54 I have been asked to review briefly for the benefit of the new members and of the old ones as well our method of voting which may seem to many complicated and cumbersome. Actually it is very simple. It is in two parts as most of you know, and the first part is not a vote at all, but simply for the purpose of nominations. Our constitution reads that all names to be voted on for members must be approved by two thirds of those present on the day of the voting. Since there are 26 members here today, that means that 18 must approve the nominations. 18

A certain number of names will be proposed and then you are at liberty to vote for any number of them that you would gladly have as member of the Study Club irrespective of the number of places to be filled which today I think is only one. This is your opportunity to voice your real opinion of the people on the list. You may vote for all of them, or none of them. Perhaps you feel that some of them would not be interested in such a Study group, that they are too old, or too young or that they are never in Minneapolis when we hold our classes, or simply that it would not give you pleasure to have them as members. Whatever your reasons, you will please list on a piece of paper the names you would like to see voted on, and as I said before you may vote at this point for as many or as few as you like. Please leave a space between each name for the convenience of the tellers. All those receiving a two thirds vote will be nominated to be voted on later. Any questions.

Now we come to the 2nd part of the voting which is preferential voting and is supposed to be the fairest way of voting that there is. All of the names which have been nominated you will please write down on a piece of paper, every name, leavi ing a space between each name again for the convenience of the tellers. Opposite each name please put a number, number one for your first choice, number two for your second choice and so on down the list. Putting names in order of your preference is not enough, for they will be cut apart for ^{counting} cutting and so there must be a number before each name. Again let me emphasize that every name must be on your list with a number opposite it. The name that most nearly approaches the first choice of the club will be elected. Any questions.

P. S. In counting the numbers opposite the names it is the one that has the lowest count that wins, but this seems more than some of the members understand so it is best not to mention that feature.

Nomination procedure

Current Procedure 1963

Proposed changes in election procedures

- The number of vacancies shall be announced.
2. Nominations are then in order.
3. Every candidate nominated is listed on each member's ballot.
4. Each member votes for each candidate in the order of her preference, putting a # 1 beside the name of her first choice, #2 for her second choice, and so on to the last place
5. The tellers count the number of votes for each candidate and list them in order, the candidate with the lowest numerical count having first place, the second lowest the next place and so on to the last place.
6. The top one, two, three, or more candidates, dependent on the number of places to be filled, are announced.
7. The first name is then voted upon by written ballot. With two negative votes that candidate fails of election. The next one is then voted upon, etc.
8. The survivors of this last vote are declared elected.

January 5th 1961.

The 8¹⁶ meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Archie Walker on Jan. 5th, with 22 members present.

The minutes of the business meeting of a year ago were read. This was followed by a discussion of a subject for this year.

The program committee will be Mrs. Wurtele, Chairman, Mrs. Duff and Mrs. Pillsbury.

Mrs. Morrison suggested the subject of Africa. And she spoke of a professor in Dr. Spencer's department who could possibly be had as the speaker.

Mrs. Duff suggested that we use Africa as an example and enlarge the subject to become foreign policy. This to include colonialism; best way to administer economic aid; neutralism; future of United Nations; how political unison could be worked out, etc., etc.

Mrs. Gale suggested that we have different speakers rather than one.

Mrs. Slocum preferred one speaker. Mrs. Slocum suggested a speaker who would speak almost extemporaneously to tell the news situation behind the news.

Mrs. Stone spoke in behalf of Mrs. Duff's suggestion, and suggested having different speakers to present different sides of the economic slant on foreign policy. She suggested that we brush up on basic ideas of economics first - that we try to get a basis of judgment for ourselves - then have speakers to carry on. She called her subject "economic basis of world problems".

Mrs. Slocum suggested that the past years, when we had one speaker, the year had been more satisfactory.

A long discussion followed, with many suggestions as to how the program committee should proceed. Finally it was the consensus of opinion that the committee be allowed to proceed as in former years - that they try to audit a class of Prof before our next meeting. And that at our next meeting they come with their suggestions.

Respectfully submitted,

Helen Winton Jones.

827 meeting - Jan 12, 1961

A short business meeting was held after Dr. Spencer's final lecture on January 12th, 1961. Mrs. Wurtele reported that she and Mrs. Bovey had talked with Mr. Nulte at the University and learned that Dr. Gibbs was considered an authority on Africa and very much in demand at the present time. He suggested that a class might be auditioned^(?). Mrs. Wurtele and Mrs. Bovey were able to talk with Dr. Gibbs the same morning. He seemed interested but said he would have to know soon as a church group has already approached him. He also said that he would prefer giving all the lectures rather than bring^s in another authority ^{on} foreign policy. He asked whether or not North Africa should be included in the study.

Before a vote was taken, Mrs. Winton remarked that Africa was a timely subject since Dr. Lowe had emphasised in his annual lecture on books at the Minneapolis Club that the future of the world would be decided in Africa.

Mrs. Duff cautioned the group that it would be unwise to lose the opportunity of having such a qualified speaker by delaying a decision.

Mrs. Carpenter moved that Dr. Gibbs be asked to conduct the Study Club in 1961 and that the committee be authorized to arrange the program with him. The motion was seconded and carried.

After a short discussion a motion was made by Mrs. Henry Crosby that the penalty~~for~~ tardiness be increased to fifty cents. The motion was seconded and carried.

There was a short discussion concerning the number of meetings for 1961 but it was agreed to leave the decision until a definite schedule is submitted by Dr. Gibbs.

The meeting adjourned to a pleasant luncheon at the invitation of Mrs. Walker.

Respectfully submitted,

Secy. Pro tem.

828 meeting / do you count social mtg.

Oct 5. Mrs Heffelfinger opened meeting by inviting the Study Club for luncheon at the Woodhull on Oct 19. Dr. Gibbs was introduced by Mrs Wurtels & he immediately gave us a reading test, & proceeded on his interesting lecture on the geography of Africa

Oct 12. The Study Club had its 829 meeting at Mrs John Pillsbury's - Dr. Gibbs talked on Races & Languages in Africa -

Oct 19. - The Study Club held its 830th meeting at the home of Mrs Wurtels - Dr. Gibbs spoke on the general characteristics of Africans on the African Continent - after the meeting, the Club was entertained at luncheon by Mrs Heffelfinger at the Woodhull Club.

Oct 26 - The Study Club met for the 831st time at Mrs. Wurtels - Dr. Gibbs continued his African talks

Nov 2 - The Study Club had its 832nd meeting at Mrs. Morrison's -

Nov 9 - The Study Club had its 833rd meeting at Mrs. ~~Walters~~ ^{Morrison's} - Dr. Gibbs spoke excellently

Nov 16 - The 834th Meeting of the Study Club, held at Mrs. Walters - Again an interesting talk by (over)

Dr. Gibbs.

Nov 30 - The 835th Meeting of the Study Club at Mrs. Walters with Dr. Gibbs as speaker.

Dec 7 - The 836th Meeting of Study Club at Mrs. L. M. Kemp. Dr. Gibbs was the speaker.

Dec 14 - The 837th Meeting of Study Club at Mrs L. M. Kemp - Dr. Gibbs, the speaker.

Jan 4, 1962 - The 838th Meeting of Study Club at Mrs. John Dalrymple - Dr. Gibbs the speaker.

Jan 11, 1962 - The 839th Meeting of Study Club at Mrs John Dalrymple's - the last meeting of the 1961-62 Season - Dr. Gibbs was speaker.

after the meeting 16 members stayed on to discuss next year's program.

Several programs were suggested:

1. Shakespeare given by Bob Moore
2. A Study of Economics as outlined at a previous meeting by Mrs. Stone
3. A Study of Germany
4. A Study of China
5. A Study of So. American Countries.

These 5 programs were voted on separately. Results were not definite except program #1 was given up.

The question was then put up would the members prefer the study of a Country, as opposed to a program on Economics.

The sense of the meeting was that a study of some Country was preferred. It was left to the Program Committee to investigate available speakers, & what country would be practical to choose.

The program Committee is:

Mrs. Brooks chairman

Mrs. Dalrymple

Mrs. Heffelfinger

Mrs. Wurstle

Year 1963-64. Latin America

Oct 3.

852 nd meeting. The first meeting took place at the home of Mrs. John Pillsbury with 25 members present. Prof. Eugene Cotton Mather gave a very interesting report on Latin America. The members then adjourned to Woodhill for a dutch treat luncheon followed by the election of a new member Mrs. Edward Brooks. Mrs. Pillsbury invited the Club to luncheon at her home following the meeting on Oct. 10. In the absence of the secretary the vice pres. Mrs. Little took the minutes.

853 Oct 10 - Prof. Roy Francis spoke on the People of Latin America - emphasizing the alarming population explosion and urging a better understanding of their culture & ideas. There were 28 members present including our new member who had accepted her invitation to join. Luncheon followed the meeting at Mrs. Pillsbury's home.

854 - Oct 17. Prof. Donald W. Beatty gave us the first of two lectures on the Colonial Heritage and background of Castorism - this time the political aspects, contrasting development in Latin America under Spanish rule with that of North America under the British. There were 28 members present - and the meeting was followed by luncheon at Woodhill with President King & Secretary - Treas. Lyman as hostesses.

Oct 24 - Prof. Beatty continued his discussion of last week, stressing the Economic aspects of the colonial Heritage - and the effect of the Spanish practices carried out in trade and agriculture. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. J. Winton Jr. and was followed by luncheon. There were 26 members present.

856 - Oct 31 - The Study Club met again at the home of Mrs. Winton with 28 members present. Before introducing our speaker of the day

Professor Walter W. Klein, the president brought up a conflict which had arisen between our meeting (scheduled for Nov 21st) and the annual meeting of the Friends of the Institute, which was to be followed by a special program and luncheon honoring Carl Henshaw who has recently resigned as director of the Institute. Mrs King explained that our program chairman Mrs Phelps had already explained the situation to Dr. Beatty, our scheduled speaker - and he had graciously offered to postpone his scheduled talk to Dec. 19th. Mrs King and Mrs Morrison both offering their home for the meeting. It was decided by a show of hands to postpone the meeting to Dec. 19th at the home of Mrs. King.

Professor Klein then gave us a clear and well organized talk on Mexico and Inter-American Relations, stressing basic factors for understanding Mexican attitudes toward the U.S. and their role in Inter American affairs. There were 28 members present.

857. Nov. 7th The Club met at the home of Mrs Arthur M. Hartwell with 25 members present and one out of town Mrs Cavour Truesdale. Professor Walter W. Klein gave the second of his two lectures on Mexico and Central America; this time the subject covered was Central America, Panama and their Common Market. The five states comprising Central America excluding Panama, with their historical background of Spanish rule and, after the revolution, fragmentation, and the political and economic developments since, were the basis of his talk. He discussed the problems, the ~~benefits~~ ^{results} so far, and the benefits to be expected from the Common Market which has recently gone into effect.

858. Nov 14th Twenty-seven members of the Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hartwell to hear Professor Rodolfo O. Floripe speak on "Latin American Culture". In spite of the enormous scope of his subject and the impossibility of covering it adequately in one lecture - he managed to give us - a sparkling and wholly delightful survey of the developments in literature, art and architecture - and also touching on music, from the time of the conquest to the present.

859. Dec. 5th Dean William M. Myers spoke to the Study Club at the home of Mrs. Carl W. Jones. His subject was "Agricultural Problems", with emphasis on Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador & Peru, and he was well qualified to deal with it thru his long experience with the Rockefeller Foundation in Latin America. He explained why we should be concerned about the problems and stressed the importance of helping these countries develop their own agricultural institutions to train their own people which will be a long term project. There were 21 members present.

860. Dec 12th The Study club met at the home of Mrs. Russell Bennett with 20 members present. Professor Donald Beatty was our speaker - and his subject, "Brazil an Awakening Nation". Furnishing us with the historical background of this great land mass, with its population massed along the coast especially in the two great cities of Sao Paulo & Rio, he went on to cover its recent political history - and some of the economic problems facing this Portuguese speaking republic. Problems, too, of illiteracy, health, inadequate housing - and transportation - all add up to a picture that is anything but bright, - along with the controversial new capital Brasilia, which may turn out to be a white elephant, and lead to galloping inflation. His lecture was informative but disturbing - about the future of Brazil. At Mrs. Bennett's invitation it was decided to hold the Dec 19th meeting at her house instead of Mrs. King's, who will be away at the time.

861. Dec 19. The postponed meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Bennett with only 14 members present, the nearness to Christmas, the flu and the below zero weather all interfering with attendance. Dr. Beatty, who had graciously changed the date of his lecture to allow us to attend the Friends of the Institute Annual Meeting, gave a most informative talk on the "European" countries of Southern South America. Those members who were able to attend found it a most rewarding morning. We had a Christmas gift in the appearance of one of our out of town members, Martha Wapman, who had been a regular attendant at the past meetings too.

862. Jan 9th The Study Club met again at the home of Mrs. Bennett with 20 members present. Our speaker of the day was Prof. John S. Chipman whose subject was Venezuela and Foreign Investment. Starting with 1956 and the granting of oil concessions to U.S. companies in return for a huge two year payment - much of which was foolishly wasted - he went on to the effects of closing the Suez canal on Venezuelan oil - and the problems that have faced their government since that time - with expenditures exceeding revenues, the impact of Castro, the unwillingness of Latin Americans to invest their money at home - and the government's relations with the U.S. oil companies, resulting in the stopping of new drilling and the depletion of their oil reserves. He also spoke of their large foreign deposits and plans to build up their own steel industry. The recent peaceful transition of the elected democratic government should build up confidence, but this prognosis was hardly a rosylene.

The members were reminded of Mrs. Heffelfinger's invitation to stay to luncheon following next week's meeting at her home.

863 Jan 16th - The final meeting of the Study Club for 1963-64 took place at Mrs George Hiffenegers with the weather, the speaker, and the readily bird population cooperating with the hostess to make the meeting and luncheon following a delight full occasion. There were 19 members present.

Our president, Mrs King, called the meeting to order and before introducing our speaker, discussed the program for next year, which had already been voted upon at the spring meeting at Mrs Allen's on May 28, 1963. She reminded us that Prof. Starrow who is at present in Russia, has agreed to give us a course of lectures on that country next fall. and she explained that Mrs Phelps, our present program chairman who discussed the matter with him, will complete arrangements upon his return to this country. For next year the program committee will consist of Mrs Phelps and another member to be

Mrs. F. Crosby named later, and Mrs. King & Hartwell as Co-Chairmen. As there seems to be no need for a spring meeting, none will be held unless an emergency arises.

Mrs. King then introduced Miss Barbara Stubler who had spoken to us so well on the Common Market just a year ago. She proceeded to give us a splendid talk on the Alliance for Progress, dividing it into three categories, the selling, the motives behind it - and last, a balance sheet of its debits and credits. Her lecture was not only illuminating - about the Alliance for Progress which, while producing no miracle, lets us hopefully look forward to some progression, but she also brought into focus U.S. and Latin American relations - and gave us an excellent summing up of our course of twelve lectures on Latin America. Had she been a less enthralled speaker our attention might have wandered to the back drop of birds at the feeding station - but she definitely won out!

Study Club 1964_65

1964-1965

Aspecial meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Little On Friday, August 14, at 10 o'clock. Twenty members were present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Little. The minutes of the meeting of Jan. 16 were read and approved. Mrs. Hartwell, chairman of the program committee, stated that Mrs. Phelps had arranged with Prof. Stavrou before he left for Russia to give a series of lectures to us upon his return. He expected to be back in this country not later than September 15, when he would contact Mrs. Phelps to arrange dates and topics. As his wife and family have been in Cyprus Mrs. Phelps wrote to him but has been unable to reach him. Mrs. Covey moved, the motion seconded and passed that the printing of the programs be left until Prof. Stavrou's return. Notices of the first meeting in October ^{8th at the residence of Mrs. Edward Brooks} will be mailed ^{to the members}.

Due to the conflicting dates with the Friends of the Institute meetings it was moved, seconded and passed that the program committee arrange to add two extra meetings of the Study Club wherever they can best be fitted into the program.

Mrs. Little then read Mrs. Slocum's letter of resignation. Mrs. Covey moved its acceptance with regret stating that Mrs. ^{Slocum} had been a valuable member of our club and that she will be ^{greatly} missed.

The motion was seconded and passed.

Mrs. Little stated that Mrs. Slocum's resignation leaves one vacancy in the club membership. She asked that names be submitted for discussion. Eight names were considered.

Mrs. Pillsbury moved; seconded by Mrs. Dalrymple and carried, that each member vote on five names. Any name receiving ten or more votes is nominated. The six names who received ten votes were now put ^{up} for election. Mrs. John Marfield was unanimously elected to membership.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT - Meeting September 30, '66 held at Helen Morrison's-

This meeting was held for the election of two new members (since Bertha Walker and Kimmy Whitney have resigned). Nine new members were proposed, and the following four were kept on the voting slate by popular demand (receiving the two-thirds vote): Marion Cross, Marcy Nash, Mary Wells, and Fifa Wilson. Marcy Nash was voted in as one new member.

The heat was oppressive, the barometer falling, and the wind was rising. Wiping the sweat from her brow our president, Helen Morrison wisely suggested postponing the remainder of the election to a cooler day. It was decided by vote to finish the election at the October 19th meeting, to be held at Markell Brooks's.

