THE NONPAREIL COMPOSITION PAD

NUMBER TWO

FOR HIGH-SCHOOL GRADES

(Adapted for Use with Any Standard Textbook)

ON the back cover are listed the chief errors made by high-school students in their written English compositions. These errors have been classified into five groups and numbered. Scientific investigations have shown that the first four or five errors in each group are responsible for most of the errors made in that group.

By using the numbers on the back cover as symbols for the errors to which they refer, the Nonpareil Composition Pad provides a method for handling the classroom work in composition that will greatly reduce the work of both teacher and student and yet greatly increase its effectiveness.

HOW TO USE THE NONPAREIL COMPOSITION PAD

2. To the Teacher: Put the extension flap on the back cover over all the unwritten pages, so that the printed list of Correction Symbols will be readily accessible to you during the critical examination of the student's composition.

When an error is found in the composition, place the proper correction symbol on the left-hand margin directly opposite the line or lines containing the error. (This procedure will make it necessary for the student to scrutinize the line in order to locate and identify the specific error.)

Return the Pad to the student after each composition has been read and its errors indicated. He will then make the necessary corrections, as directed in what follows.

3. To the Student: The numbers on the left-hand margin refer to errors that have been made by you in your composition. You can tell what each number means by noting what is printed after it on the flap of the back cover. For example, if your teacher has placed the figure 7 on the margin of your composition, you will see that 7 means "Period omitted after abbreviation." This means that you have omitted a period after an abbreviation somewhere in the line against which your teacher placed the 7. Examine that line carefully; locate the error and then write the necessary word or words correctly on the right-hand page directly opposite the line containing the error. Do this until you have corrected every error that you have made.

When you have completed your corrections, be sure to turn to the Diagnostic Record Chart inside the back cover and place in the square below each correction number that was placed on your composition by your teacher a number that will show how many times that particular correction number was checked against your work for the day. (The chart provides a column for each kind of error, except that in a few columns, like Spelling 61-70, several kinds of error have been grouped together to economize space.) Use one horizontal row of squares for each composition. This Record Chart will then show you at a glance which difficulties and how many of them you are meeting in writing English and what improvement you are making from day to day.

4. To the Teacher: Check over the student's corrections of errors. This task is quickly performed, inasmuch as the written composition, its indicated errors, and the student's corrections are all in full view on the two facing pages.

Insist that the student keep up to date the Diagnostic Record Chart inside the back cover. If this be done, a mere glance at the Chart will show the exact status of the student in his written English work, and a simple tabulation will permit quick and accurate comparisons among students, classes, or schools.

Have the student enter in the brackets [] after each Correction Symbol the number of the page or paragraph in the textbook being used to which he can refer for help on the error in question.

Use the blank correction numbers in each group (like 37 to 39 under Grammar) to add other types of error if the printed list seems inadequate.

Cottonwood Five To Face Tigers

Game Scheduled Here
Tuesday Night.

The Marshall Tigers will play the Cottonwood cagers tomorrow night, with the Cubs tackling the seconds at 7.30, and the first teams engaging at 8.30.

Cottonwood is a strong contender for district honors this year, and exhibiting always a fine fighting spirit, the games which they engage in with the Tigers are always interesting.

Coach Bernie Cole has been working with the various sets of boys in an effort to find the best combination for the final drive ending in the district and regional tournaments which will be held here in March.

The district event looks like a close one this year with Tracy holding the No. 1 spot by virtue of their clear record to date. Defeating the Tigers by three points on their home floor, gives an idea of the difference between the Scrappers and the Tigers.

Another comparison may be drawn by Lynd's two point victory over Balaton.

Art Exhibit At School Tomorrow

A big art exhibit will be held in the Little Theatre Wednesday of this week. The exhibit contains the works of the old masters' paintings which have come down from past generations and which are even more famous now than when first painted.

In addition the works of many modern day American artists are included.

The art exhibit will be open to the public Wednesday night from 4 until 6 and 7 until 9. A small charge will be made at the door to help defray the cost of bringing this collection to Marshall.

The Marshall Public Schools, grades one through six, are sponsoring this project.

Tigers Resume Games Tuesday

Face Canby And Pipestone
Next Week.

The Marshall High School basketball teams, after remaining idle this weekend, resume competition next week by playing Canby Tuesday and Pipestone Friday.

The Pipestone game takes the squad to its first appearance in the southwestern conference this year. While there is no means of doping what to expect in the contest, it is expected to be a close game.

Canby is moving out of the doldrums in basketball, and will bring the best team in years to visit Marshall Tuesday night.

Matt Thoeny, former Carleton College star is coaching the boys, and comparative scores show he is doing a good job of it.

This year's ninth district is rapidly shaping up as the strongest in a long series.

Tracy by its nine straight victories is in the driver's seat. Marshall and Lynd are next in order in the number of games lost and won, and they compose the main threats to the Scrappers in their quest for the second District title.

Adams Is Given MEA Appointment

Heads Committee On Research.

F. R. Adams, superintendent of the Marshall Public Schools, has been appointed to the committee on research and information for the Minnesota Education Association which has recently been announced by Myrtle Hooper Dahl, Minneapolis, president of the MEA. Harold J. Sand, South High School, Minneapolis, is chairman.

The MEA committee on research and information will conduct original investigations in the field of education as a part of a continuing planning process for the MEA and will summarize and bring to the attention of the profession the results of research here and elsewhere.

Members of the committee recently appointed by Myrtle Hooper Dahl include F. J. Herda, Alexandria, central division; L. L. Cahlander, Jordan Junior High, Minneapolis division; Ann Regner, Mountain Iron, northeast division; Andrew Jensen, Aitkin, northern division; G. F. Hoppe, Pine Island, southeast division; Court E. Sanders, Humboldt High, St. Paul division, and H. E. Sorvig, Crookston, western division.

Walter E. Englund, executive secretary of the MEA, and the president, Mrs. Dahl, will be ex-officio members of the committee. Consultants will be M. G. Neale, professor of educational administration, and R. G. Blakey, professor of economics at the University of Minnesota, and T. J. Berning, director of the Statistical Bureau, State Department of Education.

Chemistry's Place In School Explained

Has Practical And Philosophical Value.

This is another in a series of articles from "Administration and Work of the Marshall Public Schools" annual report.

One realizes that he cannot avoid chemistry even if he tries, and although one cannot expect to know very much in a year of high school chemistry, it is possible for everyone to grasp some of the fundamental laws and their applications to our everyday life. The chief aims of such a course are: (1) to give the pupils an idea of the importance and significance of chemistry in our national life, and (2) to give information of definite service to home and daily life.

The layman looks upon chemistry as a magical and mysterious art and fails to appreciate the chemists' power to serve society. It is difficult for the average person to realize how ordinary glass is made from sand, soda, and lime; how leather is made; how rubber is prepared; how helium is secured; how inks are prepared; where lubricants come from; how artificial silk fibers are made; and give information of many other industrial processes.

There are many applications of chemistry around the home and the things that come into the home have been connected directly or otherwise with chemistry. Through that science the student will learn what the chief classes of foods—carbohydrates, fats, and proteins—are composed of, what makes butter rancid, what sour milk is, what baking powders contain and which one is best, of what washing and scouring powders are composed, what tarnishes silverware and how the tarnish may be removed, what vinegar is, what disinfectants and germicides are, what solvents to use to remove stains, etc. Such knowledge makes the student feel he has actually learned chemistry that he can use, and is of more importance than the fact that one liter of hydrogen gas weighs .09 of a gram at standard conditions.

Industrial motion pictures showing photographs and diagrams will serve to impress and vitalize the process in the lives of the student. During the past school year the chemistry classes have been shown pictures of "sulfur", "Carborundum", "Copper", "Bakelite Resinoid", "The Making of Rayon", as well as others all of which contributed to the knowledge and background of the student.

Many interesting and instructive exhibits of chemical processes and products are available from manufacturers all over the country. During the year a beginning was made towards a chemical museum; we have recently received exhibits from the Standard Oil Corporation, the Carborundum Company, the White Lead Company, The Texas Gult Sulfur Company, and many others. These exhibits and literature accompanying them are of definite value and cause considerable comment and discussion in the classes when the material is presented.—Cecil C. Smith.

Canby To Play Tigers Tuesday

Marshall Goes To Pipestone
Friday Night.

The Canby cage quintet will play the Marshall Tigers Tuesday night in the High School gymnasium starting with the Cubs—Canby Seconds game at 7.30 o'clock. The main game will begin at 8.30.

The Canby team has made big strides this year, and indications point to a fast hard game Tuesday night.

The Tigers go to Pipestone Friday night to play their first engagement in the southwestern conference.

Band Carnival Date Is Nearing

Annual Event Takes Place
This Saturday.

Marshall High School students are working daily on the preparation of their second Fun-for-All Carnival to be given in the Auditorium this Saturday.

The doors will open for the small children at 6 p. m. They will have the opportunity of visiting all the concessions, playing the games, and seeing the shows, and still be able to get home for their regular bed hour. The children will enjoy the balloons, noisemakers and the general Carnival spirit which will prevail. Masks will be available to add to the general spirit of the Carnival.

Jack Ford's pictures of the Marshall-Tracy football game will be shown at 8 and 9 giving Marshall fans an opportunity of seeing the review of this big game again. In addition Jack has pictures of the South which he will include.

Mr. Keith's pictures will be well worth seeing as they were taken last year, including Marshall pictures and scenes about Marshall.

The black-faced faculty act speaks for itself in the line of evening entertainment.

Each one of the concessions are priced very low and any money made will go to help the band pay its way to Glenwood and purchase new instruments.

The question often asked, "Why we have a Band Carnival" is easily answered in that Marshall High School is trying to add additional instruments to their band and orchestra and build their organization into one of the best in the state.

The more instruments that are purchased, the bigger and better the band will be and the instruments will be used from year to year. Last year the music department earned and spent $320.95 in their department. By far the greater amount of this was for new instruments. This money is just the amount earned by the department within the school and the instruments become the property of the band.

Tigers Play Next At Pipestone

Record To Date Is Seven Won, Three Lost.

The Marshall Tigers will leave the home fold Friday night when they journey to Pipestone to play the High School quintet.

Of the 10 games played to date this season by the Tigers, they have won seven and dropped three, all by close scores as follows: Canton by 2 points; Tracy by 3; and Redwood Falls by 3.

The Tracy and Redwood defeats were suffered away from home.

Present dope points out that Tracy is riding high in the District 9 driver's seat, winning all their games by comfortable margins except in the Tiger scrap.

Lynd has a strong team and at times appears to be the team to beat in the district. Marshall and Hendricks would seem to be the other top-notchers in the district.

Tigers Defeat Canby 30 To 6

Cubs Also Win, By
Score Of 21 To 11.

