THE HOUSE HAD A SETTLERS COTTAGE WE think. That portion WAS removed. It had a dug out cellar and consisted of Three rooms An addition was built on to it in the 1800's which was 2 story attached to the cottage. It is still standing but converted to storage. It was built with a upstairs outside entrance for perhaps room rental on the 2nd floor. THE Grainry also is a vintage ~~bu~~ilding. The original barn was torn down with some supplies reused in the existing barn which was built in 1948. THE SETTLERS cottage had boards as wide as 15" and it had crumpled pieces of a Polish Newspaper inside the walls.

Clemens Volker met Emma Marie Schmidt in Muscatine, Iowa, in 1910. Clemens emigrated from Germany. He was traveling through the area looking for a place to live and met Fred Schmidt, who also spoke German. He moved in with the Schmidt family as a boarder. Clemens thought farming would be a good life. He talked the Schmidts into moving to Livonia Township near Zimmerman, MN, (1910) where they farmed. October 1915 Clemens and Emma married. They built/operated a country grocery/general store where they also lived.

In 1918 Clemens, Emma and her parents, Fred & Louise Schmidt, moved by horses and wagon, with their belongings. They herded the cattle by foot to Greenbush Township, 10 miles NW of Princeton. There were no roads, only a dirt trail from Elk River to Princeton. In Princeton, they watered the animals at a water tank near the railroad tracks, and then proceeded another ten miles to the farm. These people were true pioneers.
