PETITION FOR RESTORATION
TO CAPACITY

In the Matter of the Guardianship of

Margaret Emily Frank

Mentally Deficient --- Epileptic

To the Probate Court of said County:

The Petition of the Commissioner of Public Welfare respectfully shows:

That by an Order of this Court (acting for Stearns County) made on October 16, 1962, the above-named was adjudged to be mentally deficient -- epileptic, and the Commissioner of Public Welfare of the State of Minnesota was duly appointed the guardian of her person and accepted that trust; that said appointment has never been revoked; and that the above-named is now under the guardianship of the Commissioner of Public Welfare.

That Margaret Emily Frank has been supervised by the Stearns County Social Service Agency which reports that she is steadily employed at a local nursing home, that she manages her affairs adequately, and that she no longer needs guardianship; therefore, I recommend restoration to capacity.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that the Court inquire into the facts, and make an Order discharging the Commissioner of Public Welfare as guardian of the above-named, and that Court restore her to capacity, pursuant to Section 253A.19, Minnesota Statutes 1967.