It was proposed for the October 19th meeting to vote on two changes in the constitution:

1) That preferential vote shall constitute the election of a new member;

2) To increase the membership to thirty-two members.

At the October 19th meeting ^{an} new member, or members, to be elected, according to the second proposal's outcome.?

It was moved and passed that dues be raised to $22.00 a year.

in the bank.

It was moved and seconded That our dues be raised to $25.00 for the coming season. Carried General discussion about the program of lectures for the season 1969-70 ensued in order to give the Program Committee more time to investigate and arrange future lectures. The following subjects and/or lecturers were suggested: African Culture, Philosophy, Dr. Armajani (no subject determined) and Dr. Blue (no subject). After full discussion a show of hands indicated that the members favored either Dr. Armajani or Dr. Blue (a tie), Philosophy (9), African Culture (4). A special Committee was instructed to investigate these programs so that the Program Committee might know what was available.

After adjournment our hostess gave us a delightful and delicious luncheon al fresco.

Brooks, Jones, Duff, Young, Pillsbury, Partridge, Marfield, King, Hartwell, Lyman and Stone.

Mrs. Dalrymple gave us a delightful luncheon. Thereafter the meeting was called to order and the minutes of the last business meeting of July 11, 1968 were read and the following corrections made: 1. Among those attending were also Mrs Gale, Mrs Marfield and Mrs. Dalrymple. And 2. "Bob" Moore should be properly identified as "Professor Robert E. Moore" who lectured to the Club during this season on Shakespeare.

The treasurer's report showed a balance at the First National Bank of $172.36 - (which has been reconciled subsequently with the bank.)

Mrs. King, chairman of the Program Committee for the 1969 season reported that Dr. Feigh and Professor Penn would lecture to us on philosophy. The schedule of lectures will be set up later.

It was moved and seconded that the Study Club pay Professor Moore for the lecture which was postponed on account of bad weather. (He could not be reached on the telephone and arrived at the house to lecture) After discussion this motion was defeated.

July 16th

The 914th meeting of the Study Club was a business meeting held at the home of the President, Mrs. Pillsbury, on Wednesday morning, July 16th, at eleven o'clock. Notice of the purpose of the meeting, to hear the report of the Program Committee and to elect a new member to fill the first vacancy to occur, had been duly given by mail more than two weeks in advance.

Mrs. Pillsbury called the meeting to order. Nineteen members were present: Mrs. dames Edward Brooks, Case, Henry Crosby, Cross, Dalrymple, Duff, Gale, Leffelfinger, Hudson, Jones, Lyman, Morrison, Nash, Partridge, Phelps, Pillsbury, Plimpton, Stone and Young. The minutes of the January 10th meeting, which included the Treasurer's report, were approved as amended to add Mrs. Edward Brooks's name to those present.

In the absence of Mrs. King, Chairman of the Program Committee, Mrs. Duff gave the report. Due to Dr. Feigle's illness, the original plans had to be altered. Mr. Frederick Schepman will give five lectures on "Problems of Education" and Mr. Micha Penn will give five talks on Philosophy. The meetings will be on Wednesday afternoons, from two-thirty to four o'clock, beginning October first, at places to be announced in the booklet. Mrs. Henry Crosby moved the acceptance of the program as presented and the dates. The motion was seconded and carried.

A motion by Mrs. Phelps to continue the annual dues at $25.⁰⁰ for this year was seconded by Mrs. Dalrymple and carried.

Three nominations for the next member were made. Subsequently, a motion by Mrs. Jones to close the nominations was seconded by Mrs. Hudson and carried. Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Gale were the election tellers. Mrs. Sewall Andrews was elected and will be invited to join when a vacancy occurs.

There being no further business, the Business Meeting Jan. 8, 1970

The 925th meeting of the Study Club was ~~the January~~ business meeting held at the home of Mrs. Walymple on Wednesday afternoon, January 8th, at two-thirty o'clock. It was called to order by the new president, Mrs. Stone. Twenty-four members were present: Mesdames Andrews, Bennett, Bovey, Robert Brooks, Case, Covey, Franklin Crosby, Henry Crosby, Cross, Dalrymple, Gale, Heffelfinger, Hudson, Jones, King, Little, Lyman, Marfield, Morrison, Partridge, Phelps, Phrimpton, Stone, and Young.

The minutes of the July 16th, 1969, meeting were approved as read.

Mrs. Jones reported on her investigation into the program of alumni seminars at Macalaster. She spoke with Dr. Kenneth Goodrich and who suggested four faculty members who give courses outside the college:

Patricia Kane, professor of English, who speaks on 4 Southern writers

Charles Green, who lectures on political science, with emphasis on liberalism, on & off campus

W. Harley King,

lyric poetry

Hildegard Johnson,

ecology & environmental control

Mrs. Stone ~~accepted~~ acknowledged this report with thanks, and there was discussion of the possibilities presented.

Mrs. Bovey reminded the group of the enthusiasm felt by everyone for Dr. Blue when he lectured to us two years ago, and suggested a subject in which he would be fluent.

Interest was expressed in China, especially by Mrs. Dalrymple. Mrs. Lyman recalled hearing Prof. Dorothy Dodge speak on this subject some time ago.

Mrs. Little moved a return to morning meetings if at all possible. The motion was seconded by Mrs. Henry Crosby and carried.

Mrs. Lyman brought up the name of Toni Mc Naren, who lectures on English literature at the University. She has heard her over KUOM and finds her extremely interesting. This opinion was echoed by Mrs. Calk and Mrs. Warfield.

China as a topic of interest brought a show of 20 hands.

Mrs. Phelps suggested that the new theology might be a topic of interest. There was further discussion of philosophy, an extension of this year's study. Eight hands were raised for this as a possibility.

In a subsequent preferential vote, China received 18 votes, second choice went to the political climate of the world, with 13 votes. Philosophy received 4 votes of those then present.

Mrs. Dalrymple reminded the ~~club~~ that a new member should be chosen at the next meeting.

An invitation was extended by Mrs. Heffelfinger to hold the Spring meeting at her home, followed by luncheon.

A motion to adjourn was made by Mrs. Henry Crosby at 3:55 p.m., seconded and carried.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy J. Plimpton

Business Meeting May 12, 1970

The 926th meeting of the Study Club was a business meeting held at the home of Mrs Heffelfinger on Tuesday morning May 12th at 11 o'clock. Notice of the purpose of the meeting, (to hear the report of the Program Committee, and to elect a new member to fill a vacancy) had been given by mail two weeks in advance.

The President Mrs Stone, called the meeting to order. Twenty members were present: mesdames Andrews, Robert Brooks, Case, Covey, Henry Croby, Cross, Duff, Gale, Heffelfinger, Hudson, Lowe, Lyman, Morrison, Nash, Phelps, Pillsbury, Plimpton, Stone and Young.

The minutes of the January 8th business meeting were approved as read. Mrs Covey thanked Mrs Plimpton for the best notes ever written. All please.

The Treasurer reported $189.¹⁴ in the bank. Mrs Little asked if any fines had been collected from members that were late to meetings. Mrs Stone said that no record of that had been kept. Mrs Covey suggested that hereafter a record be kept and members that are late be fined 50¢ each time they are late as heretofore.

Mrs Stone then turned the chair over to Miss Cross, chairman of the Program Committee. The other members of that committee are Mrs Case, Mrs Andrews and Mrs Heffelfinger.

Mrs Cross first read a newspaper article saying that two faculty members of the University of Minnesota had each been given an award of $500 and that we would be interested to know that one of the professors thus honored was Mr Penn, our lecturer on Philosophy last year.

Mrs Cross then announced that our lecturer this fall will be Professor Richard N. Blue who had talked to us in 1967 on Southeast Asia. He said he remembers us with pleasure and as it is his Sabbatical year he would be quite free and would be delighted to talk on the subject of China and cultural and ~~Political~~ Political Changes under Communism. As his field is Southeast Asia and India he has to Keep abreast of conditions in China. Applause.

Professor Blue thinks that at least a few lectures would be needed on background and that in 11 lectures altogether he would be able to cover his subject. If we wanted anything on Chinese Art at least 2 lectures would be needed and that he could find us an expert to do this. The sense of the meeting was that we would just like Professor Blue to talk on Cultural and Political Changes in China.

He gave Miss Cross a reading list of 4 books - all paper backs - and some extra material to read if we cared to. Miss Cross will mail the members a copy of the list.

The lectures will be held on Wednesday at 10:30 A.M. - one hour of lecture and one half hour for questions - starting on Oct 7 and ending Dec 16.

However, if we want 11 lectures rather than the usual ten, we could have the extra meeting on Sept 30 or else on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving Day. A discussion was held on this subject and finally Mrs Phelps moved that 11 lectures be held. Mrs Crosby seconded the motion which was carried.

Mrs Andrews moved that we have the extra lecture on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. Mrs Nash seconded the motion and it was carried.

Mrs Heffelfinger then moved that we have the extra meeting in January and this was seconded by Mrs Duff. But the President ruled that this motion would be illegal unless the former motion by Mrs Andrews was rescinded. This ~~later~~ motion by Mrs Heffelfinger was dropped.

Mrs Louie made a motion seconded by Mrs Henry Crosby that our dues for this year be the same as last year - $2.50. The motion was seconded and carried.

Mrs Phelps suggested that the Secretary send a note to all members to bring their dues to the first meeting.

Another suggestion was made to put a notice in the program booklet to that effect.

But Mrs Phelps said she wanted the pleasure.

of sending out the notices herself, as it makes it so much easier for the Secretary when all dues are paid in at the first meeting.

A discussion was then held about having Miss Cross order the books wanted from Perrines - that is, all at one time.

Mrs Pillsbury finally moved that we each take care of ordering our own books. Mrs Morrison seconded the motion, Carried.

Mrs Stone then turned the matter over to Mrs. Deuff to run the preferential voting system for the new member.

Seven nominations were made from the floor. Then a motion to close the nominations made by Mrs. Nash and seconded by Mrs Case was carried.

Mrs Gale and Mrs _____ were the election tellers.

Mrs H. Terry Morrison was elected and will be invited to join by the Secretary.

A show of hands decided that we would not vote at this meeting for an alternate in case Mrs Morrison is unable to accept.

There being no further business a motion to adjourn was made by Mrs Andrews, seconded by Mrs Heffelfinger and carried.

Mrs Heffelfinger then entertained us by a delightful luncheon.

Respectfully submitted,

Sidney W. Young, Secretary

The 931st meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Sumner B. Young.

Mrs Stone called the meeting to order and told us that Dr Blue had a documentary film about China that would last about 22 minutes to show. It would cost about $20.00 and Dr Blue would like to start the meeting at 10:15 - instead of 10:30 A.M., at the home of Mrs John Pellsbury.

Dr Blue then explained that the film was made several years ago and put on National Television - put out by newspaper correspondents Theodore White and Edgar Snow. It covers from the Boxer Rebellion to the establishment of Communist China in 1949. None of it is faked. It is divided in 3 parts and Dr Blue suggested he show the first 2 parts. The last part about contemporary China might be shown if we care for it either next week or at some later meeting.

Mrs Bennett moved and the motion was seconded that the film be shown and that the meeting be started at 10:15. Motion carried. However after some more discussion Mrs. Pellsbury preferred not to have the meeting start until 10:30 as she has guests leaving that morning.

Another motion was made and carried that the meeting start at 10:30 and continue until 12:15.

Dr Blue then talked on the period of Revolutions from 1911 until 1927 and the beginning of Nationalism and the Chinese Republic.

Attendance: Mesdames Andrews, Bennett, Robert
Brooks, Edward Brooks, Case, Covey, Franklin Crosby,

The 932nd meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs John Pillsbury.

Dr Blue showed some very interesting movies of China during the early period of the Nanking Kuomintang government, the Long March of Mao Tse Tung, the evacuation of the Chinese to Chungking and the Communist Revolution. ^{a documentary} put out by the British Encyclopaedia with Theodore White

The 934th meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Samuel Andrews Jr. Mrs Young kept away. The minutes were taken by Mrs Duff. Because of the absence of Mr Blue from Dec 11 through Dec 16 we decided to hold our business meeting Dec 16 at Mrs Hudson. The last lecture ^{by Mr Blue} will be held Jan 13 at Mrs Dalrymple's

Attendance: - Only 14 - Mesdames Andrews,
Brooks, Corey, Cresley & M, Cross, Duff, Hartwell
Heffelfinger, Hudson, Little, Lyman, A.W. Morrison and Phelps

Dec 2 1970

The 935th meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Carl Jones.

Mrs Morrison invited Mr and Mrs Blue, and all of the Club with husband or son or any ^{any} boyfriends for dinner at her house on

Jan 14.

Mrs Hudson invited The whole club to

Dr. Blue talked on the Social and Economic Development of China

Dec 16 1970

The 937th meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Walter Hudson.

Attendance: - all but three members
Dr. Blue was sorry this was our last lecture. He is going to India next year for his sabbatical but he hoped we would ask him in the future sometime to lecture again.
If we cared to carry on with the subject of China, he recommended very highly a Professor at the University
Robert Poor whose specialty is Chinese Art.

Dr. Blue's last lecture at this meeting was especially interesting on the Chinese Foreign Policy.

After a most interesting question hour we were adjourned and Mrs Hudson served a most delicious luncheon.

Business Meeting

The 938th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Dalrymple.

Attendance: - Mesdames Andrews, Bennett, Boney, Robert Brooks, Covey, Fran Blum Crosby, Cross Dalrymple, Duff, Hastwell King, Marfeld, Angus Morrison, H. Terry Morrison, Nash, Partridge, Stone and Young.

The President, Mrs Stone, called the meeting to order.

She announced that Mrs. Winton, the 1971 President, would like to have the whole Study Club for luncheon at the business meeting in May or June when the Program Committee will announce the Program for the coming Fall Session.

She then announced that the Treasurer would collect the fines ($5.00 a time) from those members who had been late at the meetings this last year.

The Secretary and Treasurer (Mrs Young) read the Treasurers Report and Minutes of the business meeting of May 12, 1970. Both reports were accepted.

as corrected.

Mrs Stone then asked for suggestions from the floor on the subject and lecturer for next Fall in order to help the Program Committee.

Mrs Dalrymple is the Chairman of the Program Committee. The other members of the Committee are Miss Cross, Mrs Bennett and Mrs Nash.

Mrs Dalrymple first said that Mrs. Pillsbury, who was absent, had told her to say that she - Mrs Pillsbury - was very anxious to have Swartz Walder talk on The Middle East.

Other suggestions from the floor were Charles Nolte on The Modern Drama. Robert Poor of The University of Minnesota (recommended by Dr Blue) on Chinese Art. Dr Kann on Religions of The East. Miss Carrie M^e Naughton on Literature.

(Spencer, Chaucer or Shakespeare)
Philosophy again, maybe with Dr Feistal
(Several "Nos" from The floor)
Shakespeare again with Bob Moore
Revolutions in History.

Famous Men of different countries & centuries
Sokingly Mrs Bennett: "Why not Famous Women"
(Laughter)

Germany or some other Country by Dr Deutsch

A discussion was then held on the various subjects.

The sense of the meeting was that Revolutions in History should be left to Dr Blue talk on the American Revolution as we hope to have him next year.

It was thought to be too difficult to have Dr Poor on Chinese Art as most of our houses are not equipped to project slides. To rent a room in the Minneapolis Institute of Arts or in the Walker Gallery did not appeal to us. However Mrs Dalrymple will ask Dr Blue how Dr Poor would plan to show pictures, as being at least courteous to Dr Blue for her suggestion.

Mrs King and others were most enthusiastic about Charles Nolte on Modern Drama. Mrs Dalrymple remarked that he might even want to include Movies in his talk as that seems to be the Art of the Future. Mrs King added that as long as Mr Nolte was such a fascinating lecturer it was almost more important to have a good lecturer than the actual subject talked upon. Besides Mrs

King said that he was so good-looking that that was almost enough in itself.

On the subject of Dr Kann and Religion, several people were not sure whether he would be a good lecturer for a small group.

Dr Deutsch on Germany ^{was} ~~not~~ well thought of.

It was finally decided to star
Charles Nolte as being the first choice of the majority.

Bob Moore was starred as second choice in case Mr Nolte was unable to do it. Bob Moore could talk almost as well on Modern Drama as Mr Nolte.

Dr Deutsch was starred as third choice.

The Committee on Programs was asked to work on these three names in order of choice.

A ^{vote of thanks} ~~standing applause~~ was called for the retiring President, Mrs Stone.

Mrs Morrison made a motion for adjournment. Motion seconded.

On January 13th, 1971, Mrs Angus Morrison gave a party at her house for all the members of The Study Club and their husbands and she also invited Dr Blue and Mrs Blue who is most charming.

After cocktails and a delicious buffet dinner Mrs Morrison (who had obtained the 2 Beel Movie on China that we saw at Mrs Pillsbury's mating) asked Dr. Blue to present it and talk on it.

This was a lovely party + interesting for us to see the movie again and for the husbands and those who had not seen it.

The 939th meeting of the Study Club met on May 26 at the home of the President, Mrs. Charles S. Winton, at 12 noon with luncheon after the meeting.