After watching the Tigers defeat the Canby cagers 30 to 6 last night on the home floor, it still puzzles the fans as to which of the various Marshall combinations is the best one.

Couch Cole started the following combination last night: Gag, Don Ultery, Mercer, Weidauer, and Gervais.

Four minutes later he sent in Don and Charles Healy, Chet Wiener, Dick Ultery and Ken Marks.

The first combination, with Gervais acting as scoring sparkplug with eight points, contributed 21 points, or two-thirds of Marshall's total of 30.

This compares to the nine points contributed by the second combination, who were in for the same length of time. Marks' eye was off last night, and he muffed at least four inshots from dead center.

Incidentally Gervais, shooting under difficulties, thoroughly earned each of his four buckets. He was hot, something like Weidauer was in the Cottonwood fracas last week. Weidauer sank one field goal, and took two on the house for four points—his usual steady contribution of points in tough games and easy ones.

The Tigers kept the game in their court most of the game, and the scientific wearing down of Canby by superior numbers began to show results in the second half. In the third quarter the Tigers made 11 points to Canby's 2. The fourth quarter saw Marshall gathering 8 more to Canby's 1.

The Cubs defeated the Canby Seconds 21 to 11, with Neill acting as spearhead.

Tigers Ready For Pipestone

Play There Friday Night In Conference Game.

Coach Bernie Cole will take 10 men to Pipestone tomorrow night, when the Tigers will play their first southwestern conference engagement of this season.

The squad will consist of Chollie and Don Healy, Dick and Don Ullery, Weidauer, Marks, Gervais, Gag, Wiener, and Mercer.

The Tigers' record to date is as follows:

Victories

Marshall 48, Tyler 14.
Marshall 30, Wood Lake 14.
Marshall 21, Minneota 7.
Marshall 24, Hendricks 21.
Marshall 28, Balaton 14.

Physics Called Practical Subject

Olson Teaches Two Classes Here.

Physics and Everyday Problems

It is indeed unfortunate that physics should be classed as the hardest subject in high school. While there is a great deal of material, including problems, that is difficult, physics, is the most practical subject offered.

Here we study engines, electricity, various devices used in electricity, the automobile, the airplane, light, machines, and a host of other topics.

Where else may a student receive the information that will lay a foundation for the study of many of these important devices that he or she will come in contact with in later life? For example, the study of the dynamo creating electricity, transferred to the proper voltage to be transported, lowered to be used, the proper house wiring, the proper size fuses, how to read a meter, and if anything happens, what to do to repair it.

The more practical we can make physics the more students will take the course and as a result a new course called Senior Science, omitting many of the technical problems and laws, will be tried out next year.

The important information, however, will be retained.

Here at Marshall we have two classes in physics numbering about 45 students. During the year we plan to work out about 45 experiments, giving the students the practical side of the course.—Merril W. Olson.

Tigers Play In Pipestone Tonight

Is First Conference Battle Of Season.

The Marshall Tigers will play their first game in Southwestern Conference competition tonight when they play the Pipestone quintet there.

Coach Bernie Cole is expected to use the usual two teams tonight in the scientific application of wearing out the Tigers' opponets before the second half closes.

Granite Falls comes here next Tuesday for the Tigers' first game of February. Marshall goes to Minneota on Friday, February 4.

Cubs Drop Game 23 To 25.

The Marshall Tigers defeated the Pipestone team last night there by a score of 25 to 18. The Cubs dropped a well-played and hard-fought game to the Pipestone seconds, 23 to 25.

Starting for Marshall were Gag, Don Ullery, Don Healy, Marks and Wiener. They gained a 3 to 0 lead, and were replaced by Chollie Healy, Dick Ullery, Mercer, Weidauer and Gervais when the first quarter was half gone.

The second combination pushed the score up to 7 but allowed Pipestone 2 points as the first quarter ended.

Continuing for four minutes of the second quarter they piled up a 13 to 4 lead. The starting lineup returned to finish the half, which ended with 18 points for Marshall and 8 for Pipestone.

The last lineup opened the second half and after playing four minutes, gave way again to the second lineup with the score 21 to 11. This combination added 2 points. The starting lineup finished the last four minutes of the game, adding 2 more points to Marshall's total and allowing Pipestone 3 points.

Tiger Puckmen Defeat Granite

First Game Of Season Ends 2 To 1.

Marshall High School initiated its 1938 hockey season in sub-zero weather yesterday with a win over a heavier Granite Falls team, there. Although outweighed ten pounds to the man, the Tiger pucksters showed enough speed, elusiveness, and all around stamina to "bring home the bacon" by a margin of two to one.

Thoroughly determined not to be caught napping, the Tigers started out the game with an overwhelming burst of speed which caught the Granite boys flatfooted and netted Marshall two quick goals. The first one was scored by Bud Johnson on a quick thrust into the Granite Falls defensive wall and the second one by Owen Paul a few minutes later, after dribbling the length of the ice.

Band Carnival Success Again

Queen Crowned At Festivities Saturday Night.

Beulah Foss, Marshall High School sophomore, was crowned queen at the band benefit carnival held Saturday night in the auditorium. Dorothy Haynes was second and Eleanor Henderson was third.

Despite the inclement weather, a large crowd of both students and townspeople was present to join in the revelry.

At the school house this morning, it was reported that a good sum of money had been earned at the festivities. These funds will be used to purchase additional instruments for the High School Band, in a campaign to make that student organization one of the best and largest in Minnesota.

Entertainment was provided by 20 booths furnishing varied fun-making activities; a faculty blackface act by Julian Waller, George Wingert and Lawrence Kienholz; candid comments over the new loudspeaking system by Bob Harmon, local Winchell and boy orator of West Redwood street; and dancing in the Little Theatre.

Of special interest to the merry-makers were the motion pictures of the Tracy game taken by Jack Ford, and those taken by R. T. Keith about Marshall and his travels in Yosemite National Park, and other places.

Auditorium Gets Speaking System

Marshall high school this week installed one microphone loud speaking system for use on the large stage and in the Little Theatre.

This loud speaking system was purchased with the idea of carrying the voices of the smaller children to all parts of the auditorium in Junior high convocations, and for use at basketball games.

When the speaking system is not in use in the auditorium it may be taken to the Little theatre, and used for student dances.

The loud speaking system was purchased by the student activity organization.

Tigers And Granite To Tangle Tonight

First Game To Start At 7.30.

The Marshall Tigers will play the Granite Falls quintet tonight, with the Cubs-Seconds engaging at 7.30, and the first squads at 8.30.

Comparative dope shows that the Canton Ble Raiders defeated Granite by a decisive score, and just nosed out the Tigers 22 to 20.

Victories

- Marshall 48, Tyler 14.
- Marshall 30, Wood Lake 14.
- Marshall 21, Minnesota 7.
- Marshall 24, Hendricks 21.
- Marshall 28, Balaton 14.

- Marshall 25, Pipestone 18.

Defeats

- Redwood Falls 25, Marshall 20.
- Canton 22, Marshall 20.
- Tracy 24, Marshall 21.

The Tigers will play the Minnesota quintet Friday night there.

Vocal Music In School Discussed

Miss Vivian Erickson Explains Organization.

This is another in a series of articles taken from "The Administration and Work of the Marshall Public Schools" annual report.

"I am Music.

I know no brother, yet all men are my brothers; I am the father of the best that is in them, and they are the fathers of the best that is in me. I am of them and they are of me. For I am the instrument of God.

I am Music."

Junior High School:

Three vocal music groups have been organized in the Marshall Junior High School this year. They are the Boys' Glee Club, 16 members; The Girls' Glee Club, 20 members; and the Mixed Chorus, 36 members.

A great deal of interest has been shown by the boys and girls in this work and despite the small amount of time (one-half hour a week outside of the regular school hours) which could be given each organization, they have been prepared to take their places on the programs in which they have been asked to participate.

Our aim has been to learn to sing with desirable vocal habits, to appreciate music for the Christmas convocation program which was sponsored by the vocal music department of the junior high school, and the Spring Music Festival presented by the junior and senior high school vocal music departments on May 7. The Mixed Chorus sang at a P. T. A. meeting. The highlight of the Girls' Glee Club was the operetta "Lady Frances" by Otis Carrington which they presented at two convocation programs, at the April meeting of the P. T. A., and in the Minnesota and Canby exchange programs.

Small chamber music ensembles whose members were selected from the large groups have sung at various programs of the school and community.

The Senior High School

As in former years there have been but two large choral ensembles in the senior high school, the Mixed Chorus of 51 voices, and the Girls' Glee Club of 20 voices.

We have endeavored in our three half hour periods a week to improve our taste for high standards of music, and our ability to sing in a skillful and artistic manner with desirable vocal habits.

The Mixed Chorus contributed selections for the Armistice Day program and the Baccalaureate Service, assisted in the presentation of "Why the Chimes Rang," and participated in the Marshall Junior and Senior High School Spring Music Festival on May 7, and the District Music Festival held here May 14.

In addition to contributions for convocation programs, the Girls' Glee Club took part in the two festivals mentioned above.

Twenty-three senior high students have comprised the chamber music groups which have had a busy season appearing on exchange programs, convocation programs, class plays, declamation contests, meetings of various organizations about town, and the spring festival.—Miss Vivian Erickson.

Tigers Defeat Granite Falls

Fast Battle Ends In 36 To 19 Score.

A deadeye dick named Baker from Granite Falls furnished plenty thrills for the cash customers at the Tiger-Granite fracas last night, and likewise contributed 14 of his team's 19 points. Marshall won with 36 points.

Baker, it is reported, consistently shoots from 12 to 18 points in all his games. His performance last night is particularly significant in that the stingy Tigers rarely permit a cage prima donna to score more than six or seven points against them in this district.

Baker is not only an excellent shot, but acts as an inspiring sparkplug. He was in there every minute last night with nary a rest during the entire four periods.

Richard Ullery and Chollie Healy both gave their best games of the season last night. Each played a fine guarding game, handled the ball slickly, and managed to garner 9 points apiece. Chollie played practically the whole game.

Two other Marshall men who gave good performances were Don Ullery and Howard Gag. Each swished the nets for seven points.

Gervais tried out a one hand shot last night, but he hasn't quite got his eye yet. His floorwork and ball handling were flashy, as were Weidauer's. The latter's eye was off last night. Funny thing about him—when his eye is good he only misses about three in ten, and when it's bad he misses practically all of them. But he always plays a steady, alert game.

Don Healy, Mercer and Neill also turned in creditable performances.

Volstead of Granite Falls, incidentally, was repealed after four persons.

The Granite Falls second stringers defeated the Tiger Cubs 14 to 11 in the prelim.

Tigers Play At Minnesota Friday

Two Games Booked There Tomorrow.

The Marshall Tigers will play the Minnesota cagers at Minnesota Friday night.

