LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, Agnes E. Schroeder, a resident of the Village of Paynesville in the County of Stearns and State of Minnesota, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills made by me.

I direct the payment by my executor hereinafter named out of my estate of all of my just debts allowed in the course of the administration of my estate, the expenses of last illness and funeral, the expenses of the administration of my estate, and all inheritance and estate taxes.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate and property, of whatever nature and wheresoever situate and whether now owned or hereafter acquired, I give, devise and bequeath unto my husband, William G. Schroeder, in the event that he survives me, and should he not survive me, then all thereof unto my nephew, Maurice J. Weber, of Walnut Grove, Minnesota, for his own use and benefit, absolutely and forever, and should my said nephew predecease me, then all thereof unto his lawful issue surviving him, share and share alike.

I have intentionally omitted all other heirs of mine who are not specifically mentioned herein, and I hereby generally and specifically disinherit each, any and all persons whomsoever claiming to be or who may be lawfully determined to be my heirs at law, except only as mentioned and provided for in this will.

I request that in the event that his services are available to the executor hereunder, Edward P. Flynn of Paynesville, Minnesota, be retained as the attorney in the administration of my estate, because of his familiarity with my affairs.

I hereby nominate and appoint Ben A. Schroeder of Paynesville, Minnesota, as the executor of this, my last will and testament.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand to this, my last will and testament, at Paynesville, Minnesota, on this 20th. day of November, 1958.

Order Admitting Will to Probate

The above entitled matter came on to be heard on the 24th day of August 1962

upon the petition of Ben A. Schroeder

for the allowance of an instrument filed therewith purporting to be the last will and testament of the above named decedent; and the court having duly heard the same and all the evidence produced in support thereof, and having duly considered the same, finds as follows:

FIRST—That the citation of this court, dated the 30th day of July 1962 has been duly served and published as directed therein and required by law.

SECOND—That said decedent died on the 10th day of July 1962, and at the time of his death was a resident of Paynesville in the County of Stearns and State of Minnesota and left estate in the County of Stearns State of Minnesota.

THIRD—That the subscribing witnesses to said purported last will and testament of said decedent, to-wit:

Ben A. Schroeder and Edw. P. Flynn and Edw. P. Flynn duly sworn and examined, and his testimony reduced to writing, subscribed by him and filed herein.

FOURTH—That said instrument presented for probate as aforesaid was duly executed by said decedent as his last will and testament, according to law; and that said decedent, at the time he executed the said instrument, was of sound mind and free from undue influence, of lawful age, and under no restraint

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said instrument presented and proved as aforesaid be and the same hereby is, established and allowed as the last will and testament of the above named decedent, and is hereby admitted to probate.

LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

Decedent died on July 10th, 1962

To Ben A. Schroeder

GREETING:

Whereas, You have been appointed execut or of the last will and testament of the above named decedent, by the order of this court, and have duly qualified as such:

Now Therefore, Reposing full faith and trust in your competency, ability and integrity, these letters testamentary are issued to you by the court, authorizing you to execute and carry into effect the said will of said decedent, according to the true intent thereof, and granting unto you all the powers, duties and responsibilities incident to said trust, in substance as follows, to-wit:

FIRST—To take possession of all the estate of said decedent, both real and personal, excepting that which may be set aside by the court for the surviving spouse or children of said decedent; to collect and receive all the rents, issues, increase and profits of said estate; to demand, receive, collect, sue for and recover all the debts, claims, rights, and choses in action, which to said decedent at the time of h er death did belong; and, in within one month from the date hereof, to make and file in this court a true, verified, inventory of all the estate of said decedent, and cause the same to be appraised according to law.

SECOND—To manage, care for, and administer the said estate, to the end that the same may be preserved, kept, and increased, in the most economical and efficient manner; and to keep in good condition of repair all the buildings and improvements on the real estate of decedent.

THIRD—To cause to be paid, according to the provisions of said will as far as possible, and where not possible, then according to law, out of the personal estate of decedent if the same be sufficient therefor, and if not sufficient, then out of the real estate of decedent to be sold under the order of this court, the following charges, demands, and debts, in the order following, to-wit: the expenses of the administration of said estate; the expenses of the funeral of said decedent; the expenses of the last sickness of said decedent; all the debts of decedent having preference under the laws of the United States; all taxes that shall be legally levied upon the estate of decedent; all other debts of decedent due to h er creditors that shall be duly proved and allowed by the court, if said estate be sufficient therefor, otherwise to pay the same pro rata; all legacies given and provided by said will of decedent, if h er said estate be sufficient therefor.

