Give details of such claims on Schedule I or by separate affidavit.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. STATUTES: The inheritance tax law is found in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 291. Taxable transfers are defined in Minnesota Statutes 291.01. Filing an inheritance tax return is required by Minnesota Statutes 291.12.
 2. USE AND PROCEDURE: This return will be used in all estates to report all transfers from deceased persons to heirs or beneficiaries which are not included in the inventory in a Minnesota probate proceeding.
 - A. If there is a Minnesota probate proceeding (general administration, special administration, summary distribution, or petition for decree of descent), the return will be filed with probate court. If a tax may be due, or if a waiver of inheritance tax lien from the commissioner is needed, prepare the return in duplicate.
 - B. If there is no Minnesota probate proceeding, only an original return must be filed directly with the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, St. Paul 1, Minn. DO NOT FILE IN DUPLICATE.
 - C. If it is claimed that decedent was not a resident of Minnesota, an Affidavit of Non-Residence (Form D, of T. EG 1019), furnished by the Commissioner of Taxation, must be filed with this return. In such case, this return will disclose the detail of transfers of property having situs in Minnesota, and the total value of transfers in each class of property having situs elsewhere.
 3. DETERMINATION OF TAX: The court will determine the tax upon property included in the probate proceeding. The department will determine the tax upon the transfers disclosed in the return.
 4. The representative of the estate or other person executing the return is obliged to report all transfers which may be subject to tax. Each schedule of the return is to be construed as a question which must be answered by describing the transfers or by stating that there were none of this class, if such is the case.
 5. Satisfaction or waiver of inheritance tax lien upon the transfer of joint tenancy property can be obtained from the Department of Taxation by use of the Affidavit of Survivorship, Joint Tenancy or Remainderman, D. of T. EG 1018, which may be purchased from a legal stationer. FILE IN DUPLICATE.
 6. If space in any schedule is insufficient, additional schedules in like form may be attached.
 7. The value of all properties transferred and reported herein is the full and fair market value on date of death.

ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE OR MINOR CHILDREN

When a decedent dies with or without a will the allowances to the spouse or minor children are as follows:

- §25.15 ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE. When any person dies testate, or intestate,
 (1) The surviving spouse shall be allowed from the personal property of which the decedent was possessed or to which he was entitled at the time of his death, the wearing apparel, and, as selected by him, furniture and household goods not exceeding $2,000 in value, and other personal property not exceeding $1,000 in value;
 (2) When, except for one automobile, all of the personal estate of the decedent is allowed to the surviving spouse by clause (1), the surviving spouse shall also be allowed such automobile.
 (3) If there be no surviving spouse, the minor children shall receive the property specified in clause (1) heretofore selected in their behalf.
 (4) During administration, but not exceeding 18 months, unless an extension shall have been granted by the court, or, if the estate be insolvent, not exceeding 12 months, the spouse or children, or both, constituting the family of the decedent shall be allowed such reasonable maintenance as the court may determine;
 (5) In the administration of an estate of a non-resident decedent, the allowances received in the domiciliary administration shall be deducted from the allowances under this section.

In all estates where there is a will the following rule applies to the spouse who has not consented to the will:

§25.212 RENUNCIATION AND ELECTION. If a will make provision for a surviving spouse in lieu of the rights in the estate secured by statute, such spouse shall be deemed to have elected to take under the will, unless he shall have filed an instrument in writing renouncing and refusing to accept the provisions of such will within six months after the filing of the certificate of probate. For good cause shown, the court may permit an election within such further time as the court may determine. No devise or bequest to a surviving spouse shall be considered as adding to the rights in the estate secured by sections 525.145 and 525.16 to such spouse, unless it clearly appears from contents of the will that such was the testator's intent.
