Has been in Veteran's Hospital since June 26th, 1949. Symptoms of mental illness began over a year ago. Withdrawal from associates. Delusions of persecution. Hallucinations.

That the said alleged mentally ill person will appear in Court voluntarily, and that it will not be necessary to issue a warrant to bring him before this Court.

That the names and addresses of the nearest relatives of the said patient are:

Name	Address	Relationship
Dr. Erling Ostergaard	Evansville	brother
Mrs. Kristina Ostergaard	Tyler	mother

That said patient was born in Ringsted, Iowa is about 50 years of age, and the parent of no children.

That his residence and place of legal settlement is Lincoln County, Minnesota.
 (If not a resident of Minnesota, set out as fully as possible where he came from, how long he has been in the County named.)

That said alleged patient is a United States War Veteran.

That no restraint has been employed.

That the supposed cause of mental illness is unknown

0085 2897

That the said patient has been treated by Dr. Garvey--Dr. Robertson
That the said patient is the owner of the following described real and personal property, to wit:

Small Lot and cottage. About $1800.00

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that this Court will make due inquiry into the matter, and to that end that said above named person be brought into said Court and examined as to said alleged mental illness and if found to be mentally ill that he be committed in accordance with the statutes in such case made and provided.

Sigrid Ostergaard

State of Minnesota.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EXAMINERS

We, the Board of Examiners, in the above entitled proceeding hereby certify and report that on the 14th day of September, 1949, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, we met at the Court Room of the above named Probate Court in the City of St. Cloud in the County of Stearns State of Minnesota, for the purpose of determining whether Vermund Ostergaard is or is not a mentally ill person, as alleged in the petition in the above entitled proceeding, David T. Shay, Esquire, County Attorney of said County, appeared in behalf of said petitioner.

The said Vermund Ostergaard was present and was examined and observed by us. All proper testimony offered by any person interested was received and the following named persons were duly sworn and testified concerning the matters set forth in said petition:

The following proceedings were also had and taken:

That Paul Ahles was appointed and appeared as attorney for the patient.

We also elicited from said Vermund Ostergaard and the several witnesses appearing before us in said proceedings information required to properly answer the questions set forth in Schedule & report hereto attached and have set forth in said schedule the information so obtained and responsive to the said several questions respectively.

From the examination so made by us and upon due consideration of all the testimony received we find and determine that Vermund Ostergaard is

1. A person incapable of managing himself and his affairs by reason of the habitual and excessive use by him of intoxicating liquors, drugs or other narcotics.

2. A person of unsound mind other than one who may be properly described as only an inebriate or feeble minded person.

3. A person not insane, but so mentally defective as to be incapable of managing himself and his affairs and to require supervision, control and care for his own welfare or the public welfare.

THIRD—That it is necessary and expedient, for the preservation and best interests of said estate, that special administration of said estate be granted.

Now Therefore, it is Ordered, That special administration of said estate be, and the same hereby is, granted; and that Joseph Blenkush be, and he hereby is, appointed such special administrator of said estate, to administer the same according to law until the further order of this court or the appointment and qualification of a general representative of said estate according to law; and that before letters of special administration are to him issued, he shall take and file his oath as required by law, and file his bond in the penal sum of Three Hundred and no/100 ($300.00) Dollars, with sufficient sureties as provided by law, to be approved by the Judge of this court and conditioned as by law required.

IN PROBATE COURT

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF MARION MILLS DECEASED

PETITION

Comes now Marvin L. Mills, and respectfully petitions the court and alleges:

I.

That on the 14th day of September, 1949, letters of special administration were duly issued to your petitioner and that he still is the duly qualified and acting special administrator of the estate of said Marion Mills, deceased.

II.