Playing the Minneotans early in the season, the Tigers emerged with a victory, but the Scandinavians play has improved greatly in the interim, and a hot fracas is indicated.

The Tiger Cubs did not play the Minnesota Seconds in the last game, and their battle Friday night is likewise booked as an interesting battle.

Plan Playlet At P.T.A. Meeting

Proceeds To Go To Milk Fund.

Miss Alice Johnson, chairman of the faculty P. T. A. program for February 8, announces the coming of a "withering" spectacle to the Marshall High School stage in the form of the "Fourteenth Guest," a playlet. The admission fee will be 15 cents, with all proceeds going to the P. T. A. milk fund.

With its scene laid in any small town (under the name of Leonia Center) this one-act comedy plunges 16 caricatures deep in the throes of superstition, mainly that of 13 guests at the same table. Mrs. Beatrice Ames, a highly excitable hostess, has invited as her guest of honor at a Leonia Center literary luncheon, one tall, idiosyncratic, woman lecturer, Dr. Henrietta Merryfield. Between the arrival of the first guest and "her highness, the Doctor," there is a series of heart sinks at the thought of seating 13 at a table.

The hilarity of the happening is the inviting of one guest and the dropping out of another as the play progresses. Finally, Beatrice-Bat-in-the-Belfry-Ames breathes an undeserved sigh of relief when her luncheon proceeds with a heigh and a ho and a 14th guest! Here is the capable cast:

- Mrs. Beatrice Ames, not a brain in her head, but cultured instead
- Susan Schmidt
- Elsie Farren, not much more in hers, but knows her furs
- Alice Funfay
- Mrs. Crawford, tall and morose
- Cecelia Hellebo
- Mrs. Longton, a simple hearted dame of 65
- Eleanor Biebl
- Miss Helen Norton and Miss Irene Norton, twin cyclones
- Marie Alsaker—Lillian Riedesel
- Miss Priscilla Waite, a haughty, naughty, and dangerous to meet maiden
- Faye Ross
- Miss Delafield, a flimsy, falm-boyant, flustered lady
- Vivian Erickson
- Mrs. Anthony, the very soul of discretion
- Senora Charlson
- Mrs. Foster, a proper piece
- Vieno Lammi
- Mrs. Barton, deaf in one ear but without fear
- Evelyn Jackson
- Mrs. Merrill, spurred by the spirit of clubbing
- Marian McNelly

School Paper Acts As Reflector

Amateur Journalism Makes For Finer Qualities.

This is another in a series of articles from "Administration and Works" of the Marshall Public Schools Annual Report.

Every American boy or girl feels an innate desire for self-expression, but a student often reaches high school before the media for such presents itself. The high school paper furnishes an excellent outlet for giving voice to these personal reflections.

Any amateur journalist, who considers his work seriously, unconsciously strengthens the finer qualities of his personality, broadens his interests, and develops his capacities.

Speed and accuracy—a desirable combination in any situation—are constantly stressed in reportorial work, which training should serve as a valuable transfer to other types of work.

Again, a conscientious reporter gradually gains a stronger hold on these desirable assets: poise, self-confidence, prescience, dependability, courtesy, tact, tolerance, fairness, good nature, and good taste.

Then, anyone who possesses an insatiable interest in what's going on about him develops his scope of interest and becomes more acutely sensitive to what is significant.

Undoubtedly, the high school paper should form an integral part of high school life. It acts as a reflector of the doings and opinions of the student body. It fosters and creates both intramural and intermural social relationships. It should prove a potent medium to mold opinion among students and parents. It sponsors worthwhile activities, encourages scholarship, and unites school spirit. Lastly, when filed, the paper presents a history of the school far better than a specifically written historical volume.

Definite procedures in assembling a tri-weekly limit themselves principally to the organization of a staff of reporters. Instructed in the primary essentials of journalism, all Tiger Herald aspirants work on tasks assigned by the editor. A specific talent in any one of these fields of writing: new, literary, departmental, sport, feature, music, reviews, or "columnist" work insures a place for the reporter on the staff. Special responsibility lies in the hand of the editor-in-chief and his associate who attend to all essential details.

As a reward for faithful service and newspaper ability, contributors to the writing and assembling of the paper receive a chenille "M" in their senior year. — Miss Alice M. Johnson.

Tigers Play In Minneota Tonight

The Marshall Tigers, seeking to add a ninth victory to their season's record, will play the greatly improved Minneota quintet there tonight.

Coach Bernie Cole will use various combination of the following men: Chollie and Don Healy, Dick and Don Ullery, Tracy Mercer, Buck Neill, Roy Weidauer, Lionel Gervais and Howard Gag.

In their first engagement early in the season the Tigers defeated Minneota 21 to 7. The Cubs will meet the Minneota Seconds for the first time tonight.

Minneota Defeats Tigers, 25 To 19

Airtight Defense Is Factor Of Victory.

Presenting an airtight defense, Minneota blanketed the Marshall Tigers last night at Minneota and emerged with a 25 to 19 win.

The Marshall Cubs won the opening encounter 20 to 14.

Led by Amundson, who gave the large crowd an exhibition of dribbling seldom seen in the high school circles, Minneota took an early lead that was never threatened throughout the entire game.

The half ended with Minneota leading 11 to 7. So effectively did the Minneota defense function that Marshall was able to score only one field goal the entire first half.

Continuing the rapid pace of the first half, Minneota pushed the lead to 20 to 13. The last quarter found both teams fouling frequently, Dick Ullery for Marshall and Amundson and Conger for Minneota being ejected on fouls.

Junior Hockey League Revamped

The Junior High School hockey teams have been revised and play in the new league has started in an auspicious manner.

The new teams are captained by MacDonald Henderson, Jerome Juba, and Stanley Young. Games are played Saturday mornings at 9.30 and 10.30.

Players on MacDonald Henderson's team are Paul Gilbert, Dean Haynes, Charles Mitchell, Robert Weigers, Alfred Schwan, Robert Rogne, Leo Istas, and Harold Gregoire.

Jerome Juba's team boasts of such stars as Bruce Olson, Edward Traxler, Gene Blair, Dick O'Connell, Edward Langan, Cecil Anderson, and William Osborne.

Stanley Young's speedy aggregation is composed of Clarence Greenwood, Andrew Weingartner, Dale Whitney, Ray Henle, William Mannion, Leo Rankin, Bud Blanchette, Barney Gervais.

Last Saturday Mac Henderson's team lost to Jerome Juba's by a score of 5-4 after a three overtime period struggle. Stanley Young's team won from Juba's flashes 8-7 after one overtime period.

These games are an activity of the intramural program sponsored by the Physical Education Department.

Dramatics Play Part In Schools

Miss Helene Alland Explains Department.

This is another in a series of articles from "Administration and Work" of the Marshall Public School.

Can anyone who has never participated in a dramatic production really appreciate the stage, when he can open the flood-tides of tragic emotion, or sparkle in a brilliant bit of high comedy, or be killingly funny and hear the heart-warming laughter from the audience?

A recent interesting article by an eminent psychologist points out that the most fundamental trait of human nature is the desire to be important. Perhaps this is the explanation why the love of "being in a play" is shared by so many people. But there are other reasons, too, although they are not easy to define. Does anyone really know why it is such an emotionally and intellectually satisfying experience to pretend to be somebody else? To work for weeks to understand and interpret and re-create a character that an author has created on paper? We all know that it is satisfying or young people would not strive as they do to secure parts in their school productions and work assiduously for weeks in rehearsal. We like to throw ourselves into our parts be they small or stellar and "be" the character we are portraying.

To give as many students as possible an opportunity to enact a role in some play is the aim of the Drama Club. The types of plays chosen are of a variety to suit a wide range of talent, from dramatic tragedy, a light phantasy to delightful comedy.

It has been interesting to the director to note the value of dramatics in the personnel of the group. Poise, ease, self-confidence have often come to a timid, self-conscious soul. Latent talent has crept to the fore in many instances. One of the most satisfying experiences is seeing the actors boost one another along—"Gee, you were swell!"—then afterwards seeing the glow of happiness upon the faces of the young amateurs as they crowd into the wings when the play is over. It isn't self-glorification in the minds of the participants, but rather that they have shared the audience's response and with their combined efforts they have brought to life the printed page and made the play a living thing.—Miss Helene Alland.

Faculty Comedy Proves Popular

PTA Play Nets $28 For Milk Fund.

A cast composed of 16 women members of the Marshall Public Schools faculty presented an amusing comedy last night before a large and responsive audience. Ticket sales amounted to over $28.

Titled "The Fourteenth Quest," the playlet revolved around the difficulties of a hostess in not having 13 at the table.

Incidentally, the audience was treated to the spectacle of one of the most remarkable collections of feminine millinery ever seen on a stage in these parts.

Miss Edra Gray, who gave a top characterization of the visiting celebrity, wore a particularly outstanding piece of Fin de Siede headgear. Shaped something like a high church vicar's headpiece, it so fascinated the audience that their attention was somewhat distracted from her funny lines.

The audience particularly liked the two Norton sisters played by Miss Lillian Riedesal and Miss Marie Alsaker, who doubled-talked the listeners into some good laughs.

Another hat that excited widespread admiration last night was Miss Vivian Erickson's. She played the effusive Mrs. Delefield, and in her effervescence, she fluttered vivaciously about the stage like the ostrich plumes on her Schiaparelli creation.

Miss Gladys Iverson gave a fine impersonation of the idiosyncratic Mrs. Gardner, and so did Miss Evelyn Jackson as the hard-of-hearing Mrs. Barton.

Miss Susan Schmidt played the part of the pretty Mrs. Ames, who had been so busy since she had been elected president of the literary society that she hadn't had time to read a book.

The part of Ida, the colored cook who was "superstitious" about 13 at the table, was taken by Miss Myrtle Benson; Miss Alice Funfar was Elsie Farren; Miss Cecelia Hellebo, Mrs. Crawford; Miss Eleanor Biehl,

Mrs. Langton; Miss Vienno Lammi, Mrs. Foster; Miss Senora Charlson, Mrs. Anthony; Miss Fay Ross, Miss Waite; Miss Dorothy Kunz, Maggie, Miss Marion McNelly, Mrs. Merrill, Miss Alice Johnson and George Wingert together played "The Basin Street Blues."

Miss Mary McNiry directed the playlet, and properties were in charge of Miss Marguerite Schneider, Miss Frances Taylor, Miss Adeline Brobeck, and Miss June Perkins.

Julian Waller of the art classes was booked to give a chalk talk, but a sprained thumb prevented the feature, so Principal Merrill Olson substituted with an outline of "Activities" in the Marshall Public Schools. This article will be printed in the Messenger in several days.

The meeting last night was sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association to gain funds for the continuance of the milk fund.

