THE NONPAREIL COMPOSITION PAD

NUMBER TWO

FOR HIGH-SCHOOL GRADES

(Adapted for Use with Any Standard Textbook)

On the back cover are listed the chief errors made by high-school students in their written English compositions. These errors have been classified into five groups and numbered. Scientific investigations have shown that the first four or five errors in each group are responsible for most of the errors made in that group.

By using the numbers on the back cover as symbols for the errors to which they refer, the Nonpareil Composition Pad provides a method for handling the classroom work in composition that will greatly reduce the work of both teacher and student and yet greatly increase its effectiveness.

HOW TO USE THE NONPAREIL COMPOSITION PAD

2. To the Teacher: Put the extension flap on the back cover over all the unwritten pages, so that the printed list of Correction Symbols will be readily accessible to you during the critical examination of the student's composition.

When an error is found in the composition, place the proper correction symbol on the left-hand margin directly opposite the line or lines containing the error. (This procedure will make it necessary for the student to scrutinize the line in order to locate and identify the specific error.)

Return the Pad to the student after each composition has been read and its errors indicated. He will then make the necessary corrections, as directed in what follows.

3. To the Student: The numbers on the left-hand margin refer to errors that have been made by you in your composition. You can tell what each number means by noting what is printed after it on the flap of the back cover. For example, if your teacher has placed the figure 7 on the margin of your composition, you will see that 7 means "Period omitted after abbreviation." This means that you have omitted a period after an abbreviation somewhere in the line against which your teacher placed the 7. Examine that line carefully; locate the error and then write the necessary word or words correctly on the right-hand page directly opposite the line containing the error. Do this until you have corrected every error that you have made.

When you have completed your corrections, be sure to turn to the Diagnostic Record Chart inside the back cover and place in the square below each correction number that was placed on your composition by your teacher a number that will show how many times that particular correction number was checked against your work for the day. (The chart provides a column for each kind of error, except that in a few columns, like Spelling 61-70, several kinds of error have been grouped together to economize space.) Use one horizontal row of squares for each composition. This Record Chart will then show you at a glance which difficulties and how many of them you are meeting in writing English and what improvement you are making from day to day.

4. To the Teacher: Check over the student's corrections of errors. This task is quickly performed, inasmuch as the written composition, its indicated errors, and the student's corrections are all in full view on the two facing pages.

Insist that the student keep up to date the Diagnostic Record Chart inside the back cover. If this be done, a mere glance at the Chart will show the exact status of the student in his written English work, and a simple tabulation will permit quick and accurate comparisons among students, classes, or schools.

Have the student enter in the brackets [] after each Correction Symbol the number of the page or paragraph in the textbook being used to which he can refer for help on the error in question.

Use the blank correction numbers in each group (like 37 to 39 under Grammar) to add other types of error if the printed list seems inadequate.

Two Outstanding Speakers To Address P.T.A. Tuesday

Field Director Of State Education Association And Woman Doctor Are On Program.

Two interesting talks have been scheduled for the January meeting of the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association tomorrow night in the Little Theatre at 8 p. m.

The speakers will be Dr. Kathleen Jordan of the Granite Falls Sanitarium, and Walter Englund, field director of the Minnesota Education Association.

Dr. Jordan, wife of the superintendent of the sanitarium, and a student of tuberculosis, will discuss phases of the ever-active anti-tuberculosis drive.

Mr. Englund will speak on education—a subject of great interest to all parents.

Mr. Englund's speaking dates here include a talk given this noon at the weekly luncheon of the Marshall Civic and Commerce Association; an address to all teachers of the Ninth District, who will meet in the Little Theatre at 8 o'clock tonight; and his P.T.A. talk tomorrow night.

The January competition to secure memberships for the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association will end tomorrow night just before the meeting, and the winning grade will receive a prize that is double the former ones.

Jack Whitney made a last appeal today for increased membership in the P.T.A., explaining that every cent turned in goes to swell the Milk Fund project of the Association.

With the memberships funds turned in, milk is purchased for undernourished children of the Kindergarten and the First, Second, Third and Fourth Grades.

"All of you residents of Marshall, whether you are parents of students or not, will be helping your community by joining the P. T. A., for improving the individual student's health, you are bettering conditions in your community," Mr. Whitney declared.

"Incidentally, you will gain enjoyment by attending our regular monthly meetings, where you will hear interesting and instructive talks and discussions on a wide variety of topics; where you will hear singing and other music; and where you will meet people you would not otherwise know, with interests and enthusiasm similar to your own.

"The membership fee is only 25 cents, but surely it is worth it, when you consider that your money will help to put a rosy plumpness in some pale child's cheeks."

Crowd Expected For Hendricks-Tiger Tiff

Fast And Furious Battle Anticipated.

The largest crowd in recent years is expected to attend the Hendricks-Marshall basketball game here Friday night.

While Hendricks is rated high in the district, and while Marshall has dropped in their standing due to the two defeats plastered on them by Mankato Teachers Frosh and the Springfield team, nevertheless the Tigers are determined to go into the game with a never-say-die spirit. For that reason Marshall fans look for the greatest game of the year.

Coach Cole will apparently sit tight on his lineup with the same five boys starting who have begun the previous games.

Ullary appears to be moving up fast, and will be able to replace any of the first five without weakening the starting lineup.

Coach Cole has a good defensive squad as indicated by the scores to date. That the Tigers are holding the opposition to few points is indicated by the scores of the games played this season.

What they can do against a fast breaking quintet like Hendricks is largely a matter of speculation.

Tracy plays the Tigers here a week from the coming Friday, and from then on Marshall will be a hotbed of basketball until the tournament ends.

KNOW YOUR SCHOOLS

By SUPT. F. R. ADAMS

The schools are probably one of the largest enterprises in every community. There is no doubt but what every citizen is directly or indirectly interested in the program of education being carried out in his community.

Often times, in spite of the interest, the average citizen does not know very much about the school system in which his children receive their education.

In the past few years, articles have been written explaining different activities of the school, the cost of operation of the same, and the general plan of management of the local educational institution.

From time to time in the next few weeks there will appear under the caption of "Know Your Schools" short articles dealing with some phases of school administration or educational methods.

P. T. A. Audience Hears Fine Program Last Night

The January meeting of the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association was made doubly interesting last night by two excellent speakers, and an unusual program of music presented by the Junior High School Mixed Chorus and the Marshall High School Band.

The chorus directed by Miss Vivian Erickson delivered an excellent rendition of "Old Black Joe" and the Band, under the direction of George Wingert illustrated to the audience the use of the various instruments and combination of instruments to the audience.

Mr. Wingert presented the group in a number of excerpts of music, and the audience was permitted to observe the players at close view. A new instrument, the Glockenspiel, was the center of attraction as it was played by Beulah Foss.

Mr. Weber's home room won the banner award for parents attendance.

Dr. Kathleen Jordan, wife of the superintendent of the state sanitarium at Granite Falls, gave a highly interesting history of tuberculosis, including advances in its control and cure. Highlights of her talk were as follows:

The Ex-Ray has revealed through examination of his mummy that Tutanchamen, the Egyptian king suffered from tuberculosis over 2,000 years ago.

Tuberculosis plays no favorites. A king is susceptible to it as well as a laborer. Keats, the poet died of it as did Christy Matthewson, the famous idol of American baseball.

In Medieval times the disease was known as the King's Evil, or the King's Disease. It was so prevalent 60 or 70 years ago that it entered into the literature of the period.

In 1882, the great German scientist, isolated the germ, thus showing that instead of a family weakness or an inherited condition, it was an infectious disease, and easily communicable.

There are two main sources, as far as is now known, for the transmission of tuberculosis—milk and an infected individual. Thanks to t. b. testing of cattle and pasteurization of milk, the first source is now practically controlled, and clinicians report that cases of hunchback and neck gland nodules are rare. These conditions were frequently caused by bovine t. b. infected milk, which infected the milk drinker.

The individual with an active case of tuberculosis is still a menace to the health of those with whom he or she is in close contact, but a remedy for this situation may be found by isolating such an individual in some sanitarium as Granite Falls or Worthington, which are available to all.

The sanitarium also provides what is probably the fundamental behind the cure of tuberculosis. This is rest and more rest. The sanitarium therefore provides for the two important factors for both control and cure of the disease; that is control, and rest under specialized medical supervision.

Edward Livingston Trudeau was the father of the sanitarium principle as a place of cure and a means of control. The first one in the country was established in 1885, but it was 1904 before the first one was built in Minnesota, and this in the face of prejudice and ignorance. In 1909 a state sanitarium was built, and in 1912 the county system was planned. Because of the sanitarium principle and because of the recent education regarding the disease, tuberculosis deaths have dropped from 120 per 100,000 in 1909 to 35.6 per 100,000 in 1936—and tremendously fine advance, and one which makes the medical profession believe the goal is in sight for complete control and cure.

Early diagnosis is of the greatest importance in the cure of tuberculosis, and the X-Ray has been of inestimable value in this factor.

Ignorance with its resulting stupidity of prejudice is still the great hamperer of the tuberculosis crusaders, declared Dr. Jordan, and she told the audience that they can do much to overcome these handicaps by spreading their own knowledge far and wide to aid those who are attempting to stamp out the dreadful malady.

A report of Mr. Englund's address will be printed in tomorrow's Daily Messenger.

Tigers To Play Hendricks Friday

Midgets Rated One Of Top Teams In District.

A battle royal is on the books here Friday night, when the Marshall Tigers, seeking mightily to stage a comeback after their last two defeats, will engage the Hendricks midgets here in the school gymnasium tomorrow night.

From all accounts emanating from the Hendricks camp, the Midgets are dynamite, and have all the confidence in the world.

The Tigers, however, are hungry for a victory, having tasted it in their first games against Cottonwood, Minnesota, Redwood Falls and Canby.

Any way the cash customer looks at it, it is sure to be a whale of a game. The seconds start at 7.30, and the varsities will battle around 8.30 p. m.

Education Called Hope Of Democracy

M. E. A. Field Director Addresses P. T. A. Here.

The talk given by Walter Englund, field director of the Minnesota Education Association before the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association Tuesday night, which was not printed yesterday because of the limitations of time and space, is published in part as follows:

The speaker declared that since youth is America's greatest asset and must be developed, there can be no retrenchment in the support of education, and that revenue now going to the support of our public schools must not be diverted to other purposes.

Mr. Englund urged that the M. E. A.'s five-point program presented to the state Legislature deserves the consideration of every citizen. The program asks: Continued support for education through state appropriations, retention of the income tax for schools; payment of state aids in full; enactment of a bill for continuing contracts for teachers; and a study of school law looking forward to re-codification.

The school teacher, said Mr. Englund, has little security in his or her job. The years pass, and the teacher who is just beginning to acquire a valuable perspective and outlook, is cast by the wayside to fend as best he may, for in the eyes of those who hire him, is growing old and outmoded.

The continuing contract bill proposed would take no power from the local Board of Education in the selection and retention of teachers, but would limit the power of dismissal by requiring majority action by the body in order to terminate a teacher's contractual relations with the school district. Its effect will be to stabilize the school situation and to promote that quiet school-community atmosphere under which a child can best be educated, he declared.

P. T. A. Hears Interesting Talk

Mr. Englund's excellent speaking voice made each subject he touched upon interesting. His narrative of Alvin York, the famous American war hero, was particularly interesting, especially when he described York's homecoming. His state made him a present of money, and his county, community and friends followed suit. But instead of using the large sum himself, he built a magnificent schoolhouse for the children in his territory.

Other points in his address were as follows: The worst thing a man has ever faced has been ignorance. The value of educating youth along certain lines is clearly illustrated by the fact that since the educational campaign has started, childhood accidents are decreasing. Despite the wonderful achievements of medicine and pure science, the world has not yet learned the art of peace and understanding — we still practice the barbaric idea that might makes right, that force is the arbiter between nations, but as the scholar Breasted says: "Man today stands on the threshold of dawning intelligence."

Education of our children is our main hope for the preservation of our democracy—let us take care not to curtail it by selfish and shortsighted economies.

Play Strong Hendricks Midgets Here.

Coach Bernie Cole will start his regular lineup against the strong Hendricks team here tonight.

First call will come to Healy, Todnem, Hasbrouck, Weiner and Marks, with Ullery, Mercer, Gervais, Thompson, Weidauer, and Brull probably scheduled to see some service also.

All dope points to a fast game, with both quintets pointing for district top honors.

Tigers Defeat Hendricks 24 to 14 Here Last Night

Marshall's Defense And Attack Show Strong Improvement In Victory Over District Favorites.

The Marshall Tigers took the strong, fast Hendricks team into camp last night to the tune of 24 to 14, and was everybody glad, except of course, naturally the losers.

The Tigers last night, showed that they have made quite a bit of improvement both on their attack and defense.

Both teams showed determination and fight and toward the last quarter the game slowed up considerably because of the large number of toss ups ordered by the referee. The excitement, however, still prevailed despite the dragging final period. Hasbrouck pleased the fans immensely last night, with four fine baskets made under difficulties, particularly the pair he dumped in, in the last quarter. Healy and Marks played their usual fighting game and a bit more, both accounting for two buckets apiece. Teddy Todnem accounted for six points, and besides, played a whale of a game. Weiner, Ullery, Mercer, Brull, Thompson all saw service.

Dorn starred for Hendricks with seven points and Reppe, Singasaas, Buller, Ahrendt, and Tollefson, gave him excellent support.

Tigers To Face Tracy Five Next

Scrappers Coming Here Friday Evening.

Friday night, January 29, Marshall basketball fans will see the annual Tiger-Scrappers basketball game. Last Friday the Hendricks Mid-gets moved into town intent on a victory, with the Tigers just as intent on winning. The first quarter was all Hendricks, but when the Tigers moved into action with a final 14 to 14 win.

The largest number of fans watched the battle that has ever appeared at any of the games this season, about 700 in all. That they were rewarded by two fine basketball games was evident by the enthusiastic support of the entire crowd.

The Scrappers always send a large delegation in support of their teams and with rivalry which will place either Tracy or Marshall in the driver's seat.

II. The Organization of the Local School District.

Under the territorial laws of the state of Minnesota, the townships were set up as a unit for school purposes. It was soon discovered that the township was not suitable for this purpose. The common school district was then established and has continued to serve the rural districts. It was found, however, that the common school district organization was not suitable for the towns and a law was passed in 1865 making it possible for towns to organize as Independent School Districts.

Under this plan, the people transferred their responsibility and the authority to manage their schools to an elected board of six members. Recently it has been determined more desirable to assign to a professionally qualified superintendent of schools the general oversight of the local public educational system. The local Board of Education is composed of six members, to of which are elected each year at the annual election on the third Tuesday of July for a three-year term.

The Marshall school district has an assessed valuation of about $1,100,000.00 included within the incorporated limits of the City of Marshall with some unplatted area outside of the city.

At one time there was a much larger area in the district, but a few years ago most of the agricultural land was set out and a new common school district was created. This district does not maintain a school of its own, but sends its children to the Marshall schools and pays a tuition charge equal to the average cost of education per child in the Marshall schools.

Close Race Seen In Declamation

Lengthy Preparation Ends In Contest Thursday.

Preparation of selections for the final declamation contest, to be held in the high school auditorium Thursday has been going on for the past six weeks, with contestants working hard to give their selections in the best possible way.

Three divisions — Oratorical, dramatic and humorous—will be in competition with the winner in each division representing Marshall High School in the district event in February.

The oratorical division, the first on the program, has two born orators competing in Gordon Forbes and Clair Ryan. Both boys have been working hard and their selections will be well worth hearing.

In the dramatic division, Bernell Caldwell, Adene Fitts, and Elizabeth Silver will compete. All three girls are capable of competing in the hardest of all divisions.

Dorothy Haynes, Shirley Hess, Betty Persons, Robin Robinson, and Shirley Silver have chosen humorous selections for their part in the program.

In addition musical numbers are on the program for between divisions and while awaiting the decisions of the out-of-town judges employed for the occasion.

A small charge will be made to help finance the cost of production.

Cole Will Start Regulars Friday

Reserves, However, Are Making Strong Bids.

Coach Bernie Cole will start his regular combination Friday night against the Tracy Scrappers.

The Tigers appear to be developing not only the first five, but reserves as well. In the Hendricks encounter Coach Cole used Ullery and Mercer without weakening his starting combination. In fact, the second five appeared to be as strong on defense as the regulars.