That the purpose for having your petitioner appointed special administrator of the above named estate was for the purpose of prosecuting an action for wrongful death in the District Court for Stearns County, Minnesota for the benefit of next of kin of said above named decedent. That said action was duly placed upon the November, 1949 General term of said Court for trial, and thereafter the same was settled by the payment from the defendant, John Lentz, to the plaintiff, your petitioner as such special administrator, in the sum of $2625.00. That on the 19th day of December, 1949, the District Court in said action duly made and filed its order ordering the plaintiff as such plaintiff and special representative to distribute said sum of money to the persons thereunto entitled and to file receipts with the Clerk of the District Court for Stearns County, Minnesota showing that such distribution had been made. That thereafter, to-wit: on the 27th day of December, 1949, your petitioner duly distributed said money pursuant to said order of the District court and filed his receipts with the clerk therefor. That he no longer has any money or property of any kind in his capacity as special administrator and so far as your petitioner has been able to determine, the said decedent left no estate of any other kind and the need for special administration of said estate no longer exists.

WHEREFORE, Your petitioner prays for an order of this court discharging him as such special administrator of the estate of Marion Mills, deceased, and that the sureties on his bond filed herein be released and discharged.

ORDER DISCHARGING SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR

Marvin L. Mills, as special administrator of the above entitled estate, filed his report herein of the settlement in the District Court of an action for wrongful death, and that distribution of the amount awarded for the benefit of the next of kin of the above named decedent was ordered by the District Court and duly made by said special administrator as evidenced by receipts on file with the Clerk of the District Court,

And the Court being fully advised in the premises and satisfied that said distribution has been made and that there are no funds remaining in the hands of said special administrator,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, That said report of the special administrator be, and the same hereby is, approved as his final account, and that special administrator, and the sureties on his bond be, and they hereby are, discharged from any and all further duties and liability in said matter.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

I, K. A. Fauskee, otherwise known as Knute Fauskee and as Knud Fauskee, of Raymond Township in the County of Stearns and State of Minnesota, do hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils made by me.

I direct the payment by my Executor out of my estate of all of my just debts allowed in the course of administration, the expenses of last illness and funeral, the expenses of administration of my estate and all inheritance, estate and legacy taxes.

I give, devise and bequeath all of the property, real, personal and mixed, now owned or hereafter acquired by me, of every nature whatsoever, and wheresoever situate, of which I may die seized or possessed or to which I may at the time of my death be in any way entitled, unto Andrine Fauskee, my beloved wife, to have and to hold the same to her own use absolutely, provided, however, should my said wife predecease me or should we both meet death in a common disaster, even though she should survive me an appreciable length of time, then I give, devise and bequeath all of my said property and estate that otherwise would have passed to her under the provisions of this will unto my following named seven children, to-wit: Tina Thompson, Ella Kjeldahl, Agnes Kjeldahl, Ruth Nelson, Viola Lee, Kenneth Fauskee and Ilo Fauskee, share and share alike.

I have intentionally omitted all of my children and all surviving children of any deceased child and all other heirs of mine who are not specifically mentioned herein, and I hereby generally and specifically disinherit each, any and all persons whomsoever claiming to be or who may be lawfully determined to be my heirs at law, except only as mentioned and provided for in this will.

I request that in the event that his services are available to the executor hereunder, Edward P. Flynn, an attorney at law now residing at Paynesville, Minnesota, be retained as the attorney in the administration of my estate, because of his familiarity with my affairs.

K. A. Fauskee

I hereby nominate and appoint Edwin Sandvig of Brocton, Minnesota, as the executor of this my Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this my Last Will and Testament, this 24th day of August, 1943.

LETTERS TESTAMENTARY

To Edwin Sandvig

GREETING:

WHEREAS, You have been appointed executor of the last will and testament of the above named decedent, by the order of this court, and have duly qualified as such:

NOW THEREFORE, Reposing full faith and trust in your competency, ability and integrity, these letters testamentary are issued to you by the court, authorizing you to execute and carry into effect the said will of said decedent, according to the true intent thereof, and granting unto you all the powers, duties and responsibilities incident to said trust, in substance as follows, to-wit:

FIRST—To take possession of all the estate of said decedent, both real and personal, excepting that which may be set aside by the court for the surviving spouse or children of said decedent; to collect and receive all the rents, issues, increase and profits of said estate; to demand, receive, collect, sue for and recover all the debts, claims, rights, and choses in action, which to said decedent at the time of his death did belong; and, in within one month from the date hereof, to make and file in this court a true, verified, inventory of all the estate of said decedent, and cause the same to be appraised according to law.