Schoolmen Will Meet Here Wednesday

Superintendent F. R. Adams said this morning that schoolmen of District 9 will be hosts Wednesday night to a get-together with men of the faculties of District 11 schools.

Dinner will be served at 6.30 in the New Atlantic Hotel. Walter Engelund, secretary of the Minnesota Educational Association, will speak.

Following the dinner and talk, there will be a program of entertainment, which will include a basketball game between coaches of Districts 9 and 11.

Unbeaten Scrappers Play Here Friday

Sizzling Game Seen Between Rivals.

Coach Bernie Cole will undoubtedly use the wearing-out process against the Tracy Scrappers in the battle of the season tomorrow night.

Combinations of the following boys will be used against the Scrappers—Chollie Healy, Dick Ullery, Tracy Mercer, Roy Weidauer, Lionel Gervais, Don Healy, Don Ullery, Tracy Mercer, Howard Gag, and Buckie Neill.

The Scrappers, on the other hand, have a smart, fast, tough squad. They weathered out the Tiger hordes on their home floor several weeks ago and defeated them by three points.

Additional dope points out that the Tigers have gone down to defeat in the hands of Minneota and Redwood Falls, while on the other hand, the Scrappers have definitely beaten both of them.

Marshall fans who saw Tracy wallop Lynd on Tuesday night, say that the Scrappers seemed to have improved much since the Marshall-Tracy fracas there, and in short, they have one slick machine.

It would seem then, that the only certain thing about the battle between the traditional rivals Friday night, is that it will be a sizzler from the opening whistle.

Band Prepares Public Concert

Appreciation Event To Take Place Monday.

The Marshall High School Band will play an appreciation concert for the Marshall public Monday, February 14 at the auditorium. Everyone is invited to attend, the concert being an appreciation one for the support given in the recent drive for funds at the Band Carnival.

The band will have a lot now to offer the public and their new elevated platform together with new chair markers will make the local organization one that all can be proud of.

The program prepared is the same one that will be used the following Sunday when they play a return engagement at Glenwood High School, and will be only an hour in length.

The band promises that this hour will be one of fine entertainment and they would like a good representation at their appreciation concert.

The band is making the Glenwood trip Sunday, February 20, and a great deal of transportation is necessary to move the band that distance. Any adult who will drive members of the band to Glenwood on Sunday may be sure that their services will be appreciated.

150 BOTTLES OF MILK DAILY

These children and many more enjoy milk daily at the public schools here through the efforts of the Parent-Teachers Association. The Association's milk project is now in its third year. Serving started this term on January 5, and up to 150 half pints of milk are used daily from kindergarten through the fourth grade. Students who can afford to pay two cents for each half pint; to the others, the milk is served free, financed by the P.T.A.

Local Boy Enters Glove Tourney

Ernie Walker Goes To Minneapolis Next Week.

When the Golden Gloves boxing tournament opens in Minneapolis next week, Marshall will be represented by young Ernie Walker in the featherweight division.

Ernie is 18 years of age and weighs 127 pounds, which is the maximum in the featherweight division. He will wear the Marshall high school colors—orange and black—at the tournament.

Ernie started boxing while he was enrolled in the CMTC at Fort Snelling two years ago, and in the meantime has fought in various amateur fights in Minnesota and South Dakota. His record includes 20 fights, three defeats including one knock-out, and two decisions. He has knocked out one opponent in his 17 victories.

Ernie's main weakness is a lack of experience, but for the past three weeks, Marcel Turf has been teaching him some of the finer points. Ernie can take it on the chin and in the bread-basket.

He is the aggressive type, always leading the fighting. From the beginning of his boxing he has been working hard on his left, throwing about four lefts to one right.

His training here includes about 15 to 20 minutes of skipping rope, skipping three minutes and resting one; shadow boxing of a couple of rounds; and sparring whenever he can find a partner, which is a tough individual to find around Marshall.

The Golden Gloves tournament will be held February 14, 15 and 17, and there are already 250 entries. Champions of their classes will receive gold gloves set with diamonds.

Ernie will fight three 2-minute rounds in his division, and 8-ounce gloves will be worn. No boxer may fight more than two bouts in an evening.

Big Crowd To See Game Tonight

Tigers And Tracy Set For Fast Battle.

A huge crowd is expected to witness the Tiger-Tracy basketball combat tonight, and a goodly delegation will journey here from the rival city.

The cage program will open at 7:30 with a game between the Tiger Cubs and the Tracy seconds. The main fracas is scheduled for shortly after 8.30.

Chollie Healy, the veteran Tiger spearhead, has been ailing the past few days with a high temperature, and he probably will not see service. This condition will throw the brunt of the Marshall attack on Dick and Don Ullery, Don Healy, Roy Weidauer, Lionel Gervais, Tracy Mercer, Howard Gag, Neil.

The Tracy Headlight-Herald comments thus on the battle tonight:

"Tracy is favored to win but anything can happen with Marshall. The style of play to be used by the Tigers will not be known until Coach

Tracy-Tiger Tilt Brings Record Crowd

The largest crowd ever to witness a basketball game in Marshall high school outside of tournament games, saw the Tracy-Marshall contest on the Marshall floor last evening.

The crowd numbered 1466. There were 775 paid adult admissions and 54 children's admissions. The balance of the crowd was made up of Marshall high school activity members.

The Marshall high school building may accommodate an additional 150 to 200 people by placing chairs on the floor and bleachers on the stage, making the auditorium capable of handling around a capacity crowd of 1,600 people. As stated before, this was the largest individual game ever played in Marshall.

Tigers Miss Healy As Scrappers Win

Furious Battle Ends In 19 To 15 Tally.

The Marshall Tigers missed Chollie Healy plenty last night in the 19 to 15 defeat they suffered at the hands of Tracy. Chollie has a bad cold and a fever, and it was deemed advisable to keep him on the bench.

He was particularly missed in three departments—his steadying influence on his mates, his ball passing, and his gift for taking the ball off the bangboard.

Tracy had two experts working on the bangboard recoveries, Starr and Catlin, and they had a practical monopoly which didn't help Marshall scoring a bit.

A quick look at the box score indicates that Marshall lost the game on its poor free throwing. The basket shooting was equal for both teams, each sinking six. Tracy, however, made seven successful free throws, while Marshall made only three. They must have missed about 10 gifts.

The Scrappers had things pretty much their own way the first quarter, with the Tigers excited and consequently unpoised, careless in their ball handling, and unsteady in their shooting. The quarter ended with the Scrappers unloosing a furious attack that netted them five points in the last minute and a half of play. The Tigers were demoralized, and the quarter ended Tracy 8, Marshall 2.

The Tigers steadied in the second quarter and added three more points for a total of five, while Tracy added four more points for a tally of 12 as the half time gun sounded.

Coming back in the second half, the Tigers had regained some confidence. Mercer's slick basket started a Tiger spurt that at one point in this third quarter tied the score at 14 all. The spurt ended when Dick Ullery left the game toward the end of the quarter on four fouls.

Mercer was fouled after his basket at the beginning of the third quarter, and his free throw was good. The score was then Tracy 12, Tigers 8.

Catlin sank a long one to give Tracy 14. Dick Ullery swished in a long one to send the Tiger points up to 10. A minute later he put in another for 12 points. Shortly afterwards, Gervais poked in a one-handed shot to tie the score 14 all.

Stone pushed in a bucket for Tracy making the score 16-14 as the third quarter ended.

The Tigers sole score in the fourth quarter was Don Ullery's gift. Tracy made a basket and a free throw, and the game ended 19 to 15.

A crowd estimated at close to 1,500 attended the game, and there were no seats left when the main bout started. This is thought to be the largest crowd ever to attend a single game here.

Band To Give Concert Tonight

Will Be In Appreciation To Supporting Public.

The Marshall High School Concert Band plays its appreciation concert tonight at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

The concert is in appreciation of the splendid support they received at their band carnival staged last month and the band promises the Marshall public a fine concert.

There will be several new features added to this concert which the public is sure to enjoy, and the whole set-up of the band with their new equipment will mark a decided improvement and an advancement for future concerts at Marshall High School.

Mr. Wingert and the band hope for a splendid attendance.

The concert will be one hour in length and it is assured that it will be well worth attending. Admission is free. The same program will be presented that will be given at Glenwood on Sunday, February 20.

8th Grade Team Wins Championship

Tournament Is Intramural Activity Program.

The home room basketball championship of Marshall High School was won by an eighth grade team. The tournament is an activity of the intra-mural program sponsored by the Boys Physical Education Department.

A total of 18 teams were entered in the play, with Home Rooms 216 and 104 winning the Senior and Junior high championships.

When these two teams met for the all school title the eighth graders of Home Room 216 won from the Juniors Home Room 104 by a score of 16-10.

The Junior team was composed of: Joe Speybrouck, Lambert Juba, Donald Regnier, Richard Bruce and Charles Gilbert. The Eighth grade team and Robert Weiner, William Anderson, Donald Cool, Layton Aussen, and Thomas Ucker.

The Eighth Grade boys, although shorter than their rivals in height, made up for this by being dead eyes for the basket. Thomas Ucker gained 10 points for the winners, getting two long and three short shots. Joe Nowatny director of the tournament, announced that 144 boys were registered for the tournament.

Tigers To Play At Balaton Tuesday

Chollie Healy May Be Benched By Illness.

The Marshall Tigers will play the Balaton Braves at Balaton tomorrow night. The Cubs will engage the Balaton seconds in a preliminary game starting at 7:30.

Chollie Healy is back in school after his illness last week, but it is doubtful if he is sufficiently recovered to play tomorrow.

Tigers who will see service are: Don Healy, Richard Ullery, Donald Ullery, Roy Weidauer, Lionel Gervais, Tracy Mercer, Howard Gag, and Buck Neill.

The Tigers have a rest period Friday. Pipestone comes to Marshall on February 22.

Walker Scores Two Knockouts

Marshall Battler Wins Way To Semi-Finals.

By virtue of two knockouts to his credit last night in the second and third rounds of the Golden Gloves classic in Minneapolis, Ernie Walker of Marshall will fight Thursday night in the semi-finals of the featherweight division.

Ernie knocked out Kenneth Benson of Princeton in the third round of their second round battle last night.

In the third round engagement later in the evening Ernie knocked out Vern Lyons of the Citizens Club of Minneapolis in the first round.

The semi-finals will be fought off Thursday night, and also the finals.

If Ernie wins the featherweight title (127 pounds) he will be eligible for competition in the Tournament of Champions which will be staged in Chicago February 28, and March 1 and 2.

Ernie drew a bye in the first round featherweight fighting Monday night.

Tigers Defeat Balaton Quint

Score Is 21-10—Cubs Also Win, 27-12.

