INSTRUCTIONS

1. STATUTES: The inheritance tax law appears in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 291. Taxable transfers are defined in Minnesota Statutes 291.01. Filing an inheritance tax return is required by Minnesota Statutes 291.12.

2. USE AND PROCEDURE: This return will be used in all estates to report all transfers from deceased persons to heirs or beneficiaries which are not included in the inventory in a Minnesota probate proceeding.

A. If there is a Minnesota probate proceeding (general administration, special administration, summary distribution, or petition for decree of descent), the return will be filed with probate court. If a tax may be due, or if a waiver of inheritance tax lien from the commissioner is needed, prepare the return in duplicate.

B. If there is no Minnesota probate proceeding, only an original return must be filed directly with the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, St. Paul 1, Minn. DO NOT FILE IN DUPLICATE.

C. If it is claimed that decedent was not a resident of Minnesota, an Affidavit of Non-Residence (Form D, of T. EG 1018), furnished by the Commissioner of Taxation, must be filed with this return. In such case, this return will disclose the detail of transfers of property having situs in Minnesota, and the total value of transfers in each class of property having situs elsewhere.

3. DETERMINATION OF TAX: The court will determine the tax upon property included in the probate proceeding. The department will determine the tax upon the transfers disclosed in the return.

4. The representative of the estate or other person executing the return is obliged to report all transfers which may be subject to tax. Each schedule of the return is to be construed as a question which must be answered by describing the transfers or by stating that there were none of this class, if such is the case.

5. Satisfaction or waiver of inheritance tax lien upon the transfer of joint tenancy property can be obtained from the Department of Taxation by use of the Affidavit of Survivorship, Joint Tenancy or Remainderman, D. of T. EG 1018, which may be purchased from a legal stationer. FILE IN DUPLICATE.

6. If space in any schedule is insufficient, additional schedules in like form may be attached.

7. The value of all properties transferred and reported herein is the full and fair market value on date of death.

DIRECTIONS FOR TAKING DEPOSITIONS.

1 Each witness, before testifying, must be sworn by the commissioner to testify the whole truth and nothing but the truth relative to the matter designated in the commission.

2 When there is no contest, it is a common practice to take depositions in narrative form. In such cases the commissioner may consult the attached interrogatories as a guide as to the facts to be covered and proven, which are as follows:

(A) That the will was signed by the testator or by some one for him at his express direction and request in the presence of at least two competent witnesses;

(B) That the will was attested by at least two competent witnesses in the presence of the testator; which means the witnesses were told by the testator or by some one for him in his presence, hearing, and consent, they are to witness a will, that the instrument is the will of the testator; that they were asked to sign it as subscribing witnesses; and that they did so sign it in the presence of the testator;

(C) That the testator was of full legal age at the time he executed the will in question;

(D) That the testator was of sound mind when he executed the will.

3 If interrogatories are used, each one must be carefully read to the witness, and his answer taken down by the commissioner.

4 After completion the deposition must be carefully read to the witness by the commissioner, and the witness allowed to change or correct it as he may desire, which changes and corrections must be entered by the commissioner.

5 The witness must sign his name at the end of his deposition and on each separate piece or sheet of paper on which it is written.

6 The commissioner must then fill out and sign his certificate at the end of page 2 hereof.

7 The papers, consisting of the commission, will, interrogatories if any, instructions, the deposition, and all other papers, must be fastened together in order by the commissioner, sealed in an envelope directed to the court which issued the commission, and deposited in the post office, postage prepaid.

When there is no contest, it is a common practice to take depositions in narrative form. In such cases the commissioner may consult the attached interrogatories as a guide as to the facts to be covered and proven, which are as follows:

(A) That the will was signed by the testator or by some one for him at his express direction and request in the presence of at least two competent witnesses:

(B) That the will was attested by at least two competent witnesses in the presence of the testator; which means the witnesses were told by the testator or by some one for him in his presence, hearing, and consent, they are to witness a will; that the instrument is the will of the testator; that they were asked to sign it as subscribing witnesses; and that they did so sign it in the presence of the testator:

(C) That the testator was of full legal age at the time he executed the will in question:

(D) That the testator was of sound mind when he executed the will.

If interrogatories are used, each one must be carefully read to the witness, and his answer taken down by the commissioner.

After completion the deposition must be carefully read to the witness by the commissioner, and the witness allowed to change or correct it as he may desire, which changes and corrections must be entered by the commissioner.

The witness must sign his name at the end of his deposition and on each separate piece or sheet of paper on which it is written.

The commissioner must then fill out and sign his certificate at the end of page 2 hereto.

The papers, consisting of the commission, will, interrogatories if any, instructions, the deposition, and all other papers, must be fastened together in order by the commissioner, sealed in an envelope directed to the court which issued the commission, and deposited in the post office postage prepaid.
