Hon. Judge Lang
Judge of Probate Court
St. Cloud, Minnesota

Re: Estate of Frank Grams 19,413

Dear Judge Lang:

A final audit of the above estate discloses an error in the inheritance tax return, under Schedule I thereof (property held in joint tenancy).

Under the listing of property for Nicholas Grams, son of decedent, your attention is called to a U. S. Savings Bond, Series K, Serial No. M 555 488K, issued 10-1-55, with a maturity value stated at $500.00, and carried to the gross valuation column in this amount. This bond should have been listed with a maturity value of $1000.00, with $1000.00 carried to the gross valuation column, being an increase of $500.00 in valuation for this surviving joint tenant.

Kindly accept this letter as an amendment of the inheritance tax return filed with your Court.

Since determination of tax with respect to this item will be made by the Inheritance Tax Division, a copy of this letter is being sent to them with the request that their copy be amended accordingly.

My apology to you and the division for not discovering this error more promptly.

Very truly yours,

J. B. Pattison, Jr.