The Marshall High School basketball teams won two games last night at Balaton, the Tigers winning 21 to 10, and the Cubs 27 to 12.

Taking an early lead and maintaining it throughout the game, the Tigers were never seriously pressed. The first quarter saw them scoring seven points while blanking the Braves.

Balaton's defense tightened and held the Tigers to one basket in the second quarter. Olson caught the Tigers napping to score an easy shot, and Harmon made good a gift to give the Braves a scoring advantage for the second quarter. Score at the half: Marshall 9, Balaton 3.

The third quarter proved to be the Tigers' best, for they scored 10 points and held the Braves to 3. The last quarter found the Tigers content to protect their lead and found them using semi-stalling tactics. One basket was added to their total while Balaton added two buckets to theirs.

cont February 16, 1938

Olson of Balaton, who was the star of the evening, scored all of Balaton's field goals. Scoring among the Tigers was well-divided as usual.

Chollie Healy, absent from the lineup for two weeks because of a bad ankle and illness, saw action in the last five minutes. He will be in shape, it is believed for the remaining home games.

Tigers Play Two Games Next Week

Pipestone Here Tuesday, Hendricks On Friday.

The Marshall High School basketball team will complete its 1938 playing season with a busy week next week, playing Pipestone on the Marshall floor February 22, and Hendricks on the Marshall floor February 25.

Both games will be excellent games, both contests having resulted in close scores in previous meetings.

The two games next week will be the only opportunity to see the Tigers in action before the tournament season opens. To date, the tournament drawings have not been made, so it is impossible to state whom the Marshall team will oppose in the district event.

Coach Bernie Cole's boys have been putting on polish the last part of the season and so have Pipestone and Hendricks.

Big crowds are expected for both games.

Walker Faces Golden Glove Favorite Tonight

Local Fans Pulling For Him To Win Crucial Battle In Semi-Final Round.

Ernie Walker, Marshall's featherweight boxer will be matched against Vern Lyons in the semi-finals of the

Ernie Walker

Golden Gloves classic in Minneapolis tonight.

Lyons, who is fighting under the colors of the Citizens Club is being plugged by the Twin City sports-writers as the outstanding fighter in the tournament.

The semi-finals pairings in Walker's division are as follows:

Ernie Walker vs. Vern Lyons.

Al Johnson, Fargo vs Bob McMillan, St. Paul.

Bruce Barton has this to say about Lyons:

"The one boxer who caught our fancy for possessing the best ring technique among the Golden Glovers battling at the Minneapolis auditorium, is Vern Lyons, a featherweight competing under the colors of the citizens' club.

"We liked the way Lyons handles himself. He impresses us as being a natural fighter because he does things instinctively. The youngster boxes quite cleverly, hits hard, fast and accurately with both fists, takes a punch well and retains his poise when the pressure is on. He has the best left hook of any amateur in the lighter classes since Johnny Walsh was a standout in the Northwest Golden Gloves. Like Walsh, Vern also carries considerable authority in his right fist."

Incidentally Ernie, packs a mean left himself, and when two good lefts get together, that's boxing.

Marshall Boxer Loses By Decision

Ernie Walker Stays Limit With Golden Gloves Champ

Ernie Walker, Marshall's featherweight boxer, lost by a decision to Vern Lyons of Minneapolis in the semi-finals of the Golden Gloves tournament last night in Minneapolis.

The broadcast of the battle revealed it was a thriller, and the announcer later said it was one of the best if not the best bout of the evening.

Nine thousand fans packed the Minneapolis Municipal Auditorium, including a number of cars of Marshall people who went down to see the home town boy fight.

Lyons, later went into the finals to win the championship by knocking out Bob McQuillan of St. Paul.

Although news stories of the Walker-Lyons fight stated that Ernie was defeated decisively, fans listening over the radio got the impression that it was on the contrary, a close fight. The announcer stated shortly before the judges gave their decision, that he believed it would be a tough fight to decide.

This impression is backed by the fact that young Lyons won all his matches, except Ernie's, by knockouts. He did knock Ernie down in the third round, but Ernie came back with a rush and continued to lead the fighting until the final bell sounded.

Ernie, lacking the experience and training opportunities enjoyed by Lyons, was bent on a quick knockout, knowing that he did not have the polish acquired by Lyons in his training at the Citizen's Club gymnasium and his experience at the Golden Gloves tournament last year.

This was the correct strategy, but it left him open more frequently than his opponent, and consequently more points were scored against him.

However, all the points in the world, could not have won Lyons the battle, had Ernie rapped him on the button for a canvas kisser.

Probably Ernie will do just that thing next year after he has had another year of fighting.

Ernie weighed in at 123, and Lyons at 126.

Local fans are loud in their praise of the fine showing made by Ernie in the Golden Gloves tournament. He reached the semi-finals by way of two previous knockouts.

Tigers Play Last Home Tiff Friday

Improved Hendricks Quint To Come Here.

The Marshall high school basketball team will play its last home game of the 1937-38 season when they meet Hendricks on the Marshall floor Friday night.

Earlier this year Marshall won a close decision over the Hendricks club on the Hendricks floor, but since then the Hendricks team has been continually improving and the game is expected to be one of the closest of the present season.

While this game will mark a completion of the 1937-38 basketball season, the drawings will be made for places in the tournament. Sub-district games will be played starting March 4 to find out the eight teams in District 9 who will play in the district tournament March 10, 11, and 12 at Marshall.

Friday night's game is of special interest to basketball fans because Hendricks and Marshall rank close to each other from their standing in the district, both teams having won and lost about an equal number of games during the year.

The close decision won by the Tigers in their first meeting with Hendricks without the service of one of their stars gives an indication of the expected closeness of the game.

Sub-District Tourney Pairings Are Made

Marshall Draws Arco.

Yesterday at a sub-district committee meeting, it was decided to hold the sub-district basketball tournament in the Marshall High School Auditorium Thursday, March 3, and Friday, March 4.

The drawings made were as follows:

Thursday evening, March 3, Lynd versus Verdi at 7.30 p. m.; Hendricks versus Lake Benton at 8.40 p. m., and Minnesota versus Russell at 9.50 p. m.

On Friday, March 4, Marshall plays Arco at 6.30 p. m.; Tyler versus Cottonwood at 7.40 p. m.; Ivanhoe versus Balaton at 8.40 p. m. and Canby plays Wood Lake at 10 p. m.

The winners of the above seven games will draw for places in the district nine tournament to be held in Marshall the following week. Some of the games listed in both sections will be hard-fought battles and the sub-district is a tune-up for the district and regional events.

The Friday night games are especially attractive considering the closeness of the teams playing each other as indicated by their season's records. The sub-district tournament is a bargain affair with a charge of only 25 cents being made for each evening, three games the first evening with four games being played the second evening.

Regular tournament procedure will govern each series of games, it being the hope of the local school to make it as attractive for fans to come to see the various games in the district.

Students Eligible To Library Club

Librarians May Wear Buttons, Get Awards.

This is another in a series of articles from "Work and Administration of the Marshall Public Schools" annual report.

Student librarians have charge of the librarian's desk in the library-study hall each period of the school day. As the teacher-librarian has classes four periods and cannot give assistance to those needing help in finding material, it is necessary for the student-librarian to know the library and its contents well enough to help others.

From this need has developed the Library Club. This organization holds regular meetings at which instruction in the use of the library is given and questions which arise in the work are discussed. Membership is open to any student who expresses an interest in the work and is willing to give the time necessary. He must be interested enough in books to become familiar, not only with the titles and authors, and their classified arrangement on the shelves, but with their content. This is especially true of reference books.

Besides acquiring a knowledge of books, the club member learns how to charge out and receive books, replace them on the shelves, keep the magazine files in order, and replace material from the vertical file.

Each librarian may wear a librarian's button and seniors who have served efficiently for two years are awarded a bronze pin.—Miss Adeline M. Brobeck.

Marshall Tigers Defeat Pipestone

Closely Matched Teams Played Good Games.

The Marshall Tigers defeated the Pipestone cage team last night by a score of 22 to 20 in one of the most thrilling battles seen on the Marshall floor this season.

The teams were closely matched in speed, shooting ability and ball handling, and besides, both teams used the man-to-man defense, which made for many exciting moments in each quarter.

If anything, Pipestone had an edge on the bucket shooting, making eight to the Tigers' six. Burns, the Pipestone Indian lad, and Dick Ullery divided honors with three baskets each. Ullery was high man of the game with nine points.

The Tigers led in the scoring from the beginning always managing to keep several points in the lead except at one point in the third quarter when the visitors took a one-point lead.

The score by quarters follows:

	1st	2nd	3rd	4th
Tigers	6	12	15	22
Pipestone	5	9	14	20

The guarding on both sides was close and showed that both teams were acquiring that last-of-the-season poise and polish. Marshall managed some fast breaks from the enemy territory at times, but these generally climaxed in missed baskets, for both Weidauer and Gervais, the fast-break experts were off on their aim.

Most of Pipestone's baskets were long shots, attempted when closeins failed.

Burns put on a fine example of ball handling, floorwork and shooting last night, particularly in the second half. It was in the last minute of play that he staged a one-man show that had the fans gasping. His mates, in a desperate attempt to garner the few extra points necessary to win or at least tie, started feeding him far out. He responded with two long shots that slipped in the hoop as sweet as you please, but a couple of successful free throws on the Tigers' side of the ledger saved the Tigers as the final gun sounded.

The Cubs took the Pipestone seconds into camp to the tune of 22 to 13. Edward Hasbrouck starred with five baskets.

Large Audience Attends Concert

Give Good Response To Varied Program.

A large audience gave enthusiastic response to the Marshall High School Band's "Appreciation Concert," presented last night in the school auditorium.

The program was widely varied, and included such popular perennial favorites as "Carnival At Venice," the stirring "Triumphal March from Aida," the Pilgrims Chorus from "Tannhauser," and also selections from the great masters, Bach and Tchaikowsky.

Other selections consisted of works by Ghys, Yoder, Sibelius, DeRose, and Texidor. Various instrumental solos were played by Clair Ryan, Exine Anderson, and Betty Jererson.

George F. Wingert is the conductor of the band, and his assistant director is Julian D. Waller.

Flutes—Robert Harmon, (student teacher) Macdonald Henderson, Dorothy Struthers.

Tigers Defeat Hendricks 28-27

Thrilling Game Marks Last Tussle Of Season.

By "MEL" HARDY

In the game that proved to be the thriller of the regular schedule, Coach Cole's Tigers eked out a 28 to 27 victory over the Viking from Hendricks in the local basketball court. The spirit which the Tiger cagemen showed in fighting an uphill battle was the same determination which won for them the football championships last fall.

