LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

Decedent died on November 20th, 1962

To Barbara Funk

GREETING:

Whereas, You have been appointed executor of the last will and testament of the above named decedent, by the order of this court, and have duly qualified as such:

Now Therefore, Reposing full faith and trust in your competency, ability and integrity, these letters testamentary are issued to you by the court, authorizing you to execute and carry into effect the said will of said decedent, according to the true intent thereof, and granting unto you all the powers, duties and responsibilities incident to said trust, in substance as follows, to-wit:

FIRST—To take possession of all the estate of said decedent, both real and personal, excepting that which may be set aside by the court for the surviving spouse or children of said decedent; to collect and receive all the rents, issues, increase and profits of said estate; to demand, receive, collect, sue for and recover all the debts, claims, rights, and choses in action, which to said decedent at the time of his death did belong; and, in within one month from the date hereof, to make and file in this court a true, verified, inventory of all the estate of said decedent, and cause the same to be appraised according to law.

SECOND—To manage, care for, and administer the said estate, to the end that the same may be preserved, kept, and increased, in the most economical and efficient manner; and to keep in good condition of repair all the buildings and improvements on the real estate of decedent.

THIRD—To cause to be paid, according to the provisions of said will as far as possible, and where not possible, then according to law, out of the personal estate of decedent if the same be sufficient therefor, and if not sufficient, then out of the real estate of decedent to be sold under the order of this court, the following charges, demands, and debts, in the order following, to-wit: the expenses of the administration of said estate; the expenses of the funeral of said decedent; the expenses of the last sickness of said decedent; all the debts of decedent having preference under the laws of the United States; all taxes that shall be legally levied upon the estate of decedent; all other debts of decedent due to his creditors that shall be duly proved and allowed by the court, if said estate be sufficient therefor, otherwise to pay the same pro rata; all legacies given and provided by said will of decedent, if his said estate be sufficient therefor.

FOURTH—To make and file in this court, whenever requested by the court so to do, and at the completion of said trust, full and true accounts, with itemized statements, under oath, of all said estate and the increase thereof, that shall come into your hands, and of all disbursements made by you and of all the residue that remains in your hands, together with the value and condition thereof; and, at the completion of said trust, to turn over all the residue of said estate in your hands to those declared thereunto entitled by the court.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. STATUTES: The Inheritance tax law appears in M. S. A., Chapter 291. Taxable transfers are defined in M. S. A. 291.01. Filing an inheritance tax return is required by M. S. A. 291.12. Amendments were adopted by Laws of Minnesota 1943, Chapter 564, Section 6, Sub. 2.
 2. USE AND PROCEDURE: This return will be used in all estates to report all transfers from deceased persons to heirs or beneficiaries which are not included in the inventory in a Minnesota probate proceeding.
 - A. If there is a Minnesota probate proceeding (general administration, special administration, summary distribution, or petition for decree of descent), the return will be filed with probate court. If a tax may be due, or if a waiver of inheritance tax lien from the commissioner is needed, prepare the return in duplicate.
 - B. If there is no Minnesota probate proceeding, the return must be filed directly with the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, 221 State Office Building, St. Paul 1, Minn.
 - C. If it is claimed that decedent was not a resident of Minnesota, an Affidavit of Non-Residence (Form D of T. EG 1019) must be filed with this return. In such case, this return will disclose the detail of transfers of property having situs in Minnesota, and the total value of transfers in each class of property having situs elsewhere.
 3. DETERMINATION OF TAX: The court will determine the tax upon property included in the probate proceeding. The department will determine the tax upon the transfers disclosed in the return.
 4. The representative of the estate or other person executing the return is obliged to report all transfers which may be subject to tax. Each schedule of the return is to be construed as a question which must be answered by describing the transfers or by stating that there were none of this class, if such is the case.
 5. Satisfaction or waiver of inheritance tax lien upon the transfer of joint tenancy property can be obtained from the Department of Taxation by use of the Affidavit of Survivorship, Joint Tenancy or Remainderman, D. of T. EG 1018, which may be purchased from a legal stationer.
 6. If space in any schedule is insufficient, additional schedules in like form may be attached.
 7. The value of all properties transferred and reported herein is the full and fair market value on date of death.

SCHEDULE I — PROPERTY HELD IN JOINT TENANCY

All property of whatever kind, whether real estate, personal property, bank accounts, U. S. Savings Bonds, etc., in which the decedent held an interest at the time of his death as a joint tenant or as co-owner with right of survivorship, must be disclosed in this schedule.

Claims of consideration furnished by the survivor, or claims of creation of the joint tenancy by gift or inheritance must be stated in an affidavit giving verifiable details showing the source, nature, amount and proportion of the survivors contribution. Exhibits submitted to prove claim will be returned upon request. The homestead of decedent, if included in any of the schedules, must be identified before the exemption in favor of spouse or minor or dependent children can be allowed. Excess homestead area, if any, must be separately described and valued.

Please group all properties transferred to each surviving joint tenant.

Barbara Funk being first duly sworn deposes and says that she is the Executrix in the Estate of Adam Funk and that this affidavit is made in support and in explanation of the item of real estate listed in Schedule I of the Inheritance Tax return.