FOURTH—To make and file in this court, whenever requested by the court so to do, and at the completion of said trust, full and true accounts, with itemized statements, under oath, of all said estate and the increase thereof, that shall come into your hands, and of all disbursements made by you and of all the residue that remains in your hands, together with the value and condition thereof; and, at the completion of said trust, to turn over all the residue of said estate in your hands to those declared thereunto entitled by the court.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. STATUTES: The inheritance tax law appears in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 291. Taxable transfers are defined in Minnesota Statutes 291.01. Filing an inheritance tax return is required by Minnesota Statutes 291.12.
2. USE AND PROCEDURE: This return will be used in all estates to report all transfers from deceased persons to heirs or beneficiaries which are not included in the inventory in a Minnesota probate proceeding.
 - A. If there is a Minnesota probate proceeding (general administration, special administration, summary distribution, or petition for decree of descent), the return will be filed with probate court. If a tax may be due, or if a waiver of inheritance tax lien from the commissioner is needed, prepare the return in duplicate.
 - B. If there is no Minnesota probate proceeding, only an original return must be filed directly with the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, St. Paul 1, Minn. DO NOT FILE IN DUPLICATE.
 - C. If it is claimed that decedent was not a resident of Minnesota, an Affidavit of Non-Residence (Form D. of T. EG 1019), furnished by the Commissioner of Taxation, must be filed with this return. In such case, this return will disclose the detail of transfers of property having situs in Minnesota, and the total value of transfers in each class of property having situs elsewhere.
3. DETERMINATION OF TAX: The court will determine the tax upon property included in the probate proceeding. The department will determine the tax upon the transfers disclosed in the return.
4. The representative of the estate or other person executing the return is obliged to report all transfers which may be subject to tax. Each schedule of the return is to be construed as a question which must be answered by describing the transfers or by stating that there were none of this class, if such is the case.
5. Satisfaction or waiver of inheritance tax lien upon the transfer of joint tenancy property can be obtained from the Department of Taxation by use of the Affidavit of Survivorship, Joint Tenancy or Remainderman, D. of T. EG 1018, which may be purchased from a legal stationer. FILE IN DUPLICATE.
6. If space in any schedule is insufficient, additional schedules in like form may be attached.
7. The value of all properties transferred and reported herein is the full and fair market value on date of death.

In all estates where there is a will the following rule applies to the spouse who has not consented to the will:
525.212 RENUNCIATION AND ELECTION. If a will make provision for a surviving spouse in lieu of the rights in the estate secured by statute, such spouse shall be deemed to have elected to take under the will, unless he shall have filed an instrument in writing renouncing and refusing to accept the provisions of such will within six months after the filing of the certificate of probate. For good cause shown, the court may permit an election within such further time as the court may determine. Last Will and Testament

I, Wilhelmina Rolfes, now a resident of the Village of Freeport, Stearns County, Minnesota, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, and do hereby revoke any and all wills and codicils heretofore made by me.

I.

I direct the representative of my estate to pay from the residue of my probate estate all of my just debts allowed in the course of the administration of my estate, the expenses of my last illness, funeral and burial, the expenses of administering my estate, and all estate, inheritance, transfer, succession and legacy taxes and duties occasioned by my death, whether the property with respect to which the particular tax is levied is or is not subject to the jurisdiction of the probate court.

II.

I direct the representative of my estate to spend the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for the purpose of having masses read for the repose of my soul in such Roman Catholic Church or churches as my executor hereinafter named may choose.

III.

I hereby give and bequeath unto my son, Allen Rolfes, the sum of One Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($1,200.00), which is back wages which I wish to pay him. In addition to this sum, I give and bequeath unto my said son, Allen Rolfes, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), thus making a bequest of Two Thousand Two Hundred Dollars ($2,200.00) to him in this paragraph.

IV.

I hereby give and bequeath unto my son, Harvey Rolfes, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), absolutely and forever.

V.

I hereby give and bequeath unto my son, Alcuin Rolfes, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), absolutely and forever.

Wilhelmina Rolfes

VI.

I hereby give and bequeath unto my son, Anthony Rolfes, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), absolutely and forever.

VII.

I hereby give and bequeath unto my son, Gerald Rolfes, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), absolutely and forever.