Present - Mesdames Bennett, Bovey, Brooks, Case, Franklin Crosby, Henry Crosby, Cross, Dalrymple, Duff, Hartwell, Heffelfinger, Hudson, Jones, Little, Lyman, Marfield, Angus Morrison, Nash, Phelps, Pillsbury, Stone, Winton and Young.

Mrs. Winton called the meeting to order. There were two purposes for the meeting; to discuss the program and to elect a new member to fill the place of our beloved member, Mrs. Robert L. Brooks, who died since the last meeting.

The hostesses for our autumn meeting are all fixed. Bob Moore is to be the lecturer on drama. He recommends a book entitled Masters of Modern Drama - price ^{10.95} $7.00 which can be ordered from Perrons Book Store at the University.

Mrs. Hartwell and Mrs. Duff were put in charge of the preferential voting system for the new member. Tellers: Mrs. Young, Mrs. F. M. Crosby, Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Hartwell and Mrs. Duff. The new member chosen was Mrs. Thomas Crosby.

The Secretary, Mrs. Andrews, is to write a letter to Mrs. Crosby asking her to join the Study Club.

Also the Secretary is to have ready a notice to members that the dues are $25.00 - said notice to be sent with the programs when they are mailed.

The President then called for the minutes of the last meeting and the Treasurer's report. There was a motion to skip the minutes and the vote was unanimous.

The Treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Mrs. Nash announced that the lectures will start on October 7, will skip Thanksgiving and end December 16.

The meeting was adjourned and we all sat down for a delicious luncheon.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Sumner B. Young (in place of Mrs. Andrews who was unable to be present.)

Oct 7, 1971 - The 940th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mr. John Pillsbury. Mrs. Winton welcomed our new member, Mr. Thomas Crosby, and spoke of the loss to the club in the death of Mr. Edward Brooks. Mr. Robert Moore was introduced as our lecturer for this year's study of the Modern Theatre. He spoke of the character of modern drama - and of Ibsen.

Business meeting followed:

Mr. Young moved meeting on Oct. 28 to vote in a new member. Passed.

Mrs. Nash moved to vote on Oct. 28 whether to increase the membership up to 35 or not. The members to be elected at a later date - Passed.

25 members Present - Resp. Sec. Katherine Andrews

Oct 14 - The 941st meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mr. Wyman. Only 15 members were present, largely due to a conflict with a Friends of the Institute Program. Mrs. Winton reminded the members that next week's meeting would begin at ten, to accommodate those who wish to go on to the meeting of the Garden Club.

Mr. Moore spoke on Chekhov, "The Sea Gull" and "The Cherry Orchard"

Nov 18 - The 945th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Angus Morrison. 21 members were present. Mr. Moore discussed Brecht, the epic theatre, Marxist drama and innovations in production.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine Andrews-

Dec 2. The 946th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mr. Carl Jones. 20 members were present. Mr. Moore spoke on O'Neill and Wilder - mid-century drama.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine Andrews-

Dec 9 - The 947th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Lyndon King. 17 members attended. Mr. Moore's subject was Osborne and Camus: existentialism.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine Andrews-

Dec 16 - The 948th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Sumner Young - 17 members were present, and Mr. Moore's subject was Beckett and Ionesco: The Theatre of the Absurd.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine Andrews.

Dec 30 - The 949th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Winton. Only 10 members were present, as many are out of town. This meeting was held on this date to take the place of the Oct. 21st meeting which was cancelled due to Mr. Moore's illness. Mr. Moore discussed the Irish playwrights Synge and O'Casey.

We feel that Mr. Moore struggled manfully with a difficult subject and deserves our special thanks.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine Andrews.

Business meeting at the home of Mr. John Dalrymple. This was the 950th meeting, and 25 members were present.

Mrs. Winton moved, and it was seconded, to omit reading the minutes of the last annual meeting - Motion carried.

Three new members were elected to the Study Club: Mrs. Benton Case, Mr. John Pillsbury, Jr. and Mr. John Dalrymple, Jr. The Tellers were Mrs. Franklin Crosby, Dana Stone, Arthur Hartwell, Thomas Crosby, and Merritt Case. The secretary was instructed to write to the prospective members.

Mrs. Winton turned the meeting over to Mr. Sumner Young, the next President.

The Program Committee, Mrs. Plimpton, Chairman, Mr. Lyman and Mr. Stone, reported that Dr. Blue had been suggested for the year 1972, the subject of his lectures being the History of Revolutions bringing it up to the present. Dr. Blue was approved.

Mr. Jones moved, Mrs. Dalrymple seconded, to let the Program Committee decide on the program and lecturer in case Dr. Blue cannot come.

Miss Cross moved to find out what day the Study Club should meet - Wednesday if possible. Motion seconded & carried - This would depend on what day the lecturer-to-be can give us.

Miss Cross moved, Mr. Henry Crosby seconded, to accept the treasurer's report. Motion carried,
and the meeting was adjourned.

1974 - 1975

The 975th meeting of The Study Club was held on June 14th, 1974 at Woodhill. 27 members were present.

Mrs. Merritt Case, president, presided.

The minutes of the January 2, 1974, meeting were approved as read.

The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. Thomas Crosby. The balance was $209.19.

Mrs. Knoblauch, program chairman, reported on the proposed 1974 - 75 program. Professors Blue and Lundsten will share the lectures on the subject: Middle East Politics. Outlines were passed out and a list of books for suggested reading was presented.

The first meeting will be on October 2nd.

The proposed program was enthusiastically accepted by the members present. Mrs. Bennett congratulated the program committee on doing "a whiz of a job". Special credit goes to Mrs. Knoblauch for her ground work and the excellent final proposal.

Mrs. Wells asked that members volunteer as hostesses for this year and indicate their preference for a meeting date. Then the tentative Schedule was read.

Mrs. Case read a note from Mrs. Charles Winton Jr. asking that her resignation be accepted.

A motion was made by Mrs. Howard and seconded by Mrs. Wells to accept Mrs. Winton's resignation with regret and to instruct the secretary to write a note to Mrs. Winton. Motion carried.

It was decided to wait until the January (1975) meeting to fill the vacancy and to vote on new members.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned, to be followed by cocktails and a delicious luncheon with Mrs. C. Merritt Case as hostess.

October 2 - 1974

The 976th meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Sewall Andrews, Jr., 21 members were present.

Mrs. Merritt Case, president, announced that Mrs. Justus Lowe, a long-time and very active member of the Club, had passed away in August.

A letter from Mrs. H. T. Morrison was read indicating Mrs. Morrison's wish to resign as a member of the Club. She did so with regret, but found meetings interfered with other obligations. Her resignation was accepted with regret.

Members were asked to think of new members as there were now 3 vacancies to be filled at the business meeting in January. This meeting is to be held at Mrs. J. S. Dalrymple, Sr.'s on January 6, 1975.

Mrs. Knoblauch then introduced Dr. Richard Blue. He with Prof. Lundsten will give this year's lectures on Middle East Politics. Prof. Blue outlined the lectures. Prof. Lundsten spoke on the Unifying Factors of the Islamic Tradition - (1) Muhammad, (2) The Arab Tradition, (3) Islamic Tradition. Questions and discussion followed.

October 9 - 1974

The 977th meeting of The Study Club was held at Mrs. John S. Pillsbury, Sr.'s house. Mrs. Lundsten lectured on the decentralization of rule in the world ruled by Muslims, 22 members attended.

October 16 - 1974

This is the 978th meeting of The Study Club, 23 members met at Mrs. Frederick Lyman's home.

Mr. Blue and Mrs. Lundsten commented and answered questions on the film that was shown. Members had agreed to have the film at a cost of $50. However, the cost actually came to $75.

The movie showed the exodus of Arabs and their resistance. Made by Palestinians, therefore, heavily prejudiced and pro-Palestinians.

October 23 - 1974

Twenty-four members attended the 979th meeting of The Study Club at the home of Mrs. Plimpton. Mrs. Lundsten traced various Movements affecting the present volatile situation in the Mideast. Zionism, Palestinian Guerilla Movement, PLO, Black September group, PFLP, Arafat seems to be leader of PLO group which is recognized representative to U.N.

October 29 - 1974

Twenty-five members attended the 980th meeting of The Study Club. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Sumner Young. Mr. Blue explained the present social, economic and political structure in Israel and the inherent domestic problem of today.

November 6 - 1974

The 981st meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Lyndon King, 21 members were present. Mrs. Lundsten lectured on the countries - Lebanon, Iraq and Syria - The Fertile Crescent.

November 13 - 1974

The 982nd meeting of The Study Club was held at Mrs. Benton Case's house, 23 members were present. Mrs. Lundsten lectured on Saudi Arabia and the more traditional Arab countries on the Arabian peninsula. Questions related to the current political developments and problems between Palestinians and Israelis. Also Arafat's presence this week at the United Nations in New York City was discussed.

November 20 - 1974

The 983rd meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Crosby, with 22 members in attendance. Prof. Blue lectured on East (Russia) - West (U.S.-Europe) influences in Mid-East affecting Israeli Arab power balance. Hopefully situation will change from one of conflict to one of cooperation, esp. to develop economic situation in separate countries. Nationalism strong now in Egypt and Syria in particular.

Dec 4 - 1974

The 984th meeting of The Study Club was held at Mrs. Russell Bennett's home, 26 members were present. Mary Ellen Lundsten discussed the new Arab unity and their newly resurgent confidence and sense of self-esteem. Questions from members led to Prof. Lundsten's statement that in her opinion Israel could be planning a war next spring to break down this new Arab confidence and fragile unity. Kissinger's credibility and status weakening in eyes of both Arabs and Jews. Egypt turning back to Russia for help. Therefore, a war could lead to U.S.-Russia confrontation diplomatically and physically in Mediterranean where Russia now has equal naval strength. Prof. Blue then introduced the complicated subject of oil, producers, marketers and consumers. To be continued at the next meeting. Mrs. Bennett had invited Study Club members and the speakers Dr. Blue and Prof. Lundsten to stay for luncheon. We had a lovely time and good food and conversation.

December 11 - 1974

The 985th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Carl Jones. Twenty-five members were present.

Dr. Blue discussed the changes in U.S. influence in the Arab world. Arab nations building internally - strong nationalism - resulting both U.S. and Russia influence. The PLO - Palestinians - led by Arafat is a force which U.S. cannot cope with politically. Saudi Arabia and Iran hope for a West Bank State for Palestinians. Zionist lobby strong in U.S. and the danger of anti-semiticism in U.S. exists.

June 16. A business meeting at the home of Mrs. Sumner B. Young, president, marked the 951st meeting of the Study Club - its purpose to elect a new member and to hear the report of the nominating Committee. Mrs. Plimpton, Chairman, reported on her correspondence with Prof. Blue, which confirmed his intention to be our guest lecturer in the autumn. Causes of political instability in south and southeast Asia as well as the Aspects of Revolution in general were discussed as possible topics. The consensus of the meeting was to trust Prof. Blue to choose his topic, as there was confidence that his choice would be wise as well as interesting. Mrs. Plimpton plans to write to him again to ask him for a book list. He will not be returning to Minn. until Sept. 1st. The same dues as in recent years, $25⁰⁰ a person will cover the ten or eleven lectures at $75⁰⁰ each. Mrs. Charles Pierson was elected to membership, making a total of 35 members. Tellers were Mrs. Duff, T. Crosby, F. Crosby and C. M. Case. The secretary was instructed to write a letter to Mrs. Pierson. After the meeting adjourned the 23 members present today stayed at Mrs. Young's for a delicious luncheon. Respectfully submitted, 1972 - 73.

The 952nd meeting of the Study Club was held on October 5 at the home of Mrs. John Pillsbury. 25 members were present. Mrs. Young introduced Professor Richard N. Blue who will be our lecturer for this year, his topic "On Revolution." Professor Blue and his family have just spent a year in Jaipur, India where he was a visiting professor at the University of Rajasthan. He spoke briefly of the India - Pakistan war, the U.S. aircraft carrier Enterprise sent to the Bay of Bengal during the war and of problems he may very likely encounter in the future as an American scholar studying India. In spite of many inconveniences and real problems because of the war Professor Blue found the experience ^{of his year in India} ~~very~~ ^{intensely} interesting. The first lecture was a presentation of the origins of "revolution", its place in history, what it is not and what signs or preconditions are ~~necessary~~ ^{evident} before a revolution can occur. He indicated that as communication between nations and peoples expands, so too may revolutions expand.

The 953rd meeting of the Study Club was held at Mrs. Duff's on Thurs. Oct. 12 - 25 members were present. Prof. Blue's topic today was "The Revolutionary Personality, both as to a revolutionary leader and his followers and the aspects of personality and life experience thought to be significant - He used Hitler and Gandhi as particular examples of leaders of mass movements -

The 954th meeting of the Study Club was held at 9:30 on Thurs. Oct. 19th at Mrs. Thomas Crosby's, one hour early because of the annual meeting of the Garden Club - 20 members were present. Prof. Blue spoke to us on "Radicalism in American Thought", explaining in particular three groups, the Apocalyptics, the Dialectics and the Existentials.

The 955th meeting of the Study Club was held at Mrs. Charles Winton's on October 26th. Prof. Blue's subject was "The American Revolution" - He spoke of the documentary movie he and his brother have completed for the Bi-centennial and then proceeded to present the causes and circumstances in various parts of the colonies which led to the outbreak of revolution - a more complex and realistic account than usual as he tried to give the clash of opinions and points of view here in the colonies themselves, representing the complexity of the population by the middle of the 18th century and to impress upon us the tremendous step it was for the educated, cultured law-abiding citizens to have taken in deciding to defy the King of England and support revolution.

The 956th meeting of the Study Club was held at Mrs. Andrews's house on November 2nd. The Russian Revolution and its two main thrusts, first in 1905 and then in 1915 was the subject of the lecture. Prof. Blue pointed out various social causes in Russia and also the Russian Revolution's development in relation to our freeing of the slaves after the civil war and to political and social changes in Western Europe in the middle of the 19th century. Again, rising expectations because of many reforms, led the people to revolution when they were never allowed any political freedom or part in the government.

The 957th meeting of The Study Club was held at Mrs. Lyman's on Thursday November 9. 23 members were present. Dr. Blue's topic was the Chinese Revolution. He stressed the differences of the Chinese and Russian ways of solving problems as well as Mao's genius in changing to a second ~~sort~~ of revolution when he saw that the first one was not succeeding - namely the cultural revolution. Prof. Blue brought up the Vietnam war, the United States part in ^{China's} ~~own~~ membership in the United Nations and ^{he} left us with the suggestion that Japan and China would be the two main antagonists in the Asia of the future. He sketched the Chinese revolution itself very briefly since the Study had studied China with him in 1970 in detail.

Mrs. Young announced that the Dec. ~~24~~⁷ meeting will conflict with a meeting of the Friends of the Institute. Mrs. Pillsbury said that the meeting was to honor past presidents of the Friends of whom belonged to the Study Club. She suggested we change our meeting to another day. Various suggestions were made, ~~but no~~ with no general satisfaction. It was then suggested that a vote be taken on the number of people who preferred to have the Dec. 7th meeting take place as planned. A showing of 15 hands raised in favor of the motion was a majority of those present. The motion was carried in favor of not changing the Dec. 7th date -

The 958th meeting of the Study Club was held at Mrs. Angus Morrison's on Nov. 16, 24. members were present to hear Dr. Blue's topic for the day "Revolution and Foreign Intervention". The crisis in Bayla Dosh was the particular problem illustrated and as Dr. Blue and his family were living in Jaipur, India at the time of the crisis, his remarks were vitally interesting. One had a pretty hopeless feeling at the end of Dr. Blue's discussion for the future lot of the people in Bayla Dosh - An agricultural country with limited produce is at a decided disadvantage in maintaining an adequate means of livelihood for its population as industrialization and communication increases.

The 959th meeting of the Study Club took place at Mrs. Walter Hudson's on Thursday, November 30th. 24 members present.

"Aggression, Violence and Revolution in America today" was the subject of the lecture. Dr. Blue gave a comprehensive and provocative discourse on the rapid escalation of violence and crime, both personal and political, using as references recent studies made by scholars — scientists, historians, anthropologists, social scientists, psychologists —. Dr. Blue helped us understand the reasons for violence and for revolution. He does not think we are headed for revolution in this country now. Because the "blacks" have a relatively small population and because "whites" have been inclined to help narrow the gap between the two over the last decade, revolution has become less possible. If, however, the government leans increasingly heavily on repressive measures in response to protest instead of efforts at improving the balance between those with power and those without, revolution could very well occur. It is in the realm of housing patterns that a change for the better must be made.

After the meeting was over, Mrs. Hudson entertained the assembled group to a luncheon party at several attractively decorated tables in her dining room -

The 960th meeting of the Study Club took place on Dec. 7 at Mrs. Carl Jones's. There were 21 members present. Dr. Blue's lecture was on long-term problems of the world - population growth, limited food supply, deterioration of the environment, the impact of technology on those who have it and on those who don't in the 3rd world.