Affiant further states that she is one of nine children of the deceased John Funk who died testate on July 24, 1917. That as such she inherited an undivided one-ninth interest in the real estate described in Schedule I of the Inheritance Tax return, subject to a life estate in her mother, Maria Funk. That her mother, Maria Funk, died on February 15, 1943. That the estate of John Funk was probated in 1944 and that a Final Decree was issued by the Probate Court of Stearns County on June 16, 1944 assigning an undivided one-ninth interest in said property to each of John Funk, Elizabeth Schwinghammer, Nicholas Funk, Rev. John B. Funk, Mathias Funk, Adam Funk, Sebastian Funk, Martin Funk and Barbara Funk, in fee simple, absolutely and forever. That thereafter, on June 6, 1945, John Funk and his wife, Elizabeth Schwinghammer and her husband, Nicholas Funk and his wife, Rev. John Funk, single, Mathias Funk and his wife, and Sebastian Funk and his wife, conveyed their undivided six-ninths interest to Adam Funk, Martin Funk, and Barbara Funk, as tenants in common for the sum of $5000.00. That thereafter said real estate belonged to the last three persons named in undivided shares of one-third each.

That thereafter on January 4, 1947 Martin Funk died intestate leaving no issue and that on July 25, 1947 the Probate Court of Stearns County issued a Final Decree assigning an undivided one-eighth interest in the undivided one-third interest of said real estate to each of the remaining brothers and sisters, namely John Funk, Nicholas Funk, Elizabeth Schwinghammer, John B. Funk, Mathias Funk, Adam Funk, Sebastian Funk and Barbara Funk.

That thereafter on January 16, 1947 and for a nominal consideration each of the other heirs in the Estate of Martin Funk assigned their interest to Adam Funk and Barbara Funk as joint tenants. The joint tenancy was made effective as to all of their interests in this tract of land by a previous quit claim deed given by Adam Funk and Barbara Funk to Mathias Funk.

It is the claim of the affiant that she was the undisputed owner of an undivided one-half interest in said tract of land and that she inherited only the undivided one-half interest of Adam Funk by virtue of her survivorship under the joint tenancy deed.

The entire tract of land was sold by the affiant on a contract for deed dated December 21, 1962 for the sum of $14,000.00.

Further affiant sayeth not except that this affidavit is made for the purpose of establishing the value of the inheritance recieved by Barbara Funk, as the surviving joint tenant on the tract described in Schedule I of the Inheritance Tax return in the Estate of Adam Funk.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF

Adam Funk,

Decedent.

Final Decree of Distribution

The above entitled matter came on to be heard on the 9th day of August, 1963, upon the petition of the representative of said estate for the distribution of the residue of said estate to the persons thereunto entitled.

The representative of said estate appeared in person and by attorney, John Knapp, and no one appeared in opposition thereto.

And the court having considered the evidence produced at said hearing, the arguments of counsel, and the files and records in said matter, finds the following facts:

FIRST—That notice of said hearing has been duly given and served as required by law and the order of this court for said hearing.

SECOND—That the said estate has been in all respects fully administered, and the expenses of the administration thereof and of the last sickness and burial of said decedent, and all claims allowed against said estate have been fully paid, and that said representative has filed her final account herein which has been settled and allowed by the Court. That all inheritance taxes determined by the Court to be due the State of Minnesota have been paid.

THIRD—That said decedent died testate on the 20th day of November, 1962, and at the time of his death decedent was a resident of the County of Stearns and State of Minnesota.

FOURTH—That the residue of the estate of said decedent for distribution consists of the following property, to-wit:

AFFIDAVIT OF MAILING

ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE OR MINOR CHILDREN

When a decedent dies with or without a will the allowances to the spouse or minor children are as follows:

525.15 ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE. When any person dies testate, or intestate,

- (1) The surviving spouse shall be allowed from the personal property of which the decedent was possessed or to which he was entitled at the time of his death, the wearing apparel and, as selected by him, furniture and household goods not exceeding $2,000 in value, and other personal property not exceeding $1,000 in value;
- (2) When, except for one automobile, all of the personal estate of the decedent is allowed to the surviving spouse by clause (1), the surviving spouse shall also be allowed such automobile;
- (3) If there be no surviving spouse, the minor children shall receive the property specified in clause (1) as selected in their behalf;
- (4) During administration, but not exceeding 18 months, unless an extension shall have been granted by the court, or, if the estate be insolvent, not exceeding 12 months, the spouse or children, or both, constituting the family of the decedent shall be allowed such reasonable maintenance as the court may determine;
- (5) In the administration of an estate of a non-resident decedent, the allowances received in the domiciliary administration shall be deducted from the allowances under this section.

In all estates where there is a will the following rule applies to the spouse who has not consented to the will:

525.212 RENUNCIATION AND ELECTION. If a will make provision for a surviving spouse in lieu of the rights in the estate secured by statute, such spouse shall be deemed to have elected to take under the will, unless he shall have filed an instrument in writing renouncing and refusing to accept the provisions of such will within six months after the filing of the certificate of probate. For good cause shown, the court may permit an election within such further time as the court may determine. No devise or bequest to a surviving spouse shall be considered as adding to the rights in the estate secured by sections 525.145 and 525.16 to such spouse, unless it clearly appears from the contents of the will that such was the testator's intent.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Barbara Funk of Albany in the County of Stearns and State of Minnesota being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament.

First, I order and direct that my Executor hereinafter named, pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Second, after the payment of such funeral expenses and debts, I give, devise and bequeath: to my beloved brother, Adam Funk, to have and to hold during natural life, all of my property, both real and personal, for his comfort and support, and authorizing my said brother to sell such part of my real or personal estate as he shall deem necessary for his comfort and support, and I give, devise and bequeath the remainder of my estate both real and personal to the Church of Seven Dolors of Albany, Minnesota, forever.

Lastly, I make, constitute and appoint Adam Funk to be Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal the 26th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty two.

THIS INSTRUMENT was, on the day of the date thereof, signed, published and declared by the said Testatrix, Barbara Funk to be her Last Will and Testament in our presence, who, at her request, have subscribed our names thereto as witnesses in her presence and in the presence of each other.