It will be interesting to watch the development of the reserves; all five boys will be fighting to be named on the Tiger squad of eight to represent the Tigers in the district.

While Ullery and Mercer appear to have an inside track on the call, Thompson, Brull and Gervais will have a lot to say before March 5.

In a short test of three days, it is necessary to have adequate reserves, as it is impossible for five boys to hit through a short series of this type.

All in all, it looks like Marshall will be a hotbed for basketball for the next two months.

Financial Support Of Local School District

The local school receives its financial support in general from three sources: the state aid of various kinds; local taxes levied on personal and real property; and other sources including tuition received from District 101, the sale of school supplies, rentals, etc.

During the year 1934-35, Marshall School district received 33 per cent of its income from state aid, while 58 per cent of its income was raised by local taxes. The remaining nine per cent was secured from all other sources.

A detailed study was made recently of sixteen other school districts comparable in size to Marshall, in relation to the cost of maintaining school systems. The median amount received by all of these schools for state aid was 34 per cent, 63 per cent was raised by local taxes, and only four per cent from other sources.

While there are some extreme examples in the schools used for comparison, Marshall is receiving about the same amount from state aid as the typical community of this size in the state.

Montevideo receives a much higher percentage of local funds from state aid, while such towns as Waseca, White Bear, Hopkins receive less than Marshall does.

State aid is made available to local school districts through several different funds: This state has a large permanent school fund which has been built up from the sale of school lands. Each year the income from this fund is apportioned to the school districts of the state on the basis of the number of children in average daily attendance.

Aid is also given for the maintaining of a graded elementary and a recognized high school and also for certain special departments. Tuition to the extent of seven dollars per pupil per month is paid to the school district that furnishes high school education for students living in a district that does not maintain a high school. The proceeds of the income tax law also are apportioned to school districts for the payment of interest and principal of bonded indebtedness if such exists.

There is also a supplemental aid law which tends to help the district that is less able to furnish education by giving to it a relatively large amount of aid compared to the more wealthy district.

These various forms of state aid will be explained more in detail in the following articles.

District Favorite Still In Doubt

Six Cage Teams Are Possibilities.

Who will be the favorite team in this year's tournament?

The leaders to date appear to be Hendricks, Marshall, Tracy, Balaton with Lynd and Wood Lake possible contenders. Which team can maintain poise and drive improving with each game until the whistle starts district competition here at Marshall March 5th?

Every team in the district has met reverses along the road and to be a tournament team, improvement must be shown as the season wears along.

A team which flashes brilliance in some encounters often goes into the district looking like a sure bet only to flash a great game and then fall by the wayside to some unherald team. This year's ninth district appears full of contenders, without any one team standing out above the rest.

Down the home stretch seems to be the test.

Tigers To Battle Scrappers Friday

New Scoreboards Are Installed In Gym.

The new scoreboard carrying the names of each team, which proved successful in its initial trial here last Friday night will be used in both games in the Tiger Scrapper battle January 29.

The scoreboard carries the names and position of both teams and names are changed as substitutions are made. It will be placed at the lower end of the auditorium so it will be possible to follow both the scoreboard and running score.

With the addition of the scoreboard, it is hoped that the enjoyment of basketball games by fans will be complete. It will be possible to take an interest in every member of each team and check the individual scoring. It will be even more interesting to watch the results of the tournament and final selections in the quest for district honors.

Scrappers And Tigers Clash Here Tonight

Bang-Up Game Seen In Tracy-Marshall Meeting At Auditorium.

Marshall basketball fans will have the opportunity of seeing another big basketball game tonight when the Tracy Scrappers invade the Tigers' stronghold. The affair promises everything that a Tiger-Scrapper battle represents.

The Scrappers will bring the most rugged opposition the Tigers have faced. The Tracy boys carry size and height to place the Tigers at a disadvantage. The Tigers offer speed in opposition to the height of the invaders.

The Scrappers have a victory over Springfield, and a loss to Hendricks, while the Marshall Tigers won from Hendricks and lost to Springfield.

What the results of the game will be can only be determined after the whistle blows tonight.

IV Permanent School Funds

It is possible that we do not appreciate the foresight of the statesmen who induced the federal government, when this state was a territory, to set aside nearly six million acres of land in Minnesota for the support of education.

During the seventy years prior to 1932, the permanent school fund of the state increased to over sixty-three million dollars. This fund with the "Swamp Land Fund" amounted to over seventy-four million dollars.

Each year the income from this permanent school fund is apportioned to the schools on the basis of the number of pupils in average daily attendance. In a typical year this amounts to over seven dollars a pupil.

The state constitution requires that this fund remain a perpetual trust for school purposes. The money in this fund has been loaned to municipalities and school districts in the state for building purposes, and more recently some of this fund has been loaned out through the Rural Credits Department.

Minnesota has one of the largest permanent trust funds for schools of any state in the Union.

Holstein Stars In Tracy Victory

Tigers Beaten Last Night By 2 Points.

A boy named Holstein, who looked like state high school basketball calibre, administered a disappointing defeat to the Tigers last night when the Tracy Scrappers edged out the local lads 22 to 20.

It wasn't that Holstein was hot last night—he is always a deadly shot, as witness the Springfield game a fortnight ago when he rolled up 18 points for his team, and he has done almost as well in his other games. Last night he rolled up 14 points against Marshall including six buckets and two gifts.

Holstein only made three points against the Tigers in the first half and the credit goes to Charley Healy, who stuck to him like a burr.

But Holstein is a splendid man on the floor, also, and here's hoping he gets his due credit, when the guessers render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's.

Without trying to alibi the Tigers, it might be said, however, that both Teddy Todnem and Marks struck an unfortunate coincidence in having bum nights together. Teddy, the old reliable ironside, while showing his usual smart generalship, nevertheless, let himself get tied up a number of times last night, and he just simply couldn't hit the basket.

And sad to relate Marks, who generally violates the laws of physics with a lot of his shots, was colder than a stenographer's kiss last night—just one of those nights, and it is probably better so. If he gets one of his few bad nights out of his system, he will go like a house afire in the district tournament. Marks made eight points for his mates last night—who's kicking?

Weiner was out of whack and out of kilter last night too, and Hasbrouck, while playing a nice guarding game, simply couldn't get away with those over-the-shoulder close in shots that he is famous for.

On the other hand, Healy had a good night, for besides accruing seven points, he did a bangup job of hampering Holstein—at least during the first half.

The game was a slam-bang, touch-and-go, and an eye-for-an-eye, tooth-for-a-tooth battle from start to the final gun; in other words, it was a traditional fight between old rivals, with both teams probably exhibiting more vim and vigor and intestinal fortitude, than cool, calm, smart tactics that makes for sweet cage games.

The fans liked it—at least the Tracy fans—but it wasn't necessarily good basketball (save for Holstein's work) But it was the battle of the season, anyway, and here's hoping Marshall and Tracy meet for a tournament scrapperoo. Meanwhile, the Tigers meet the Scrappers there on February 12.

School Music Heads Meet Here Tonight

High school music department heads from schools in Southwestern Minnesota will meet in Marshall tonight to discuss plans for a huge music festival which will probably be held here in mid-spring.

The festival is planned to take the place of competition in district, regional or state contests, which competition may be inconvenient for many of the schools.

Tigers At Sleepy Eye For Game

Play There Tonight—Minneota Here Friday.

The Marshall Tigers will invade the stronghold of the Sleepy Eye basketeers in Sleepy Eye tonight.

Sleepy Eye is a misleading monicker for that team, as they won the regional championship last season, and have a number of veterans back in the lineup. However, they are not rated as high as the 1936 quintet, but they are looked on as the champion threat of their district.

On Friday the Minneota first and second teams will battle the Tigers here. In their first engagement on December 14 in Minneota, the Tigers were trailing in the first half, but they came from behind in the second half to win by a safe margin.

Since that time the Minneotans have been putting in some good licks, and the game Friday looks like it will be a thriller.

Last Friday's game here against the Scrappers proved to be a continuation of exciting athletic competition between Tracy and Marshall. The largest crowd to witness a regular game in Marshall in recent years was in attendance.

Faculty Cast To Present P.T.A. Play

"Market Hours" To Be Given Tuesday, February 9.

At the next P.T.A. meeting, to be held February 9, the faculty will present a one-act play entitled "Market Hours."

If one can judge by the uproarious laughter coming from the room in which the rehearsals are being held, the audience is certainly due for some real high class entertainment.

The scene of the play is laid in a broker's office on a busy morning during the 1929 crash. Frequent telephone calls and visitors tend to delay the important work of the day. Every interruption naturally increases the irritation of the broker.

The situation becomes really astute when the broker has a stroke of apoplexy because his nephew breezes in during the rushing business hours to "make a little touch".

And of course there is a "beautiful girl" who arrives at the opportune, or it might be said inopportune moment. Her mysterious appearance causes no little consternation to the parties involved.

The principal roles are played by H. Kuefler, Miss V. Erickson, Miss A. Johnson, and George Wingert.

The complete cast is as follows:

Mr. Ainsworth Bittington
 ----- Mr. H. Kuefler
 Mr. Courtney Bittington
 ----- Mr. G. Wingert
 Mrs. Scottfield ----- Miss A. Johnson
 Miss Lowry ----- Miss V. Erickson
 William ----- Mr. L. Ostrander
 Mr. Stanard ----- Mr. C. Smith
 Mr. Wadschild ----- Mr. A. Weber
 Miss Wickham ----- Miss V. Skanse
 Miss Brown ----- Miss E. Biebl

Carnival Queen Selection Slated At Band Festival

Who will be the Band Carnival Queen to be selected in the "fun for all" carnival to be held at the High School Auditorium the night of February 13?

That is the big question as plans for the carnival go rapidly forward.

That it will be a truly "fun for all" carnival is indicated by the number of concessions and games. There will be three different shows, 15 games of skill, and dancing. The carnival will open at 6 p. m., for the little folks, giving them a chance to be present and enjoy the activities before the 9 o'clock bedtime stories.

And then there will be the coronation of the Band Carnival Queen to be held on the stage of the High School Auditorium at 10 p. m.

Moderate prices will prevail—all concessions priced between one and five cents, with shows listed at 10 and 15 cents.

Tigers Defeat Sleepy Eye, 21-18

Marshall Sinks 9 Out Of 12 Free-Throws.

Making 9 out of 12 free throws, the Marshall Tigers defeated the Sleepy Eye basketball team on their own floor last night by a score of 21 to 18.

Led by Youngman, who sank three field goals, Sleepy Eye in the first lead as the period ended.

Weiner and Ullery dropped baskets in quick succession at the start of the second half to tie the count. Schutt then put Sleepy Eye ahead, but Marks sloshed in a short one to again tie the score.

Hasbrouck and Snow matched free throws on a double foul, but Ullery broke the tie with two successful gift shots, making the score 18 to 16 for Marshall as the third quarter ended.

Although they failed to score a field goal during the last quarter, the Tigers matched Fohl's field goal with three successful free throws, Healy accounting for two, and Todnem one.

KNOW YOUR SCHOOLS

By F. R. ADAMS
Superintendent

SPECIAL STATE AID

There are a good many different conditions under which school districts receive money distributed from various funds of the state.

The local district is entitled to a small amount of aid for maintaining a graded elementary and a recognized high school. Special state aid, is also given for the departments of Agriculture, General Industrial Training, Home Economics, and Commercial. The maximum aid for Agriculture is five hundred dollars and for the other three departments, four hundred dollars.

The state pays a tuition for high school pupils, living in districts that do not maintain a school beyond the elementary grades at the rate of seven dollars per month.

In 1933, there were 26,070 students whose tuition to the high school was paid by the state. In 1935, the supplemental aid law of the state was revised in order to bring to the proper districts of the state more financial help in attempting to provide equal educational opportunities for their children. Under the provisions of this act, if a levy of 30 mills on local property together with all funds received from state aid, apportionment, or special aid does not exceed sixty dollars for each resident pupil who shall have been in average daily attendance during the preceding year in an elementary school, and one hundred dollars for each resident high school pupil, and each non-resident pupil for whom the state pays tuition, who shall have been in average daily attendance during the preceding year in a classified high school, the state shall pay as supplementary aid an amount which, with the proceeds of a 30 mill tax, will equal sixty dollars for each elementary and one hundred dollars for each high school student as referred to in this act.

The actual interpretation of this law depends upon several conditions, the most important of which are that money in this amount must actually have been spent for maintaining the school and that the proportion of teachers to pupils corresponds to the requirements as specified by the State Department of Education.

At the present time, the local district is not able to secure all that the law provides from this source due to the expending of less money for maintenance than suggested in the interpretation of the law and because the large increase in the enrollment in High School has caused the size of high school classes to be larger than that provided for in the interpretation of the law.

The other source of state aid comes from the income tax recently enacted. The money derived from this source must be used to pay for interest or principal on the bonded indebtedness of the school districts of the state. The money received from this source will probably amount to about nine dollars per pupil of compulsory school age for the year 1936.

The enactment of this law has acted definitely as a replacement of local taxes in Marshall. It has been possible to pay the interest on the bonded indebtedness and some of the principal from this source since the enactment of this law.

Tigers To Play Minneota Friday

Is First Of Two Remaining Home Games.

Marshall basketball fans will have the opportunity tomorrow night of watching the Tigers play one of their last two games of the season, when Minneota comes here.

The first encounter of the Tigers against the Minneota quintet there on December 14 resulted in a victory for Marshall. The Tigers then staged a second half rally and overcame the first half lead of the Minneota boys.

Minneota during that first half put up a fine defense and succeeded in getting enough points to outscore the Marshall team. But Marks lead an overwhelming attack in the second half that could not be stopped, and the Tigers emerged the victors.

The Tigers found their gift eye against the Sleepy Eye team Tuesday night, and also gained a lot of confidence they had lost in their past two defeats.

The remaining home game for the Tigers is against the Balaton cagers February 19.

Minneota To Seek Revenge Here Tonight

The Minneota Seconds will play the Tiger Cubs starting at 7.30, and the varsities will begin to battle between 8 and 8.30 p. m.

High School Music Aids Students In Many Ways

Editor's Note—This is the first of a series of articles descriptive of the theory, procedure, and personnel of the Marshall Public Schools music. This introductory article is by George Wingert, who has charge of instrumental music at the school.

By GEORGE WINGERT

Everybody loves music of one type or another, but when you ask the individual why he loves it, he cannot analyze this liking. It is there in the heart and mind, and it is something that cannot be taken away. It is a source of one of the greatest pleasures in life, and it justifies itself as such.

But there are other things besides pure pleasure in music, and that is why it is taught as part of school curricula. For one, as in the band, orchestra, and vocal groups, it teaches the students to learn to work together, and to cooperate in groups—valuable training later in life, when the student, grown up, takes his place as a voter and an adult member of the community.

The practical side of music is obvious of course. It gives the skilled musician a means of earning a living, or a part living. There are many men and women, who have paid their way through university or college with their music.

Then, of course, there is the esthetic angle—the pleasure felt by the listening public, and the pleasure felt by the players, at one and the same time.

How many times have you heard these words: "I wish I had learned to play an instrument or to sing—now wonderfully well, you understand, but just well enough that I could play or sing once in a while for my own pleasure."

There is another side of musical training that few persons are aware of—the health benefits gained from the deep breathing required to play instruments. This aspect is far more important than would appear obvious on the surface.

These general points brought out here are just a few of the good things that can be said in favor of music, and summed up, these points and the purpose of music on the school list of studies is this:

Theoretically we are trying to give the students a sound musical education that will be of pleasure and of value to them now, and in their later life.

36 Students In High School Band

Big Attendance Is Sought For P.T. A. Meeting Tuesday

Organization Hopes Milk Fund Will Last To End Of Term—Good Program Arranged.

Proceeds of the Marshall Parent-Teachers' Association meeting Tuesday will be turned over to the organization's milk fund, and the public is urged to turn out in large numbers for this worthy cause.

This is the one meeting during the season that a charge is made, and the 15 cents admission does not seem much when it is considered that a dime and a nickel will fill four half-pint bottles with milk for undernourished children.

It is hoped that if the attendance is large enough, the milk project can be continued until the end of the school term instead of April, when it usually is terminated because of a lack of funds.

The entire entertainment Tuesday night will be given by faculty members.

It will consist of a farce, Market Hours, and musical diversion by a faculty sextette, a faculty trio, a faculty piano duet with two instruments, and a vocal solo.

