PETITION FOR RESTORATION
TO CAPACITY

In the Matter of the Guardianship of

Marjorie Russell (Nygaard)
Mentally Deficient -- Epileptic

To the Probate Court of said County:

The Petition of the Commissioner of Public Welfare respectfully shows:

That by an Order of this Court (acting for Stearns County) made on September 15, 1944, the above-named was adjudged to be mentally deficient -- ~~epileptic~~, and the State Board of Control of the State of Minnesota was duly appointed the guardian of her person and accepted that trust; that said appointment has never been revoked; and that the above-named is now under the guardianship of the Commissioner of Public Welfare.

That Marjorie Russell married John Nygaard on April 1, 1947, that she has been supervised by the Ottertail County Welfare Department which reports that she manages adequately and no longer requires guardianship; and that she was psychologically re-evaluated by Jack J. Newberry, Ph.D., certified consulting psychologist of the Lakeland Mental Health Center, who obtained a full scale IQ of 79 on the Wechsler Adult Intelligence Scale and recommended that state guardianship is no longer needed; therefore, I recommend restoration to capacity.

Wherefore, your petitioner prays that the Court inquire into the facts, and make an Order discharging the Commissioner of Public Welfare as guardian of the above-named, and that Court restore her to capacity, pursuant to Section 253A.19, Minnesota Statutes 1967.