Hendricks started the scoring and ran their total to 8 before the local team scored. Buller of Hendricks set the pace in the first period and with the help of his mates left Marshall behind at the quarter by a score of 8 to 1. It was from this point on that the Tigers went to work and combining 5 free throws and 2 field goals, while holding the Viking to 4 points, managed to close the gap in the score to 10 to 12 at the half-way mark.

The third quarter proved to be a repetition of the second with the Tigers showing still more scrap and scoring 11 counters while holding the Hendricks quint to 6. The score at the end of the third quarter stood, Marshall 21, Hendricks 18.

With but a minute to play with the score 25 to 24 in favor of the local team, Hendricks scored from the floor to give them a lead with seconds left. Still playing a steady, deliberate game, the Tigers worked the ball under the basket where Dick Ullery made an inshot to give the lead back to Marshall.

In order not to deny the fans the final thrill a double foul was called on Ronning of Hendricks and Gervais of Marshall. Ronning dripped his gift shot cleanly through the hoop to tie the score again and Gervais not to be outdone, shot, the ball bouncing high in the air and then dropping neatly through the hoop to give the Tigers the needed margin of victory.

Buller proved to be the outstanding floorman for Hendricks, scoring 3 field goals and 5 free throws for a total of 11 points. He was followed closely by Ronning with 2 field goals and 3 gift shots for a total of 7 points. Dick Ullery led the Marshall team with four field goals and 2 free throws for a total of 10 points while Chollie Healy contributed 2 goals from the floor and 3 gift shots for 7 points. Chollie perhaps played his best game of the season defensively. Mercer also turned in the best game that the fans have seen him play this year.

In the B team the Hendricks seconds proved to be too strong for the Cubs and turned them back to the tune of 19 to 13.

The Tigers made 10 out of 14 free throws. Hendricks made 9 out of 13.

Obey School Stop Signs Or Face Arrest, Is Edict

City Officials Here Plan Intensive Campaign Against Violators.

Violations of the stop signs in the vicinity of the Marshall Public Schools have become so numerous that Mayor B. C. Ford and police officers today determined upon an intensive campaign against automobile drivers who fail to observe these signs.

The gist of their statements was this:

Warnings to offending drivers will cease. Without exception, violators will be arrested and taken to court.

Typical of the existing condition was the experience of Traffic Officer Rollo Haynes this morning. While talking to and warning four drivers who went through the signs at one intersection, four more also failed to heed the signs.

Police have been lenient on these stop signs, it was pointed out, to the extent of trying to make them effective by obtaining the cooperation of motorists without resorting to unconditional arrests.

But so many drivers have failed to cooperate that within the next few days, warnings will be abandoned and violators given a ticket without further discussion.

A few days leeway will be given so that everyone may learn of this fact, then the police will start making arrests.

"These children are our most prized possessions," said Mayor Ford today, "and yet a great many drivers refuse to give them a decent chance to get across the streets in safety. If the present condition continues, it is only a question of time until one or more of our children will be crippled or killed at these intersections.

We are going to take action to force observance of these signs before that happens.

"It is asking mighty little of a motorist to demand that he come to a stop as a means of protecting our children. The man who won't do it deserves to be punished, and we intend to see that he is."

The school stop signs are located at Fourth and Lyon streets and Fifth and Lyon streets, and are in place only at the times when children are going to or leaving school.

Sub-District Cage Play Here Thursday

Cottonwood And Tyler To Play At 6.30 That Night.

Cottonwood will play Tyler Thursday night at 6.30 in the sub-district tournament in the Marshall gymnasium this week.

Marshall will play Arco at 7.30 Friday night at the sub-district.

These two games were changed after the bills were printed, and the fans are reminded to ignore the bills with respect to these two games.

The complete sub-district schedule follows:

Thursday

Cottonwood vs Tyler	6.30
Lynd vs Verdi	7.30
Hendricks vs Lake Benton	8.40
Minneota vs Russell	9.50

Friday

Marshall vs Arco	7.30
Ivanhoe vs Balaton	8.50

Cage Fans Here For Tournament

Large Crowd Follows Eight Teams.

Basketball teams from eight towns in this territory, each followed by good-sized crowds of supporters, will be in Marshall tonight for the opening of the sub-district tournament.

They will be followed tomorrow night by teams and fans from five other towns in this district, for the tournament's second day of play.

Games tonight and Friday are to determine entrants in the district tournament to be held in Marshall next week.

Four games are on the program tonight, and three Friday night. Tonight's schedule is:

6.30—Tyler vs Cottonwood.
7.30—Lynd vs Verdi.
8.40—Hendricks vs Lake Benton.
9.50—Minneota vs Russell.

Games Friday night are:

7.30—Marshall vs Arco.
8.40—Ivanhoe vs Balaton.
10.00—Canby vs Wood Lake.

Tracy, last year's district champion, is not required to play in the sub-district by virtue of being undefeated throughout the regular season of play.

Plenty of color will be seen in tonight's and Friday night's events. Many fans are expected to follow each team. The Marshall High School Band of 65 pieces will entertain both nights.

Eight Cage Teams Clash Here Tonight

Cottonwood And Tyler In Opener

Three Other Games To Follow.

The Sub-District Tournament opens here tonight, ushering in three weeks of basketball in which 22 games will be played. The Sub-District games are a bargain matinee of the three events with the opening game getting under way tonight at 6.30 with Tyler meeting Cottonwood, followed by the Lynd-Verdi game at 7.30, the Hendricks-Lake Benton game at 8.40 and the Minneota-Russell game at 9.50.

The admission for these four games will be only 25 cents and basketball fans will agree that it may be rightly called a bargain matinee.

Following this are the three games Friday evening. The first game starting at 7.30 is Marshall vs Arco; Ivanhoe vs Balaton at 8.50, and Canby vs Wood Lake at 10.00.

Marshall High School will endeavor to manage each of these three tournaments as efficiently as possible. Signs outside of the building will indicate to the public which door to enter. On entering either door, tickets may be purchased and wraps checked. All entrance will be made from upstairs where bleachers are divided into the section bearing the name of each town represented in the tournament. Ushers will help to find the best seats in the house for fans as they enter.

The loud speaking system will make announcements during the game. The electric score board will indicate the exact time remaining and the score and the name chart indicating the line-up on the floor at the time. When the games are completed the downstairs and upstairs doors will be thrown open to the public and they may leave as rapidly as possible. Of course, it is necessary that the aisles from the doors be kept clear at all times and that regular admission be charged for any part of the evening's game.

65 Players On Hand For Event

40 More Due Here Friday Night.

Players participating in tonight's sub-district games in the Marshall auditorium are as follows:

Student Activity Record Is Good

Semi-Annual Report On Program Made.

Progress of the Student Activities in Marshall High School during the first half year of school are covered in the following report:

The senior high school activity membership is 95 per cent of the student body with 287 out of 302 students. In the junior high school the membership is not as large, but the whole activity membership is around 90 per cent of the student body. Activities of Marshall High School have been combined under student activity to better the organizations and make the whole organization financially self-supporting.

We have divided athletics into basketball for both senior and junior high school, football, hockey, and track, competing with other schools in these various sports. In basketball, in operation at the present time, there are three squads, a varsity of ten members, a second squad of thirty and a junior high squad of forty members.

In music, there are a senior high school Band and Orchestra, Mixed Chorus and Girls Glee Club. In junior high school, a Beginners Band and Orchestra, Mixed Chorus, Boys Glee Club, and Girls Glee Club. The junior high organizes into units and forms a trained group to enter senior high organizations.

In the Physical Education department, there is a Physical Education Club for boys and intra-mural games in football, basketball, hockey, and handball, table tennis, and all other sports given over to boys who play the game for their own enjoyment only. And a regular schedule of games are played by the various organized teams. The Girls Athletics Association also have an organization under the Physical Education department and they too have the various sports and games which are played among organized teams.

Under dramatics there is a Drama Club, an organization of 70 members, who put on one-act plays at their various meetings and the group encourages boys and girls to take part in stage work. Some of the plays are given as exchange plays in other towns. In addition there are one-act plays grouped for a single performance and a junior and senior class play during the school year.

The school paper "The Tiger Herald" deals with boys and girls who are interested in writing and have the opportunity of working with materials which they like to do. This paper is put out by the students, articles written by them for their school paper.

Under service clubs there are the following organizations: Cheer Leaders, Ushers, Stage Crew, Library Club, Student Council, and Finance Board. Each one of the clubs renders a service to their school. Other organizations are the Future Farmers, the M. Club, the M.W.F. Club and the Home Economics Club.

Each of the organizations or groups of organizations are under sponsorship of local faculty members who direct the organizations. Of course, it is necessary to raise a great deal of money during the school year to successfully operate the various organizations and this is the place the student activity takes in our local high school today.

Instead of 26 organizations each making a drive the whole set up is equipped under a single organization known as the Student Activity. Each student pays a certain amount each week for a certain period of weeks.

And this amount covers the cost of all activities in the local high school. We try to limit our drive for money to twice during the school year—an injury fund poster at the beginning of the football season which the business men of Marshall have so generously supported in the past and the Band Carnival which is put on in the middle of the winter to build up the Band's equipment.

We hope that all other programs are of such nature that the admission price charged is not in excess of the type of program given. Only at the football games are prices in our injuries in high school athletics. In addition to a payment on the Piano.

The Library Club, a new set of books for the library.

The Student Council, a trip to another school to inspect it.

The injury fund to take care of The music department, new instruments, already purchased at a cost of $225.

The Physical Education Department, new mats and equipment for use in the department.

As a result it can be said that each organization has definite projects during the year and that the operation can be carried on more successfully as a combined unit than by each organization.

Will Indicate School Programs

Student Organizations To Conduct P.T.A. Meeting.

The monthly meeting of the Marshall P. T. A. will be held in the Little Theatre Tuesday, with members of the high school organizations in charge of the program. This program will be made up of numbers which have been prepared by the students for convocations and for Drama Club meetings.

The program will endeavor to indicate to the Marshall public the type of programs boys and girls of Marshall High School prepare for their own convocations. No additional work has been done on these programs and they will be presented as they were presented in the high school convocations.

High school students welcome this opportunity to present this type of program to the Marshall people and invite one and all to attend. It will consist of a one-act play and a section of a Chemistry convocation program. In this Chemistry section experiments which the chemist must perform in class are performed and described on the stage. For example, spontaneous combustion is one of the most common occurrences and yet few people realize the cause of it. The chemistry class will demonstrate the cause of spontaneous combustion and how to guard against it.

May we again invite the Marshall public to plan to attend the P.T.A. meeting in the Little Theatre, March 8.

half he decided that the Lynd players may be pretty good, but he wasn't going to play tiddle-de-winks with them nor treat them as little tin gods; so he started trying to tie them up a bit. He didn't succeed very often against such polished performers as McChesney and Vanstrom, but he never quit trying until the final gun sounded—which in the final analysis is just plain "guts."