Materials for the luncheon will be donated by Marshall merchants, as follows:

Coffee, Herman's store, and all other food jointly by the Red Owl, Economy Grocery, Blair Brothers, City Meat Market, and Hardy and Son.

Mrs. William Neill is chairman of the serving committee.

Tiger Cagers Score Heavy Against Minneota

Score Is 44 To 12—Reserves Get Chance And Make Good Showing.

The Marshall Tigers were hot on their shooting last night and swamped the Minneota basketball team by a score of 44 to 12.

Coach Bernie Cole poured in all of his reserves, and these subs accounted for a large part of the points.

Ullery, taking Weiner's place on the first squad, played a whale of a game, marking up seven sweet baskets, and doing an all-around nice job of floorwork and handling of the ball. Coach Cole kept Ullery in practically the entire game to permit him to gain a lot of experience, and the lad took advantage of every minute.

Young Marks probably played less than a quarter, but in the short time he was in, he sank three beauties, and besides, shot three out of three gifts.

Healy, Hasbrouck, and Todnem played their usual tight game.

Their guarding was a shade better than usual, and Christensen of Minneota deserves credit for the three baskets he managed to sink with these men on his neck every minute they were in.

Thompson, Mercer and Gag showed themselves as potentially good shots, but their floor work must be improved to attain first team calibre.

The Tigers will play the strong Balaton team there on February 9, and their next home game, the last one before tournament time, will be against Balaton on February 19.

P.T.A. Proceeds To Go Into Milk Fund

Pictures Of Cast Members In Simons And Gregoire.

Childhood pictures of members of the cast of the comedy "Market Hours," which will be presented at the P.T.A. meeting tomorrow night, are on view to the interested public today in the windows of Simons and Gregoire.

Other entertainment on the program Tuesday night will consist of five musical number by various faculty groups.

Lunch, the ingredients for which have been furnished by Marshall merchants, will be served by a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Neill. The merchants are: Herman's Grocery, City Meat Market, Blair Brothers' Grocery, The Red Owl, Hardy and Son, and the Economy Grocery.

All funds realized from the February meeting of the P.T.A. will be used to furnish milk to undernourished children of the kindergarten, and the First, Second, Third and Fourth grades.

It is hoped that this year, there will be enough money on hand to continue the milk drinking until the end of the school term. In former years, the milk fund is generally exhausted by May 1.

Tickets for the play and entertainment are 15 cents each. The program starts at 8 p. m. in the auditorium.

Hockey Team Ties Granite Falls

Tigers Close To An Upset Victory.

The Marshall intramural hockey squad scored a moral victory against a Granite Falls team Saturday morning when they held their heavier and more experienced opponents to a scoreless tie.

The Tigers came dangerously close to scoring an upset victory on several fast plays.

Buckie Neill, Tiger goalie was credited with four good stops, two of which were sensational. Owen Hess, Bud Gilbert and Bud Johnson saw most of the front line action and were relieved at times by Billy Haynes, Owen Paul and Luther Halvorson. Bob Harmon and Donald Lee at defense positions were relieved by Jack Ford and Cecil Doyle.

A return game will be played in Marshall on the school rink Thursday afternoon.

Hockey is interesting more students than ever this year because of improved ice and playing conditions. Forty-two boys have sticks and are rapidly learning how to handle them.

Tigers Play At Balaton Tonight

Other Game This Week Is At Tracy.

Marshall basketball news is somewhat a minus quantity this week, because the Tigers are playing no home games here during the period.

The Tigers play Balaton there tonight, and go to Tracy Friday.

Coach Bernie Cole is getting his boys ready at the free throw line and on the in-shots, weakness in both departments having spelled defeat for them in several games.

The Tigers' new combination appeared to work smoothly against Minneota last Friday, and it is possible that this same lineup will continue through the remaining games, including the sub-district and the district tournaments.

P.T.A. Hoping For Good Crowd At Play Tonight

A one-act comedy and a number of musical numbers, all presented by members of the Public School faculty, will form the program for the February meeting of the P.T.A. tonight at 8 o'clock in the High School auditorium.

This is the only meeting of the school year, to which admission will be charged. The price is 15 cents a person, and all funds realized will be turned over to the organization's milk fund for undernourished children of the Kindergarten, and from the First to the Fourth Grades.

Lunches will be served at the conclusion of the meeting by a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Neill.

Big Entertainment Program Ready For Band Carnival

Entertainment in the Fun For All Carnival which will be staged Saturday in the Auditorium, will include the following features:

A farce, "Market Hours", Black Faced Minstrels, movies, Hall of Terror, and many concessions.

The price of each event ranges from one cent to 10 cents for students, and from one cent to 15 cents for adults.

The Black Faced Minstrels act will be presented by the Girls Athletic Association, and a 30-minute program of jokes, dancing and song has been worked out. This act is unique in that it will be the first of such entertainment put on in Marshall in years.

Another interesting concession will be a free throw stand for the downtown quarterbacks. It is a game of skill that all are welcome to try.

February 10, 1937

Carnival Plans Near Completion

Many Features Ready For Band Program.

Preparations are rapidly nearing completion for the first Band Carnival ever to be held at the Marshall Public Schools.

There will be 15 games of skill on the floor where prizes will be awarded those who show the greatest skill. Movies, plays and blackface acts go to make up an evening which may be rightly called, "fun for all."

Proceeds will go toward the purchase of instruments for the band to make the band vigger and better. Director Wingert has his mind set on a 45-piece band this spring.

One of the highlights of the program will be the faculty play to be staged twice during the evening. The play is a sidesplitting comedy and everyone will enjoy. Moderate prices will prevail, giving everyone a chance to see this comedy.

Following the plays and after trying luck at the various games, the Little Theatre will be open for an hour of dancing.

To take care of the smaller children in the "fun for all" carnival, doors will be open at 6.30 p. m.

Faculty Play Enjoyed By Big P.T.A. Audience

Admissions to the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association program last night totaled about $29, and thus assured the continuance of the milk project until the end of the school term.

The program was presented entirely by members of the faculty, and they did an excellent job all around.

"Market Hours," a one act play was clever and amazing. Hubert Kueffler, who, according to advance notices, has trod the boards for years as Simon LeGree in Uncle Tom's Cabin, ran away with the show with an excellent portrayal of a captain of industry who was cleverer than his clever nephew, ably played by George Wingert.

As a matter of fact, the only thing that smelled about the play was Mr. Wingert's cigar, and that smelled to the high heaven, even as far back as the last row in the auditorium where this reporter was sitting with George Chamberlain.

When Mr. Chamberlain got the first whiff of that odoriferous corona, he was heard to mutter something about "There oughta be a law . . ."

Miss Vivian Erickson was highly indignant as the indignant Miss Lowry. Miss Skanse made a very pretty stenographer, and Merrill Olson was fine as a disgruntled speculator. He was pinch hitting for Lloyd Ostrand-er, who refused to play, fearing dead cats and over ripe vegetables from the audience.

A checkup with the editors of the Half Past Tuesday Column, who made so brilliant and illuminating a resume of each actor's past experience, shows that Mr. Olson once played the nurse in Romeo and Juliet.

Miss Alice Johnson as Mrs. Scott-field, Mr. Smith as Mr. Stannard, and Mr. Weber as Wadschild, all were good.

Miss Biobl played the roll of Miss Brown, and she also did an excellent job as master of ceremonies.

The music numbers on the program all received much applause, and they deserved it. A list follows:

"Little Gray Home in the West" sung by a sextette consisting of Miss Erickson, Miss Helene Alland, Miss Senora Charleson, Miss Bessie Fay Ross, Miss Vieno Lammi, and Miss Lillian Riedesel.

Miss Valborg Fjelstad and Miss Alice Johnson presented a piano duet, Miss Erickson sang, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," Mr. Wingert played a piano solo, and Merlin Powell, Arthur Raine, and Mr. Wingert presented two songs, "John Peele," and "Three For Jack."

February 11, 1937

Keith To Show Movies At Carnival

Extra Entertainment Added To Program.

R. T. Keith has kindly consented to show his movies of his recent trip to the West Saturday evening for the benefit of the Band, it was announced today.

Mr. Keith's pictures include complete movies of the great spectacle of every year, "The Parade of the Tournament of Roses," featuring the hundreds of floats from all over California and the pictures of the trip to the Catalina Island. The trip over the mountains as recorded on films is also well worth seeing. Mr. Keith further records his trip into Mexico.

There will be many concessions at the carnival where everyone may have a lot of fun at a minimum cost. That ace comedy "Market Hours," will be repeated Saturday night in the Little Theatre in the fun-for-all carnival, in the High School Auditorium. Thirty minutes of laughs for everyone attending are assured.

All the proceeds of the carnival will be devoted to some worthwhile project being carried on at Marshall High School.

Tiger Cagers Defeat Balaton Team 19-12

Seconds Also Win, 24 To 2—Much Of Scoring Is Done In Last Half.

The Marshall High School basketball teams won two games last night at Balaton, defeating the first team 19 to 12, and the seconds 24 to 2.

In the main game, close guarding was the word. Garrels picked up a loose ball in the opening quarter to score the only field goal of the first half.

The Tigers, although unable to score from the field, nevertheless, made five points from the free throw line to give them a 5 to 4 lead at the half.

On a neatly-executed play, Todnem pushed in a short shot in the opening seconds of the last half. He followed this with another in-shot as the Balaton defense began to crack.

Marks scored a close shot and then just as the quarter ended, connected a long one with the bucket. Healy added a point on a gift, and Balaton, shooting in hard luck, failed to score.

The fourth quarter opened cautiously, and neither team scored a field goal the first 4 minutes. Ullery, Thompson and Marks, however, each counted a free throw to give Marshall a 17 to 4 count.

At this time Balaton started to spurt. Olson hit a long shot from the side. Tate, taking this as a signal, put on a single-handed rally that had the Tigers floundering in a deluge of buckets.

Having scored but a single free throw up to this point, Tate proceeded to roll in 6 points, before the gun ended his rally.

Tigers To Play Tracy There Friday

Marshall Lads Out To Garner Victory.

There'll be a hot time in old Tracy tomorrow night when the Marshall Tigers go there to play the Scrapers.

Like all games between these traditional rivals, this game will be a thriller, and particularly so because the Marshall lads are pretty het up over the defeats they suffered last Fall in football, and on January 29 in basketball.

They are out to win, and so is Tracy. The dope seems to have resolves itself into that old dilemma "What happens when an irresistible force meets and immovable object?"

Granite Hockey Teams Play Here

Tiger Seniors Defeated 2 To 1.

Granite Falls Senior and Junior high school hockey squads invaded Marshall yesterday for a doubleheader, taking away one victory and one tie.

The Seniors defeated the Marshall seniors 2 to 1, and the Juniors tied the Marshall Juniors 1 to 1.

Marshall in the Senior game held Granite Falls to the short end of a 1 to 0 score for some time, with Owen Hess scoring early in the first period. "Red" Paulsen, a fast and experienced Granite puckman who has had considerable experience in the independent league, hit his stride late in the game to score two goals.

The Junior game was a nip and tuck affair until darkness halted it.

Outstanding Marshall boys were Hess, Johnson, Rasmussen, Neill, Gilbert, Van Dorin, Gilbert, Harmon, Lee, Haynes, Paul, Ford, and Halvorson.

Tracy Wins Again By Single Point

Tiger Lead Overcome In Third Quarter.

The Tracy Scrappers established themselves as the No. 1 basketball team of the district when they fought the Tigers last night at Tracy to win 23 to 22.

Carried on by their characteristic fight, the Scrappers opened an assault in the third quarter that overcame the 10-point lead the Tigers had established, and tied the score at 18-all as the quarter ended.

Apparently in an ugly mood for having been held scoreless the second period, the Scrappers put on the heat and poured in buckets so rapidly that the Tigers took time out twice to prevent the netting from catching on fire.

Holstein slipped in two, Catlin took the ball away from Healy under the basket and pushed it in, Welch dropped one in from the side, and Werner, the star of the evening, swished in three. In fact, only Todnem was able to hold his man scoreless in this period.

Both teams scored two field goals apiece the remaining quarter, but Werner was able to connect on one of his two free-throws to give Tracy its one-point margin of victory.

KNOW YOUR SCHOOLS

By F. R. ADAMS
Superintendent

For a good many years there has been a demand for the Federal government to help in the financing of schools. There are several good reasons why this is desirable. The most important of which is the inability of certain states to finance their own schools due to a low valuation. The taxable wealth of New York is twelve times that of one of the southern states. Another reason is that the federal government can raise money by means not available to the states. One of the greatest objections has been the fear of the control of local schools by the federal government.

There is a bill before Congress in this session sponsored by two Congressmen from Minnesota, Lundeen and Ryan, which would pay to each state $25 per pupil.

If this bill was enacted it would mean a large reduction in the amount of local taxes levied against real estate. At the present time the local taxes per pupil enrolled amounts to about $35. If $25 per pupil was received from federal aid, local taxes for schools could be reduced at least two-thirds in the Marshall district.

At the present time federal funds are available for vocational education in the high school. This aid is given for vocational classes in agriculture, home economics, and trades and industries. These funds are used to reimburse the salaries of teachers only. Up to 50 per cent in aid can be secured for full time vocational teacher's salaries. The local school has two vocational departments that qualify for federal aid. These are the agricultural and home economics departments. For the school year 1935-1936, $1,228.48 was received in federal aid for these departments.

In 1936 George Deen Act passed Congress. Under this act vocational education will be greatly extended not only in the departments now aided, but also in distributive occupations.

Band Carnival Brings Nice Sum

Proceeds Will Pay For Two New Instruments.

A report today by Principal Merrill Olson revealed that the carnival held in the auditorium Saturday paid for two instruments the High School Band has purchased, and left a small balance in the treasury.

Ethel Peterson was crowned Queen of the Carnival, Betty McCready was second, and Dorothy Haynes was third.

Fourth place went to Beth Dhoore, Fifth to Edith Struthers and sixth to Veronica Juba.

Ethel Peterson as Queen received a gold compact. In the ceremonies that followed the announcement, the six girls marched to the stage under the spotlight, and the queen was crowned by Dorothy Jefferson, president of the High School Band.

Mr. Olson estimated that more than 1,000 were present at the Carnival. The doors were opened at 6.30 to permit the younger students to join in the fun.

R. T. Keith's Cine "8" motion pictures were greatly admired, and the students expressed their thanks for his generous act in showing the pictures free of charge.

The Western Union concession booth was one of the most popular stunts of the carnival. John Silvius had charge, and he and three girl typists were way behind all evening sending messages to various persons on the floor.

Another popular concession was the basketball free-throw stand, and a line was formed all evening waiting their chance for a free throw. Seven out of 10 tries meant a free prize, but there were few of them given.

Two other concessions that attracted large crowds were the Hall of Terror, arranged by the Junior class and the Black Face Minstrels, put on under the auspices of the Girls' Athletic Association. Outstanding features in this entertainment were the performances of Shirley Anne Silver and Betty Persons as tap dancers, Crystal Johnson, master of ceremonies, and Frances Peterson's banjo playing and singing.

The faculty play, "Market Hours," played a return engagement at the Carnival, and the performance drew a large audience.

Band Carnival Tonight Offers Many Features

There will be enough varied entertainment at the High School Band Carnival at the schoolhouse tonight to satisfy all ages of merrymakers.

Included on the program will be many concessions, where all can have fun at slight cost, the play "Market Hours," by a cast of the Marshall High School faculty, and Cine "8" movies shown by R. T. Keith.

The Marshall photographer took these pictures on his recent trip to the West Coast, and they will include scenes of the parade at the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena; scenes taken going over the mountains; pictures of old Mexico; and pictures of his trip to Catalina Island.

Proceeds will go to pay for new instruments for the Marshall High School Band.

Tiger Cage Teams Win At Hendricks

First Team Victorious By 21 To 11 Count—Cubs Are Ahead 28 To 10.

The Marshall High School basketball teams won two games last night at Hendricks, the Tigers winning 21 to 11 and the Cubs 28 to 10.

The Tigers moved away to an early lead when Todnem scored on a shot from the center of the floor and Wiener slipped behind the defense to push in a short one. Dorn cut the lead when he sank a tip-in shot. Neither team was able to penetrate the tight defenses and the first quarter ended 4 to 2.

Todnem and Ullery connected on field goals, but Dorn matched this with two baskets. The half ended with Marshall leading 8 to 6.