VIII.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, and personal, I give and bequeath unto my children who survive me, in equal shares, however, if any of my children shall predecease me leaving issue surviving me, such issue shall take in equal shares per stirpes the part which the child who predeceased me would have taken if such child had survived me. My only living children are as follows: Amandus Rolfes, Alice Silbernack, Marcella Westbrook, Harvey Rolfes, Anthony Rolfes, Alcuin Rolfes, Gerald Rolfes, Allen Rolfes, and Luverne Roering. My daughter, Dolores, has predeceased me and she has left surviving two daughters namely, Carol Schwartz and Jean Schwartz. It is my wish that they take nothing by virtue of this Will, and that they do not share in my estate in any manner whatsoever. I intentionally exclude them from the provisions of this Will and make no provision for my deceased daughter, Dolores.

IX.

A. I hereby nominate and appoint as the executor of this my Last Will and Testament my son, Amandus Rolfes. It is my desire that he serve without bond.

B. I give to my said executor with respect to my estate during the probate thereof full power and authority to sell, convey, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber or dispose of any part or all of my estate, real, personal or mixed; to compromise, settle and adjust all tax and other problems arising in connection with my estate; to earmark and designate assets for my devisees and legatees hereunder; to assign undivided interests in any property of my estate and to determine the value of any asset of my estate; and full and complete power and authority to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper for the full and complete administration of my estate and the fulfillment of this Will and any codicil hereto. All such powers may be exercised by my said executor without prior court order or approval.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this my Last Will and Testament, consisting of three (3) typewritten pages, including this page, and have subscribed my name on each page hereof at Melrose, Minnesota, this 29th day of November, 1961.

Wilhelmina Rolfes

THIS INSTRUMENT, consisting of three (3) typewritten pages, including this page, subscribed by Wilhelmina Rolfes, and each page hereof bearing her signature, was on the date hereof, signed, published and declared by said Wilhelmina Rolfes as and for her Last Will and Testament. This was done in our presence and we, at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, believing her to be of sound and disposing mind and memory, have hereunto set our hands as attesting witnesses hereof. Prior to the affixation of our signatures, this attestation paragraph was read to us, and we hereby attest that the matters hereinabove stated took place in fact, at the time and in the manner hereinabove set forth.

Order Admitting Will to Probate

The above entitled matter came on to be heard on the 24th day of August 1962

upon the petition of Amandus Rolfes

for the allowance of an instrument filed therewith purporting to be the last will and testament of the above named decedent; and the court having duly heard the same and all the evidence produced in support thereof, and having duly considered the same, finds as follows:

FIRST—That the citation of this court, dated the 30th day of July 1962 has been duly served and published as directed therein and required by law.

SECOND—That said decedent died on the 21st day of July 1962, and at the time of his death was a resident of Freeport in the County of Stearns and State of Minnesota and left estate in the County of Stearns State of Minnesota.

THIRD—That the subscribing witnesses to said purported last will and testament of said decedent, to-wit:

William G. Meyer and Mary Lou Thull and William G. Meyer duly sworn and examined, and his testimony reduced to writing, subscribed by him and filed herein.

FOURTH—That said instrument presented for probate as aforesaid was duly executed by said decedent as his last will and testament, according to law; and that said decedent, at the time he executed the said instrument, was of sound mind and free from undue influence, of lawful age, and under no restraint

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said instrument presented and proved as aforesaid be and the same hereby is, established and allowed as the last will and testament of the above named decedent, and is hereby admitted to probate.

LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

Decedent died on July 21st, 1962

To Amandus Rolfes

GREETING:

Whereas, You have been appointed execut or of the last will and testament of the above named decedent, by the order of this court, and have duly qualified as such:

Now Therefore, Reposing full faith and trust in your competency, ability and integrity, these letters testamentary are issued to you by the court, authorizing you to execute and carry into effect the said will of said decedent, according to the true intent thereof, and granting unto you all the powers, duties and responsibilities incident to said trust, in substance as follows, to-wit:

FIRST—To take possession of all the estate of said decedent, both real and personal, excepting that which may be set aside by the court for the surviving spouse or children of said decedent; to collect and receive all the rents, issues, increase and profits of said estate; to demand, receive, collect, sue for and recover all the debts, claims, rights, and choses in action, which to said decedent at the time of her death did belong; and, in within one month from the date hereof, to make and file in this court a true, verified, inventory of all the estate of said decedent, and cause the same to be appraised according to law.