Basketball is generally a game that attracts youngsters, young people and middleagsters, so last night that silver haired old gentleman sitting in the student gallery caught everybody's eye with his enthusiasm.

March 4, 1938

Tourney Flashes

Someone who knows his basketball well, said last night: Watch this McChesney boy. He could be the high mucky-muck of his team and hog all the scoring, but he doesn't. He is a team player." Sure enough, time after time last night, this fine player would sacrifice an easy shot, to pass the ball to a mate for a bucket.

That player with the beautiful black eye was Buseth of Hendricks—Aladdin and his wonderful lamp. It is said he received it on the Marshall floor in the last engagement with Marshall. It was a case of an immovable Tiger elbow meeting with an irresistible Hendricks eye. Such color, too . . . a deep blue black.

A lot of the younger bucks at the game last night voted the pretty Lamphere girl from Lynd as the best looking cheer leader.

Those two black-haired tornadoes on the Cottonwood team are the Lines twins—John and Robert. John, or is it Robert, is slightly the larger.

The crowd last night, although approximating only 400, was enthusiastic and vociferous, especially Minneota.

A lot of players could take a lesson from that Verdi player Willert last night. About the end of the first

Tyler, Lynd, Hendricks,

Minneota Win

Battle Way To District Tourney

Cottonwood And Lake Benton Stage Great Fights.

The sub-district tournament of District No. 9 got underway last night, and after the hurly burly and the struggling, four teams emerged as district contenders, and four other teams packed up their uniforms for the season.

The results last night:

Tyler 34, Cottonwood 29.
Lynd 85, Verdi 13.
Hendricks 32, Lake Benton 27.
Minneota 27, Russell 15.

Most of the games were closer than expected, and two of them were almost upsets. Cottonwood, for example, led Tyler until about the last half of the fourth quarter at which point the Cottonwood lads blew up after John Lines and Peterson left the game with four fouls each.

Lake Benton, turning in one of the best battles of their season, came back at the second half to tie the score 21 all, after trailing Hendricks 11 to 16 at the half. The Bentonites again tied the score at 27 all, in the fourth quarter, but Hendricks rallied in the last few minutes with some needed buckets. Hendricks was hampered by the absence of Buller one of the top cagers in District 9, because of the illness of his father. Another obstacle for Hendricks was the illness of their coach, E. A. Schneider.

Lynd scored practically at will against Verdi, with McChesney, reputedly the high scoring cager of the state, contributing 13 buckets for 26 points, Mellenthin, 22 points; Vanstrom, 19; Watkins, 10; Pearcey, 7; and Williams, 1. Verdi, apparently overwhelmed by Lynd's reputation, was bewildered at first, but came back stronger in the second half.

Russell gave Minneota a tougher fight than the 27 to 15 score would seem to indicate, and the game was a cat and dog scrap all the way. Minneota men were clean off their eye on many of their tip-in shots, and their free throwing was way off kilter, making one good out of 14 fouls. Amundson turned in a whale of a game for Minneota with six spectacular field goals and some fine ball handling and floorwork. Ahern contributed nine points for Minneota.

Outstanding for Russell were Siebert with seven points and Murphy, 4. The men worked well as a unit, but they were facing in Minneota, one of the most potentially dangerous squads in the district.

The score by quarters for the Minneota-Russell game follows:

Minneota	10	14	17	27
Russell	3	8	12	15

A. Ronning was high point man for Hendricks with a total of 10 points. Singasaas closely followed him with 9. Topping the Lake Benton scorers were Reid and Thomson with 8 each. The score by quarters of the Hendricks victory over Lake Benton was as follows:

	1	2	3	4
Hendricks	9	16	21	32
Lake Benton	3	11	21	27

High point man for Tyler in her victory over Cottonwood, was Jacobsen with 13 points. M. Nielsen was second high for Tyler with 9.

Engum starred for Cottonwood in scoring with 8 points. The Lines twins of Cottonwood turned in some fine performances, particularly their floorwork, and in addition between them shot 11 points. John made 5 and Robert 6.

The score by quarters of the Tyler-Cottonwood game follows:

	1	2	3	4
Tyler	7	11	22	34
Cottonwood	9	17	24	29

Playing the best games for Verdi were Phipps with 5 points and Willert with 4. The latter lad showed plenty of fight, but he and his team could do little against the rangy, dead-eye-dicks from Lynd. The score by quarters follows:

Lynd	29	42	66	85
Verdi	0	4	8	13

District 9 Tournament Pairings

Canby, Balaton Win Their Games

Marshall Goes To District On Verdi Forfeit.

Marshall, Canby and Balaton qualified for District competition last night in the last part of sub-district play held in the gymnasium. The crowd was small because of the heavy snowstorm.

Marshall won on a forfeit from Arco.

Canby defeated Wood Lake, 20 to 15.

Balaton edged out Ivanhoe 31 to 28.

The last half of the Balaton-Ivanhoe game gave the fans a sample of some of the most thrilling cage play ever seen on the Marshall floor.

The first half was uneventful with the Braves leading, 18 to 7. In the second half, Ivanhoe led by Malcolm Faulds, a thin, short, red-headed bundle of dynamic energy, staged a comeback that netted them 10 points in the third quarter and nearly gave them the game in the final period.

The Ivanhoe midgets suddenly became a bunch of Jack the Giant Killers at the start of the half, and tore balls away from the taller Balaton Braves. Then they would work it over to Faulds who would tear down the floor to his bucket and toss the ball in or give it to Muchlinski or Schlueter to shoot.

Four minutes before the final gun Faulds heaved a nice one in to give Ivanhoe 26 points to Balaton's 25. A moment later Muchlinski swished in another to give Ivanhoe 28 to the Braves' 25. Garrels fouled Faulds and left the game on four. Faulds missed the gift.

Tate of Balaton took two on the house to make it Balaton 27, Ivanhoe 28. Wamstad put the Braves ahead 29 to 28 with a long shot. Tate sunk a beauty to give Balaton the victory 31 to 28 as the gun sounded.

This man, Faulds, of Ivanhoe, exhibited the best floorwork, ball handling, shooting, and generalship, in the sub-district as far as this reporter is concerned. His work was particularly brilliant insofar as the Balaton Braves aren't in the habit of permitting an opponent to star, as a rule, whether they win or lose.

Club To Aid High School Girls

Aims To Acquaint New Girls With School.

This is another in a series of articles from "Work and Administration of the Marshall Public Schools" annual report.

The average freshman girl entering high school is about fourteen years old. High school is an entirely new place in the period of growing up for her. Here she makes new contacts, forms new associations; here she must stand on her own feet, assert herself; here she should develop independence. All these new experiences are so bewildering. When she returns home at night after school she is brimming over with news to tell her family at the dinner table. Forfortunate indeed are the children who have this outlet at home, of receiving encouragement, praise, blame, and advice from parents and older brothers and sisters.

A large population of our school are not so fortunate. These boys and girls live at such a distance from school that it is impossible for them to commute daily.

It is with this group of girls our club is primarily concerned. Two, three, and sometimes four of these girls share a single room, in which whatever social life such small quarters and a limited allowance can provide.

The M. F. W. club was organized to provide a time, place, and opportunity for these girls to have fun and recreation, a place to make new friends and a time to help them make some of these new adjustments.

The club has regularly elected officers who carry on the business of the organization and plan its monthly program.

The meetings in the fall are chiefly concerned with getting the new girls acquainted with her school and class matter, with school customs and traditions. During the winter and spring they evolve into a dancing class, the spring formal just around the corner is the incentive which spurs the girls into perfecting themselves in this—Miss Helen M. Garvey.

Marshall Youths Hurt While Skiing

Fred Blum, Jr., Suffers Internal Injuries.

Frederick Blum, jr., 17-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blum, was seriously injured yesterday in a fall while skiing at Camden State Park.

His injuries consist of a ruptured spleen and severe internal hemorrhage. He underwent an operation yesterday in the Marshall Hospital. Dr. W. W. Yaeger is the attending physician.

Eyewitnesses said that when he fell it appeared to be an ordinary tumble that all skiers take at one time or another. However, when he remained on the ground, several went to his assistance and supported him to a car.

Although coming down the hill with speed, skiers yesterday found that the snow on the level was extremely "slow." It is believed the boy came down very fast, but when he reached the level he was slowed abruptly, and in trying to keep his balance, he wrenched himself so violently that the spleen was ruptured.

This is the first major accident that has occurred on Camden Park ski jumps.

Two other victims of skiing accidents at Camden yesterday were Robert Harmon, and Phillip Gervais.

Young Harmon sustained torn ligaments in his shoulder and ribs, and Phil Gervais suffered a sut on his head and a bruised face.

Public Asked To PTA Tuesday Night

The public is cordially invited to attend the March meeting of the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association Tuesday night in the Little Theatre.

Members of high school organizations will take charge of the meeting and they will present numbers which they have prepared for presentation at high school convocations.

The audience tomorrow night will see a one-act play and a section of a chemistry convocation program.

Mrs. Matt Ryan is chairman of the refreshment committee for the March meeting.

Band To Play At Tournament

Music Department Has Own Room This Year.

The indispensable part of a basketball tournament in addition to the players, the cheering, and the crowds, is music, and the Ninth District Sub-District Tournament here Thursday and Friday will have plenty of music and mighty good music.

The Marshall High School Band, an organization of 65 pieces, will be on hand for each program, pepping things up for everyone and making sure there is not a dull moment throughout the days of play.

A story of progress is a story of the Marshall High School Band, directed by George Wingert of the High School Music Department, who has a group of boys and girls who have shown a splendid spirit and interest. The result is a band which the entire community can be justly proud.

The organization has been increased from a rather small group to the group which now plays at all basketball games here. Their interest has increased and by extra effort they have raised money to purchase new instruments, thereby increasing the size of their band.

This year the Board of Education authorized a home for the Music Department and at present they have a room of their own with risers which makes it possible for the instructor to see every boy and girl at all times. The Music Department is proud of their new home and want to justify the interest of the Board of Education and the people of Marshall.

Basketball Is King For 3 Weeks

Expect Hundreds Of Fans At Tournament.

For the next three weeks fans will be flocking to Marshall to witness basketball games, first from towns surrounding Marshall to decide who will play in the district and then the eight best teams selected to see who fights it out for the honor of being called district's champions.

The four schools winning their districts will then represent their districts in the regional held at Marshall, March 18 and 19.

Basketball is King!

Hundreds of fans will follow their teams into Marshall to watch and cheer in victory and defeat.

Twenty-two games in seven days will give the most ardent basketball fan all he desires in the way of entertainment.

Starting with the sub-district to be held at Marshall, March 3 and 4, good games are in the offing and in addition, the games are the bargain matinee of the larger events coming up.