Starting the second half, Dorn, who had accounted for all of Hendrick's points, scored again to tie the count. Hasbrouck put Marshall in the lead again when he dumbled in for a basket.

Dorn and Todnem each made a free-throw. Healy then scored for a short shot and Hasbrouck followed with his second basket of the quarter to give Marshall a 15 to 9 lead as the 3rd quarter ended.

Wiener intercepted a Hendrick's pass and dumbled in for a basket. Ullery and Todnem ran Marshall's total to 21 with free-throws. Singaoss scored on a long shot to give Hendricks a total of 11 as the game ended.

For Hendricks, Dorn, who scored 3 of his team's 11 points, was outstanding. For Marshall the work of Todnem stood out.

Balaton Here Friday In Season's Windup

Tigers Face Team Tomorrow Night That Defeated Tracy Scrappers.

The Marshall Tigers play the last game of the season on the Marshall floor Friday night against the Balaton cage squad.

Balaton has a good defensive record, and a good record for the season to date. Their defeat of Tracy is outstanding, for any quint that can take the Scrappers into camp has something behind the eight-ball.

Coach Bernie Cole will have the opportunity of playing the last home game of the year against a club which is rated fourth in the district. There is a chance that he may alter the Tiger lineup to gear it high for district play next week. The only team to hand the Tigers a defeat in the district this season, has been Tracy.

Balaton's teams are always near the top, and a hot session is on the books for tomorrow night.

Tigers And Braves Play Here Tonight

It's Final Game Of Regular Cage Season.

With the Tigers rating an unofficial second place in District No. 9 cage play, and Balaton ranking fourth, an interesting game is in prospect on the Marshall floor tonight as the local quintet plays its last game of the 1937 season proper.

Sub-tournament play starts in District No. 9 Monday night, and four teams will play on the Marshall floor.

The Tigers that night will play Arco at 7.30, and Minnesota will tackle Balaton at 8.30.

District No. 9 basketball tournament is scheduled to be held in Marshall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 4, 5, and 6.

LETTERS

Marshall Daily Messenger:

Marshall High School wishes to express their appreciation to the Marshall public for the fine support they received at the Band Carnival. Also to the Marshall Daily Messenger which carried the numerous stories of the carnival, and helped make it a success.

With the profits secured from the carnival the band will be able to purchase two badly needed instruments and other organizations secure small amounts for needed projects.

As in the past the policy of Marshall High School has been to keep the finances of the high school before the public.

The band made a profit of $131.77 and other organizations benefited to the extent of $60.82.

Again Marshall High School wishes to thank the Marshall Public and Marshall papers.

Tigers Defeat Balaton 23 To 8

Visitors Crippled By Loss Of Star, Tate.

The Marshall Tigers defeated the Balaton cage squad here last night by a score of 23 to 8.

Balaton, crippled by the absence of Tate, who has an injured ankle that may possibly keep him out of play until tournament time, put up a strong defense against the Tigers, but were not able to stop Marks, Todnem and Hasbrouck from their scoring. Teddy, by the way, was hot on his gift shots, missing only one out of five. His percentage for the season is excellent.

The game was marred by careless ball handling on both sides, which, combined with too much wrestling on the floor over disputed balls, slowed up the game and made it somewhat dull for the last three periods.

Sanders found a spot about mid-floor from which he could sink some long distance beauties, but the Tigers broke this coup up, after he had plunked in two.

Healy and Hasbrouck played especially fine ball last night. Chollic tried desperately hard to score, but was too well guarded. He did send in one long sizzler that defied the laws of physics.

Hasbrouck did a nice defensive job and besides made two grand field goals and a gift. He has gained a lot of poise and confidence in the last few games.

Weiner showed a big improvement last night, putting up a spirited and aggressive defense, and handling the ball well most of the time.

The officials were Ellgen and Dmek of Ivanhoe.

The sub-district tournament will start throughout the territory Monday night, when eliminations will be in order.

Marshall And Balaton Win Way To District

Tigers Overwhelm Arco 73 To 8, Balaton Defeats Vikings 24 To 14.

Arco and Minnesota were eliminated from district tournament competition in the gymnasium here last night when Marshall drubbed the former by a score of 73 to 8, and Balaton defeated Minneota 24 to 14.

The games were part of sub-district play which is being held the forepart of this week in District No. 9.

The smaller, slower, and less experienced Arco squad fought hardily every minute up to the last gun to stem the Tiger attack, but the latter were not to be denied, and sunk baskets almost at will. Weiner was high man with 16 points.

On the other hand, the Minneota-Balaton battle was a humdinger up until the middle of the fourth quarter. At this point the Balaton coach observed the psychological moment, and sent in his star Tate, who has been out the last eight or nine days with a bum ankle.

The reaction of Tate's mates was immediate and to Minneota's sorrow. Tate did little shooting save two gifts, but he generalled his boys and gave them confidence, especially Garrels, who dumped in three nice field goals. Tate is probably the best ball handler in these parts, with the exception perhaps, of Christenson of Minneota, who played a grand game all around last night, and even when Minneota seemed hopelessly beaten, ran his heart out to run up a few more points. This he did under difficulties, but went out the last minute on four personals. Christianson made eight points including three buckets and two gifts. Garrels was high point man of the game with four field goals and a free throw.

The dope at present seems to be that Christianson of Minneota, and Tate of Balaton are slated for district honors, or should be, according to the drug store dopesters of this community.

Christianson is a nice man on his feet, handling the ball, and shooting. He is fast as they make them, and his eye is deadly on the basket. To cap it all he is, like Tate, a good general. The slight advantage he has over Tate, would seem to be that he is a mite faster on his pins. It would be a pleasure to see these lads working together on the same team.

This is the irony of basketeball-- that a crippled member of one team should be vieing for district honors with a man of a team that has lost its right for primary competition in the district tourney.

District Cage Tourney To Prove Colorful Event

45-Piece Band To Entertain Daily At Three-Day Meeting Here Next Week.

An indispensable part of a basketball tournament in addition to the players, the cheering, and the crowds is music, and the ninth district tourney opening here a week from tonight will have plenty of music and mighty good music.

The Marshall High School Band of 45 pieces will be on hand for every program, peping things up for everyone, making sure there is not a dull moment throughout the three days of play. The band of 45 pieces profited by a carnival recently staged for its benefit and as a result, two new instruments have been added.

All through the year, band members have been faithful at all the games, helping to make them a success. Songs which the students like to sing have become a part of every game, together with various school songs. The student body receives a lot of enjoyment in singing these songs. The student body receives a lot of enjoyment in singing these songs, and it has become a part of every game.

This year the band members insist that they are going to do the best job of the year at the tournament.

8 Cage Teams Drilling For District Tournament

Nichols And Barnard Returning To Referee Again—Three Trophies At Stake In Meet.

The ninth district basketball tournament will get under way here next Thursday at 2 p. m., as four teams make their bid for survival through the first round of this spectacular event.

To Tracy and Tyler goes the honor of starting this year's tournament. Immediately after their game, Hendricks and Lake Benton will tangle to complete the afternoon's program. The other two games in the first round will be played Thursday evening, when Marshall meets Cottonwood at 7.30 p. m., and Balaton faces Lynd at 8.40 p. m.

All eight teams were preparing today for the final test which will bring to one of them the district championship and the right to represent this district in the annual regional tournament, which will be held at Glencoe the following week.

The district tourney will be run off in Marshall's gymnasium, which is adequately fitted in every way for the big meeting. Local officials have made every effort to see that everything goes smoothly and both teams and crowds are cared for in the best possible manner.

The Marshall High School Band will entertain throughout, while strong cheering sections following each team will add to the excitement and color.

Game officials will be favorites of by-gone years, James C. Nichols and Lester Barnard, both of Minneapolis.

Eleven games will be played in all. Semi-finals are set for Friday night, while on Saturday night there will be three games, the consolation, the third and fourth place games and the championship.

The first round of the consolation will be played in two games Saturday morning.

Three trophies will be awarded, one for the championship, one for the consolation, and one for the runner-up.

An all-district team will be announced after the game.

February 27, 1937

All-District Cagers To Receive Gold Basketballs

Championship Trophy Will Be Awarded To Team Which Wins The Tournament.

Each member of the all-district tournament team to be chosen here next Saturday will receive a gold basketball indicating his selection on the all-district for the year.

Eight boys will be named on the all-district team — three forwards, three guards and two centers, and they will not be known as alternates; all eight boys comprising the first team.

A championship trophy will be given to the team winning the tournament. Another trophy will be given to the team which is classed as runner-up, and another trophy to the winner of the consolation to be decided at 6.40 on Saturday evening.

The trophies this year are beautiful pieces that any school will be proud to own. They are on display at the Olson and Lowe store in Marshall, and will be there during the week of the tournament.

Five Teams Given Chance To Take District Honors

Outcome Likely To Depend On Which Squad Can Become "Tournament Team."

Pre-tournament gossip is running high, with at least five teams being put down as having a good chance at the title.

The Scrappers of Tracy, of course, rate place No. 1, and will be the favorite to top the district event, but they won this place by defeating Marshall in two games. They have only one defeat chalked up against them in district competition, that by Hendricks.

Marshall holds position No. 2 with only two defeats, Hendricks No. 3, Balaton No. 4, and Lynd, No. 5.

Anyone may be classed as a possible contender—which ever team becomes a tournament team will be the team to annex the district championship.

By the tournament team is meant the team that actually rises to the heights during a week of intensive basketball. Whether or not they play over their heads is not the question—they play during the three days grand basketball. Anyone of the five teams may do just that, and they will be the team that will undoubtedly walk off the floor as district No. 9 champions.

Marshall with its one and two point defeats by Tracy will be in a splendid position to spring an upset.

Hendricks, also having defeated the league leading Tracy club, will be in a spot to push in an upset. On the other hand, Tracy is the type of a club that when the going gets tough, they also get harder to beat.

This Lynd club is another one that is thinking in tournament terms this year. They have a couple of boys that can find the basket and are not to be counted out until the final gun blows. They have wins in the upper bracket and are expected to cause trouble all the way through.

All in all this year's tournament looks like one of the best ever to be staged in Marshall.

Packed Gymnasium Seen For Tournament

Expected To Be Packed To Limit.

With the 1937 basketball tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Marshall's gymnasium will have its big test.

While Marshall has always ranked very close to the top in basketball tournaments—in fact, second in the state, being outdone by only the range town Virginia—The Marshall gym has never been filled to capacity. This year with nice weather and basketball at a high pitch of excitement, the auditorium may get its big test—that of being sold out completely. If so, it will be the first time since its construction that the "sold out" sign has been hung up.

Even this is questionable as in previous years it has been able to accommodate all those who attended. If necessary, bleacher seats will be reared upon the stage and the overflow crowd handled there.

Sometime ago a research was made of the various regions as to the region in Minnesota having the largest attendance. It was impossible to arrive at an attendance figure, but it was possible to make a comparison on the net income.

Only Virginia in a four year period ranked ahead of Marshall in gross income turned in, and on the range they charge 75c in place of the 50c charged in Marshall. So Marshall is gaining the distinction of being a tournament top.

The last three days of this week Marshall will entertain the outstanding school activity in this territory. From eight towns in district No. 9, basketball teams selected from 16, followed by large crowds of spectators will be here for the annual district event, which opens Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. During these three days a total of 11 games will be played, enough basketball to satisfy the heart of the most ardent fan.

Competing teams are Tracy, Tyler, Hendricks, Lake Benton, Marshall, Cottonwood, Balaton, and Lynd, all of them much closer matched than usual this year insuring a thoroughly interesting tournament.

In any tournament there is always a chance of an upset, especially when there is no outstanding team in the district. From the paring this year, Tracy and Marshall are ranked teams one and two in the district, but Balaton, Hendricks, and Lynd, ranking third, fourth, and fifth, were very close and the chances of an up-set are not remote.

The winner of this big event will represent district No. 9 at Glencoe next week for the right to go to the state the following week.

Record crowds are expected for this district event, bands will play, cheer sections will roar, expertly trained young athletes will perform here will be veritable riot of color. Basketball will be truly king.

1-2 PAST TUESDAY COLUMN

A COMBINATION OF PROSE, POETRY AND BASKETBALL

The Marshall High School Basketball Team has been playing some high class basketball this winter. It has won a goodly share of its games and when it lost the opposing team always knew they had been in a contest. Not only can it play good basketball but one of its players it an author of no mean ability. We refer to Teddy Todnem who plays a guard position on the team. This week we publish his first article—a combination of prose and poetry. Read it and be glad:

How I Won The District Basketball Tournament By Theodore Todnem

It was the night of the finals in the 1937 District Basketball tournament. The two undefeated teams were Tracy and Marshall and the excitement was intense. Long before the game started every available seat in the auditorium was taken and many were turned away on account of lack of seating room. The Marshall High School Band played as it had never played before and When the Marshall Team came on the floor it just seemed as though the Marshall supporters of the team would go wild. The practice period was soon over, the whistle blew and the game began. And what a game! It just seemed that every player on both teams was inspired and the score see-sawed back and forth until at the end of the third quarter the score stood a tie—13 all. Soon we were playing the fourth and deciding quarter. We made a free throw making the score 14 to 13 in our favor and we kept that lead for several minutes when suddenly a Tracy man made a wonderful basket that put Tracy into the lead 15 to 14 with only three minutes to play. The Marshall players put on extra steam and made at least two attempts for baskets but without success:

Contestants from the following schools will participate:

Marshall, Russell, Lake Benton, Lynd, Milroy, Tracy, Hendricks, Canby, and Hanley Falls.

Winners of the district contest will be eligible to compete in the Regional contest.

March 2, 1937

We had one minute left to play—we were one point behind. But there we were still playing with all pep and skill—we find Our strong opponents get the ball and take it down the floor, With great determination on each face—then with a roar, The crowd cheers on the Marshall team to win—to do or die, To win this triumph which we seek or know the reason why. The ball loops toward the basket's rim—but just before it lands, I-jumped straight up into the air and grabed it in my hands.

Well sir, there I was with the ball right under the Marshall basket with only fifteen seconds left to play with Tracy leading 15 to 14. I thought the Marshall rooters would go crazy:

They raved and they tore—as they've never done before, And I knew I'd be the goat if I didn't make a score.

Then I thought how proud my parents would be if I made the winning score—I thought of the honors my sisters had brought to Marshall through their ability as bread makers and cherry pie makers and I made up my mind right then and there that it was about time I did something for the Orange and Black:

So down the floor at lightning speed I took that ball abouncing,

'Twas our last chance to give Tracy a rather belated trouncing.

I shot the basket—the game's end sounded—we were one point ahead,

Then with a loud and heavy bump I FELL OUT OF BED.

That's a mighty fine dream you had, Teddy, and we hope your dream comes true at the District Basketball Tournament to be held in Marshall, March 4th, 5th, and 6th. However, anything can happen at a basketball game and we would advise everyone not to miss these games. You'll hear good music by the Marshall High School Band, you see exciting basketball games, and you'll enjoy the good sportsmanship that exists at these tournaments. May the best team win—and, naturally, we hope that team will be Marshall.

And when it comes to Insurance, just keep the Simons and Gregoire Agency in mind. We represent strong companies and we give Insurance our best attention.

Names Of Team Members Announced

Tourney Opens Thursday Night In Gymnasium.

District No. 9 basketball tournament Plans are nearly completed for the which starts in Marshall Thursday night. Names of team members are listed on this page.

The handling of crowds in the Marshall gymnasium will be carried on much as it has been in the past tournaments. Every detail has been checked to make the seating of fans easy and rapid. It is the aim of the tournament officials to make this the most enjoyable tournament ever held in district No. 9.

Entrance to the bleachers may be gained through both upper and lower doors. The lower section of the bleachers will be filled first, then the doors on the second floor will be opened and the fans seated upstairs and into the upper section of the bleachers. Overflow crowds will be seated on the stage, for temporary seats for 150 will be erected if it is found necessary to do so.

Twelve girls dressed in customary orange smocks will have charge of the seating of the crowd. They will guide fans to their section and will answer any question asked and do everything possible to be of service to the people coming to the games. Two girls will be stationed at each aisle and one will be in general charge of ushering at each bleacher.

In order to enable the fans from various towns to be seated together, sections will be reserved for each school and signs designating the section will be placed above the section. These will be changed for each set of games, giving the teams playing the center sections.

For the convenience of those who wish to go out of the auditorium during intermission, between halves, or between games, passes will be issued at the door. No one will be readmitted without a pass unless a new ticket is purchased.

