Additional comments:

We have a land grant signed by Abraham Lincoln and dated April 1, 1861, that was given to Phebe Ewing

Widow of William Ewing who was a captain in the Pennsylvania militia in the War of 1812, and papers that the Widow Ewing assigned to Philo Woodruff Executor and by him to the heirs of Morgan Woodruff deceased. By this act the land came into the hands of George and Catherine Means. From who my Grand Father Sam Knutson Hagen bought for $400.00. My Grand Father came from Rodal Norway in the 1850^s. He married his first wife in ~~Minnesota~~ Morristown the territory of Minnesota, in 1856. In 1857 he bought 160 acres in Woodville township Waseca County and lived there until he bought the Blooming Grove Farm in 1864. In the 1880^s his first wife became ill and he had a young lady from Norway (my Grandmother) to help take care of her. When his wife died, he married the care giver. They had 6 children. My Grand Father died
