrs. A's health improves but slowly.
My own health is good as usual.

Yours obliged

M. N. Adams.

P.S. As Mr. Prescott will perhaps send our trunk & a box soon, perhaps you may send both with him in the same bill of lading. M.N.A.