SECOND—To manage, care for, and administer the said estate, to the end that the same may be preserved, kept, and increased, in the most economical and efficient manner; and to keep in good condition of repair all the buildings and improvements on the real estate of decedent.

THIRD—To cause to be paid, according to the provisions of said will as far as possible, and where not possible, then according to law, out of the personal estate of decedent if the same be sufficient therefor, and if not sufficient, then out of the real estate of decedent to be sold under the order of this court, the following charges, demands, and debts, in the order following, to-wit: the expenses of the administration of said estate; the expenses of the funeral of said decedent; the expenses of the last sickness of said decedent; all the debts of decedent having preference under the laws of the United States; all taxes that shall be legally levied upon the estate of decedent; all other debts of decedent due to his creditors that shall be duly proved and allowed by the court, if said estate be sufficient therefor, otherwise to pay the same pro rata; all legacies given and provided by said will of decedent, if his said estate be sufficient therefor.

FOURTH—To make and file in this court, whenever requested by the court so to do, and at the completion of said trust, full and true accounts, with itemized statements, under oath, of all said estate and the increase thereof, that shall come into your hands, and of all disbursements made by you and of all the residue that remains in your hands, together with the value and condition thereof; and, at the completion of said trust, to turn over all the residue of said estate in your hands to those declared thereunto entitled by the court.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. STATUTES: The inheritance tax law appears in Minnesota Statutes of 1941, Chapter 291. Taxable transfers are defined in M. S. 291.01. Filing inheritance tax return is required by M. S. 291.12. Amendments were adopted by Laws of Minnesota 1943, Chapter 504, Section 6, Sub. 2.
2. USE AND PROCEDURE: This return will be used in all estates to report all transfers from deceased persons to heirs or beneficiaries which are not included in the inventory in a Minnesota probate proceeding.
 - A. If there is a Minnesota probate proceeding (general administration, special administration, summary distribution, or petition for decree of descent), the return will be filed with probate court. If a tax may be due, or if a waiver of inheritance tax lien from the commissioner is needed, prepare the return in duplicate.
 - B. If there is no Minnesota probate proceeding, the return must be filed directly with the Department of Taxation, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division, 221 State Office Building, St. Paul 1, Minn.
 - C. If it is claimed that decedent was not a resident of Minnesota, an Affidavit of Non-Residence must be filed with this return (Form D. of T. EG 1019). In such case, this return will disclose the detail of transfers of property having situs in Minnesota, and the total value of transfers in each class of property having situs elsewhere.
3. DETERMINATION OF TAX: The court will determine the tax upon property included in the probate proceeding. The department will determine the tax upon the transfers disclosed in the return.
4. The representative of the estate or other person executing the return is obliged to report all transfers which may be subject to tax. Each schedule of the return is to be construed as a question which must be answered by describing the transfers or by stating that there were none of this class, if such is the case.
5. Satisfaction or waiver of inheritance tax lien upon the transfer of joint tenancy property can be obtained from the Department of Taxation by use of the Affidavit of Survivorship, Joint Tenancy or Remainderman, D. of T. EG 1018, which may be purchased from a legal stationer.
6. If space in any schedule is insufficient, additional schedules in like form may be attached.
7. The value of all properties transferred and reported herein is the full and fair market value on date of death.

COMMISSIONER OF TAXATION
 Director, Inheritance and Gift Tax Division.

SCHEDULE I -- PROPERTY HELD IN JOINT TENANCY
