To the Probate Court of said County:

The Petition of the Commissioner of Public Welfare respectfully shows:

That by an Order of this Court (acting for Stearns County) made on September 19, 1949, the above-named was adjudged to be mentally deficient -- epileptic, and the State Board of Control of the State of Minnesota was duly appointed the guardian of his person and accepted that trust; that said appointment has never been revoked; and that the above-named is now under the guardianship of the Commissioner of Public Welfare.

Jeanette Weis married George St. Hane on July 5, 1959, has been supervised by the Washington County Welfare Department which reports that on February 18, 1970, she earned an estimated full scale IQ of 69 on the Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale and a test quotient of 75 on the Porteus Mazes with a diagnosis of borderline mental retardation given by James C. Kincannon, Ph.D., certified psychologist of St. Paul-Ramsey Hospital and Medical Center, and that she is functioning so adequately that guardianship is no longer needed; therefore, I recommend restoration to capacity.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that the Court inquire into the facts, and make an Order discharging the Commissioner of Public Welfare as guardian of the above-named, and that Court restore him to capacity, pursuant to Section 253A.19, Minnesota Statutes 1967.