Fans are requested to remain in their seats after each series of games until the doors on both floors and at the front entrance are opened. This will permit rapid withdrawal from the auditorium without causing congestion at the doors. At no time will anyone be allowed to stand in the aisle waiting for the game to be completed. It is necessary that all aisles be kept open at all times.

Stage Set For Tournament Here

March 3, 1937

The high school band has worked out a special program for the tournament games, and its appearance will be part of the district 9 tournament. No effort has been spared to provide for the comfort and enjoyment of visitors to the tournament. Ample parking space for out of town fans is available at the east end of the new building.

It is the suggestion of the tournament officials that fans endeavor to reach the auditorium in plenty of time, as all games will start at the scheduled time.

After the game has started, only the upstairs' doors will be open for admittance as it is desirable that no one obstruct the view of those already seated.

Tracy, Hendricks, Play First Game

Two Winners To Play For Title Saturday.

The District No. 9 basketball tournament goes into the semi-finals tonight with Tracy playing Hendricks, and Marshall engaging Balaton.

The schedule for tonight at the high school gymnasium is:

7:30—Tracy vs. Hendricks.

8:40—Marshall vs. Balaton.

Tracy yesterday won the right to play in the second round by their 37 to 10 victory over Tyler.

Hendricks defeated the Lake Benton huskies by a score of 36 to 14.

In the evening games last night, Marshall took Cottonwood to the tune of 39 to 15.

The Balaton cagers barely defeated Lynd, 24 to 22, in the final game of the first round last night.

Large crowds attended both afternoon and evening games yesterday, and tournament officials expect a capacity audience again tonight.

Tickets are being sold at both the schools of the different teams and also at the booths in the schoolhouse.

Clothing checking facilities are available at the schoolhouse at the reasonable price of 5 cents.

There is ample parking space for motor cars within the area of short walking distances to the schoolhouse. A corps of ushers is always on hand to speed up the seating, and the movement of the crowd is done as smoothly, swiftly and courteously as possible.

The Marshall High School Band, under the direction of George Wingert, will play at all the remaining games tonight and Saturday night.

The opening consolation round will be played off Saturday morning, with Tyler meeting Lake Benton and Cottonwood facing Lynd.

District No. 9 tournament awards are at present displayed in the windows of Olson and Lowe's.

Three games are scheduled for Saturday night, namely the consolation championship at 6.40 p. m., the game to decide the third and fourth place winners at 7.50, and the district championship at 9 p. m.

Marshall Defeats Cottonwood, 39-15

Healy Scores 14 Points For First Round High.

The Marshall-Cottonwood battle in first round play of the district tournament last night was chiefly remarkable because Cottonwood has improved considerably since they played their first game against the Tigers this season, and because Chollie Healy marked up the most points of any player of the eight teams playing in the first round yesterday afternoon.

Chollie is a good all-around man, but his shooting was never anything to write home about before, so when he started his scoring spree yesterday, it sort of took the fans by surprise. They are figuring that he will play an important part in the championship game which they hope Marshall will play in Saturday night.

Cottonwood, as usual, fought like wilcats and kept the battle up from the opening jump to the final gun. They are always an interesting team to watch because of their determination and fight. Hackett made an impressive 9 points against Marshall, and stocky Retrum led the attack, and mixed up in it whenever he got the chance. Retrum plunked in two long clean buckets and sank a gift for 5 points.

Hendricks Trims Lake Bentonites

Tournament Game Ends In Score Of 36 To 14.

Led by Dorn with 11 points, and Ahrendt and Buller with 8 points each, the Hendricks basketball team swamped the Lake Bentonites by a score of 36 to 14 in first round play of the district tournament yesterday afternoon.

The most spectacular floorwork and shooting by an individual was demonstrated in the game by Schaikoski of Lake Benton, who garnered 7 points with three baskets and a free throw.

Schaikoski has a shifty and swift dribble with the ball that is a pleasure to watch, and he showed himself a mighty dangerous threat. He would be a strong offense man on any high-ranking district team.

Peppiest of the out-of-town cheer leaders at yesterday's games were the two Lynd girls.

March 5, 1937

Tracy Defeats Tyler 37-10

Take Lead Early In First Period.

Tracy defeated Tyler by a score of 37 to 10 in the opening game of the first round of the District 9 tournament here yesterday afternoon.

Holstein, Catlin, Werner and Peterson, ably assisted by Weish, O'Brien, Stone and Starr, unloosed their wares early in the game against the Tyler lads, and led at the end of the first quarter, 11 to 3.

Tyler fought desperately to stem the barrage of buckets in the second quarter, holding the Scrappers 17 to 5, but they loosened up in the third to tag 30 to 6.

Tyler showed good floor work, but their shooting seemed to be their weakness. Nielsen, however, sank two of the best shots of the game under extreme difficulties.

Balaton Wins Thriller From Lynd

Eliminates Latter In 24 To 22 Victory.

Balaton defeated the gamey Lynd cagers last night by a score of 24 to 22 in the best game of the first round of the District No. 9 basketball tournament.

Lynd started off with a bang and caught the Balaton lads on their heels, and the first quarter ended Lynd 10, Balaton 3. Coach Earl Olson then put in his crippled star, Tate, who speeded up his mates some, but the half ended with Balaton tagging four points behind Lynd, the score standing, Lynd 11, Balaton 7.

The Balaton cagers came up with a revamped lineup in the third quarter and started going places, ending the third period with 18 points to Lynd's 13. Tate led the feeding to Sawatzky, who got hot on some long shots.

Lynd staged a spirited comeback in the middle of the fourth quarter, with McChesney showing some beautiful floorwork and some uncanny shooting. He was excellently aided by his mate Vanstrom.

Tournament Highlights

The director of that fine Lake Benton band that played yesterday afternoon was H. E. Christopherson, former school principal here, and now superintendent of the Lake Benton schools.

Fashion Note: L. S. Barnard and J. B. Nichols, the officials at the tournament, are wearing shirts of solid green rather than the black and white ones they wore several years ago.

Officials are getting rather high-tighty these days—did you notice in the Tiger-Cottonwood game last night how Official Nichols socked a technical foul on Chollie Healy because he rolled the ball to him, instead of throwing it?

The old army game of basketball is getting stricter and screwier every year. It's getting so you can't give an opponent a dirty look without being penalized. For example — face guarding means simply getting up close to and looking the guy in the eye who is trying to get past you to make a basket.

Marshall and Cottonwood fans were throwing kisses at each other all evening; in short, cheering plenty for each other. It is reported that the whole thing started when Cheerleader John Silvius saw a cute little Cottonwood girl with blonde hair, and to get a drag with her, started the ball rolling with cheers for the Tigers' opponents.

The first three games yesterday, from the spectators' standpoint, weren't so hot—it's no fun seeing the big guys beat up on the weaker ones. But the Lynd-Balaton fracas was a humdinger, however heart-breaking to Lynd.

Basketball fans are the most rabid of all sports watchers. Probably they get so excited about the game, not because so many balls go through a hoop, but because so many more almost go through it.

You'd think the teams from other towns would play better on the Marshall court because it is larger and has a better floor, but the opposite is true. For example, Wendell Benson of Hendricks, was a little worried about how his boys would react in their shooting on the Marshall bangboards. He might have saved his worry, however, for the Hendricks group rolled up 36 points yesterday afternoon.

CONSOLATION CHAMPIONSHIP AT 6:40 P. M. SATURDAY

March 6, 1937
Tracy Noses Out
Hendricks 24-23

Buller Stars With 15 Points.

The Tracy Scrappers nosed out the Hendricks cagers 24 to 23 last night in the semi-finals, and by virtue of their victory won the right to compete for the District No. 9 championship tonight in the Marshall gymnasium.

They will play Marshall tonight at 9 o'clock.

The Scrappers got the breaks from the beginning last night against Hendricks, and they were a smart enough team to take advantage of them. Hendricks, however, fighting desperately, came from behind to almost even the score at the end of the first quarter, when the count was Tracy 8, Hendricks 7.

At the end of the half the score stood Tracy 16, Hendricks 12, with the outlook dark for the latter.

Hendricks came back in the second half with orders from Coach Wendell Benson to try for close-ins, with Buller in the hole. And Buller came through plenty. This lad was the star of the evening, making a total of 15 points under difficulties, for the Tracy team stuck to him like leeches. But resulting holding fouls, Buller turned to good account by shooting practically every gift shot offered him. He made a total of 9 free-throws, and three baskets.

The third quarter ended with Tracy leading 22 to Hendricks 21 and the fourth quarter was furious give and take on both sides with one basket made by each team, the game ending 23 to 24.

Holstein, the Tracy ace, was pretty well smothered on shooting, but he turned his floor work into good account by feeding to his mates, namely Werner, who came through with four baskets, and to Peterson, who sank a pair.

The Tracy Scrappers are fast and elusive in handling the ball, aggressive and sure in their defensive play, and possess four dangerous shots; in short, they are championship calibre. What they can do to Marshall tonight in the championship game is a moot point, for the Tigers possess the same qualities.

Marshall will be the underdogs tonight, because they have lost two games to Tracy this season, but underdogs sometimes come through with that constant desperate spurt that turns the tables—and that is what Tiger supporters are hoping for tonight.

March 6, 1937
Marshall Defeats
Balaton 27 To 24

Overtime Results When Fourth Periods Ends 23-23.

The Marshall Tigers won the right to play in the District No. 9 basketball championship game against Tracy tonight when they defeated the Balaton cagers 27 to 24 in a thrilling overtime battle last night in the semi-finals.

Mercer, a lanky substitute, who, to date, has shown only potentialities, saved the day for Marshall when he plunked in two looping buckets just when they were needed.

The result of the game looked bad for Marshall from the start. The Tigers couldn't connect with the bucket, and Balaton, led by Tate, was hot as hot. At the quarter the score stood Balaton 8, Marshall 6, and at the half it was Balaton 16, Marshall 15.

The Tigers shot 31 times at the basket during the first half and only connected once. The other 9 points were gifts, mostly by Todnem and Healy.

Marshall at the end of the third quarter woke up a bit and managed to show 15 points on the scoreboard, but Balaton hadn't been sleeping, and had 20 points.

About the middle of the fourth quarter Coach Cole called Todnem in for instructions, and a few plays later, sent him back with orders to rush in close to the bucket for in-shots. The dark hour for Marshall came in the last two minutes of play when Healy took the gong on four fouls.

Mercer went in for him, and surprised everyone by plunking in a long one-handed looping basket that put the Tigers ahead with 23 points to Balaton's 22. It looked like the game was precariously in the bag for Marshall, but a few seconds before the final gun, a Tiger fouled and Garrels placed a free-throw to tie the score 23 to 23.

The overtime was a mad scramble. A Balaton player fouled and Teddy Todnem sank a gift shot. Then in the last minute of play, Mercer came through with another long looper, and the Marshall players managed to keep possession of the ball until the last five seconds, when it went into Balaton territory as the gun sounded.

Hasbrouck gave an excellent account of himself last night, not so much by his floorwork and guarding, which were a little sloppy, but because of three clean baskets. Todnem, of course, was the old bulwark of defense and offense. He showed two baskets and six free throws for a total of 10 points, making him second high-point man.

Tate of Balaton was high-point man of the game, with 11, and he showed his high calibre by his shrewd generalship and general floorwork. His mates gave him fine backing, especially Sowatzky, Garrels, Olson and Sanders.

Capacity Crowd Expected Tonight For Final Game

Hendricks And Balaton Meet For Third Place, Benton And Lynd In Consolation.

Marshall and Tracy will battle it out tonight for the basketball championship of District No. 9.

Both teams won by the skin of their teeth last night in two of the most thrilling cage games in the Marshall gymnasium. Tracy nosed out Hendricks 24 to 23, and Marshall won from Balaton 27 to 24 in an overtime fracas.

The schedule for tonight's program is as follows:

6.40 p. m.—Consolation game, Lake Benton vs. Lynd.

7.50 p. m.—Third and fourth place game, Hendricks vs. Balaton.

9.00 p. m. — Championship game, Tracy vs. Marshall.

Immediately after the title game, the three trophies will be presented, and an all-district team named. The trophies will be awarded for the championship, for the runnerup team, and for the consolation winner.

Eight men are to be named on the all-district this year, three forwards, three guards, and two centers. All of them will be first stringers.

A packed gymnasium is expected for the championship program tonight. In fact, it was filled to near-capacity last night for the semi-finals, so the advice for tonight is, get your seats early.

Both games last night had the crowd in a continual uproar, as one of the best evenings of basketball entertainment in many a year prevailed. The time signal was on the final minute before the Tracy-Hendricks fray was decided, and was similarly so as the Tigers and Balaton tied up to make an overtime period necessary.

Tonight's program tops the tournament entertainment, Marshall and Tracy being sure to wage a stiff battle for the title, and Balaton and Hendricks well matched for the second encounter. The consolation teams also will stage an interesting clash.

The Marshall High School Band will again play, augmenting the tournament color and excitement.

Lake Benton and Lynd went into the consolation game tonight by virtue of first round victories this morning. Lake Benton eliminated Tyler in a close-fought game, 22 to 20, while Lynd defeated Cottonwood 40 to 31.

Scrappers Play Next In Regional

Hendricks Takes Third Place—Lynd Consolation.

The Tracy Scrappers defeated the Marshall Tigers 20 to 16 here Saturday night, and by winning the championship of District No. 9, also won the right to compete in the regional tournament at Glencoe.

Tracy will meet Dawson, champion of District 11, in the first round at Glencoe. The other first round pairing there is New Ulm vs. Glencoe. The regional tournament will be played Friday and Saturday of this week.

The championship game here was fast and furious and characterized by tight defensive playing on the part of both sides. Marshall was leading 4 to 3 at the first quarter, but Tracy led at the half 7 to 6. Werner found his range in the third quarter and began to plunk them in from Tracy's offense border. The third quarter ended with Marshall on the short end of the 7 to 13 count.

The Tigers strove desperately to penetrate into the Tracy defense for close shots, but could not find the hoop. Meanwhile, Werner continued to connect from the outside circle of attack. Werner's long shots and Marshall's weakness on free throws turned the tide of victory to the Scrappers.

Lynd, led by McChesney and Vanstrom with 17 points apiece, won the consolation championship against Lake Benton 39 to 35. Schaikoski played another whale of a game for Lake Benton, amassing 17 points with seven field goals and three gifts. Cyriack garnered 10 points.

Hendricks won third place in the tournament by their 34 to 31 defeat of Balaton, who accordingly became fourth place winners. Dorn starred for Hendricks with six buckets and a free throw, with Buller and Ahrendt contributing 10 and eight points respectively.

The Balaton boys were off the first half, which ended Hendricks 22, Balaton 13. Coach Olson, however, as usual, managed to inject something into his players during the halftime, and they came out with a new lineup and a new spirit, with the result that they had 25 points to Hendricks' 27 as the third quarter ended. But they were seconds too late in starting and the game ended 34 to 31 for Hendricks.

Superintendent Myron Smith of Canby presented the awards at the close of the tournament Saturday night.

Captain Powley received the consolation award on behalf of the Lynd team, Hendricks was presented with a basketball for third place winner, as was Balaton for fourth place.

Captain Todnem accepted the runnerup award on behalf of the Marshall Tigers.

Mr. Smith then called on the entire Tracy team to accept the district No. 9 championship trophy. He reminded the packed gymnasium that Tracy, when they compete in Glencoe for the regional this weekend, will be representing the entire District No. 9, in which there are 22 schools.

Gold basketballs were presented the all-district team which consisted of eight men chosen by the officials, L. S. Barnard and J. B. Nichols of Minneapolis.

Marshall was honored by the placement of two Tigers, Teddy Todnem and Bert Hasbrouck. Lynd also won two places, McChesney and Vanstrom, both receiving gold basketballs, as was Tracy with Holstein and Werner. Other members of the mythical all-district were Tate of Balaton and Buller of Hendricks.

Mr. Smith also communicated to the audience the appreciation of the officials for the fine sportsmanship exhibited throughout the tournament by both players and the fans.

District No. 9 was host Saturday noon at a luncheon for all players, coaches, tournament staff members and officials in the New Atlantic Hotel. Official Nichols and Senator A. L. Almen, superintendent of the Balaton schools, gave short talks.

1,600 Saw Title Cage Game Here

Tournament Receipts This Year Total $973.

Now that the high school basketball season and the tournament are over, Marshall's fans who attended the games today were given a report on the tournament. The 1937 tournament was not the biggest held at Marshall, but it was moving in that direction.

