Theresia Brockmann, being first duly sworn, says that she is the niece of Fred Brockmann, decedent, and that she came to Meire Grove, Minn. from Germany in about the year 1923, ^{she came to Meire Grove, Minn. on Dec. 12/1923} that she came to this country to live with her uncle, the decedent, Fred Brockmann; that said Fred Brockmann stated and promised to affiant that if she, Theresia Brockmann would come to America and keep house for decedent during the remainder of his life, that he, Fred Brockmann would make her his sole heir, legatee and devisee.

That in pursuance of said moral and legal obligation said Fred Brockmann assigned and quit-claimed to affiant all property listed in Schedule III-- Transfers by the decedent, on August 12, 1948.

That affiant was not paid wages, but was simply promised that she would be the only person who would receive any property owned by decedent at the time of his death, and therefore decedent in his lifetime, viz. on August 12, 1948 assigned and deed all property mentioned in the first paragraph above to affiant.

If there is a Minnesota probate proceeding (general administration, special administration, summary distribution, or petition for decree of descent), the return will be filed with probate court. If a tax may be due, or if a waiver of inheritance tax lien from the commissioner is needed, prepare the return in duplicate.
 - B. If there is no Minnesota probate proceeding, the return must be filed directly with the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, 221 State Office Building, St. Paul 1, Minn.

STEARNS COUNTY

NAME: Teaney, Shirley Ann
 ADDRESS: R.R. # 2, Paynesville, Minnesota
 BIRTHDATE: June 29, 1936
 BIRTHPLACE: Aberdeen, South Dakota
 PARENTS: Thomas Teaney (deceased)
 Ethel Wray
 RELIGION: Methodist

On July 18, 1949, Mrs. Ethel Teaney, accompanied by her father, A. N. Wray, came to the office requesting help in having Shirley Ann admitted to the Colony at Cambridge. Mrs. Teaney was rather emotional about the matter, but said she realized they must do something as the child could not get along in the rural school. Mr. Wray, who has been a teacher for many years, tried to explain in detail to the worker Shirley's condition. She had recently been examined at the University Hospital, where the doctors had recommended commitment. Both Mrs. Teaney and her father said that Shirley Ann was retarded in addition to having many seizures. An appointment was made for a home call on Wednesday, July 20th.

On July 20th a call was made at the farm home of Mr. Wray, located about five miles north-east of Paynesville. An interview was conducted with Mrs. Teaney on the front porch. I did not see any other members of the family until I was ready to leave. When I drove into the yard a tall girl ran past the car, but did not respond to my question concerning her mother. This girl was Shirley Ann, I later learned. Mrs. Teaney cried at times during the interview, saying that she had had a great deal of hard luck and that this discovery about her daughter was almost more than she could stand. She admitted that Shirley had had seizures for the past four years, but recently they had become worse and the child was harder to manage. Mrs. Teaney's mother was left with the task of caring for the girl a great deal of the time, as Mrs. Teaney teaches piano lessons five days a week.

Mrs. Teaney feels that placement at an institution will do a great deal for Shirley, although she knew the child would be lonesome. She would not hesitate to send her. Dr. Miller, at the University of Minnesota, had given her a thorough physical and she also had had a psychological test. Mrs. Teaney did not think that the results of the examination were known to her local doctor, but gave the worker permission to talk with Dr. Myhre at Paynesville. She also said the worker might write to the University Hospital for a report.

Personal history of the child:

Mrs. Teaney answered all the questions asked by the worker and volunteered information about her daughter. She told me that I could see the child before I left. Shirley Ann was born June 29, 1936 in a hospital at Aberdeen, South Dakota. It had been a very difficult delivery and Mrs. Teaney questioned whether there might have been a birth injury. Shirley progressed fairly well up until the time she was nine years old. She fell from a hay loft of a barn at this time and very soon after this had her first seizure. Mrs. Teaney said that the doctors did not seem to think that the fall from the barn had caused the attacks. Shirley repeated the first grade and the fifth grade and did not do good work at any time. Mrs. Teaney said the rural teacher had said that Shirley had been a disturbing element in the room. She did not seem to know how to get along with other children. Because she was slow the other children did not want to play with her. Her attendance in 1948-1949 was interrupted many times by illness. She had whooping cough, mumps and measles during these two years and had severe attacks of bronchitis.

When Mrs. Teaney was asked about the severity of the seizures she said that of late they had been much more severe than the earlier ones. At first she would merely lose consciousness for a short time, but lately she has fallen down, frothed at the mouth and had twitching of some of her limbs in a true convulsive seizure. At one time she bit her tongue very badly. When she fell in the yard recently it was difficult for the family to get her to the house because she is a large girl. The grandmother becomes rather excited and it is hard on her nerves. Shirley has fallen against the stove three times.

Family Background:

Father: Thomas Teaney, born November 30, 1900 in Illinois.