The 961st meeting of the Study Club was held at Mrs. Lyndon King's on Dec. 14th. - Dr. Blue's last lecture. 28 members were present. In summary Dr. Blue is pessimistic about the future. He does not believe there will be a "greening of America" but that people in our country as well as elsewhere will demand more and more material goods. As they do the gap between the western world and the 3rd world will increase - democracy will become less effective to solve problems. Even in agricultural countries there will be fragmentation, a clash of landowners and workers and the military will be called upon to take charge - An elite minority will make the decisions. In our ^{poor} industrialized society we are depending more and more on trained technocrats - our democracy has already been replaced by decisions of experts and it is unlikely, Dr. Blue thinks, that this trend will turn about. A revolution today would be a different sort - a change from the control and dependence on the trained expert in government and in big corporations which would happen gradually and come about without fanfare - Dr. Blue does not think we will change - a sober prognosis indeed!

A business meeting, at Mrs. Dalrymple Senior's was the 962nd meeting - Mrs. Young turned the meeting over to Mrs. Andrews, the new president and said she had enjoyed her position during the past year. Mrs. Andrews asked for suggestions for nominations. Six names were suggested and each one spoken for by her sponsor. Four names were nominated and after a vote of the 24 members present Mrs. Adrian Howard was elected for membership. Tellers were Mrs. Hartwell, Bennett, Young, Puff.

Suggestions for next year's program were next in order. Mrs. Lyman suggested the North American Indian. Mrs. Pillsbury senior spoke for Africa - a big subject Mrs. Dalrymple senior said but it could be left to the professor to decide on a topic. Barbara Stuhler of The World Affairs Center would be a good advisor on the subject. Miss Cross said that should the Study Club want to study South and Southeast Asian Art, Dr. Blue had suggested Prof. Frederick Asher as an interesting speaker. He had also suggested Prof. Saroff on the subject of the Supreme Court and Prof. Howe for the early years of The American Revolution. Mrs. Pillsbury Jr. mentioned a member of The Gutthrie board, Prof. Arthur Ballett for a course in drama although she said that he might be more interested in far-out new types than in anything traditional. Mrs. Warfield spoke of a Mr. Mazola whose topic at the Y. W. C. A. has been The Golden Age of Greece, but said she herself had not heard him. Mrs. Young said she thought that the subject of South America and its divisions of opinion and present evolving problems would be a provocative subject and finally, Mrs. Duff spoke for work being done at Princeton University and at the U. N. on the avoidance of conflict in the modern world - a world without war -

The 3 most popular subjects turned out to be 1) South America, 2) Africa, 3) North American Indians. The program committee, Mrs. Stuart Wells, Mrs. Thomas Crosby and Mrs. Plimpton will see what they can work out at the University or at Macalester College and report to us at the next meeting in the Summer.

There being no other business, the meeting adjourned at 12:10 P.M.

The 463 meeting was held on May 5th at Mrs. Andrews' house. 25 members were present.

The first business of the meeting was the report of the program committee: Mrs. T. Crosby, Mrs. Plimpton and Mrs. Wells. They recommended that Mr. Stuart L. Wagner be engaged to lecture on Latin America. His qualifications: graduate of the University of Connecticut followed by graduate work in Latin American history and presently instructor at the University of Minnesota in the department of history. The charge, $60 per lecture.

Discussions followed about the title of the series and reading material. A consensus was reached that the program committee be empowered to resolve these matters.

It was decided that the dues should remain at $25.00.

A motion was made and carried that the Program Committee report be accepted.

The minutes were read and accepted as amended.

The Treasurer's report was read and accepted.

The secretary was instructed to write Mrs. Hudson our regrets that she was unable to join us.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

1973-74 P. 2.

The first lecture and 964th meeting was held at Mrs. Wells' house on October 3rd. There were 25 present.

The secretary announced with great regret, the death of Mrs. Hudson on July 4th.

Program chairman, Mrs. T. Crosby introduced the speaker, Mr. Wagner. His topic: Colonialism in Latin America. He began with the Spanish exploitation in 1492, its continuation and eventual leading to development of independence during the period of 1810 to 1825.

On October 10th, the 965th meeting was held at Mrs. Andrews' house. The subject was Cultural Imperialism during the 19th and 20th centuries.

The 966th meeting was at Mrs. Winton's, on October 17th. Mr. Wagner ~~spoke~~ explained about the basis of Neocolonialism and spoke of Latin American indigenous values. 20 members were present.

At Mrs. Lyman's, on October 24th, the 967th meeting took place. Mr. Wagner reviewed the previous lectures in order to relate them to the next half. Following this, he talked about the basis of Neocolonialism, II and international Dynamics. 21 members were there.

1973-74 P. 3

Mrs. Pillsbury, Jr. held the 968th meeting on October 31st. There were 24 members present. The subject of the lecture was United States foreign aid to Latin American countries. ~~24 present~~

The 969th meeting, on November 7th, was held at Mrs. Young's house. 24 members attended.

Mr. Wagner brought guest speaker, Mr. Edward Boorstein. Mr. Boorstein, author of "The Economic Transformation of Cuba", termed himself a "practical economist". He had been employed in Cuba and, until his recent escape, in Chile. He spoke about the background of the military coup in Chile under Allende, then British and United States imperialism. In this connection he specifically named the Anaconda and Kennecott companies as controlling Chilean copper which constitutes 90% of Chilean export. Also, he stated that I.T.T. and the C.I.A. were politically involved in the overthrow of the Allende government.

At Mrs. Benton Case's house the 970th meeting took place on November 14th. 21 members were present.

Mr. Wagner devoted this lecture to the aim, attitude and structure of the multi-national ~~company~~ corporation. The primary aim is profit; the attitude inter-national rather than national in allegiance, and the structure authoritarian. Also these corporations share a common culture and system of communication.

1973-74 P. 4

The 971st meeting was held on November 28th at Mrs. Angus Morrison's house. The lecture topic was "Inducolonialism". 21 members attended.

On December 5th, the 972nd meeting took place in Mrs. King's house. Again, 21 members attended. This, Mr. Wagner's last lecture was on Nationalism. It was both informative and thought-provoking.

The 973rd, and last meeting at Mrs. Jones house on December 12th, brought us another guest-lecture, Mr. Isaacman, instructor at the University of Minnesota. He lived for three years in Rhodesia and Mozambique. He spoke of the European attempt, in 1850, to control land, - successful only in Algeria and the Southern tip of Africa - , exploitation from 1900 to 1960, and the beginnings of agitation for independence in 1946.

The annual business meeting was held at Mrs. Dalrymple, senior's house, — the 974th meeting and 27 members!

The secretary read the minutes of the January 1973 meeting. There were amendments to include a change in the program committee on which Mrs. Heffelfinger served instead of Mrs. Wells.

The treasurer's report was accepted as read.

A discussion followed concerning the payment of $50.00 to Mrs. Boorstein, the guest lecturer brought by Mrs. Wagner.

The program chairman, Mrs. T. Crosby, said she had not been informed of this, and that her understanding was that payment to the University of Minnesota should have included any substitution Mrs. Wagner chose to make. The consensus was that this action had been illegal though ethical, and should not be repeated in the future.

President, Mrs. Andrews, turned the meeting over to incoming president, Mrs. C.H. Can.

There being one vacancy, Mrs. Can called for nominations for a new member.

Mrs. Hartwell explained the method of preferential election. Five names were put in nomination. Tellers were: Mrs. ~~Burt~~ Dalrymple, junior, Lyman, Andrews and Plimpton. Mrs. Barnard Jones was selected.

Mrs. Pillsbury, senior read an historical sketch of the Study Club she had prepared for the Minnesota Historical Society.

A motion was made and carried that a copy of this delightful account be made for the Study Club records.

The next business was discussion of topics for the 1974-'75 program. It was decided that the program committee needed some directive and decision before the Spring meeting.

The following subjects were suggested:

Africa, - Mrs. Andrews; the Third World, - Mrs. Deff
Interpretation of Current Events, - Mrs. Wells;
Iran, - Mrs. Pillsbury, Sr.; Arab World, ~~Africa~~
Supreme Court Decisions, Russia, - Mrs. Lyman

Mrs. Lyman withdrew her suggestions for lack of response.

A ballot vote was taken for first and second choice.
The result: First choice Africa; Second choice the Arab World.

Mrs. Knoblauch will be chairman of the Program committee.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned, with thanks to Mrs. Sabrymple.

The Study Club celebrated its 1000th meeting on October 7, 1976, at Mrs. John Pillsbury Senior's. After the lecture we were Mrs. Pillsbury's guests for luncheon. A program on the early days of the club followed. Members asked that it be typed and kept with the minutes. With only two exceptions the participants read scripts based on the early minutes and written out by the president so that the program could be given unrehearsed. Mrs. Pillsbury, whose talk was drawn from her memories, and Mrs. Dalrymple, who based hers on the minutes, had not written down their remarks but very kindly did so subsequently.

Part I

The president, Miss Marion Cross, gave an introduction: the first part of the program goes back 62 years to September 2, 1914. Mrs. T. G. Winter has invited the Study Club for lunch at her summer home, Gobbins Farm, on Maxwell Bay, later the Fullerton property. Mrs. Winter, the club's mentor, was the well known Alice Ames Winter, Minnesota's famous clubwoman and president of the National Federation of Woman's Clubs. Four of the guests still are members of the Study Club. Two of them are not able to be here with us, Mrs. Karl DeLaittre and Mrs. Wilkes Covey, but the other two, Mrs. John Pillsbury, Sr., and Mrs. John Dalrymple, are here to tell about the start of the club. Mrs. Winter's part will be read by Mrs. Russell Bennett and Mrs. Philip Little Jr.'s by Mrs. Frederick C. Lyman.

The first arrivals Mrs. Pillsbury and Mrs. Dalrymple are talking with Mrs. Winter. Mrs. Pillsbury compliments Mrs. Winter on the fine job she has done, making this year so different from the first attempt, and then tells about the start of the club.

Mrs. Pillsbury: In the summer of 1912 a few of us ex-debutantes were discussing the fact that our lives seemed quite useless and only occupied with pink teas and formal luncheons, usually given by one of the grande dames of Minneapolis in our honor. For these occasions we were dressed in long satin or broadcloth dresses with high black hats that seemed to be flowing with ostrich plumes. In the dining room the curtains were drawn, and we sat formally at a much decorated table with bonbons to match the pink paper baskets filled with nuts. The room was lighted only by candles. These luncheons gave us no outlet for our intellectual aspirations and when we attempted social work we were not accepted by the professionals. We decided, therefore, to change our life style, so a small group of us organized a club to study art, literature and politics. There were only eight of us:

Lelia Winston (Yerxa)
 Dolly Winston (Franchot)
 Grace Townsend (Partridge)
 Ella Sage (Little)
 Mary Rand
 Harriet Loring (Ward)
 Margaret Jackson (Bovey) Myself.

We were all very serious-minded and conscious of the necessity to acquire culture and learning, all except Mary Rand, who had a keen sense of humor and seemed to find our little group most amusing. Our organization did not last more than a few months as Mary's humor was distracting, then one of us was married, another had a baby and still another went out of town, so with no regrets our attempt at culture dissolved. The following year Henriette Tierney had married Sumner McKnight and had come to Minneapolis to live. She was soon complaining of the same situation we had discussed the year before. I told her that the reason for our demise was that we did not have a leader to inspire us and to maintain discipline. Henriette had a brilliant idea. She suggested that we ask Aunt Nora, Mrs. George H. Christian, to be our leader. This we did immediately. Mrs. Christian was flattered by our request but she did not have the time to give us. She suggested that we ask the perfect person, Mrs. Alice Ames Winter, and in order to persuade her to guide us in our worthwhile project Mrs. Christian would invite Mrs. Winter and ten young women of our choice to have lunch with her at her home on 10th Street. None of us had known Mrs. Winter before, and she impressed and awed us. In appearance she was a typical club woman of the day. She paid no attention to her figure but apparently took great interest in her clothes. She did not have many clothes, but those she did have were carefully selected with a view to matching colors and having outfits that would enhance her dignity and prominence at public functions. She wore a purple dress and purple high-heeled shoes at Mrs. Christian's luncheon and at most meetings thereafter. Her hat was high and profusely decorated with flowers, birds and velvet ribbon.

I sat next to Mrs. Winter and I do not remember much of our esoterical conversation except that she confided in me that she was a mystic and persuaded me that everyone should strive to be one. After looking it up in the dictionary when I got home, I decided that I would wait a few years before aspiring to be a mystic. I could not help wondering how her purple shoes and mysticism would fit into Hollywood where she had been invited to censor movies.

After lunch we adjourned to the living room where Henriette McKnight reminded us that this was an important charter meeting and that she would take the minutes, which unfortunately have been lost. However, I do remember that we decided to meet at the Woman's Club and to enlarge our group at the next meeting.

The second meeting was held at the Woman's Club, and we sat in stiff chairs in a semi-circle and new members were unanimously voted in. Their names I have forgotten but I do remember that we had two out-of-town members, one of whom was Susan Christian Brown who lived in Wayzata, which at that time was definitely out-of-town to us. The other was Anne Turney White of St. Paul. But shortly afterwards we voted that we would have no St. Paul members. Consequently, she resigned and started a study club in St. Paul, but they had no Mrs. Winter so broke up after a few meetings.

Mrs. Winter spoke at that second meeting on her favorite subject "The Smoke Nuisance". I had never realized that smoke coming out of our nice little chimneys was causing such havoc, and I remember walking home on First Avenue and looking at the chimneys with added interest and affection for fear that Mrs. Winter would have them all removed.

I was assigned a subject for the next meeting. In the minutes of that meeting it was written that I "addressed the meeting on the subject of politics". My subject included a bill before the Congress on currency, a bill giving independence to the Phillipines, and the situation in Mexico. At the third meeting, after my addressing the Club, these subjects were discussed and then we read aloud Miss Adams' book "Democracy and Social Ethics". Mrs. Winter announced that the class should finish the book at home and also read "The Spiritual Unrest" by Roy Baker to be discussed at the next meeting.

We apparently continued this type of program through that year, but in the spring Mrs. Winter announced quite forcibly there should be no reading of any kind at the Study Club, that each of us should give a 45-minute topic, speaking it with no notes, and then the topic should be discussed during the final fifteen minutes. This plan of doing topics continued for over thirty years, and I am sure if Mrs. Winter had remained with us we would be doing topics today. I am glad to remind you of the powerful leadership of Mrs. Winter because we never showed her sufficient appreciation.

As I remember, we sent her flowers at Christmastime, and that caused a heated discussion since some of our members thought we should pay for the gift from our treasury. However, we had not yet decided on the amount of our dues so the treasury had only a few dimes which had been paid as fines by tardy members. Others of us thought we should contribute 50¢ toward the gift. I have forgotten how this matter was finally decided, but I am happy to say we did send Mrs. Winter flowers.

Mrs. Winter: I don't deserve all that credit. After all I was away for two whole months and was only at the luncheon and two other meetings before missing nine of them but you carried on beautifully without me.

Mrs. Dalrymple: But we do miss you, Madam President, and we are trying to remember your last words to us, "Work, girls, work". Of course it does take a great deal of time and effort to give birth to an important new organization like this and we have spent more than three months struggling with the constitution which I think you have all learned by this time, the time of meetings, the place of meetings, subjects to be discussed and, most important, a name to be provocative, meaningful, all-encompassing, and attractive.

| December 1, 1913 | It was decided that each member should suggest a name. |
| January 10, 1914 | So little time was allotted to discuss the names that the subject was tabled for two weeks. |
| January 24, 1914 | Mrs. Partridge was asked to look up Greek names, particularly the one for 'winter', whether that was to distinguish us from the already started tennis club or whether it was to honor our president, I never knew. |
| February 7, 1914 | The following names of Greek derivation were proposed: Philosophist, Sesame, Lyceum, Thetus (Divine Love). |
| February 14, 1914 | A tentative vote was taken and came out as follows: Forum 7; Study Club 5; New Century Club 1; Thetus (Divine Love) 3. |
| February 21, 1914 | Mrs. DeLaittre proposed the use of an American name as more patriotic. The following were mentioned: Study Club, Cosmos, Forum, and Pallas. |
| February 28, 1914 | A vote on names was taken. No name received a sufficient number to make a majority of votes. It was decided to drop Contemporary Club. The secretary was instructed to send postcards containing: New Century Club, Study Club and Contemporary Club. |

March 14, 1914

Another vote was taken with the following results: New Century 1; Contemporary (which had been revived) 2; Study Club 10, and with great excitement and many cheers it was moved, seconded and carried to adopt the name "Study Club" so that was the result of our 3 months of labor and that is the name that we proudly bequeath to you hoping that you will be worthy of it.

Mrs. Winter: I'm ashamed there turned out to be so much experimenting this year. My first idea-reading aloud, followed by discussion, would have been so simple but neither articles, books nor plays worked. Discussing books, chapter by chapter, was only slightly better.

I tried to get more people involved by assigning current topics, but it happened so often that something interfered, or people were absent, that it got all off schedule.

After I returned from being away so long I thought I had the perfect solution - choose one topic, and stick to it. We chose Socialism but stuck to it for only one meeting! Such a fine chance came to have guest speakers. How lucky we were to hear about the government of Minneapolis from one who has been involved and is the husband of a member. Mr. DeLaittre's talk got us so interested that we had two more meetings on government.