No one was turned away from this year's tournament. Only on Saturday night were seats at a premium. Close to 1,600 enjoyed the last session of three games.

The biggest tournament ever held at Marshall was in 1934 when the district was held one week and the regional the following week. The receipts for the district in 1934 amounted to $1033.80 and the regional the following week $1112.50. That year only one town, the city of Virginia, topped Marshall in number attending and receipts taken in. All other towns averaged from $200 to $400 below the record at Marshall.

In 1935 the district event went to Tracy where $734.25 was taken in. In 1936, it came back to Marshall and a gross of $740.05, in spite of sub-zero weather and a near blizzard were recorded.

This year's tournament grossed $973.10. The actual cost of operating a tournament of this kind amounted to $680.20, the largest item being team expense, which amounted to $430.20. Officials cost $170, and auditorium rental, printing, etc., amounted to $80, leaving a net balance of $292.90.

This amount is turned over to the district to use to promote various activities which include track, declamation, bringing in various speakers, and the like.

All will briefly discuss various phases of adult education. Another feature of the program tonight will be the showing of two safety films, presented under the sponsorship of the National Department of American Legion.

There will also be musical numbers, and lunch will be served.

Mrs. Solon Wetherbee and Mrs. Wesley Kugler are in charge of the hospitality program, and Mrs. Jack Leedom is chairman of the luncheon committee.

P.T.A. Hears Talks On Adult Education

Sufficient Funds Remain To Carry Out Milk Project.

Talks on adult education, the showing of a safety film, and music numbers featured the March meeting of the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association held last night in the Little Theatre.

President Jack Whitney opened the meeting and requested Mrs. Roy Castle, the secretary, to read the minutes of the last meeting. At the conclusion of the minutes, Mr. Whitney reported that $73.58 had been expended on milk for the children up to March 1, and that $91.46 remained in the fund, which he believes would be sufficient to last until the end of school.

Musical numbers were furnished by Thomas Murphy with his accordion, and Mrs. Ross with two vocal presentations. Mrs. Wesley Kugler accompanied her on the piano.

The talking disc of the safety film furnished through the national department of the American Legion was broken in transit, and as a substitute Rolland Sherman, manager of the Coca-Cola Bottling Company, showed an interesting safety film furnished by his company.

The three speakers who discussed phases of adult education were Mrs. R. B. Stevens, president of the Marshall League of Women Voters, County Agent F. J. Meade, and Jack Gold.

Mr. Meade, the first to speak, gave a brief outline of the various rural groups engaged in courses of study, including the Rural Youth the Extension Study Group, women project students and government workers. He believed, he said, that the studies are helping rural people to think more about their business.

Mrs. Stevens explained the organization of the League of Women Voters, and particularly stressed the program the local group had laid out for itself the past season. The League, she explained, was definitely non-political, and all women interested in the problems of politics and economics and sociology, are cordially invited to join the organization.

Mr. Gold spoke on the broad, philosophical principles of adult education. He urged the establishment of a public forum here, where views might be aired and opinions threshed out.

Praise Handling Of Tournament

District Committee Sends Thanks To Marshall.

The District No. 9 committee, in a letter received today by Superintendent F. R. Adams, expressed their appreciation for the manner in which the district basketball tournament was conducted last week.

Signed by Superintendents Theodore Hinderaker of Hendricks, S. I. Sandbo of Minneota, and Myron E. Smith of Canby, the letter to Mr. Adams read as follows:

"The executive committee on behalf of all the schools in District No. 9 wish to express appreciation to the Marshall school for the highly competent and courteous manner in which it conducted the 1937 District Basketball Tournament.

"The district is particularly indebted to you, Mr. Adams, as tournament manager, to your faculty, and to the many student helpers who assisted so ably."

St. Olaf Choir Concert Sunday

Famous Group Sings Here Tomorrow Afternoon.

The St. Olaf Lutheran Choir which will present a concert in Marshall tomorrow afternoon was last here in 1928, and it will probably be another decade before they sing here again.

The organization is the pioneer A Capella choir in America. "A Capella" means "without musical accompaniment." Not even a tuning fork is used to establish the pitch.

Dr. F. Melius Christiansen, the director of the choristers since early in the century, is recognized as the world master in the field of choral music.

The concert in Marshall is sponsored by the Men's Club of the English Lutheran Church, and it is one of only three being presented in Minnesota this season.

The concert will start at 3 p. m., tomorrow afternoon in the High School auditorium, and the audience is requested to come early and be in their seats so that neither the listeners nor the choir will be distracted from the singing by late comers.

A large attendance from all over this part of the state is expected.

Tracy Five Plays In Regional Tonight

Hutchinson Faces New Ulm In Other Game.

The 22 schools of District No. 9 are awaiting with interest the outcome of the Region No. 3 cage tournament in Glencoe tonight when the Tracy Scrappers, district champions, play the dark horse Dawson team.

The other game of the first round play will be New Ulm and Hutchinson.

New Ulm is the favorite in the latter game, and in case Tracy wins from Dawson, the two teams will battle it out for the regional title Saturday.

Here is the scanty dope, in the event that they do play.

New Ulm has been defeated by Redwood Falls, and Tracy has defeated Redwood.

Spring Football Starts Soon, 45 Suits Issued

Two New-Comers On Marshall Schedule This Year, Luverne And Slayton.

Plans are being made for the 1937 football season at Marshall High School, and Coach Bernie Cole has already issued 45 suits to prospective candidates.

This number should be the largest spring turnout registered in the last three years, and with the largest number of lettermen returning, prospects for a good season are looking up.

All Mr. Cole is waiting for is the disappearance of the snow and a few warm days in which to dry the Legion Field so that it will be possible for them to start work.

While spring football is not so strenuous as the real season, it is a good time for the boys to learn their fundamentals and by spending four to six weeks in preparation they are that much nearer the working team when the fall season opens.

Some important names will be missing as Coach Cole calls the boys together. Among them will be Teddy Todnem, Burton Van Robays, Ralph Stevens, George Rasmussen, Edward Marcotte, Edmund Kerkvliet, Gordon Jacobson, Bert Hasbrouck, Elmer Grandpre, Orvis Fitts, Kenneth Campion, and Murl Hoiland—all having completed their football playing days at Marshall High School.

He will, however, have William

Brull, Lionel Gervais, Charles Healy, Norbert Kerkvliet, Adrian Knutson, Edward Longtin, Kenneth Marks, Eddie Van Dorin, Roy Weidauer, Chester Weiner, and Charles White, all lettermen of the 1936 season, around which to build this new club.

At a glance, his biggest problem will be the center of the line where Campion, Grandpre, Van Robays, Rasmussen and Ed Kerkvliet have left. Backs seem plentiful with the exception of a blocking back needed to carry weight.

With another suicide schedule it is necessary for the team to get into condition as quickly as possible.

Two new-comers will be included in the Marshall schedule for this year. Luverne and Slayton, are the two teams to be played for the first time.

Marshall will play Tracy, Redwood Falls, and Pipestone, away from home, with Slayton, Luverne, New Ulm, and Springfield making up the home opposition. The schedule has been so arranged as to call for the home games at an early date.

Band Concert Draws Good Crowd

Organization Is Near All-Time Record.

A good-sized crowd was present last night at the appreciation concert given to the public by the Marshall High School Band under the direction of George Wingert.

The concert was presented as a token of gratitude to the public for their fine support of the Band Benefit Carnival staged several weeks ago, the proceeds of which went toward the purchase of additional band instruments.

After Easter, the band will be the largest organization of its type that Marshall High School has ever had. At that time Mr. Wingert will add eight new members to bring it to 51 musicians.

The program last night was composed of light and enjoyable concert pieces, which permitted the band to show its sound musicianship and remarkable balance:

includes many who have worked in the beginner's band the first part of the year and advanced through hard work to join the concert band. Light, enjoyable music features the program which follows:

1. Chorale, "Grant Us to Do With Zeal" -----Bach
2. March, "Hosts of Freedom"---King
3. Fantasia, Spiritual, "Nobody Knows," "Deep River"---Holmes
4. "Pilgrim Chorus," from Tannhauser -----Wagner
5. "Steppin' Out," Novelty ---Yoder
6. "Barcarolle," from Tales of Hoffman -----Offenbach
7. "Elves Dance," from the Nut Cracker Suite -----Tschaikowsky
8. March, "Military Escort"---Bennett
9. "The Pilgrim," Grand March -----Lake
10. Selection, "A Bit of Ireland" -----Arr. by Yoder
11. "Valse Triste" -----Sibelius
12. "Chaser March" -----Arr. by Yoder

Track Prospects Bright For Tigers This Spring

Tough Schedule In Store For Cinder Men, With Five Meets Arranged.

Spring activities in Marshall High School are off to a good start. Eighty-five boys will report to Coach Cole in football and Coach Ostrander in track. In track, prospects are exceedingly bright with veterans returning in each field.

In the dashes Coach Ostrander will have Tom Regnier, captain of the 1937 track squad and twice regional winner in the 100 and regional winner in the 220 last season.

Tom's experience in the 100 and 220 and as a member of the relay team should make his last year in high school his biggest. He holds a regional record of 10 flat in the 100 yard dash. In the Carlton relays last year, Tom had a mark of 10.3 in the first heat to lead his field.

Another regional winner from last year's squad is Bud Gervais in the pole vault. Bud, in his junior year, should add additional height and be one of the mainstays of the track squad.

Burton Van Robays, second in the district in the shotput last year, and placing in the regional, has been hard at work all year on the shot and Butch expects to raise his distance considerably this year and gives every indication of doing it in his early workouts.

Brull, another boy who won the district last year in the javelin, placing second in the high jump, is hard at work on his favorite events and gives every indication of bettering his record of last year.

Bill, with 10 more feet on the javelin, will become a serious threat for regional honors. His best throw so far is 155 feet 6 inches. He has a lot of potential power in the high jump and is expected to do close to 6 feet this year.

Charley Healy is expected to do things in the broad jump and discus this year. Working on the discus, Charley has been faithful all summer and is expected to replace Rich Osweiler who won the district last year and placed second in the regional.

"Shrimp" Robinson, another district winner of second place in the low hurdles, and a fourth place winner in last year's regional, has two more years of competition. While his time was very close last year. "Shrimp" needed a little extra burst of speed to establish himself as a champion. With this year's experience, "Shrimp" should be a hard man to defeat.

Jones, another worker last year, will be trying for the half mile. His fault last season was endurance, but hard work this winter has probably cured this defect and Jones should be ready to replace Arfman, twice regional winner.

The loss of Arfman, Rich Osweiler, Jack Osweiler, Warren Rasmussen, and Ed Marcotte to this year's track club from last year's district and regional champions makes it necessary to replace regional winners in the half mile, the discus, and relay team. Last year's regional champion relay team has only Tom Regnier left. The balance of the boys having graduated and it will be necessary for Coach Ostrander to find three other boys to replace those graduated.

Over 40 boys have indicated their intention of working out this spring to earn a place on the track squad this season. Some promising new-comers have made their appearances, and will, in all likelihood, fill in during the next two months.

The hardest schedule ever undertaken at Marshall has been arranged for the squad, including meets at Carleton, the Southwestern track and field meet at Pipestone, the district meet held in Marshall, and the regional meet to be held at New Ulm. This makes a meet for every Saturday during the month of May. Another dual meet is being booked for May 1 to complete the heaviest schedule ever attempted.

Seniors Rehearse For Class Drama

"Skidding" To Be Presented April 23.

The class of 1937 is hard at work on their class play, to be presented April 23.

The play is a comedy with a cast of five boys and five girls, and had the distinction of running for one year on Broadway. It gives a picture of American life showing Marian Hardy, a college girl who falls in love with Wayne Trenton just as a career is opening for her. Then there are the two daughters who chose to marry before they finish their education and want to come home to mother at the first trouble. Mrs. Hardy is so upset at her modern family that she goes on strike in order to straighten out her family.

It is certain that the audience will enjoy the comedy, two hours of real entertainment.

Miss Helene Alland has charge of the production of "Skidding."

The cast includes the following:

Judge Hardy	-----	Kenneth Campion
Mrs. Hardy	-----	Ruth McFarland
Andy	-----	Wray Hiller

The cast for "Skidding," senior class play to be given late this month is working diligently on their play. They have resolved to make it one of the best to be presented at Marshall in recent years.

New scenery is being constructed for the play, giving a new stage setting, one which Marshall folks have not seen before. This scenery is of solid type—curtains will not be used during the play. New painting and decorations, together with new furniture will be featured in the presentation of "Skidding" April 23.

Band Sponsors Nelson Brothers

Amateur Hour Musicians Coming Here April 12.

The four Nelson Brothers, stars of Major Bowes' Amateur Hour and employed by him until recently in one of his anniversary units will be at Marshall Monday, April 12 at 8 p. m. This group is sponsored by the High School Band, and any proceeds over actual expenses will be used to purchase instruments for the band.

The Nelson Brothers have been at Marshall before and come even more highly recommended than when they were here two years ago. The boys play many different types of musical instruments. They have vocal comedies, trombone tricks, tunes on balloons and bottles, toy horns, music stunts, and really present a highly interesting program. They expect to return to the radio world next fall, either in a contract of their own, or under Major Bowes.

As one orchestra leader stated, the Nelson Brothers are "a sensational head with theatre-going audiences everywhere."

There will be no advance in admission prices, student admission being 10c and adults 25c.

HERE'S WHAT THEY SAW LAST NIGHT

The eager eyes of flood spectators saw mostly this last night—blackness. Except where street lights were nearby, or automobile lights flashed, little could be seen of the extent of the rapidly rising water. This picture was snapped on South Second street about midnight—water is surging over Highway 19 and into the field in the upper left of the picture.

Football Drill To Start Here Monday

Bernie Cole Issues 45 Suits To Candidates.

Coach Bernie Cole and his gridders have hopes of getting out next Monday. With the snow disappearing rapidly, the boys are counting the days until they can get out for spring football.

Coach Cole has issued 45 suits and with this turnout hopes to build another team upholding the traditions of past teams here at Marshall. He will have a greater number of lettermen to work with than in previous seasons. His problems are a blocking back and the center of the line, which was hit by graduation.

At the same time Coach Ostrander is working out daily with 40 boys in preparation of a strenuous month in track. The 40 boys, representing all classes, are displaying some good talent for future track teams at Marshall High School.

Coach Ostrander was especially pleased with the broad-jumping and high-jumping of some of the newcomers on the squad. As soon as it is possible for him to get out to the cinder track, rapid advances will be made.

Night Flood Here Brings Out Spectators By Score

Swiftly Rising Water Watched Throughout City—Some Residents Sleep Through It All.

The Redwood River flood and an electrical storm that brought over a half-inch of rain kept hundreds of Marshall residents on their toes last night.

As news that the river was rapidly rising spread through the city, scores of automobiles plied the streets in all directions, the occupants seeking vantage points to view the surging waters.

The thunderstorm struck town at 2 a. m., approaching from the direction of Lynd. It was the first rain of the season, and in less than two hours totaled more than half an inch.

In numerous homes residents worked in their basements as the water either seeped in or flowed in through the windows, while in a few others exactions for the night were made in the face of advancing water.

Spectators, however, could see little, except by car light and flashlights, and it was not until arrival of the electrical storm that the broad expanses of water could be seen. Then there were brief glimpses by the flashes of lightning.

This morning, and up through the noon hour, the water attracted hundreds of spectators to various parts of the city.

At the City Park, the Marshall street footbridge was torn loose from its moorings and floated downstream a block before snagging and being held up. The water crept up to the edge of the paving through the City Park, but did not go over.

Cameras were plentiful among the spectators this morning.

Redwood Roars Out Of Bank In Quick Night Rise

Many Houses Isolated By Water—Crest Foot Below 1919.

Flood waters of the Redwood River here started receding shortly before noon today after the swiftest rising flood in Marshall's history.

The water descended on the city shortly after 9 o'clock last night, spreading rapidly out of the banks of an already swollen channel.

It continued its rise until 10.30 this morning, when at most points through town the crest was reached.

By 1 p. m., the water had receded three inches, and seemed definitely on the downward course.

Excitement in the sudden flood was intensified when the first spring thunderstorm struck at 2 a. m., bringing with it over half an inch of rain in the next two hours.

Word that floodwaters were coming out of the Camden Park hills was telephoned here by Superintendent Howard Frederickson at 7 p. m. and spread in the downtown section.