SECOND—To manage, care for, and administer the said estate, to the end that the same may be preserved, kept, and increased, in the most economical and efficient manner; and to keep in good condition of repair all the buildings and improvements on the real estate of decedent.

THIRD—To cause to be paid, according to the provisions of said will as far as possible, and where not possible, then according to law, out of the personal estate of decedent if the same be sufficient therefor, and if not sufficient, then out of the real estate of decedent to be sold under the order of this court, the following charges, demands, and debts, in the order following, to-wit: the expenses of the administration of said estate; the expenses of the funeral of said decedent; the expenses of the last sickness of said decedent; all the debts of decedent having preference under the laws of the United States; all taxes that shall be legally levied upon the estate of decedent; all other debts of decedent due to her creditors that shall be duly proved and allowed by the court, if said estate be sufficient therefor, otherwise to pay the same pro rata; all legacies given and provided by said will of decedent, if her said estate be sufficient therefor.

FOURTH—To make and file in this court, whenever requested by the court so to do, and at the completion of said trust, full and true accounts, with itemized statements, under oath, of all said estate and the increase thereof, that shall come into your hands, and of all disbursements made by you and of all the residue that remains in your hands, together with the value and condition thereof; and, at the completion of said trust, to turn over all the residue of said estate in your hands to those declared thereunto entitled by the court.

Give details of such claims on Schedule I or by separate affidavit.

INSTRUCTIONS

- STATUTES: The inheritance tax law appears in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 291. Taxable transfers are defined in Minnesota Statutes 291.01. Filing an inheritance tax return is required by Minnesota Statutes 291.12.
- USE AND PROCEDURE: This return will be used in all estates to report all transfers from deceased persons to heirs or beneficiaries which are not included in the inventory in a Minnesota probate proceeding.
 - If there is a Minnesota probate proceeding (general administration, special administration, summary distribution, or petition for decree of descent), the return will be filed with probate court. If a tax may be due, or if a waiver of inheritance tax lien from the commissioner is needed, prepare the return in duplicate.
 - If there is no Minnesota probate proceeding, only an original return must be filed directly with the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, St. Paul 1, Minn. DO NOT FILE IN DUPLICATE.
 - If it is claimed that decedent was not a resident of Minnesota, an Affidavit of Non-Residence (Form D. of T. EG 1019), furnished by the Commissioner of Taxation, must be filed with this return. In such case, this return will disclose the detail of transfers of property having situs in Minnesota, and the total value of transfers in each class of property having situs elsewhere.
- DETERMINATION OF TAX: The court will determine the tax upon property included in the probate proceeding. The department will determine the tax upon the transfers disclosed in the return.
- The representative of the estate or other person executing the return is obliged to report all transfers which may be subject to tax. Each schedule of the return is to be construed as a question which must be answered by describing the transfers or by stating that there were none of this class, if such is the case.
- Satisfaction or waiver of inheritance tax lien upon the transfer of joint tenancy property can be obtained from the Department of Taxation by use of the Affidavit of Survivorship, Joint Tenancy or Remainderman, D. of T. EG 1018, which may be purchased from a legal stationer. FILE IN DUPLICATE.
- If space in any schedule is insufficient, additional schedules in like form may be attached.
- The value of all properties transferred and reported herein is the full and fair market value on date of death.

(If any transfer is considered not taxable, so designate. Otherwise designate whether transfer is taxable under A., B. or C.)

A. Transfers in contemplation of death:

Report transfers or gifts by decedent before his death, which are in the nature of a final disposition in anticipation of death. It is presumed that a transfer of a material portion of decedent's property within three years prior to death is made in contemplation of death.

Report gifts made by decedent during his lifetime which total more than $3,000 to one donee in any calendar year.

B. Transfers intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after death:

Report transfers of property by deed, trust or agreement in which the decedent had retained a life estate, or all or part of the income for life, or a power of revocation.

Report transfers in which the beneficiary's possession or enjoyment takes effect at or after decedent's death or in which the deed or instrument of title is delivered or recorded at or after decedent's death.

NOTE: Under both A. and B. copies of trust instruments must be attached to the return as exhibits. If it is claimed that any transfer is non-taxable, detailed verified statements of the claim must be submitted.

C. Powers of Appointment:

Report the property in respect to which the decedent held a power of appointment at any time. Attach a copy of the instrument granting the power of appointment to the decedent and a schedule of the assets subject to the power at date of death, together with the values of such assets.

Did the decedent exercise the power?