Mrs. Little arrives and says: I'm sorry to be late. It's such a long, long trip from town and the roads are so bad. No wonder the others are even later. I hope there aren't any fines today. What a relief that that motion failed to pass for a 10¢ fine for each 5 minutes we're late. That could mount up fast. Just 10¢ a time is a different matter. And what a help that other motion has been -- members who on account of necessary attention to their infants, are detained at home and are therefore tardy to the meetings be not subject to the tardiness fine of 10¢.

What a relief we're going to meet Fridays next year. Getting down to the Woman's Club on Harmon Place by 10:45 on Saturday mornings was always a terrible rush. Saturday is such a busy morning with the weekend ordering to do at the butcher shop and the grocery store, children home from school, and husbands working only half a day.

I do hope we won't have to cope with the new constitution today. It seemed so easy last December having one drawn up and accepted at the next meeting. Right away we messed it all up with amendments. We thought we got rid of a too complicated way of electing members but the election last May showed that it's still not easy. It helped when we decided to have an unlimited number of out of town members who weren't counted in the 20 memberships. We could elect 2 of them. Since we only filled one of the two vacancies for regular members, some of us are so anxious to fill the other at one of our very next meetings.

How many are you expecting today, Mrs. Winter?

Mrs. Winter: None of the new members could come but 13 of the 18 first year members will be here. I'm expecting Mrs. Sumner McKnight, Mrs. Karl DeLaittre, Mrs. Earl Partridge, Mrs. Frederick Atkinson, Mrs. John Bovey, Miss Helen Truesdell, Miss Helen Abbott, and Miss Katherine King.

I'm so sorry the others weren't able to come -- Mrs. Harold Hunt, Mrs. George Norton Northrop, Mrs. Harold Ward, Mrs. Anson Jackson, Miss Charlotte Passmore and Miss Dolly Winston. It would have been so nice if all 18 of us could have been here to celebrate the first year of the Study Club.

Part II

The president: The second half of the program is a meeting of the committee appointed in 1953 to go through the minutes and winnow the rules that had been made over the years. There is no record of any report on rules, but here are some of the things the committee members could have found in the minutes.

Mrs. Lyman Barrows reads: When we were given this assignment I groaned over the prospect of reading all those dull minutes. I didn't find them dull at all.

The others join in saying: Neither did I.

Mrs. Barrows reads: I was fascinated by all the discussion over whether to have topics by members or a course of lectures. The question never came up in Mrs. Winter's day and even after she resigned in 1920 her good influence held more than ten years before the club began resorting to lecturers.

Feeling always ran high when the next year's program was discussed and the choice made between speakers and topics. Usually the vote was close but lectures were apt to win even by such subterfuges as reopening the question at the next meeting when different attendance could swing the vote. Once the vote was 9 for lectures and 7 for topics but two late arrivals made it a tie. The solution was a postcard poll which on second thought was made silent, with cards returned unsigned. Speakers won 14 to 10.

Having speakers eliminated a few problems. People were always going away so there was much reshuffling and cancellation. Poor Mrs. Lowe never did get a chance to finish one of her topics. Something always came up to prevent it. Some members insisted on changing subjects in mid-season. One year two members gave the same topic by mistake. Twice, members hired a University professor to substitute for them. This led to official action. The minutes record: It was the sense of the meeting that members present their own topics and only topics stated by the program committee unless the privilege to change had been granted at a previous meeting.

However, the spirit of independence remained strong and the next year it was moved that if we give topics we choose our own subject. Discussion followed but there is no record of how the vote went.

When members did choose their own topics there was quite a hodge-podge. Arnold Toynbee by Mrs. Duff, Socialized Medicine by Mrs. Pillsbury, some aspects of gerontology by Mrs. Wyman, and 1949 - The Year Minnesota Became a State, by Mrs. Lyman (The Minnesota Historical Society printed this in its magazine).

One member is supposed to have said "Maybe some like to give topics but we prefer having a lecturer." I must admit that the same names kept cropping up in topic years. This finally led to the motion that all members be invited but not pressured to give topics. Starting in 1926 Sabbatical years were granted giving everyone a chance at a year of grace.

Letting members choose their own topics was a big break for the program committee. Once Mrs. Carl Jones, chairman, made 17 suggestions for programs and explained each one so it could be discussed. After the subject was set the hardest part started. Think of the research that had to be done before topics could be worked out for each of the 20 plus meetings of the season.

The only really easy years came when the speaker was asked to return. There were times when the committee had to come up with a complete surprise as a last resort.

Most of the speakers came from the University. Occasionally friends were pressed into service -- even busy executives. One year the club heard Donald Dayton, Robert Pack, John Peyton, C.C. Bovey and Harold Stassen. (In later years Sumner Young and, twice, Russell Bennett).

I was so impressed with the timeliness of the programs. In 1934 the club studied Buckmanism (Buckman was the Dr. Moon of that day), the New Deal (Brand new with Roosevelt just coming into office), and Hitler (Just coming to the fore). The Trouble Spots of the world were studied in 1952 and 53; the Far East, South East Asia, the Moslem World, South America and Western Europe. (They still qualify). One subject seems very dated. Has the old code of religion and morals broken down and if so what is the substitute?

Mrs. Benton Case reads: What a difference there was in the early days when the club was involved in all sorts of projects.

It surprised me that Mrs. Winter was the one who got the club started in war work, by suggesting in April, 1915 that the club raise money for Polish war sufferers. A committee arranged for a speaker for the next meeting. After hearing of the great need, members were appointed to write a circular letter, draw up a mailing list, arrange for coin boxes in stores and also try to bring Paderewski to speak here. He didn't materialize, but the letters brought in $385 and the 26 coin boxes nearly twice as much to total $1,050.58 for Polish War Relief. Further efforts were frustrating because it became impossible to send food or supplies, nor could money be sent for their purchase in Poland but a gift of $25 was made locally to a Polish group that needed sewing materials.

French relief was a different story. The club started rolling bandages at meetings in November, 1915. 51 were turned out the first time, 37 the next.

Stymied in its efforts for the Poles the club turned to the French Orphan Fund. In March, 1916 a money raiser was arranged with the Bandbox Shop of Chicago. A three day showing of clothes was held at Mrs. Yerxa's with tea and sandwiches at 50¢ a helping to swell the total receipts to over $700.

That fall it was reported that members, having voted to work for French Relief, were making slings and sweaters.

After we entered the war it was voted to continue the program until pressure of outside war work was so great it would become impossible to devote time to the club. But there were many adjustments. The room at the Woman's Club was no longer available; meeting hours were shortened; the program was changed so that no outside work was necessary. Work was provided at meetings. This is typical - the club read magazine articles and finished 20 sweaters. Members met in Mrs. Pennington's billiard room at 10:30 and stayed afternoons if possible working on bandages brought over from the Red Cross Station. One week 9 members tore and folded 75 many tailed bandages, another time 6 turned out 400 2x2 sponges. Minutes were dispensed with for nearly a year, February 22 to January 8, 1919.

The dues, raised in 1917 from $2 to $5 permitted cash contributions too. Mrs. Lathrop was sent $50 for her fund for the French wounded. Another $50 went to Armenian Relief. A Serbian orphan was adopted for a year and Hoover Relief for starving children received $100. In 1921 dues went back to $2 but there still was enough on hand to send $60 to Near Eastern Relief.

What a difference lecturers' fees make! During World War II, when lectures were the rule, for two years $10 was sent the Red Cross for the Servicemen's Christmas at Fort Snelling. After the war two magazine subscriptions went to schools overseas at a cost of $2 each and five $10 Care Packages were sent. That was all.

Otherwise there were almost no charitable contributions. To provide milk for undernourished children at Whittier School during the depression, the club gave $15, then another $15, and finally $25.

One attempt fell flat. Hearing about a colored girl of high standing needing financial help to finish her course as a trained nurse, the club sent her $20, only to have it returned when she failed in her exams.

The club even dabbled in politics. In 1915 each legislator received a letter protesting the blue milk bill. (skim milk?) The Board of Education was told the club approved continuation of the child guidance clinic. The club decided to take an active part in the 1934 campaign for governor (a futile gesture the year of the Truck Strike with Floyd Olson up for re-election). Harold Stassen, who had spoken to the club the previous year, when elected governor received the club's congratulations for his election and for his fine inaugural address.

To Mrs. Hudson goes the honor of giving such a good topic on Government in Business that the club voted to spend $5 to join the Minnesota Taxpayer's Association and $5 for Minneapolis. However, the entire $10 went to the Minneapolis Association; there was none for Minnesota.

Mrs. Clinton Morrison reads: Let me tell you about some of the things I found. I loved this, "It was thought that the professor could have handled his subject more interestingly and at less length." That wouldn't have been true of Dr. Swenson's lecture on Marriage and Ethics, so well received that it was suggested that it be repeated at a meeting with husbands present.

The Club studied Parliamentary Law in the early years so that meetings would be conducted properly. It also helped to keep members in line, but in 1934 a New Year's Resolution was made by the Club: To mend our manners. Questions and discussions were to be general and saved to the end of the topic. Another time the Club voted not to knit when they had an outside speaker. For the season when businessmen spoke, members were asked not to miss any meetings unless it was absolutely necessary and out of consideration for the speaker to come on time and remain through the program.

The Club was full of rugged individualists. Certain ones always were late. One year the Secretary gave the palm for tardiness to Mrs. Morrison, late 7 times but she claimed it should have gone to second place Mrs. Lowe who had been much later each time.

Mrs. McKnight would show off by giving her topic in French and sending out French invitations to lunch at her cabin. She even persuaded others to join her in reading in French a play by Dr. Musset (as the minutes had it). Could it have been possible that all members were proficient enough to enjoy an hour or more of French?

Mrs. Wyman livened things up by appearing in a 12th century costume as Lady Adela for her topic on Life on a Medieval Barony.

Members didn't go along with the idea of anonymously recording their religious convictions to be read after five years. But they did let Professor Krey (a speaker) give them 45 minute intelligence tests. I searched in vain for the results.

The season of 1938-9 was not one of the best. Lewis Mumford's "The Culture of Cities" was the text for members and a few speakers. At the 5th of 15 meetings a vote on continuing that program won by only 12 to 8. It was decided to fill in the long gap from January 27 - April 21 by meeting Thursdays to listen to the radio broadcast of Convocation at the University. Many members had fled our winter but 7 had the club for the broadcast and lunch.

For favorite speakers big concessions were made. As Dr. Christensen was not free before January, until then the club attended Dr. Bryn-Jones weekly current events lectures at Trinity Baptist Church. Sometimes the season had to be extended until June. If necessary the club met at 3:30 in the afternoon but afternoon meetings weren't always due to the speaker. One year, Friday at 2:30 was agreed on as the only time it seemed possible for all members to come because of conflicting meetings.

After they had to leave the Woman's Club on Harmon Place members offered their houses - in the early years for a month or two at a stretch. At this time it was a question of weekly meetings from October through April. In the 1930's 20 or more lectures were still the rule with nothing scheduled in the months when people were apt to be away. World War II seems to have been responsible for cutting down to 10 or 12 meetings in the fall.

The Treasurer's reports show the gradual rise in dues and lecture fees - that is - when there were Treasurer's reports, let alone minutes.

It is obvious no one bothered to read the minutes after turning them over to a typist. How else could the club have heard topics on Fathers and Sons by Lurgueniens or Crime and Punishment by Dastoreskees or the Raid of Charles VIII or found out "when the French Empire became the Empire of Itself"?

One could hardly say that the Study Club threw its money around. The $2 dues were raised to $5 to pay Dr. Swenson $200 for 20 lectures. Miss Mary Hale was thanked for her talk with a plant costing $1.50. Dr. Donald Ferguson gave a course on Appreciation of Music and was paid $150 for 11 lectures. This meant raising the dues to $6 in spite of dispensing with programs in order to save $12. It wasn't worth going without programs. So as to have them the next year dues went up 50 cents.

Mrs. Lyndon King reads: What I liked were the parties. They were always having parties - open meetings, meetings with husbands invited, social evenings, musicals, and picnics, not to mention luncheons ad infinitum. The 1930's were especially social. The entire club was invited for lunch an incredible number of times. Often the person giving the topic was hostess for the meeting and for lunch.

Mrs. Earl Partridge loved to surprise the club with hot soup or tea but Mrs. Pierson provided the biggest surprise when the club met at her house. Her topic was the New Deal. Equally timely was her celebration of the end of Prohibition by serving Sherry before lunch. It made quite an impression to judge from the minutes that read "Mrs. Pierson served Sherry on this cold, cold day; a precedent not to be followed but excellent."

Back sliding soon set in. Before long, following afternoon meetings, husbands joined the club around the punch bowl on special occasions. Mrs. Lowe's minutes for 1943 tell that after the meeting Mrs. Jones took the club to Woodhill where we all ate, drank, and were merry.

How they loved to celebrate! I would consider that their voting on January 6, 1933 to no longer present a slate of officers, but to choose them alphabetically was ample cause for celebration; but the real reason for the group photograph taken on that day at Mrs. Wells', was to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the founding.

They weren't too particular about dates. May 19, 1939, more than six years later, the 25th was celebrated at Mrs. Hudson's. The minutes say, "this year being the 25th anniversary for the club this was a real celebration with champagne cocktails and caviar and foie de gras (that's what it said) canapes before a delicious lunch. Group pictures were taken after lunch."

They made the most of every opportunity. I would love to have been at the 500th meeting at Mrs. Dalrymple's on January 31, 1935. Everyone was asked to come in a hat of the year she entered the club. According to the minutes this was a real celebration with -- have you guessed it? -- champagne cocktails and caviar canapes.

The champagne was not provided by Mrs. Dalrymple. The Secretary was instructed to send $15 to Mr. Dwight Yerxa to pay for it. It turned out that only half of it was used for the cocktails for twenty. According to the Treasurer's report the other half was resold for $7.50.

Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Bovey gave a skit, dated 1950, which was included in the minutes. I quote: "Mrs. Hudson, who has just returned from running government business in Washington, was inquiring about her old friends in the Study Club. Mrs. Covey was taking part in the Olympics and was the first grandmother to swim across the English Channel. Mrs. Carl Jones was bringing out Thirza and was having a hard time with her, as she would fly all night with the boys. Mrs. Lowe had just returned from Justy's graduation, which owing to her habits, she had been too late to see. She tried to get the College to repeat the graduation exercises, but much to her chagrin, they refused. Mrs. Walker was giving one man-shows in New York, helped perhaps by the fact that her son, Hudson, was curator of the Metropolitan Museum. Mrs. Wells was modelling at Chez Stuart, which had been so successful that it had put Young-Quinlan's out of business. Mrs. Wyman was now President of Vassar. Mrs. Yerxa had resigned from the Study Club because she never would have the chance to be President, on account of her name beginning with Y. Mrs. Wyman had made attractive placecards with appropriate verses for everyone and while we were at luncheon a long telegram arrived from Mrs. Roosevelt, asking to be considered as a member."

Mrs. Angus Morrison sent congratulations and best wishes for the next 500 meetings. (which brings us to today).

Mrs. Edmund Phelps reads: My favorite was one of Nellie (Mrs. Henry) Cook's clever poems written for the Study Club. The line "And last year studied Communism" indicates it was written in 1954 or 1955 as Communism was studied 1953-54.

* * * * *

The Study Club Books have knocked me flat,

To think we really knew all that!

Obviously it is absurd,

To rank us with the common herd.

Surely we are more astute

Than those who never gave a hoot

For the Exarchate of Ravenna

Or Civilization in Siena,

Primitive Man or Bellini,

Cosca, Testa and Martini.

Some recent members may still think

The latter just a modern drink!

Comparative Religion we have studied,

The course perhaps a trifle hurried.

Economics, Psychology we pursued

Government in Business we thought rude.

Ceramics, music, poetry, art

Set us for a while apart.

Trouble spots in the world we routed,

Never once our conclusions doubted.

We never missed a single "ism"

And last year studied Communism.

(cont'd)

Only the husbands were afraid
McCarthy would labe us as "Red".

What can a teacher tell this club.
We knew it all, ah, there's the rub,
Knew it, but now no longer know,
It's gone from us, like melting snow.
But cheer up, friends, perhaps one night,
Your dinner partner thought you bright!

Nellie Cook

(Included at the request of Mrs. Dalrymple)

There seems to be a difference of opinion about who was invited to Mrs. Christian's luncheon. Mrs. Dalrymple and Mrs. Covey remember being there. Mrs. Pillsbury is convinced they were not included. Mrs. Covey said she was invited because her mother was such a good friend of Mrs. Christian. Mrs. Dalrymple said she was invited because she was such a good friend of Mrs. Covey.

Mrs. Dalrymple says she clearly remembers arriving at Mrs. Christian's at the same time as Mrs. Pillsbury and the two of them, both very pregnant, climbing the steps together.

At any rate, though the names of Mrs. Dalrymple and Mrs. Covey (then Miss King) occur in the minutes of the first year there is no mention of their election just as was the case with Mrs. Pillsbury and the others on her list of charter members.

Annual Meeting Continued - January 3 - 1975

sketchy and that there was a great deal more to study in such an important country. After much discussion followed by a vote of raising hands, the choices in order of preference were:

- 1) Iran and World Order
- 2) Migrations of People
- 3) Oriental Art

The program committee will be guided by the suggestions and preference indicated by the vote.