It was not until the Municipal Plant whistle was blown just before 11 o'clock, however, that the majority of Marshall residents knew the proportions of the rapid rise. They turned out then by the scores to view the swiftly spreading water.

The water here reached its highest stage since the 1927 flood, but a water discoloration on the concrete below the Third street bridge indicated it was 13 1/2 inches below the 1919 high.

A measurement made by Vic LeBeau at that bridge at 1 p. m., today showed a three-inch recession in the water.

The river started its swift rise about 9 o'clock last night and two hours later was rushing across Highway 19 on the Sam Snapp curve on Second street to fill the approximately 20 acre field between there and the Charles Wedger residence.

State Highway Department men set out flares and watchmen at once to halt traffic. By morning there was a wide expanse of water in this area and it had backed up across the Frank Taylor road almost to the barn on the Mrs. Abbie Eastman place.

The Conoco gas station in this area and Jerry's Place, eat shop close to the station were entirely surrounded by water. The Jerry Kiley family left their home there for the night. Five or six homes around the highway curve, at this place were isolated by the water, and in some instances families moved out as the water advanced.

Above the milldam, a large portion of Legion Field was inundated early in the night. One footbridge was swept down stream to the milldam bridge, where it was caught and anchored. The other footbridge in the park, though anchored, was turned over on its side.

By 2 o'clock, the rapidly mounting river swept along and over a portion of the new lighted football field, covered the parking lot just to the north, then moved across Randall street and moved around the Andrew Johnson home.

From the Sam Snapp curve down to the Municipal Plant, the water swiftly rose to a width of a hundred yards in most places, flooding several barns and necessitating moving livestock further up the bank in some instances. This morning, approximately six feet of water surrounded the barn at the Penniston place next to the Emery street bridge.

Several stores along the south side of Main street had trouble early in the night from seepage into their basements and had to rearrange their stocks above the several inches that came in. The deep channel there in the stream during the night, but morning, it surged out onto the parking lot and filled in in the city of the Marshall Ice Cream plant.

The north side of town did not feel the brunt of the flood until 3 a. m. the water began to spread out, cutting from the City Park, which was well covered, across Third street. By daylight it had mounted at it was crossing Fourth street, north end of Fifth, and then across Pleasant avenue and across to the main channel again.

In this area, water entered the basements of several homes by midnight or before, and this morning had surrounded some 20 houses.

The Municipal Plant whistle was blown at 11 p. m., and again half an hour later to warn storekeepers and people living along the river of the flood. Again at 3 a. m., the whistle was repeated when the water crossed Third street. In several instances, however, people slept through it all, to awake this morning and find their houses surrounded by water.

FLOOD - - - -

In all, the water had crossed eight city streets this morning: Pleasant avenue, Second street, and extreme south Fourth street, on the south side of town, and Third, Fourth, Fifth streets, Sixth and Marshall streets on the north side.

Hikers Encounter Flood At Camden

Caretaker Sends Warning To Marshall.

Four hikers tramping to Camden Park on the Great Northern tracks yesterday, noticed water pour down every small gully, and had premonitions that Marshall was due for a flood.

Once past Lynd, they found the Redwood a raging torrent over 100 feet wide in many places.

Superintendent Howard Frederickson at Camden State Park had a narrow escape just before the hikers reached the camping ground. He had taken his car to warn Lloyd Ostrander and Eddie Jahnke and their wives, who were picnicking just past the second bridge, that the water was rising rapidly and the bridge would be dangerous.

He crossed the first bridge safely, but as he drove over the second, the earth gave way and his left front wheel sank, tilting the car dangerously.

The car was finally pulled to safety with pulley tackle. Mr. Ostrander had to abandon his car on the picnic ground. Meanwhile, equipped in hip boots, he helped the other members of the party across the bridges, over which the water was racing furiously.

Mr. Frederickson called Marshall to warn that a wall of water would reach here about 11 p. m.

In Marshall, work started immediately to relieve the ice-congestion north of the city and on the dams. W. W. Cook secured dynamite and the ice jams were blasted away from the various dams by 6 p. m.

WHERE FLOOD CROSSED HIGHWAY 19 HERE.

This excellent picture of Marshall's flood taken by a Daily Messenger photographer, shows where the high water crossed Highways 19 and 39 on south Second street. The water spread out to the left over some 20 acres not shown in the photo. At the right is the home of Howard Leis; the one on the left is that of Sam Snapp. Back of these are the houses of Ed Keller and Bert Kelson, also surrounded by water, and in the left rear may be seen the isolated Conoco station and Jerry's Place. The normal course of the river is to the right of the Snapp and Leis homes. Note the men in the boat, the car which was stalled by water, and the road sign just in front of the telephone pole.

P. T. A. Elects Officers,
 Closes Successful Year

C. O. Fitts Is President—Band, Glee Club, Activities, Farm Boys, Give Entertainment.

C. O. Fitts, Marshall insurance man, was elected president of the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association at the last regular meeting of the term held last night in the high school auditorium.

Other officers elected were: Miss Eleanor Biebl, vice-president; Mrs.

Gus Johnson, secretary; and Merrill W. Olson, treasurer.

Mr. Fitts succeeds Jack Whitney, Mrs. Gus Johnson will take the secretaryship of Mrs. Roy Castle; Miss Biebl succeeds Mrs. Howard Bussard; and Merrill Olson succeeds himself.

Entertainment during the evening was presented by two student musical groups—the Marshall High School Band, and the Marshall High School Girls' Glee Club.

The band, under the direction of George Wingert, already an excellent musical organization, seems to be improving all the time. The numbers played last night were: "Hosts of Freedom," "Gipsians," "Zenith," "Valse Triste," and "The Pilgrim."

"Lady Frances," a gay and melodious operetta presented by Miss Vivian Erickson's High School Girls' Glee Club, was enthusiastically received by the audience, which was pleased by the girls' well-trained voices. Members of the cast were: Betty Persons, Ruth Brenner, Angela Moller, Donna Feyerisen, Beulah Foss, Frances Peterson, Betty Jefferson, Erna Gilbertson, Kathleen Herman, Katherine Thompson, Marjorie Porter, Dorothy Haynes, and Margaret Anderson, who played the accompaniment.

In the explanation of extra-curricular activities, given by various leaders, the following presented their activities to the audience:

Crystal Johnson, dramatics; Orvis Fitts, athletics; Verna Verdoorn, student activities; Louise Shrader, Tiger Herald; and agriculture by a group of Instructor A. C. Weber's students, who have formed a club called "Future Farmers." This group of boys put on portions of their ceremony whereby they expounded the ideals and aims of their organization in an extremely interesting and effective manner.

Miss Senora Charlson's room won the banner award for the month of April.

At the close of the meeting, Jack Whitney, retiring president, expressed his thanks to his fellow officers, the P.T.A. members, the public school faculty, individuals, and

Trackmen And Gridsters Get First Spring Drill

A squad of 40 boys under Coach Lloyd Ostrander inaugurated the Marshall High School track season yesterday afternoon when the first outdoor drill of the year was held.

On another part of Legion Field, Coach Bernie Cole held the first spring football practice, with a squad of 38 other boys.

The track squad this year is a likely looking one that should make a good mark in the five meets it will take part in beginning May 1.

This was evidenced in the opening drill when Bill Brull tossed the javelin 169 feet, 8 inches. The state record is 175 feet. And further, when Burton Van Robays heaved the shot 43 feet, 9 inches, to approach the state mark of 46 feet.

Tommie Regnier will keep Marshall in the limelight in the dashes, and in the other events there are good men who should turn in nice points.

Marshall's first action will be a dual meet with Redwood on Legion Field. Other track events the Tigers are entered for will be the Carleton relays; the southwestern track and field meet; the district meet, to be held at Marshall; the regional at New Ulm, and the state in Minneapolis.

Prospects are less bright in football as there are several positions Coach Cole must bolster up before autumn rolls around.

Delayed by wet weather, both track and football men showed enthusiasm in last night's drills.

Seniors Rehearse For Class Play

"Skidding" Will Be Presented Friday, April 23.

With little more than one week to complete the production of the Senior Class play "Skidding" the members of the cast are spending every available minute in the polishing process.

"Skidding" promises to be an evening of fine entertainment for the whole family. It is a play of American family life where everything depends on mother and at the first sign of trouble mother is the first one to hear all about it. Finally mother becomes so upset about the children that she determines to go on strike to straighten out her family.

The younger brother, Andy, keeps the audience in a gale of merriment. His troubles are those of an average American boy. Then there is grandfather with his absent mindedness and his reminiscences about Grandma. "Skidding" is a play the whole family will enjoy seeing.

Miss Helene Alland is coaching the play. Reserved seats will go on sale April 20 at Bulowski Drug Co. The date for the play is April 23.

Track Meet With Redwood Scheduled

To Be Held Here Saturday, May 1.

The Marshall High School track team will open their 1937 track season with Redwood Falls at Marshall May 1.

While due to the late spring, both teams have had to remain inside a great deal of the time, the dual meet should result in a very interesting one.

Last season the Tigers outscored the team from Redwood in the Little Ten Conference meet and later at the Regional meet. They have Pafraath, a dash man and shotputter who placed well up in both events last year. This season he is expected to go even further.

Marshall will put Tommy Regnier in the dash, and Von Robays in the shotput against the Redwood star. They have additional men in each event who will be making their bid for recognition, as does the Marshall squad.

While spring football will not be over and the squad hampered by the number reporting out for spring football, the meet was arranged to get in an early practice session.

Recreation Project Established Here

Program Authorized By Act Made Law Last Week.

F. R. Adams, superintendent, said this morning that steps have been taken to provide a program for the summer under the act signed last week by Governor Benson which will enable cities, towns, communities and school districts to acquire recreational facilities and to operate systems of public recreation and playgrounds.

A full time recreation director has been appointed and his name will be announced at a later date, said Mr. Adams.

Formerly, state statutes gave authority to cities and villages of all classes to own parks and playgrounds. There was, however, no provision in the law to spend funds for the operation of parks and playgrounds, with the exception of Duluth, Minneapolis, St. Paul and a few cities operating under home rule charters.

There was no provision in the statutes either for the smaller cities, towns and school districts to legally employ instructors and playground directors during the summer months. Furthermore, if schools could lend their facilities for summer recreation programs, no affirmative authority was given for the cooperation between existing boards.

The new enabling act will allow any city, town, community or school district to provide a recreation program during the entire year. These broad programs of recreation may include such activities as games, sports, dramatics, community sings, amateur music programs, arts and handicrafts, hobbies, hobby clubs and seasonal activities for boys, girls, men and women.

Senator A. L. Almen, chairman of the state senate education committee, played an important role in the sponsorship and passage of the act.

Superintendent F. R. Adams Has Application Blanks.

The annual Citizens' Military Training Camp at Fort Snelling will be held from July 2 to 31.

One of a series of similar institutions throughout the country, it will be attended by youths between the ages of 17 and 24 years, with an attendance of approximately 1300 anticipated.

All Minnesota trainees will be sent to the Fort Snelling camp, as well as those from several surrounding states. The Lyon county quota for candidates is nine.

The announcement naming the dates for the camp pointed out that its purpose is to develop such virtues as fair play, self-respect, patriotism and good citizenship, as well as inculcate habits of discipline and obedience. It added that there is no expense connected with attendance, as transportation, board, lodging, medical attention, uniforms, equipment and laundry service are furnished by the War Department.

The camp executive personnel will include a complete medical staff, chaplain, morale and recreation officer and athletic officer, the announcement said.

In addition to the regular camp program, there will be a competition for scholarships offered by three Minnesota and Missouri colleges, the details to be announced later.

'Skidding' Cast Gives Fine Comedy

Senior Class Play Presented Before Large Crowd.

A large and appreciative audience last night saw one of the best senior class plays staged here in years.

The comedy was "Skidding," a dramatized narrative of the troubles, matrimonial, political, and courtship, of the Hardy family in Idaho.

Outstanding was the fine acting of Ruth McFarland as the mother of the Hardy family. It was remarkable how she, as a young and attractive high school girl, could sustain the illusion that she was a harried and motherly head of a large and complicated family through the three long acts of the play.

The straight comedy of the piece was largely contributed by another member of the cast who gave a fine account of himself. This was Wray Hiller as the young man of the family, bubbling over with life and going through the pangs of puppy love, and at the same time feeling the urge to own a car, to send flowers and candy to his girl, and to make a lot of money suddenly.

Still another fine bit of acting was the performance of Kenneth Campion as the likeable judge and father of the family. Like Ruth McFarland, he brought some real feeling to his part and seemed an elderly, goodhearted, father, beset by worries over his nomination to his judgeship, and a little puzzled and disapproving of some of the boldness and freedom of his three daughters.

Viola Arfman as Marian Hardy, and Tom Regnier as her betrothed were excellent in their parts. Probably the best aspect of their playing was their naturalness and humor.

Another effective bit of acting was given by Margie Peterson, as Aunt Millie. Particularly good was her outburst toward the end of the play when she violently spoke her regret that she had stayed an old maid rather than married. The family, after her outburst begged her not to do anything desperate, and she left the stage saying yes she was—she was going to get her hair bobbed.

Other members of the cast, playing minor roles, who did their work well, were Edward Marcotte, as the doddering old Grandfather Hardy; Dean Leedom as the blustering political manager; Berniel Caldwell as Estelle and Margaret Hardy as the two daughters of the family who left their husbands for directly opposite reasons.

Miss Helene Alland accomplished a fine feat of work in her direction of "Skidding" and she deserves a lot of praise.

May 17 Set For Music Festival

Huge Program Planned By Music Department.

Friday, May 17, the Marshall High School Music Department will present its Spring Festival. This program will include all the vocal groups in both Junior and Senior High Schools.

Each organization in Junior and Senior High School will have a part in the program and this includes Junior Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, and Mixed Chorus. In the Senior High the Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club will sing as a unit.

In addition there will be numbers by the Junior High Boys' Double Sextette, the Senior High Boys' Double Quartette, the Senior High Girls' Quartet and the Senior High School Girls' Trio.

The combined choruses will present the cantata "Spring Cometh," by Kountz.

The massed chorus is made up of 86 boys and girls representing the largest chorus ever to represent Marshall in a program of this type.

The vocal organizations have been at work the last three months in preparation for the cantata and Marshall folks will enjoy its presentation.

"Spring Cometh" is a beautiful choral offering telling of the coming of spring.

First Track Meet Underway Today

Redwood Facing Tigers At Legion Field.

The Redwood Falls track team arrived in Marshall this afternoon and the track meet with the Tiger squad started at 4 o'clock.

The meet was scheduled for last Saturday, but was postponed because of the wet condition of the cinder path.

Starring for the Redmen is Paffrath, dashman and shotputter. Coach Lloyd Ostrander will put Tommie Regnier against Paffrath in the dashes, and Van Robays will compete against him in the shotput.

Both teams have been somewhat hampered in their development by the fact that the rainy April kept them inside much of the month, but several good times and marks are expected to be recorded.

Marshall high school will send 10 boys to compete in the Carleton relays Saturday, May 8, at Northfield, Minn., led by Tom Regnier, who will enter the 100-yard dash and 220 and anchor man in the relay.

Gervais

Brull, Van Robays, Robinson

Last year the Tigers placed fifth in the 100-yard dash, fifth in the discus, second in the 880-yard run, and second in the relay. This year, with a larger delegation, the Tigers hope to better this record.

Boys who will make a serious bid include: Regnier in the 100 and 220; Brull in the javelin; Gervais in the pole vault; and Jantz in the 440. All these boys have been working hard this spring with the relays in mind and they have the ability, having been tested in severe competition.

'Open House' At School Tuesday

P. T. A. Invites All Parents To Attend.

Open house for all parents and other people of the community who are interested in visiting school will be held Tuesday evening in the local schools. The parent-Teachers Association is sponsoring this project as its regular May meeting.

The event will give an opportunity for a large number of adults to visit school who find it difficult to do so during the day.

Classes will be in session from 7.30 to 8.00 p. m. in grades four, five, and six. Visitors are welcome to come into the classrooms at any time and stay as long as they wish.

The work to be taught in each room is not a review of previously taught material or a demonstration of knowledge acquired sometime before, but as far as it is possible to do will be typical presentations of new material in one or more subjects.

The object of having open house is not in any sense of the word an attempt to show what the pupils have learned but rather a demonstration of how they learn.