Attach a copy of the instrument exercising the power unless it is a will previously filed for probate. If the power had been relinquished by decedent, attach a copy of the instrument.

In the Matter of the Estate of

Wilhelmina Rolfes,

Decedent.

ORDER ALLOWING FINAL ACCOUNT.

The above entitled matter came on to be heard on the 3rd day of April, 1964, upon the petition of the representative of the above named estate praying for the allowance of his final account and for distribution of the residue of said estate.

The said representative appeared in person and by Attorney, William G. Meyer and no one appeared in opposition thereto.

The Court after due consideration of said petition, the evidence adduced in support thereof, and the files and records in said matter, finds the following facts:

First—That due notice of the said hearing of said petition has been given as required by law by the publication of the citation of this Court, for said hearing, dated the 2nd day of March, 1964, in the Melrose Beacon, Proof of publication of said notice of hearing and affidavit of service by mail having been filed in this Court.

Second—That the said final account set forth in said petition has been examined, adjusted and settled by the Court, and as so adjusted and settled, is hereby found to be correct; a summary statement of which account is as follows, to-wit:

ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE OR MINOR CHILDREN

When a decedent dies with or without a will the allowances to the spouse or minor children are as follows:

- 525.15 ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE. When any person dies testate, or intestate, (1) The surviving spouse shall be allowed from the personal property of which the decedent was possessed or to which he was entitled at the time of his death, the wearing apparel, and, as selected by him, furniture and household goods not exceeding $2,000 in value, and other personal property not exceeding $1,000 in value;
- (2) When, except for one automobile, all of the personal estate of the decedent is allowed to the surviving spouse by clause (1), the surviving spouse shall also be allowed such automobile.
- (3) If there be no surviving spouse, the minor children shall receive the property specified in clause (1) as selected in their behalf;
- (4) During administration, but not exceeding 18 months, unless an extension shall have been granted by the court, or, if the estate be insolvent, not exceeding 12 months, the spouse or children, or both, constituting the family of the decedent shall be allowed such reasonable maintenance as the court may determine;
- (5) In the administration of an estate of a non-resident decedent, the allowances received in the domiciliary administration shall be deducted from the allowances under this section.

In all estates where there is a will the following rule applies to the spouse who has not consented to the will: 525.212 RENUNCIATION AND ELECTION. If a will make provision for a surviving spouse in lieu of the rights in the estate secured by statute, such spouse shall be deemed to have elected to take under the will, unless he shall have filed an instrument in writing renouncing and refusing to accept the provisions of such will within six months after the filing of the certificate of probate. For good cause shown, the court may permit an election within such further time as the court may determine. No devise or bequest to a surviving spouse shall be considered as adding to the rights in the estate secured by sections 525.145 and 525.16 to such spouse, unless it clearly appears from the contents of the will that such was the testator's intent.

- 625.15 ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE. When any person dies testate, or intestate,
- (1) The surviving spouse shall be allowed from the personal property of which the decedent was possessed or to which he was entitled at the time of his death, the wearing apparel, and, as selected by him, furniture and household goods not exceeding $2,000 in value, and other personal property not exceeding $1,000 in value;
- (2) When, except for one automobile, all of the personal estate of the decedent is allowed to the surviving spouse by clause (1), the surviving spouse shall also be allowed such automobile;
- (3) If there be no surviving spouse, the minor children shall receive the property specified in clause (1) as selected in their behalf;
- (4) During administration, but not exceeding 18 months, unless an extension shall have been granted by the court, or, if the estate be insolvent, not exceeding 12 months, the spouse or children, or both, constituting the family of the decedent shall be allowed such reasonable maintenance as the court may determine;
- (5) In the administration of an estate of a non-resident decedent, the allowances received in the domiciliary administration shall be deducted from the allowances under this section.
- In all estates where there is a will the following rule applies to the spouse who has not consented to the will:
- 625.212 RENUNCIATION AND ELECTION. If a will make provision for a surviving spouse in lieu of the rights in the estate secured by statute, such spouse shall be deemed to have elected to take under the will, unless he shall have filed an instrument in writing renouncing and refusing to accept the provisions of such will within six months after the filing of the certificate of probate. For good cause shown, the court may permit an election within such further time as the court may determine. No devise or bequest to a surviving spouse shall be considered as adding to the rights in the estate secured by sections 625.145 and 625.16 to such spouse, unless it clearly appears from the contents of the will that such was the testator's intent.