There are 3 vacancies which may be filled. Tellers for counting votes are Mmes. Duff, Young, Dalrymple. + ?

Mrs. Arthur Hartwell explained the preferential voting procedure. Eight names were placed in nomination.

Elected to membership were Mrs. Lyman Barrows, Mrs. John Hollern and Mrs. John S. Winston. The ^{NEW} Secretary will write a note to the above to invite them to become members of the Study Club.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Ella P. Crosby

The 987th meeting of The Study Club was held Thursday May 29, 1975 at 11 o'clock at Woodhill. There were 26 present.

The president, Mrs Henry Crosby, announced that the three elected to membership had accepted. Mrs Barrows was introduced but Mrs Hollern and Mrs Winston were unable to be there. The minutes were waived.

Mrs Crosby turned the meeting over to Mrs Clinton Morrison (Mrs John Daleyapple Jr) chairman of the Program Committee consisting of Mrs John Pillsbury Jr, Mrs Adrian Howard and Mrs ~~Phyllis~~ Duff.

The first choice at the Annual Meeting was to continue in the field of Arab relations concentrating on the Persian Gulf area and to consult with Mary Ellen Lundsten of the University. As a specialist in that field she had been selected to assist with last year's program by Dr. Blue, now on leave of absence from the University.

Mrs Lundsten set up a program of ten lectures on the Persian Gulf as an international sub-system. She will give 8 lectures; the other two will be given by Barbara Stuhler (the final lecture dealing with the international aspects of the Persian Gulf situation) and F. A. Abu-Lughod, a Palestinian, a former professor at Smith, and presently visiting professor in the Political Science Department of Northwestern University.

Mrs Lundsten feels that in connection with lectures 3-7 it would be beneficial to show films, film strips, or slides. It was the consensus that not more than two films be used and they each not last more than half the lecture period.

The meetings will be held on Thursday beginning October 2. There will be no meeting on Oct 17 the date of the Garden Club annual meeting.

The reading list was read and after discussion it was voted that books be purchased individually and not ordered by the club.

After the president returned to the chair it was decided that dues would remain at $25. The billing will be sent together with the year book and the reading list in one combined mailing in August.

The question of bringing out of town guests was raised. It was decided that before bringing such guests members should call the hostess to be sure she had room for them.

The suggested coffee break was voted down but a motion for a mid-lecture two-minute stretch carried.

As usual members were asked to volunteer as hostesses for meetings and a list was made.

It was suggested that the rule be changed which restricts questions to the question period at the end of the lecture. While there was some feeling that this should be left up to the lecturer no decision was reached and no vote taken.

Mrs John Pillsbury moved that the club thank the Program Committee for doing a fine job.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned to be followed by a delicious lunch at which Mrs Henry Crosby and Mrs Franklin Crosby Jr were hostesses.

October 2 1975

The 988th meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs John Pillsbury Sr. There were 25 members present.

In opening the meeting the president, Mrs Henry Crosby, spoke of the death on September 14, 1975 of Mrs Angus Morrison, a charter member, and consequently a member of The Study Club for more than 50 years.

Mrs. Crosby then introduced Mary Ellen Lundsten who will speak this year on "The Persian Gulf as an International Subsystem." Mrs Lundsten of the University had assisted Dr Blue with last years lecture series. Her first lecture, which gave us a general background, was entitled "Introduction to System Concepts and their Application to Current world Politics."

October 9 1975

The 989th meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Stuart Wells Jr. with 20 members present. Mrs Lundsten discussed "The Persian Gulf as an Historical Subsystem."

October 23 1975

Because of the Garden Club meeting on Oct 15th the Study Club did not meet on that Thursday. Mrs John Pillsbury Jr. was hostess for the 990th meeting at which 25 were present.

This was the first of three lectures on "Major Powers in the Persian Gulf" stressing their "Interests and Influence" in that area. Each country was discussed from the point of view of Regime Survival, Economic Growth, and Role in Area Foreign Policy.

After showing films on Iran she traced Iran's development from the days of British Control to ~~the~~ its present status.

October 30 1975

The 991st meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Frederick Lyman with 26 present. Iraq was discussed as an 'international area, a regional area, and as a nation with emphasis on its present day socialist control.

November 6 1975

Mrs Thomas Crasby was hostess
(over)

for the 992nd meeting of The Study Club. There were 24 present.

After showing very interesting films Mrs Sundsten traced the development of Saudia Arabia with special stress on the effect of oil riches.

Nov 13 1975

The 993rd meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Sewall Andrews Jr with 26 present.

Turning to the "Minor Powers in the Persian Gulf", Mrs Sundsten discussed "Kuwait's Interests and Influence". She reviewed its development from nomad days through the years of British Control to its present status as an oil rich - ~~at~~ welfare state - Islamic but with a 50% foreign population.

November 20 1975

The meeting was cancelled because of the weather.

Dec 4 1975

The Study Club met at Mrs Russell Bennetts for its 994th meeting. Twenty six members were present to heard the Guest Lecturer, Professor I. A. Abu-Sughod of Northwestern University, with whom Mrs Lundsten had studied at Smith College. His topic was "The Dynamics of Change in the Persian Gulf Subsystem." He gave a most interesting discussion of the dangers faced by the Gulf States, of which Iran and Saudi Arabia have become heavily armed. Trouble can come from the decolonization process through the desire to destroy relics of the colonial past, through the force of Arab nationalism that clashes with the states, (Iraq and Egypt are pushing nationalism), and finally through change within the states as the result of education and cultural changes as well as from pressure from the huge disenfranchised foreign population.

December 11 1975

Mrs John Manfred was hostess for the 995th meeting of The Study Club at which 25 members were present.

Mrs Lundsten's topic was "The Persian Gulf Subsystem in World Politics." She discussed the four roles of the Gulf States and their impact - two stabilizing and two unstabilizing.
(over)

Stabilizing are its development as a market for the rest of the world and its rapid industrialization especially in the field of petrochemicals. Likewise its role as a financier both in investments and ^{charitable} contributions. Unstabilizing forces are its role in the 3rd world coalition's formation of cartels and as the leader of that bloc in world affairs. Also the area is a security vacuum that can be upset both by outside powers and by internal forces.

December 18 1975

The 996th meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs Lyndon King with 25 present. The guest-lecturer was Professor Barbara Stuhler whose topic was "Future World Systems - Perspective for the coming five years." The aspect she discussed was United States interdependence and world order citing the decline of autonomy because no one nation can solve today's problems, no longer military, on the contrary environmental, economic and involving strategic interdependence. Today pressure is brought by International non-government organizations and government organizations and multinational corporations. Discussing the United Nations she cited its growth from 51 to 143 members and the pressures expected by the 3rd world and the South against the north - as opposed to the former east-west pattern. She said the U.N. resolutions have no effect because unlike those of the security council they cannot be implemented. The problem of the future is how to achieve interdependence. It was a very interesting lecture.

Prior to her lecture it was voted to combine the business meeting with the make-up lecture. Mrs Lundsten kindly offered to give for the cancelled Nov 20th meeting. Instead of meeting at Mrs John Dalrymple on Jan 8th we will meet at the Woodhill Club at 10.30 for the lecture, followed by a Dutch treat lunch and the business meeting.

The 997th meeting of The Study Club was held at the Woodhill Country Club on Jan. 8, 1976. 24 members were present. The meeting was held in the North Room at 10:30 A.M. Prof. Lundsten located the states to be discussed in the film on a map and listed the names. They were: Bahrain and Q

Qatar and the seven states in the United Arab Emirates (population about 500,000). The showing of the film from the Middle East I_nstitution was followed by questions and discussion.

Mrs. Henry Crosby closed the meeting by thanking Mrs.
Lundsten for the excellent and informative series of lectures on the Persian Gulf as an International Subsystem.

ANNUAL MEETING - 1976

at the Woodhill Club

The Annual Meeting of the Study Club was called to order on January 8, 1976, by the president, Mrs. Henry Crosby. It was the 998th meeting of the club and was convened after a dutch treat luncheon. 23 members were present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $277.45, which included $4.00 in fines.

The new president (succession alphabetical), Miss Marion Cross, was approved by the membership. Other new officers for 1976 are : Mrs. Thomas Crosby, vice-president, and Mrs. Philip Duff, secretary and treasurer.

Miss Cross asked for suggestions for the 1976 program. The following ideas were presented and discussed:

1. The Arts in 18th Century England with Professor Robert Moore - by Mrs. Stuart Wells.
2. Chinese Art with Professor Poor or other qualified lecturers by Mrs. George Heffelfinger.
3. Art in Minneapolis Museums and Private collections - by Mrs. John Pillsbury Sr.
4. A Study of the Comic Spirit - A Time to Laugh - with Professor D'Andrea - by Mrs. Philip Duff.
5. A history of the American Indian - Mrs. Thomas Crosby
6. Linguistics - Mrs. John Hollern
7. Drama presented by Prof. Charles Nolte - Mrs Clinton Morrison

8. Futurism - Mrs. Lyman Barrows

A vote taken by show of hands indicated the following choices by the members in order of preference:

1. Time to Laugh - A Study of the comic spirit - Prof. D'Andrea
2. The Arts in 18th Century England
3. Oriental Art

The program committee will be guided by the above vote in planning next year's program. Tentative plans will be presented for approval at the spring meeting.

Miss Cross announced that Mrs. Merritt Case will be chairman of the program committee. Her Committee members will be Mrs. Nathan Plimpton and Mrs. Clinton Morrison.

Mrs. Knoblauch added that it should be a policy of the Study Club to pay for rental equipment needed for the course. Therefore, it was agreed to reimburse Mrs. Lundsten for her cost in renting the film projector and sound equipment.

A vote of thanks was given for our retiring president, Mrs. Henry Crosby.

Meeting adjourned.

On Wednesday, May 24, at the Woodhill Club, the 999th meeting of The Study Club was called to order by the President, Marion Cross.

She asked Mrs. Merritt Case, chairman of the Program Committee, to take the Chair and tell us of the plans for the fall. She reported that Prof. D'Andrea, first choice in the vote at the annual meeting, is now in Munich and unavailable for the fall. He recommended a conference with Prof. Tapp, acting chairman of the Humanities Dept. At the Committee's luncheon with him he recommended either of two professors. After consultation with both of them resulted in the recommendation of Prof. Cesler, with the Art of India, as the topic. Upon motion by Mrs. Thomas Crosby the recommendation was unanimously adopted.

The treasurer reported a balance of $202.45 whereupon it was voted to set the dues for next year at $30 to allow for the $100 fee per session.

It was also voted to hold the meetings on Thursdays at 10:30 except for Thursday Oct. 21, (a conflict with the Lake Menomonee Garden Club's annual meeting) which will be held on Tuesday the 19th instead.

Mrs John Pillsbury Jr. kindly invited the Club to luncheon at her house on Oct. 7th, the first meeting of the year and the 100th meeting of the Club.

Mrs Plimpton, Program Com. member, asked for volunteers to house the meetings, those with living rooms which may be darkened for slides.

Upon motion by Mrs Pillsbury Jr. it was voted not to elect a new member at this time.

The meeting was adjourned for lunch as the guests of Marion Cross and Mrs Frederick Lyman.

October 7 - 1976

The 1000th Meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. John Pillsbury Sr. There were 23 members present.

Mrs. Merritt Case introduced Professor Frederick M. Asher, who will be our speaker this year. His subject is "The Art Heritage of India." The subject for this meeting was "The Indus Valley Civilization, 2500 - 1500 B.C."

Mrs. Pillsbury had very kindly invited all members to remain for luncheon to celebrate our 1000th meeting.

After a delicious luncheon Mrs. Pillsbury told us the history of the origin of the Study Club and of the first year. It was very interesting and very amusing.

Another early member, Mrs. John Dalrymple Sr. described the long process, through many meetings, of choosing a name for this organization. It was finally decided it should be called "The Study Club".

Then a few of the members put on a skit about some of the different meetings throughout the years written by our President, Marion Cross. It was very clever and extremely funny. A copy will be enclosed

Annual Meeting - 1977

The annual meeting of The Study Club was held on January 6, 1977 at the home of Mrs. John Dalrymple with its charming Christmas decorations. After a delightful "Christmas Coffee" the meeting was called to order by the president, Russ Mereson Cross. It was the 1010th meeting of the club with twenty members present.

The minutes of the last Annual Meeting were read and approved.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $90.85 with $14 in fines to be collected.

The president thanked the Program Chair, Mrs. Merritt Case, for the past year under Prof. Asher; also the luncheon hostesses for their much enjoyed hospitality.

Upon motion of Mrs. Pillsbury Jr. it was voted to postpone the election of new members until May.

Mrs. Cross announced that the new officers would be:

Mrs. Thomas Crosby, Pres.

Mrs. Philip Duff, Vice Pres.

Mrs. George Keffelberg, Sec. Treas.

Mrs. Crosby then took the chair and thanked Mrs. Dalrymple for the Christmas festivities. She spoke for all in expressing to Mrs. Cross our appreciation of her conducting the "millennial" year with its good program and many social functions.

Mrs. Crosby announced the new Program Committee:

Mrs. Leona Burrows, Chairman

Mrs. E. M. Case - ex officio

Mrs. John Pillsbury Jr.

Plimpton minutes
7

She then asked for suggestions for the 1977 program. The following topics were suggested and discussed:

1. Chinese Art with the new Oriental Art man at the Museum, Mr. Jacobson
- by Mrs Pillsbury Sr.
2. America D.C. by Mrs Hoffelinger
3. 18th Century Arts around the World
by Mrs Wells
4. Migration of Peoples by Mrs Bennett
5. "Rocks" by Mrs Crosby (using the book as a base)
6. World Perspective based on Eric From's
"To Have or to Be" by Mrs Morrison
7. Astronomy - Space

After some discussion and condensation of the titles a written vote of preference was taken:

1. Migrations before History
2. World Perspective
- 3 & 4 tied { Chinese Art
18th Century Art

With this vote as a guide the Program Committee will investigate possibilities and report at the spring.

The question of membership and attendance was discussed and the suggestion of an Honorary membership made. It was decided to leave the problem to a committee to draw up a proposal.

The meeting was adjourned.

~~October 6~~ - 1977

May 26

The 1010th meeting of the Study Club was held on May 26th at the home of Mrs Thomas Crasby, where she had graciously invited us for luncheon. 26 members attended.

The first order of business was the report of the Program Committee by the Chairman, Mrs Lyman Barrows. Dr Andrews and Dr Ames were unavailable but Dr Arthur M. Haskins, Professor of Education and Sociology of the University of Minnesota offered his course of lectures on "Pathways to The Future." It was moved by Mrs. Andrews and seconded by Mrs Howard that this program be accepted. The motion was carried.

Volunteers were requested as hostesses and meetings arranged for 1977.

The question of attendance was discussed, the decision being that no more than 2 unexcused absences be allowed. Explanations for long absences such as travel must be reported to the Secretary ahead of time.

In regard to memberships of long standing, Mrs Pillsbury Jr moved and Mrs. Morrison seconded a motion to create the category of Honorary Membership without dues. The secretary was instructed to write Mrs. Richard Gale and Mrs. Stanley Partridge inviting them to become Honorary Members who would receive programs and who would be welcome at all meetings.

Elected to Active memberships were, Mrs. Edward Osborne,
Mrs. William H. Driscoll, Mrs. Richard
Vaughn and Mrs. Edson W. Spencer.
The secretary was instructed to send notes of invitation.

There being no further business
the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Crosby's hospitality was greatly enjoyed.

The 10^{1st}/₂th meeting of the Study Club was held October 6th at the home of Mrs Frederick Lysman, with 31 members present. The president, Mrs Thomas Crosby, introduced four new members: Mrs Richard Vaughn, Mrs Edson Spencer, Mrs Edward Osborne and Mrs William Driscoll. The only other business was the announcement that a Dutch treat table for luncheon after meetings would be available each week. Reservations may be called in.

Mrs Crosby then turned the meeting over to Mrs Lysman Barrons, program chairman. Mrs Barrons introduced the 1977 speaker: Professor Arthur M. Harkins, Associate Professor of Education, Department of Social, Psychological, and Philosophical Studies, Foundation of Education of the University of Minnesota. Professor Harkins was born in Olean, New York. He was educated in the public schools of Ottawa, Kansas; graduated from the University of Massachusetts, and received his degree of PhD from ~~the~~ The University of Kansas in 1968.

He has been teaching at the University of Minnesota since 1967. He is co-editor of 2 books on Cultural
? with a professor from the University of Illinois,
"Culture beyond the earth and culture of the future". He is associated editor of "Journal Futurist". In 1959 co-author of "Man base".

This first lecture was
"Introduction to alternative Futurism." leaving the members with a wealth of new concepts and not a little puzzled by many new words. It opened up a painting field to contemplate in the weeks to come.

This was the 1012th meeting of the study club. 27 members attended. at the home of Mrs John Marfield. There being no business, the lecture started promptly. Dr Harkins subject was "Social and Technological Futurism". He recommended an NDP packet #3396443 that can be provided by Mr. Insland of NDP, and The Futurist Magazine for reading. He defined Technology as the result of ways developed by a system. In other words, hardware vs soft ware.

Was used as an example, man compared with computers and carried the idea into the future. A list of modern terms was distributed to aid us in understanding these new ideas.