Several of the special departments will be open from 7.30 to 8.30 for visitors. The commercial department will have a class in typing at work. In the home economics department a ninth grade group of girls will be occupied with a regular sewing project. The tenth grade class in metal work will be at work in the industrial arts department. Some of the boys in the classes in agriculture will be busy with various class projects such as milk testing, seed testing, etc.

Because, in the past, parents have wanted to take their children home right after the class period, it was decided not to have any formal meeting or lunch after open house.

Longer Musical Training Slated

Instruction To Start Four Weeks Before School.

Plans are now underway to enable students to have musical instruction during the four weeks preceding the opening of the regular school term next fall, according to a report received from Superintendent F. R. Adams today.

A number of students have inquired about the possibilities of continuing their band work through the summer along with private study of their instruments. Mr. Wingert has agreed to teach during the last two weeks of August and the first two weeks of September, providing enough enrollments are secured by June 7.

There will be three plans open to students wishing to enroll for this work.

Plan A. One one-hour class lesson a week for four weeks at a fee of $1.

Plan B. One half-hour private lesson a week for four weeks at a fee of $2.

Plan C. A combination of plans A and B for a period of four weeks at a fee of $2.75.

In addition to the above instruction, all students will be allowed to attend sectional rehearsals and full band rehearsals, to be held once a week, at no extra cost.

Mr. Wingert is anxious to start a large group of beginners during the summer as this will enable the students to progress more rapidly after the school year is underway.

Parents interested in having their children attend these instrumental classes or taking private lessons are asked to call the Superintendents' office.

Monte Track Team Faces Tigers Tomorrow Afternoon

Visitors Have Well-Balanced Squad—Strong Where Marshall Is Weak.

The Tiger track team will engage Montevideo on the Legion Field cinder path Tuesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. This will be the last chance to see the Marshall tracksters in action before the district meet here on May 22.

While Montevideo did not do as well at the Carleton College relays Saturday as Marshall did, nevertheless the neighboring school has a well balanced squad with plenty of potential power.

Montevideo is strong where Marshall is weak, and a close battle is in prospect. Montevideo has two strong men in Lueven and Lien, the former in field events, and the latter in the half mile.

Leading Marshall's attack will be the 10 men who competed in the Carleton relays. Jimmie Robinson will be seen in action for the first time this year.

Joe Novotny, Gopher Star, Coming Here.

Joseph Novotny, University of Minnesota athlete, has been appointed physical education instructor of Marshall high school to take the place of Lloyd Ostrander, who has accepted another position.

Mr. Novotny has an excellent record as an athlete in the Arlington high school, and was continuing it at the University when an injury to his leg cut it short in his junior year. He was a member of the football squad two years, and received letters in track and basketball.

His coaching experience includes American Legion junior baseball and two years of coaching athletics and physical education at Alden, Minn. He comes to Marshall highly recommended by Frank McCormick, director of athletics at the University of Minnesota.

School Open House To Show Teaching Methods

Demonstrations of how school students learn will be shown to the interested public tonight at open house sponsored by the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association.

The following grades and classes will demonstrate the procedures:

Grades 1, 2 and 3 from 7.30 to 8 p. m.

Grades 4, 5 and 6, from 7.30 to 8.

Special departments — Commercial students typing, home economics girls from the 9th grade in a regular sewing project, industrial arts students from the 10th grade working with metal, agricultural department boys in milk testing and seed testing projects.

As far as possible, the demonstrations will deal with presentations of new material to the pupils, rather than a review of previously taught material or a demonstration of knowledge taught sometime before.

The essential object of the demonstrations is to show how the students learn.

Visitors are welcome, and they may stay as long as they wish in any room. It will be a fine opportunity for parents who cannot otherwise spare the time to see what their children are doing in class work.

There will be no formal meeting, or lunch after open house, at this last meeting of the P.T.A.

Music Festival Is Big Success

Auditorium Packed For Interesting Program.

This has been a week of music for standing room and music admirers Marshall—first the coronation Wednesday and its accompanying bands, means, making the day a gala one singing and cheering; then the Car-for students, faculties and the home men opera presentation here; and folks. thirdly, the music festival last evening in the Marshall High School. The week will finish out its program of music with the musicale of St. Joseph's Academy pupils Sunday.

Entering the auditorium a little late one was reminded of the music of a mighty Wurlitzer—the music of the massed bands under the very able direction of George Wingert. The sight was a pleasing one with the shining brass of the instruments mingled with the vari-colored uniforms of the players.

There was the blue of Cottonwood, the yellow of Lynd, the white of Ruthton and Hendricks, the girls of the latter wearing jaunty blue band caps, and many other colors.

One hundred sixty-eight pupils from 10 towns played four numbers in the massed bands. Cottonwood entertained with a boys' glee club selection and a clarinet quartet of two boys and two girls. Balaton gave a soft lullaby by its Girls Glee club, and a band selection.

The sweet and beautiful voice of Miss Dorothy Haynes singing the solo part in "Old Black Joe," was one of the highlights of the evening and the junior high mixed chorus of Marshall received its share of applause.

Lynd presented two pleasing numbers in a sextette selection and a girls' glee club. The "Overture Ex-tempore" by the Hendricks band was well received.

A girls' glee club and a sextette from Milroy gave two enjoyable numbers, "Goin Home" and "Ring on Sweet Angelus," manifesting much training and preparation.

With Miss Vivian Erickson conducting, the massed girls glee club of 140 voices, gave three selections, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," "Liebestraum," and "Come to the Fair."

Ruthton's band entertained and the Ivanhoe girls glee club sang a "Song of May." A boys' sextette from Russell, the only one appearing on the program, gave "Kentucky Babe," and the Minneota girls' glee club and sextette gave pleasing numbers.

The evening of music closed with the massed mixed chorus of 145 voices, conducted by Gratia Onerheim, singing "Virgil" by Christiansen, and "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," by Bach.

Those who stayed home for no very good reason missed an enjoyable evening of music and the sponsors are to be complimented for arranging so fine a musical festival.

The auditorium was packed to the standing room and music admirers Marshall—first the coronation Wednesday and its accompanying bands, means, making the day a gala one singing and cheering; then the Car-for students, faculties and the home men opera presentation here; and folks.

Each play has its own cast and setting, and members have been working on its production for a number of weeks.

The first play "A Message from Khufu," written by Cottman and Shaw, is a tragedy in one act. The play is a popular choice for contests over the entire United States and one the public will enjoy.

The action has to do with four men who come to death grips from the hand of an ancient Egyptian monarch, buried for centuries in a tomb at the bottom of one of the pyramids. One alone escapes death. That he should survive seems altogether fitting and proper to those who are privileged to witness such a soul-stirring drama. An exceptional contest play.

The cast includes:

Butch	James McGuire
Prof. Hardin	Virgil Penniston
Ben	Robert Harmon
Herman	Howard Gag

Her daughter finds sudden interest in last summer's music she is sorting; a college salesman actually sells Mrs. Montgomery some furniture polish while she is enjoying the books she has never read in the bookcase she is cleaning.

Her philosophy of housecleaning wins the interest of the town's social leader who has come to call and stays for luncheon on the living room floor among the books. Spring housecleaning is a time of madness and spring fever.

St. Cloud Man Marshall Commencement Speaker

Rev. Hammond To Give Baccalaureate Address —10 Highest Ranking Seniors Named.

O. J. Jerde member of the faculty of the Teachers' College in St. Cloud, will speak at commencement exercises here June 11, according to Superintendent F. R. Adams. Mr. Adams said that the commencement speaker is an excellent talker. The Rev. S. L. Hammond, pastor of the Marshall Federated Church will deliver the Baccalaureate address to the outgoing class on Sunday night, June 6.

Seventy-three seniors will receive their diplomas from Marshall High School next month.

A remarkable situation exists this year with regard to highest scholastic rating. Verna Verdoorn and Louise Shrader are tied for that honor, each earning a numerical rating of 95 during the period of their three years in senior high school.

The 10 seniors who have the highest scholastic rating in the last three years are listed according to ranking as follows:

Verna Verdoorn and Louise Shrader, tied for first; Arlene Spong, third; Patricia Tegels, fourth; Pearl Archer, fifth; Donna Marks, sixth; Robert Meade, seventh; Fayette Meade, eighth; June Johnson, ninth; Margaret Hardy, tenth.

Drama Club Does Good Work In One-Act Plays

Comedy, tragedy and phantasy characterized the presentation of three one-act plays presented in the auditorium last night by members of the Marshall Drama Club.

"Spring Fever" was the best acted play of the three. The weird setting was a signal for good-natured kidding on the part of the audience, but the cast by their poise and fine acting, made the scenes so effective that the kidders forgot their humor, and entered into the feeling of the play, which dealt with a dead Egyptian king's revenge on desecrators of his tomb.

"Spring Fever," a comedy, was exceedingly well-acted and Louise Shrader, Jack Ford, and Patricia Tegels got many laughs from their comedy lines.

Helen Snyder, as the workhouse slavey in "Op-O-Me-Thumb", in search of romance, gave a fine bit of characterization—probably the best performance of all three plays.

Casts of the plays were made up of the following student:

"Spring Fever"—Louise Shrader, Mrs. Montgomery; Adene Fitts, Joan Montgomery; Patricia Tegels, Susie; Richard Stevens, Jim Benson; Jack Ford, an agent; Elizabeth DePover, Mrs. Jewel-Smythe; Prudence Vergote, Mrs. Miner.

"Message from Khuru" — Virgil Peniston, Professor Hardin; James McGuire, Butch; Robert Harmon, Ben; Howard Gag, Herman.

"Op-O-Me-Thumb" — Berneil Caldwell, Madame Didier; Beth Dhoore, Rose Jordan; Exine Anderson, Celeste; Lula Carrow, Mrs. Galloway; Helen Snyder, Amanda Afflick; Bill Brull, Horace Greensmith.

The plays were directed by Miss Helene Alland. Staging and lighting were arranged by Cecil Smith assisted by LeRoy Shellum and Ralph Stevens. Music was furnished by the Marshall high school orchestra, directed by George Wingert.

Dinner Dance Is Big Success

Juniors Are Hosts To Seniors At Social Event.

The Junior-Senior reception, banquet and dance held Saturday night in the High School auditorium was called the most successful one in years.

The motif of the decoration was a vinyard with a low ceiling of woven purple paper, with huge clusters of balloons as grapes.

Music was furnished by Little Benny and his Carolina Orioles.

The event was arranged by the Junior class and Miss Valborg Fjeldstad supervised all details. This dinner dance was the fourth of its kind that she has directed. In appreciation she was presented with a gift by the Junior Class.

Guests were the faculty and members of the school board and their wives.

The Juniors earned the money for the banquet from sales of items from athletic and other events during the school year. Mrs. George Chamberlain and Mrs. E. H. O'Brien prepared the banquet with the assistance of the Junior girls. Sixteen mothers of Junior girls also helped, and 24 Sophomore girls served the dinner, which consisted of fruit cocktail, celery, radishes, southern baked ham, new potatoes with parsley, pineapple salad, buttered peas, rolls, grape delight, cake and coffee. Favors were little nut dishes.

Students Receive Prizes On Essays

Robert Ohlsen And Ursella Waldorf Win.

The Dr. F. D. Gray award given for the best essay on the topic "The Effect of the Use of Tobacco on the Individual" went to the following two High School students.

Robert Ohlsen first prize of $10. He is a Junior High student. His essay took first place because of its straight-forwardness and completeness.

Ursella Waldorf won the second prize of $5 for her essay on the subject.

The two essays were as follows: First, Robert Ohlsen.

Today the production and sales of tobacco involve hundreds of millions of dollars every year. What benefits, or should I say ills, are derived from the expenditure of such a vast amount of money?

First of all, tobacco is a habit-forming drug. After a person starts using it, he must consume more and more in order to satisfy the craving that gradually develops. Thus a very expensive habit is formed—yet a very profitable one for the producers.

A noted American doctor says. "Most people smoke because they are nervous and tobacco affords temporary relief from these symptoms." He goes on to explain, "In the human body are certain cells that are capable of storing up energy. During the working period the stored-up energy is carefully utilized to do the brain and muscular work. After a day's work the cells are nearly depleted of energy. By smoking a cigarette the fatigue disappears, but tobacco does not supply the cells with new energy. It merely squeezes out the few extra energy granules which nature would have held in reserve as a matter of safety."

That resistance is lower when a person smokes tobacco is clearly seen by a recent test. Out of 600 men, those who smoked a package or more of cigarettes a day were usually below normal in weight and were also frequently ill with colds and other diseases of the respiratory organ.

Cigarette smoke contains several deadly poisons, among which are carbon monoxide, nicotine, and furfural (a more poisonous substance than alcohol).

Tobacco causes the heart to beat faster; it disturbs the nervous system, often causing nervousness; it irritates the delicate lining of the throat, causing "smoker's cough" and a hoarse voice; besides it reduces physical strength and endurance.

During an individual's growing period it is especially harmful. It interferes with the regular growth and development which should go on throughout these years.

poison and then carry it to the tubes all over the body. Many persons after the age of twenty years use tobacco all their lives and seem not to be harmed by it. It is likely, however, that in numerous cases some of the organs are prevented from doing their best work.

In the young who use tobacco certain organs are seriously weakened by the poison. This poison is "nicotine." If a pipeful of tobacco be boiled in a cup of water, much of the poison will be drawn into the water. If this poisoned water is then put into a quart jar of water containing a small fish, it would kill the fish in less than half an hour.

Some people think that they can smoke without any bad results because they believe the burning of the tobacco will destroy the poison. This is not true.

which were of special interest to the students in high school. Of special interest was the animal show, where various types of wild animals were displayed on the stage and their habits explained to the boys and girls.

Eight lyceum numbers, four football games, nine basketball games, Drama Club play, 2 musical programs, the final declamation contest, and the Tiger Herald were on the program for a cost of $2.40, making a net cost per attraction of 8c.

The activity program attracted the greatest number of boys and girls ever to join the organization, about 95 per cent of the upper four grades, the seventh and eighth grades paid $1.90 for the same attractions and about 85 per cent were members.

One of the biggest benefits derived from activities was the united support given every organization. When 500 boys and girls are united loyal supporters of any organization they can and do demand the best. The result has been evident at our attractions this year as anyone present at the various games will bear out.

To be a member of any organization, our boys and girls must also be members of Student Activities, thereby placing the burden of those receiving the most good. At Marshall High School we feel we have got away from training a selected group and have no audience of students. Everyone has an active part.

With every organization expanding next year to take care of more boys and girls we hope to continue this policy. It may be that not every boy and girl can appear on a team but we hope to make it possible that those who want to may receive the training.

Next year's program includes the same number with a lyceum course that was chosen by the students themselves on recommendation of the Student Council. The more boys and girls that join the organization, the less the cost per number to each student.

New equipment purchased for the various departments is ready for the coming year.

All equipment has been cleaned and repaired ready for next fall, the invoice for a single sport, football amounts to about $1,100.

While the miscellaneous, district tournament and student activities accounts are used solely for the purpose of distribution to the other accounts in the activity statement, the statement as a whole gives some idea of the size of business necessary to carry on outside activities.

Student Activities Complete Another Successful Year

In the past it has always been the policy of Student Activities to inform the people of Marshall who support activities about the financial condition at the close of the year. With this in mind, the financial report is submitted to the people of Marshall. High School Activities wish to acknowledge the loyal support received and to thank the people of Marshall for it.

They wish also to express their appreciation to the newspapers of Marshall for their splendid support during the past year.

Marshall High School closed their eighth year of activities under the present plan, whereby students purchase activity books for all high school events.

The annual statement published elsewhere in this paper indicates that all activities are in a healthy condition and that most of them have a workable balance to start the new year on.

In the past years goals have been set in activities reached, and new ones set and reached. This year was no exception. In athletics new equipment has been purchased for the team, ready to start next season. Athletics paid $500 on the new lighting equipment as their share. New basketball suits were purchased. Track, without any income, was supported at a cost of $183.04.

A new grand piano was purchased with the help of the district and activities have contributed almost $200.

High School music through the year were able to purchase several new instruments for the band, which will remain as school property for years to come.

With the plan of Student Activities in operation, it is possible to support activities which have no source of revenue such as the Tiger Herald and Track. The liberal support given the Herald helped in no small way to build the paper to its high ranking. Track also received the same consideration, its being able to send the boys to the various meets, they in turn bringing results home to Marshall.

By means of activities it was possible to contract for lyceum numbers
