INSTRUCTIONS

1. MINNESOTA ESTATE TAX. An estate tax is imposed upon estates of Minnesota residents by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 291.34 to 291.40 inclusive. The estate tax, as distinguished from the inheritance tax, is an additional obligation due and payable 18 months after date of death of decedent and is recovered from credit given in the determination of the federal estate tax. No additional payments will be required unless the Minnesota estate tax exceeds the inheritance taxes assessed and paid.

2. FILING MINNESOTA ESTATE TAX RETURN. This return shall be filed with the Commissioner of Taxation by the representative, after final settlement with federal taxing authorities has been made, in every estate where the gross Federal estate exceeds $100,000. The return should be made in triplicate; the original and one copy are to be forwarded to the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, 156 East 6th Street, St. Paul 1, Minnesota; the triplicate copy should be retained by the party making the return.

3. DETERMINATION OF MINNESOTA ESTATE TAX AND FEDERAL CREDIT CERTIFICATE. If, upon inspection of this return, the Commissioner of Taxation finds that an additional tax is due, his computation of tax shall be sent to the probate court having jurisdiction of the estate. The court will in turn issue its order determining and assessing an additional tax under the estate tax law. If no estate tax is due, the Commissioner will so certify to the court, and will issue the 80% credit certificate to the taxpayer for presentation to the Collector of Internal Revenue.

4. FEDERAL ESTATE TAX RETURN AND DEFICIENCY ASSESSMENTS. A copy of the Federal Estate Tax Return must be filed with the Commissioner of Taxation as required by Minnesota Statutes, Section 291.12, Subdivision 3. A copy of the Federal deficiency assessments OR the closing letter accepting the Federal return as originally filed also must be filed.

The purpose of this Minnesota Estate Tax Return is to disclose the results of the Federal Estate Tax proceeding as finally determined and settled.

ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE OR MINOR CHILDREN

When a decedent dies with or without a will the allowances to the spouse or minor children are as follows:

525.15 ALLOWANCES TO SPOUSE. When any person dies testate, or intestate,

- (1) The surviving spouse shall be allowed from the personal property of which the decedent was possessed or to which he was entitled at the time of his death, the wearing apparel, and, as selected by him, furniture and household goods not exceeding $2,000 in value, and other personal property not exceeding $1,000 in value;
- (2) When, except for one automobile, all of the personal estate of the decedent is allowed to the surviving spouse by clause (1), the surviving spouse shall also be allowed such automobile;
- (3) If there be no surviving spouse, the minor children shall receive the property specified in clause (1) as selected in their behalf;
- (4) During administration, but not exceeding 18 months, unless an extension shall have been granted by the court, or, if the estate be insolvent, not exceeding 12 months, the spouse or children, or both, constituting the family of the decedent shall be allowed such reasonable maintenance as the court may determine;
- (5) In the administration of an estate of a non-resident decedent, the allowances received in the domiciliary administration shall be deducted from the allowances under this section.

In all estates where there is a will the following rule applies to the spouse who has not consented to the will:

525.212 RENUNCIATION AND ELECTION. If a will make provision for a surviving spouse in lieu of the rights in the estate secured by statute, such spouse shall be deemed to have elected to take under the will, unless he shall have filed an instrument in writing renouncing and refusing to accept the provisions of such will within six months after the filing of the certificate of probate. For good cause shown, the court may permit an election within such further time as the court may determine. No devise or bequest to a surviving spouse shall be considered as adding to the rights in the estate secured by sections 525.145 and 525.16 to such spouse, unless it clearly appears from the contents of the will that such was the testator's intent.

FILE NO.

In the Matter of the Estate of

Anthony J. Sivinski, also known as A. J. Sivinski, Decedent

PETITION

Your petitioner, for this her petition herein, respectfully shows to the Court and alleges:

1. That she is the duly appointed, qualified and acting representative of the estate of the above named decedent.

2. That, as appears from Subdivision VI, "Claim of Creditors," of her final account herein, she paid the following claims, to-wit:

Continental Casualty Company,	$ 34.25
Blue Shield,	17.40
Blue Cross,	34.35
Skelly Oil Company,	37.58
U. S. Bedding Company,	107.31
Total.....	$ 230.89

3. That in fact checks for the payment of said claims had been issued and delivered prior to the date of the death of said decedent.

4. That the checks in payment of said claims were drawn on an account in the name of The Sivinski Company, in which account the decedent had a six-sevenths interest.

5. That said checks were paid by the bank upon which they were drawn when presented for payment after the death of said decedent.

6. That the dates of the issuance of said checks and the dates upon which they were paid are as hereinafter set forth, to-wit:

Fayee	Date Issued	Date Paid	Amount
Continental Casualty Company	11-21-62	11-29-62	$ 34.25
Blue Shield	11-24-62	12- 5-62	17.40
Blue Cross	11-24-62	12- 3-62	34.35
Skelly Oil Company	11-26-62	12- 3-62	37.58
U. S. Bedding Co.	11-26-62	12- 3-62	107.31.

7. That each of these checks was paid prior to the appointment of the petitioner as the representative of the estate of said decedent.

8. That each of said checks was paid by the bank upon which they were drawn when presented, and that petitioner believes that the bank upon which they were drawn was justified in paying the same, inasmuch as the account upon which they were drawn was not in the name of the decedent but in the name of The Sivinski Company, in which account the decedent has an interest.

9. That decedent's interest in said account is shown in the inventory on file herein, and the decedent's interest was computed on the actual balance in the account at the date of the death of the decedent, without deducting therefrom the amount of the checks which had been drawn but not paid prior to the decedent's death.

10. That included in Subdivision VI, "Claims of Creditors," of petitioner's final account herein is a claim in the sum of $106.70 paid to the Polich Alliance Insurance Company, which covered a past-due premium on the policy of insurance issued by that company upon the life of the decedent, being the first described policy in Schedule II of the Inheritance Tax Return on file herein.

11. That to preserve said policy the payment of said premium was necessary, and petitioner therefore states that, to preserve the assets of said estate subject to inheritance tax and upon which an inheritance tax will be assessed, it was necessary that said premium be paid.

12. That the remainder of the claims paid by the petitioner, exclusive of the payments to the First American National Bank of St. Cloud, and as shown in Class VI, "Claims of Creditors," in her final account herein are the following:

Northern States Power Company,	$ 15.72
R-Way Furniture Company,	237.21
Jack's Service Station,	3.55
St. Cloud Tent & Awning Company,	38.00
A. J. Spiering,	3.90
Total.....	$298.38

13. That each of said claims arose under an implied, if not an express contract, and each was a valid subsisting current claim, and known to be such by the petitioner.

14. That petitioner, in her capacity as representative, or individually, cannot make a recovery back from the persons to whom said claims were paid, since each of said claims was a valid and subsisting claim.

15. That in the event the Court does not allow these claims, and each of them, and surcharges petitioner's final account, then and in such event she personally will have advanced personal funds for the payment of valid claims against the estate of the above named decedent, and then and in such event petitioner, individually, will be entitled, under Section 525.111 of M.S.A., as she has been advised, to file a claim for the amounts so advanced.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays the Court for its order allowing each of the claims herein referred to or, in the alternative, for its order permitting her to file her claim herein for the sums so advanced and for the Court's order allowing such claim.