The 1014th meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Crosby with 23 in attendance. The subject, "Future Technology - in the Cybernetic Age".

The desirable way of living in the future could be underground. Prof. went on to describe life in a space colony - either temporary or permanent. An underground dwelling - self sufficient, could be built for $30,000. Desire to escape drudgery - but drudgery is different to different people.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Pillsbury ^{Sr.} with 24 members. Prof. Harkins showed slides of various models prepared for space living, describing the methods as the lecture progressed. Looking far out into the future we looked far out beyond our own solar system.

Back to earth, Prof. Harkins spoke of more realism in education.

This was the 1017th meeting of the Study Club. Mrs Sewell Andrews was Hostess and 21 members were present. The titles chosen were:

"Future Institutional Change and

Future Educational Structures"

Prof. Harkins pointed out the increasing use of computerized and visual teaching. However he said that the public schools are 15-20 years out of date, and the University 7 1/2 to 12 years. Lack of leadership is the problem, not the students.

After Mrs Crosby opened the meeting Mrs King gave directions for parking at her home next week.

The subject of Prof. Harkins' talk was "Economic and Political Futures". The great need and the probable future is for society to have lower economic barriers and greater political interactivity. With a two-way laser communication device in every home, participation could have much wider expression and real democracy made possible.

The 1022nd meeting of the Study Club was held June 1, 1978 at the Woodhill Club with 27 members present.

The secretary read the minutes of the May meeting of 1977.

The treasurers report was read and showed the clubs bank balance to be $92.96. There are $6.00 in fines to be collected which will bring the balance to $98.96.

There was a discussion on the need to raise the dues from $32.00 to $35.00. Mrs Henry Crosby moved that the dues remain the same with Mrs. Marfield seconding the motion. The motion was defeated.

Mrs. Hartwell made the motion that the dues be raised to $35.00. There was a second, and after discussion the motion was passed.

Mrs. Duff announced with sincere regret the death of Mrs. Stanley Partridge.

The President asked for the feeling of the members on electing a new member, as we have only 34 members and we can have a total of 35. A vote was taken and the consensus of opinion was that it would be better to wait for another vacancy, and to take two in at the same time. Mrs. Duff asked for a report from

Mrs. Benton Case, our program chairman. (Her committee consisted of Mrs. Driscoll and Mrs. Barrows.)

The subject chosen by the Study Club was Ancient Egypt, and our professor is to be Dr. Tom Jones.

x
professor Mrs. Case gave a resume of Dr. Jones qualifications. He is a renowned educator with 3 degrees - an A.B. an M.A. and a Ph.D. He came to the University of Minnesota in 1937 and became a regent ~~in~~ 1970. He has planned a most interesting program with many slides.

Mrs. Henry Crosby moved, and Mrs. Merrill Case seconded the motion to accept Mrs. Benton Case's report. Mrs. Duff thanked Mrs. Case for a job well done.

Dates for meetings and hostesses for said meetings were discussed and decided.

The meeting adjourned, and all the members went to the home of Mrs. Duff for a delicious luncheon.

The 1026th meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. John Marfield. There were 22 members present.

Dr. Jones spoke on Egyptian Religion - there was no single message and they had many deities - different animals were sacred. Egyptians lived in a condition that was "static" - no changes to speak of - they worshipped many sun gods - they believed that the sun represented order, justice and immortality. Also there were earth gods and the pyramids were symbols of primeval earth. They had certain standards of conduct, a concept of what was proper and what was not. Egyptians had no "thou shalt not".

After a question period the meeting was adjourned.

Dr. Jones spoke on Egyptian literature - system of writing - they went from pictures of objects to ideographs, representing the association with pictures. Then phonetics, but they did not discard ideographs.

Narratives, religious material, us ethics - sayings of wise men & prophets. Medicine, poems religious & secular, contracts & letters were used.

Their literature influenced Old Testament. Egyptian stories influenced Greeks. Literature was important to historians - a great deal written on papyrus - that and stories by word of mouth handed down thru the times.

Greeks also learned their mathematical numerations from the Egyptians.

After a question period the meeting was adjourned.

Mrs. Duff opened the meeting at which time she announced the resignation of Mrs. John Holleran. It was moved and ~~there~~ was a second that the resignation be accepted with deep regret.

Dr. Jones' subject was Artists and Artisans. He had many slides to show us after his opening statements.

Painting was very important in Egypt, and was used to decorate architectural structures, temple and statuary, giving a pictorial record of Ancient Egypt. It pictured daily life, activities, dress, historical events, ^{and} religion.

All influenced by Egyptian environment. Because of the light, bright colors had to be used on outside, more subdued colors in Tombs. Artisans or artists go thru long apprenticeships - all tied up with religious concepts - as perspective - technical perfection impacted of Mathematics on sculpture & paintings - a connection between numbers and divine concept of the world - objective - descriptive geometry - Egyptian painting was not static.

Mrs. Bluff guided the meeting and turned it over to Dr. Jones. His subject was "Daily Life in Ancient Egypt."

Our knowledge of their lives comes from their painting, literature, (folk tales) and letters.

Dr. Jones enumerated different aspects of their lives & their importance. They were fond of board games such as Chess & Checkers.

Agriculture - & the food was rationed & raised from barley for flour & flax for clothes.

Scribes were all important - reading writing, mathematical calculations. Taught all classes in schools, Math - Geometry & physical Education, self-defense. Believed in magic.

Dr. Jones then passed around sheets of pictures, depicting ordinary life - such as making glass - working in gold - milking cows - working in leather - sailing ships up the Nile -

Some pictures especially showed they were good at satire

After the New Kingdom came Libyians & then Nubians from the South (Ethiopia) around 1100 - they actually ruled Egypt.

About 750 Egypt divided into two parts - the Delta & the rest south. About 671 Syrians came & took control of Delta - By the end of this century the Jews began to come in large numbers - also Greeks & Babylonian Soldiers of fortune - the armies of the pharaohs became largely Greek mercenaries. The Annual meeting of The Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. John Dalrymple. The members were invited one-half hour early to have coffee and Christmas cookies. Everything was delicious, and the house with the Christmas decorations looked lovely. We thank Mrs. Dalrymple.

Mrs. Duff called the meeting to order - the minutes of the last annual meeting were read and accepted as was the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Duff thanked her program committee for a job well done, and announced the new officers for 1979.

President - Mrs. George Heffelfinger

Vice President - Mrs. Adrian Howard

Secretary and Treasurer - Mrs. Barnard Jones

She then turned the meeting over to our new president to conduct the new business. She also announced her program committee - Mrs. Richard Vaughan, chairman and members Mrs. Edson Spencer and Mrs. William Driscoll.

Mrs. Heffelfinger asked for suggestions from the floor for topics for next year's study.

Mrs. Marfield suggested Prof. Abourchaker to speak on Humanities, philosophy, and religion.

Mrs. Driscoll suggested a course on Comparative Religion given by someone from the United Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Driscoll also suggested Religious Themes in literature.

Mrs. Duff suggested having Dr. D'Andrea speak on "Life with the Mind" - famous people's ideas.

Mrs. Heffelfinger thought we might like to hear Philip Brunel on Opera and Mrs. Morrison thought the subject might be combined with Mary Ann Feldman speaking on Music.

Mrs. Phelps moved that the list be closed.

After voting by show of hands the 1st choice was Professor D'Andrea on "Life with the Mind"

The 2nd choice was Professor Alkshaker on Religion and Humanities.

The 3rd choice was Music with maybe a combination of Philip Brunel and Mrs. Feldman

The feeling^d the club was that we should find a good speaker, and let him explore with the program committee the subjects suggested at this meeting.

Any new members to be taken in will be voted on at the Spring Meeting.

The notice of the election will be included in the notice of the meeting sent to each member.

No further business and the meeting was adjourned -

The annual meeting of The Study Club was held at the Woodhill Club on May 31 with 22 members present and Mrs. Heffelfinger presiding.

The minutes of the 1978 annual meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer's report was read showing a balance from 1978 of $230.39. It was moved and seconded that the treasurer's report be accepted. The motion was carried.

The report of the program committee--Mmes Vaughan, Spencer and Driscoll--was presented by Mrs. Spencer. A fall series of lectures was proposed on "The Idea of Man and Nature in India and China" to be given by Mr. M. J. Abishaker. Mr. Abishaker earned BA and MA degrees at the Osmania University in India; and MA degree from the University of Minnesota and is a PHD candidate also at the University of Minnesota. He was a member of the faculty there from 1965 to 1970 and was nominated for the Distinguished Teacher award in both 1971 and 1973. It was moved and seconded that the report of the program committee be gratefully accepted. The motion was carried. Mrs. Winston suggested that Mr. Abishaker be asked for a reading list to be used during the summer.

Dates and locations of the 10 meetings were discussed.

Since there are two vacancies in the membership the chair asked for nominations from the floor. Mrs. Merritt Case explained the rules and procedures for voting. Four names were placed in nomination and Mrs. George (Peggy) Dixon and Mrs. Thomas (Betsy) Wyman were elected to membership. The Secretary will send them invitations. It was suggested that a phone call follow up the written invitations stressing the rules on attendance and tardiness and any further information needed. Mrs. Heffelfinger agreed to make the calls.

Mrs. Lyman suggested car pooling to meetings when possible.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned to a delicious lunch given by Mrs. Heffelfinger.

A meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Crosby. 27 members were present. Because questions about Buddhism had arisen at the end of the last session, Mr. Abishaker devoted this meeting to clearing up some of the difficulties. He reviewed the basics of the faith: Four Noble Truths and the Eight Rs. The topic listed in the booklet, China: From the Book of Changes will be dealt with later on.

Jan. 3, 1980.

The business meeting of the Study Club was held at the home of Mrs John Pillsbury Senior on Jan 3, 1980 at eleven o'clock. South ways looked very festive with its stately Christmas tree in one of the living-room windows and a roaring fire in the fireplace on this cold January day. Our president, Mrs Heffelfinger called the meeting to order and thanked our hostess and also her program committee for their good job. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's Report was not available at this time as our Sec. Treas. had already left for the winter but it will be presented at the spring meeting. Our president then announced a recent action of the executive committee, promoting two of our most valuable and long-time members, Mrs John Dalrymple and Mrs. John Pillsbury Sr. to Honorary membership in the Study Club, explaining it is hoped that they will attend the meetings, but will be under no obligation of any kind. The club showed their hearty approval of this action. As there was no further old business, Mrs. Heffelfinger turned the meeting over to the new president, Mrs. Howard, who then announced her program committee for the next year - Mrs. Winston, Mrs Morrison and Mrs. F. Crosby Jr.

and asked for suggestions for ^{the} 1980 programme.
Many interesting ones were forth coming,
among them -

18th century creativity in the Arts & Music Modern Architecture, National & Local with perhaps guided tours in the Twin Cities Philippe Brunelle lecturing on Opera or other music.

Oceanography - new discoveries, problems etc.
Another year with Mr. Shakespeare in his own field of English Literature

Trends in the Eighties (1980's)

After a lively discussion the club's first choice was Trends in the Eighties, ^{its} second was Architecture.
The vote was taken by a show of hands.

It was left to the committee to consult with university authorities to find the best qualified speaker on whichever of the subjects they could work out.
The importance of a ^{really} good speaker was emphasized.
Just before the meeting adjourned Mrs Pillsbury read the minutes of the first meeting of the Study Club in October 1913 at the home of Mrs George Christian as she thought it would be of interest to some of the newer members. We then enjoyed a perfectly delicious luncheon as the guests of

The annual meeting of the Study Club was held at Woadhill on May 22, 1980, with 17 members present and Mrs. Howard presiding.

The minutes of the 1979 meeting were read and approved.

The treasurers report was read showing a balance from 1979 of $348.76. It was moved and seconded that the report be accepted. The motion was carried.

The report of the Program Committee, Messrs Winston, Clumpton, and Morrison, was presented by Mrs. Winston. A fall series of lectures on "trends" was proposed. The professor selected by the committee was Terence Hopmann of the political science dept of the University of Minn. Mr. Hopmann is associated with the Quigley International Center and is nationally recognized as an ~~student~~ authority on contemporary affairs. He was a Woodrow Wilson fellow at Princeton from which he was graduated Phi Beta Kappa, and he received his MA and his Ph.D. at Stanford in 1965 and 69.

It was moved and seconded that the report of the Program Committee be gratefully accepted.

The motion was carried. Mr. Kogmann will draw up a suggested summer reading list.

After considerable discussion it was moved and seconded that Mr. Kogmann be given a $100 Transportation allowance in addition to his salary of $1000 for the lecture series. The motion carried.

Dates and locations of the ten meetings were discussed.

Since there were two vacancies in the membership the chair asked for nominations from the floor. Mrs. Merritt Case explained the rules and procedures for voting. Seven names were placed in nomination and Mrs. John (Charlotte) Morrison and Mrs. Philip (Margaret) Harder were elected to memberships. The secretary will send them invitations.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned to a delicious luncheon given by Mrs. Howard.

The business meeting of the Study Club (1057) was held on Wednesday, January 7, 1981, at the home of Mrs. Carl Jones. Nineteen members were present. Mrs. Howard called the meeting to order and thanked Mrs. Winston and her Program Committee for the superb program given by Prof. Hapmann.

The minutes of the 1980 meeting were approved as corrected. The Treasurers report was incomplete and tabled until the annual meeting in May.

Mrs. Barnard Jones took the chair as new president and announced that the 1981 Program Committee would be Mrs. John Pillsbury, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Crosby, Mrs. Franklin Crosby, and Mrs. Nathan Plimpton.

The motion was made, seconded, and carried, that the Program Committee Chairman research speaker salaries by consulting the ^{Center for} Continuing Center Education and other appropriate organizations. It was further resolved that the Program Committee have authority to adjust the Study Club salary scale accordingly.

After discussion a vote by show of hands was taken. As a guide for the incoming program committee the club members declared

Choice I - Mr. Abishaker, speaker, to discuss either English Literature or a subject of ethical - spiritual nature

Choice II - 18th Century music, art, and literature with emphasis on the why of the burst of creativity at that time

Choice III - Architecture, both broad in scope and specific in Twin Cities.

There being no further business, Mrs. Jones thanked Mrs. Carl Jones for her kind hospitality and adjourned the meeting.

June 4, 1981.

The annual meeting of the Study Club was held June 4th at Woodhill, with our President, Mrs. Barnard Jones, presiding and twenty-three members present. After calling the meeting to order she asked the Secretary for the report of the annual meeting of 1980 which was read and approved, and followed by the Treasurer's report showing a balance of $315.99 - at the end of our year. This was also approved. She then brought up the subject of Mrs. Lyndon King's membership - who had resigned when she went out to live in La Jolla last year. She asked if it would not be better to simply list her with our other "out of town members" and it was moved, seconded and passed that this be done.

Next, she asked ^{for} the report of the Program Committee, Mrs. Pillsbury Jr., Thomas Crosby, Franklin Crosby - and Nathan Plimpton, which was given by Ella Crosby in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Pillsbury. She announced that our lecturer would be Professor M. J. ~~Abhishek~~ who had been our leader before in 1979. His subject will be "Four Quartets of T. S. Eliot" "Just for certainty in a changing world"

He suggested that each member have a copy of this work which will be used as a text book for our course - and can be purchased in paperback form for $1.65, Harcourt edition.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs Merritt Case and her committee for the election of new members for the two vacancies. After eight names were proposed it was moved that the nominations be closed. In the election that followed two were chosen, and the Secretary was asked to write them invitations to join. After that, the dates and locations of the fall meetings were arranged - and our president closed the meeting, as there was no further business, - and we were her guests on the nearby porch - at a most delicious and delightful luncheon.

#1068. Study Club Business Meeting

The Study Club's business meeting was held Jan. 7, 1982 at Woodhill, our president, Mrs. Bernard Jones calling the meeting to order with about eighteen members present.

After thanking her Program Committee for our fine course with Mr. A. Whishaker on the Four Quartets of T.S. Eliot, she thanked the club members who had opened their homes for the meetings, and Mrs. Knoblauch for providing coffee before this meeting. She then asked the Secretary to read the report of last year's business meeting which was done & approved and stated that the Treasurer report would be read at the spring meeting. She then reported that several of our members had been unable to attend any of our lectures this year, and proposed that Mrs. Dana Stone and Sumner Young might be made Honorary members, welcome to come to the meetings but under no obligation to the Study Club. This action was then taken by the club.

She then asked Marion Cross to bring us a little in touch with T.S. Eliot's lighter verse, as some members of our group had found the Four Quartets rather hard to understand, beautiful as the poetry was. She told us of several works, the play "Cats" now acted in London, and coming

To New York later, and she read us a most delightful poem from "Cape Ann" showing Eliot to be a real bird-lover like many of us in the Study Club. There being no further "old" business, Mrs Jones turned the meeting over to our new President, Mrs Francis Knoblauch, who thanked her and ^{announced} her next year's Program Committee, Mrs James Dixon, Spencer and Vaughan.

The new president read a list she had looked up of our subjects and lecturers of the last ten years, which was a very good idea.

The following ^{new} subjects were then suggested

Dr. Hofmann on current events, may be from a North and South angle.

