architecture in society. The third meeting will be a discussion of the role of architecture in the environment. The fourth meeting will be a discussion of the role of architecture in the city. The fifth meeting will be a discussion of the role of architecture in the landscape. The sixth meeting will be a discussion of the role of architecture in the culture. The seventh meeting will be a discussion of the role of architecture in the history of art.

STUDY CLUB

1982-1983

SUBJECT

Architecture:

A three phase outline of architectural topics intended to expand and deepen a more common understanding of architecture.

Garth Rockcastle, Assistant Professor of Architecture, University of Minnesota.
Principal, Myer, Scherer and Rockcastle, Ltd., Minneapolis, Minnesota.

MEETINGS

10:30 A.M. Thursdays

All meetings will be held at Woodhill Country Club

As an introduction, the first three talks focus on the outward associations architecture enjoys (or should enjoy) with other forms of cultural expression. The next four talks turn inward to view the architectural medium itself by isolating four common components of its expression and analyzing their development transhistorically. The final three talks look at our own regional architectural heritage and explores the influences behind its most curious evolution.

I. A CULTURAL CONTEXT FOR ARCHITECTURAL THOUGHT AND EXPRESSION

- September 30th
1. "LANGUAGE AND ARCHITECTURE: THE ROLE OF DICTION AND DIALOGUE"
-some enlightening relationships between the two expressive systems
- October 7th
2. "ARCHITECTURE AND THE VISUAL ARTS"
-analogies to sculpture and painting (parallels from representation to abstraction)
- October 14th
3. "ARCHITECTURE AND THE PERFORMING ARTS"
-analogies to theatre and music (the significance of events, movement and overlapping themes)

II. ELEMENTS OF ARCHITECTURAL EXPRESSION (TRANS-HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES)

- October 21st
4. "THE DOOR"
-signifying welcome, access, security and transition
- October 28th
5. "THE WINDOW"
-signifying light, air, lens and mirror
- November 4th
6. "THE ROOM"
-signifying use, custom, relative value or position and containment
- November 11th
7. "THE GARDEN"
-signifying nature, exposure, fantasy and extension

III. OUR REGIONAL HERITAGE

- November 18th
8. REGIONAL ARCHITECTURE I (-1920)
-the frontier
- December 2nd
9. REGIONAL ARCHITECTURE II (1920-1970)
-the establishment of mixed traditions
- December 9th
10. REGIONAL ARCHITECTURE III (1970-)
-self-conscious renewal and a modern vision
- January...Business meeting