He is a high school graduate and attended Brookings College in South Dakota. He was a rancher and according to his wife did very well financially. When I questioned concerning his death Mrs. Teaney became evasive. She could not give the cause for his death. Later in the interview she called her mother into the room and she left. Mrs. Wray then explained that Thomas Teaney had committed suicide by shooting himself. It would be difficult for Mrs. Teaney to explain this. Her husband had had severe headaches, for which, apparently, he was able to obtain no relief. He had been to every reliable doctor including the Mayo Clinic, but received no help. There may have been some mental deterioration that no doctor could cure. Mr. Teaney died in December, 1943.

Mother: Ethel Wray, born December 20, 1908 in Fairbanks, Iowa.

She is a high school graduate and attended Aberdeen Teachers College, where her father taught. She taught two years in the public schools. She married Thomas Teaney on May 31, 1934. The young couple took over a ranch, where they lived their entire married life. This was located near Midland, South Dakota. Mrs. Teaney has had considerable music training, and in this way is able to earn a fair amount every week. She has about thirty pupils. She stated she enjoyed teaching piano very much. Following Mr. Teaney's death the family moved to the farm at Paynesville to be with the Wrays. They intend to make Minnesota their home. They have been here since December 1943.

Siblings:

Thomas: was born November 22, 1939 at Aberdeen, South Dakota.

He is in the fifth grade in school and according to her mother is a very bright pupil. She was not at home the day I was there, but from the description given, she gets along very well with other children and is an entirely normal child.

Financial Situation:

While Mrs. Teaney did not give any definite statement regarding her income or financial status, it was my feeling that there was no financial pressure. She stated that her husband had left considerable money for the girls. Shirley has about three thousand dollars; two thousand in a savings account and about one thousand in bonds. Although Mr. and Mrs. Wray receive Old Age Assistance from Stearns County, their daughter is not in need of any county assistance. The Wrays own their small farm, which amounts to only a few acres, most of which is garden and orchard. The place is landscaped beautifully and there is every evidence of care given the entire grounds.

As I prepared to leave Mrs. Teaney introduced me to her daughter, who is a very dull looking child. She is about average in height and weight for her age. She has beautiful naturally curly brown hair. Her features are rather even, but her eyes belie her intelligence. She was extremely shy and stood behind her mother most of the time. Her social adjustment apparently is very poor. She did not answer any questions directed to her. Mrs. Teaney stated that she had not told Shirley of their plans for institutionalization. I suggested that they tell her about the school and if she had a chance to visit it, to do so. She said they had planned to go the following Monday.

Maternal Relatives:

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wray of Paynesville, maternal grandparents. Both of these people give the impression of being very intelligent. They have a good manner of expression and it would seem understand the situation of Shirley even better than their daughter. Both are college graduates, Mr. Teaney having taught for more than twenty years. Mr. Wray has a nervous tick which causes his facial muscles to contract most of the time. Mrs. Wray stated that there had been some history of epilepsy on his side of the family. She felt that there was definite hereditary influence in this case.

Uncle: Harold Wray, born April 24, 1916. He is a college graduate and a World War II veteran. At the present time he is living at 1411 - 5th Avenue, Moline, Illinois. He is married and has four children. His work is photography. According to the family Harold's children are in excellent health.

Paternal Relatives:

Grandmother: Mrs. E.E. Teaney, age 75, Rapid City, South Dakota. She is in good health.

Uncles and Aunts:

1. Mrs. Emil Berry, Midland, South Dakota.
2. Emil Teaney, Ghent, New York.
3. Leland Teaney, Rapid City, South Dakota.
4. Carson Teaney, Rapid City, South Dakota.

According to Mrs. Teaney there is no history of illness among these relatives.

Physicians Report:

We are enclosing a copy of a letter written by Dr. Albert G. Miller, Department of Pediatrics, University of Minnesota, on July 28, 1949.

"Shirley Ann Teaney of Paynesville was seen on several occasions in our Pediatric and Convulsive clinics. She presented a history of seizures for the past four years. In addition there was a question of her mental capacity.

The physical examination was essentially negative, except for a suggestion of mental slowness. The blood and urine tests were normal. Skull and chest x-rays were normal also. The electroencephalogram was markedly abnormal. 'WEO demonstrates diffuse convulsive disorder of exceptional severity. It is consistent with seizures of both grand mal and petit mal types. It suggests diffuse brain pathology.'

An evaluation of the girl by our clinical psychologist put Shirley Ann's mental age at 7 years as compared to her calendar age of thirteen.

Placement in the Cambridge State School was suggested.

Present medication is Mebaral grains 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ tid and Mesantoin grains 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ bid. "

The hearing in this case will be held at 2:00 P.M., August 17th. Mrs. Teaney would like to have her daughter in the institution at Cambridge in September, so that she can begin the school year.