Dr. Stavis on Russia (done several times in past)
Art & Religion

Oceanography - perhaps with someone from ^{Seas} Freshwater Institute

Architecture - Bernard Jacobs suggested as lecturer -

^{several} ~~A~~ votes by a show of hands were taken with Hofmann getting 18 votes, Oceanography / Tools & Architecture 16 votes.

It was left for the committee to make the decision after their research on the possibilities as to speakers etc.

A motion was made by Mrs Benton Case to raise the dues to $40 per member, but this was later amended to do this only if necessary after talking with Universities authorities. This was seconded and passed.

The president then announced that there are three vacancies in the club. Our new member this year was Mrs. Louis Zelle. We were all asked to bring names to be considered at the spring meeting to be held in May when the voting for new members will take place. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455
(612) 373-2198

This three phase outline of architectural topics is intended to help expand and deepen a more common understanding of architecture. As an introduction, the first three talks focus on the outward associations architecture enjoys (or should enjoy) with other forms of cultural expression. The next four talks turn inward to view the architectural medium itself by isolating four common components of its expression and analyzing their development transhistorically. The final three talks look at our own regional architectural heritage and explores the influences behind its most curious evolution.

TENTATIVE LECTURE TOPICS

- I. A CULTURAL CONTEXT FOR ARCHITECTURAL THOUGHT AND EXPRESSION
 1. "LANGUAGE AND ARCHITECTURE: THE ROLE OF DICTION AND DIALOGUE"
 - some enlightening relationships between the two expressive systems
 2. "ARCHITECTURE AND THE VISUAL ARTS"
 - analogies to sculpture and painting (parallels from representation to abstraction)
 3. "ARCHITECTURE AND THE PERFORMING ARTS"
 - analogies to theater and music (the significance of events, movement and overlapping themes)
- II. ELEMENTS OF ARCHITECTURAL EXPRESSION (TRANSHISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES)
 4. "THE DOOR"
 - signifying welcome, access, security and transition
 5. "THE WINDOW"
 - signifying light, air, lens and mirror
 6. "THE ROOM"
 - signifying use, custom, relative value or position and containment
 7. "THE GARDEN"
 - signifying nature, exposure, fantasy and extension
- III. OUR REGIONAL HERITAGE
 8. REGIONAL ARCHITECTURE I (- 1890)
 - the frontier
 9. REGIONAL ARCHITECTURE II (1890-1955)
 - the establishment of mixed traditions
 10. REGIONAL ARCHITECTURE III (1955-)
 - self-conscious renewal and a modern vision

#1080 - Study Club Business Meeting

The Study Club's business meeting was held Jan. 6, 1983 at the home of Mrs John Bellamy, Jr. In spite of the very bad weather, there were 26 members present in anticipation of the hostess's delicious luncheon. Our President, Mrs Kerblanch called the meeting to order. The secretary, Mrs Helen Morrison, read last year's report, which was accepted. She then gave the Treasurer's report, showing a balance of $143.12 and recommended a dues increase of $5, which will be decided upon in May.

Mrs Kerblanch thanked her officers and Program committee & announced the new officers - Pres - Mrs F. Lyman, V Pres Mrs C. Morrison - Secy. - Mrs J. Morrison, following the precedent of alphabetical order, she then turned the meeting over to Mrs Lyman, who in turn thanked Mrs Kerblanch for a very successful year as President, and announced the Program committee: Mrs Harder, Chairman, Mrs Bennett and Mrs Dixon, and Mrs Gelle. The following suggestions for Study Club programs were made:

1. 3rd World with Dr. Terence Hoffmann
2. Analyzing Central America
3. Great Discussion Course - B. M. Rojas - World Affairs Center.
4. Canada

5. 6th Blake 6. Congress - 7. Aqua culture

After much discussion and many show of hands Nos. 5, 6 & 7 were eliminated - On the final vote
Canada came out with a definite majority followed by Central America
& then the 3rd World with Dr. Hoggman.

The committee will proceed with these guidelines, depending on their ability to find an appropriate speaker.
It was brought up that the day can be changed to Wednesday, if absolutely necessary. A suggestion was made to send the reading list out as early as possible.
The meeting was adjourned,

Respectfully submitted,
Betty K. Williams, Secy.

THE STUDY CLUB'S SPRING MEETING

The Study Club's Spring meeting was called to order by our President, Mrs. Frederick Lyman, on Thursday, May 26, 1983, at 10:30 a.m. About 15 members were present.

Mrs. Lyman regretfully announced the death of Mrs. Loring (Mary Wells) Staples and stated there would be no election now on the vacancy created. There are 34 members at present.

Mrs. Philip Harder then took over the meeting to announce the program for the coming year, 1983. Her committee consisted of Mrs. Louis Zelle and Mrs. Russell Bennett. Mrs. Philip Harder announced that our subject would be Canada, and our lecturer would be Mr. Job from the University of Minnesota. There will be ten lectures.

Mrs. Bennett then took over and asked for ten homes in which to have our meetings. They were all filled out quite readily.

The President then suggested it was up to the Program Committee to meet Mr. Job and direct him to the various homes.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:25 a.m., and we were all guests of Mrs. Lyman's for lunch.

Respectfully submitted,

THE STUDY CLUB'S WINTER MEETING

1090
The Study Club's annual meeting was held January 5, 1984, on a lovely, warm day of 40° at Mrs. Philip Duff's overlooking Lake Marion.

Our President, Mrs. Lyman, called the meeting to order, with 24 members present.

She then turned the meeting over to our new President, Mrs. Clinton Morrison; Vice President, Mrs. John Morrison; Secretary/Treasurer, Mrs. E. Osborne. The President asked for the Treasurer's report which was read by Mrs. John Morrison, and it was revealed that the Club had a total balance of $15.76. The President then opened discussion for raising the dues. Mrs. John Pillsbury, Jr. moved we raise the dues from $45.00 a year to $60.00 a year. Mrs. Benton Case seconded and the motion was carried. A motion was made, seconded and carried that dues be payable immediately (January).

Mrs. Knoblauch suggested we vote for two new members at our next spring business meeting.

The President then turned the meeting over to the Program Chairman, Mrs. William Driscoll, and her Committee, Mrs. William Hartfiel and Mrs. David Cost.

Subjects recommended were:

- | | |
|------------|---------------------------------------|
| Political | 1. Internal Conflicts |
| | 2. Central America (or Latin America) |
| Literary | 3. The Bloomsbury Group |
| Scientific | 4. Oceanography |

We were to vote for categories:

Political was No. 1 (Internal Conflicts; Central America)

Literary was No. 2 (Bloomsbury Group)

Scientific was No. 3 (Oceanography)

Mrs. Lyman thought our Thursday meeting day conflicted with Art Institute day. Wednesdays and Thursdays were then voted on, as to which we preferred. There seemed to be no real preference -- 17 voted for Wednesday, 16 voted for Thursday.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Chy Morrison
Secretary/Treasurer

The Study Club Spring Meeting May 22, 1984.

The Study Club's Spring Meeting was held at Woodhill Country Club on May 22, 1984 at 11:00 A.M. There were 23 members present.

The meeting was called to order by our president, Mrs. Clinton Morrison. Mrs. Morrison then turned the meeting over to Mrs. William Driscoll to announce the program for the coming year. Her committee consisted of Mrs. William Hartfil and Mrs. David Cost. Mrs. Driscoll announced that our subject would be "Dilemmas and Challenges for the United States in Today's World," and our lecturer would again be Mr. Bryan Job, Assoc. Professor, Dept. of Political Science at the University of Minnesota. There will be ten lectures and we are paying Mr. Job $1800.

Mrs. Cost then asked for ten homes in which to hold our meetings. They were all filled quite readily.

The president then asked for nominations to fill one vacancy in our membership, to keep the number at thirty-five. There were four nominations from the floor and Mrs. James Howard was elected. The secretary was instructed to write her a note inviting her to join.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:50 and we were all guests of Mrs. Morrison for a delicious lunch at Woodhill.

#1092

The first fall meeting of the Study Club was held at Mrs. Lyman's on Thursday, Sept 27th. 24 members present.

Our president, Mrs. Clinton Morrison, called the meeting to order and introduced our new member, Mrs. James Howard. Mrs. Thirwell, our program chairwoman then introduced our lecturer, Mr. Bryan Job. His subject for the year is "Dilemmas and Challenges for the U.S. in Today's World".

Today's subject is the "Persian Gulf". Mr. Job went into the religions of the region, especially Islam, which he pointed out takes over all one's life. He also discussed terrorism between sects.

#1093 Thursday, Oct 4 at home of Mrs. Spencer
23 members present subject

U.S. interest in two wars - Iran + Iraq and Afghanistan.

Distributed maps + copies of article - short review of last week's discussion of Persian Gulf States.

Some special points.

Iraq is Arab Nationalist govt - Socialist not Communist a lot of Palestinians on Shiites

Worried about becoming Westernized

Iran not an Arab State - they are Persian

Thus Arab nationalism versus Islamic nation

Gulf States don't want Iran to win.

Afghanistan - tribal - nomads - incredible diversity - cannot get together to combat Soviets

U.S. ties to Pakistan clash with Soviets in Afghanistan

1094 Thursday, Oct 11 at home of Mrs. Benton Case

Mr. Job introduced our speaker for next three weeks, Gary Wynia, prof. of political science at U of M. now holding a chair at Carlton, an authority on Central America.
Gave us a history of the area as far back as 1840.

Under Kennedy, administration tried to establish a common market in C. A. Did not work.

We were asked to ponder the following questions

1. Strategic importance of C. A. to U. S.?
2. What is threatening about C. A.?
3. What about the ideology of their govts.
do they matter to us?
4. What about nationalism - wanting our own terms

1095 Thurs. Oct 18th at home of Mrs. John Pillsbury Jr.

Mr. Wynia's subject - Revolution & war in Nicaragua and El Salvador

Gave history of region

Cause of their revolutions is no outside country, but poverty. Middle & educated people are frustrated, stopped accepting dictatorial govts.
Paradox is in El Salvador we fight for govts. in Nicaragua for the rebels.

1096. Thurs. Oct 25 at home of Mrs. Clinton Morrison

Policy - what next?" I was absent

STUDY CLUB

Winter Meeting - # 1102

January 3, 1985

The Study Club's winter business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Vaughan. There were 26 members there. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Clinton Morrison, who introduced the new President, Mrs. John Morrison, and turned the meeting over to her.

The President introduced the Chairman of the Program Committee, Mrs. Brooks, and the members of her committee, Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Knoblauch. Mrs. Brooks then asked for suggested programs. After fifteen subjects had been suggested, there was a vote on whether we were most interested in culture or economics and culture won. This whittled the group down to the following:

1. 20th Century Culture (Plays, Authors, Music, Art)
2. Music - Vera Sutton or Philip Brunelle
3. Archeology
4. American Women Authors - Susan Toth
5. Bloomsbury - Susan Toth
6. Spanish

Voting by hand, the subjects were narrowed to three:

1. American Women Authors
2. Bloomsbury
3. 20th Century Culture

The membership then voted by preferential written ballot.

A mistake was made in the counting system, suggesting that Bloomsbury had won, but on a corrected recount, American 20th Century Culture won by four votes. The Program Committee was instructed to narrow the field down if necessary.

The minutes of the last winter meeting was read and the Treasurer's report given. The balance as of January, 1985 was $128.93.

The membership was reminded to call the Secretary for an excused absence by the day before the meeting so that she could notify the hostess. It was also suggested that if a member had too many unexcused absences she be asked if she were really interested in remaining a member. The Secretary was reminded to bring the voting procedure to the meetings.

THE STUDY CLUB'S SPRING MEETING # 113

The Study Club's Spring Meeting was called to order by our President, Mrs. John Morrison, on Friday, May 17, at 10:30 a.m. There were 26 members present.

Mrs. Morrison announced that Mrs. Plimpton had written a letter resigning from The Study Club. A motion was made to write her a letter and invite her to be an Honorary Member. This would mean that she would not have to pay dues and would be able to come to any meeting she wished to. This was passed with enthusiasm.

The Program Chairman, Mrs. Brooks, then took over the meeting to announce the program for the coming year 1985. Her committee consisted of Mrs. Knoblauch and Mrs. James Howard. After several months of trying to arrange a program through the University of Minnesota with no results, Mrs. Brooks consulted Professor Clifford Clark, who is a Professor of History and American Studies at Carleton. He came up with a wonderful sounding program entitled "Entering the Modern World." He and Professor Robert Tisdale, who is Professor of English at Carleton, will share the teaching. It sounds like an exciting year.

Mrs. Knoblauch then asked for ten homes in which to have our meetings. The first meeting will be on September 26.

Then our President asked for nominations to fill the vacancy created by making Mrs. Plimpton an Honorary Member. Mrs. Brewster Atwater, Jr. was elected.

The meeting adjourned, and we were all guests of Mrs. Morrison for a delicious lunch at Woodhill.

Respectfully submitted,

Kitty Pillsbury

Mrs. Osborne opened the meeting with a note of sadness for the death of Chy Morrison , who will be greatly missed. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Vaughan, who introduced this year's speaker, Raymond D. Duvall.

Mr. Duvall received his undergraduate degree from the University of Pennsylvania with a major in political science and economics. He earned his PHD at Northwestern University, and became an associate professor of political science at Yale. He came to the University of Minnesota in 1976 and is now a full professor. He spent a sabbatical year in 1981-82 with the World Bank.

The topic for the year is The Politics of International Trade .
Mr. Duvall gave the opening lecture on The Creation and Maintenance of a Stable, Cooperative Regime for Free and Fair Trade.

Dear Mrs. Osborne,

Please be so kind as to pass on my sincere appreciation to the members of The Study Club. The remuneration provided to me was very generous and caught me somewhat by surprise, as I had expected a lesser amount. This generosity brightened our Christmas; so many thanks! But equally important to me, the graciousness and hospitality of Study Club members, their receptivity to and interest in the things I had to say, and their periodic words of support were all greatly appreciated. It was a delightful experience for me to come to know the members and to be involved in The Study Club's activities this past fall. Thank you very much for making the opportunity available to me.

STUDY CLUB

January 9, 1986
Meeting #1125

The winter business meeting of The Study Club was held at the lovely apartment of Mrs. Zelle at 10:30 AM, January 9, 1986. There were 27 members present.

Mrs. John Morrison called the meeting to order and requested that Mrs. Pillsbury read the Secretary-Treasurer's report. The minutes of the last meeting were approved. The bank balance was $84.08.

There was some discussion of the annual dues, and it was agreed that they should remain at $60 this year, with the hope that $2,000 would be adequate to cover the cost of our speaker.

Before turning the meeting over to the new President, Mrs. Edward Osborne, Mrs. Morrison graciously thanked Mrs. Zelle for her hospitality and Mrs. Brooks for her wonderful work in organizing such a stimulating program this year. The officers for the 1986-87 year are Mrs. Osborne, President; Mrs. John Pillsbury, Vice President; and Mrs. Spencer, Secretary.

Discussion of the program for fall of '86 was led by Mrs. Hartfiel, the new Program Chairwoman. The following suggestions were brought forward:

1. The Bloomsbury Group
2. South Africa
3. Economics
4. China and Russia - Their Interrelationship
5. Africa - Post-colonial
6. Islam

After considerable discussion, the final vote by show of hands was 13 for the Bloomsbury Group and 14 for "Economic Pressures in World Politics." The Program Committee was given license to decide which subject would be best, depending on the availability of a really excellent speaker.

Other business matters included a discussion of attendance. It was agreed that the Secretary should continue to take attendance; that it would be helpful if a member would call the Secretary or hostess in advance if she knew she were going to be unable to attend a meeting.

Dues will be payable at the spring meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Harriet Spencer

Meeting #1126

The Study Club's spring meeting was called to order by our President, Mrs. Edward Osborne, on Thursday, June 5th, at 10:30 AM, at Woodhill Club. There were 26 members present.

Helen Hartfiel, Program Chair, announced that our fall lectures on "The Politics of International Trade" will be led by Professor Raymond Duval from the Political Science Department of the University of Minnesota. A reading list will accompany the Study Club roster when it is mailed out later in the summer. Helen was congratulated for her good work on lining up such an interesting-sounding series of lectures.

There was a request for ten homes in which to have our meetings. The first meeting will be on September 25.

In response to a letter of resignation from Mrs. Hartwell, the Study Club moved to accept her resignation with reluctance, and to unanimously elect her to an Honorary membership. Mrs. Carl Jones was also elected to an Honorary membership. The Secretary was instructed to write Mrs. Hartwell and Mrs. Jones "very nice letters."

Mrs. Hartwell's and Mrs. Jones' change in membership status left two vacancies to be filled with new members. Peg Case, Head of Elections, aided by Mary Morrison, called for nominations. Mrs. Bradley Bowman and Mrs. Henry S. Kingman, Jr., were elected. The Secretary was asked to write "very nice letters" to the two new members. It was also suggested that last year's booklet and schedule be sent to the new members so that they would understand Study Club a little better.

It was also suggested that the 1987 spring meeting be held at 11:00 AM as there is not enough business to merit starting at 10:30 AM when lunch is not until 12:00.

It was agreed that fines would be charged for tardiness at the lecture meetings -- but not at the business or spring meetings.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned, and we were all the guests of Mrs. Osborne for a most pleasant lunch at Woodhill.

Respectfully submitted,

Harriet Spencer