Tyler vs Cottonwood, Thursday at 6.30 p. m.

Lynd vs Verdi, Thursday 1:40 p. m.

Hendricks vs Lake Benton, Thursday, 8.40 p. m.

Minneota vs Russell, Thursday, at 10 p. m.

There are four games among teams which anything can happen in spite of the fact that in each case there will be a decided favorite.

Friday

Marshall vs Arco, 7.30 p. m.

Ivanhoe vs. Balaton, 8.40 p. m.

Canby vs Wood Lake, 10 p. m.

Friday night will be packed with close games as season records indicate and tournament atmosphere will prevail.

Students To See 'Tom Thumb Circus'

A miniature circus, but one which will appeal to the children and for which only a small charge will be made—10 cents for the children and 15 cents for adults.

Monday, March 14, the famous "Tom Thumb Circus" will be at the Marshall High School Auditorium, and it will get under way at 7.30 p. m., the early hour giving the children a chance to see the show without losing their beauty sleep.

There's an educated pony who can guess the age of students, tell the color of the clothes they are wearing, point out the colors of the American flag; there is "Snooks," the trained dog, who walks a tight rope and jumps from a higher ladder than any other dog in the world. There are clever monkeys always entertaining to young and old.

This is the circus which performed with Frank Buck at the Cleveland Exposition in "Bring 'Em Back Alive."

District Cage Tourney To Open Here Thursday

Second Round Games Set For Friday, Finals For Saturday—Good Games Seen.

What looks like one of the best district basketball tournaments ever held here, will get under way Thursday afternoon in the high school gymnasium.

Every game starting in the afternoon looks like a close affair. Tyler and Lynd have already split battles this year, but with Lynd in high gear again, this game should be a beauty to watch.

In the afternoon opener, Hendricks and Minneota appear about on a par. The Minneota team has come a long way, and they are going to be hard to push out. If Hendrick's Bulter is still out of the game, the nod will possibly go to Minneota, according to their showing in the sub-district.

With Marshall and Tracy playing in the evening, these games are sure to attract large crowds of fans. While Marshall and Tracy are favorites in their battles, anything can happen, as indicated in the sub-district competition.

Everything has been done to make the Ninth District classic an enjoyable tournament. The Marshall High School band will play, and there will be scoreboards, name charts and a loudspeaking system to keep the fans acquainted with the progress of the games.

Several surprises have been prepared to amuse the public, and all in the tournament promises to be full of color and excitement during each day.

Tickets may be purchased at both ends of the hall. There will be a ceeck room available, and ushers will help each customer to find a good seat.

Regional Pairings Are Announced

District 9 Winner To Face Glencoe District.

Regional basketball tournament pairings were announced today by Superintendent F. R. Adams. The regional is to be held in Marshall on March 18 and 19.

Winner of District 10 vs winner of District 11 at 7.30 p. m., Friday.

Winner of District 9 vs winner of District 12 at 8.40 Friday night.

The championship game will be played Saturday night here at 7.30.

Here is the dope on the regional tournament, such as it is, and dope being what it is:

District 9—Who knows?

District 10—New Ulm, Gaylord, and Morton are all strong, with New Ulm granted a slight edge.

District 11—It may be Appleton and it may be Dawson.

Students Present Program For PTA

Give Play And Chemistry Demonstration.

The March meeting of the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association met last night in the Little Theatre with a good crowd present.

Two student groups furnished an interesting entertainment for the audience, as follows:

The Drama Club, directed by Miss Grace Dahle, presented a clever playlet, with a cast of members including Adene Fitts, Edith Struthers, George Davis, James McGuire, Ursella Waldorf.

Cecil Smith's classes in chemistry presented a series of demonstrations and experiments designed to show the public certain branches of the science of interest to everyone.

Merrill Keith and Duane Shippee performed experiments with spontaneous combustion, ammonia fountain, and they demonstrated the "magic pitcher."

Charles White delivered a brief discussion on the properties of potassium and sodium, and supplemented it with experiments.

Richard Stevens discussed phosphorus and the Thermite process of welding. He also demonstrated flares with the use of various salts, and "barking dogs."

LeRoy Shellum discussed and demonstrated the making of solidified alcohol, or canned heat, and the preparing of acetylene gas.

The audience reacted with interest and enthusiasm to these instructive experiments, which program, along with the Drama Clubs' production are programs prepared by students for presentation before convocations of the student body.

President C. O. Fitts opened the meeting, and the minutes were read by Mrs. Roy Castle. Mrs. Matt Ryan was chairman of the refreshments committee.

Hendricks And Lynd Take Canby Team Faces Marshall Tonight Opening Games In District 9 Cage Tourney

Tracy Plays Balaton To

AFTERNOON SCORES

Hendricks 21, Minneota 19.
Lynd 37, Tyler 36

Holding the limelight tonight in the first round play of the District 9 tournament will be the Marshall-Canby game at 7.30 p. m., and the Tracy-Balaton scrap at 8.40.

Semi-final games will get underway Friday night at 7.30 with Hendricks who defeated Minneota this afternoon, playing the winner of the Canby-Marshall game tonight.

The second game Friday evening will be Lynd who defeated Tyler this afternoon, versus the winner of the Balaton-Tracy game.

The consolation rounds will consist of two games Saturday morning at 9.30 and at 10.40. The consolation championship battle is set for 6.40 Saturday night.

The game to decide third and fourth places will be held after the consolation Saturday night.

The championship game will be the last battle of the evening Saturday.

The cups and trophies of both the district and regional tournament are now displayed in the window of Olson and Lowe.

District tournament officials are: Superintendents F. R. Adams, Marshall; Theodore Hinderaker, Hendricks; M. T. Peterson, Wood Lake. These men form the district committee and Mr. Adams is the tournament manager.

Merrill W. Olson, tickets and floor manager; J. R. Nichols and Mally Nydahl, Minneapolis, officials; John Fuhlbruegge, score keeper; Ceest Smith, timekeeper.

The Marshall High School Band, under the direction of George Wingert, is playing during the tournament.

The Region 3 tournament will be held on the Marshall gymnasium floor March 18 and 19.

Tourney Flashes

The Rev. Father Dennis Noonan of the Church of the Holy Redeemer likes his sports, and he never misses a chance to watch the boys. Yesterday he sat on an aisle seat 10 rows up on the center line.

Another member of the clergy who used to like his basketball was the Rev. Sandager, former pastor of the First English Lutheran Church. A giant of a man, he threw the shot, javelin, and discus at Old Heidelberg in Germany while he was studying there for a theological degree.

The cocensus was that the Hendricks - Minneota and Lynd - Tyler games yesterday afternoon were as an interesting pair of cage battles seen here in many a day. The crowd was unusually large for an afternoon of the first day of a district tournament.

The Marshall High School Band, with Shirley Silver as drum major, performed a brief marching interlude on the floor before the games last night, then played the national anthem.

Official J. R. Nichols of Minneapolis, with a record of having officiated at nine district or regional tournaments here, is getting to be a familiar figure to the cash customers. They are glad to see that his taste in officiating shirts is becoming more conservative as the years roll by.

This tournament he is wearing a quiet green. Two years ago he appeared on the floor with a black and white striped garment which awed the audience into a reverent silence. His later alibi was that it was the "official" official shirt prescribed by the state organization.

Mally Nydahl, the other referee, was a fraternity brother and football teammate of Marshall's Mitchell Gary. He took letters in three sports at the University. His touchdown from a kickoff run that won the game against Wisconsin in 1926 is still talked about when gridiron maniacs gather together. This account of it is found in "The History of Football At Minnesota".

Semi-Finals Tonight To Draw Big Marshall Plays Hendricks Team Crowd

in Second Game.

The District 9 basketball tournament goes into second round play tonight with Marshall meeting Hendricks at 7.30, and Tracy engaging Lynd at 8.40.

Everybody is talking dope, but few seem to agree on choices, which is just another proof that this is anybody's tournament and anything can happen.

The Minneapolis Journal has gone on record as predicting Tracy will achieve the championship.

Here is one man's guess (but not the Messenger's) Hendricks will take Marshall. Lynd will take Tracy. Hendricks will beat Lynd in the championship game. He admitted that his line of reasoning was thus, that Hendricks is due for a break, and this will be it; which is about as logical as any sport guessing.

Large crowds are expected both for tonight's battles and for Saturday night, so cage fans are advised to keep on their toes and get in early enough for the best seats.

The championship will be fought off Saturday night at 9 p. m.

Prior to that, losers of tonight's battles will play to determine third and fourth places.

Canby and Minneota as losers of games 1 and 2 will play tomorrow morning at 9.30.

Balaton and Tyler as losers of games 3 and 4 will engage at 10.40 Saturday morning.

Winners of these two games will play for the consolation at 6.40 tomorrow evening.

Marshall Wins Over Canby Five

Takes First Round
Game 22 To 14.

The Marshall 22 to 14 defeat of Canby last night in the first round play of the District 9 tournament was a drab, lifeless game enlivened only by some slick floorwork by Gervais of Marshall, and the antics of Sammy McGorman of Canby.

MacGorman is a real showman who believes in action when he gets on the basketball floor. Tall, heavy, and fairly fast, he led each Canby play, and last night he tried to be in several places at the same time. He climaxed a personally successful evening with a basket over his head that put the galleries in an uproar.

MacGorman accounted for three points as did his mate, Pries, while Billington and Ochs settled for 4 points apiece.

Gervais was high point man for Marshall and the game with three buckets and two on the house. Chollic Healy came through with six points, and Dick Ullery with five. Dick took a bad tumble in the last quarter when he jumped for a ball and lit on the back of his head. Coach Cole took him from the game, but it was reported that Dick snapped out of it after he took his shower.

Marshall didn't look very good last night, but there is just a slight suspicion that they didn't want to look too good in front of possible championship opponents.

The score by quarters follows:

	1	2	3	4
Marshall	10	18	27	37
Canby	8	21	30	36

Lynd-Tyler Tilt Is Whirlwind

Winner Goes To Second Round By Single Point.

In a whirlwind battle that kept the stands in an uproar during the entire game, the Lynd cagers edged out Tyler 37 to 36 yesterday afternoon in the first round of the District 9 tournament. Lynd will play the winner of the Tracy-Balaton game tonight at 8.40.

Seconds remained to play. Tyler led Lynd 36 to 35. A Tyler man fouled Lynd's McChesney. McChesney dropped in both gifts. The gun sounded before the last ball hit the floor.

The score by quarters indicates the closeness of the scrap, with Lynd taking the first and fourth, and Tyler the second and third quarters:

Lynd	10	18	27	37
Tyler	8	21	30	36

The outstanding man on the floor was M. Nielsen, both for his devastating one-armed, looping buckets, his gift shot eye, his ball handling, his speedy floor work and his general all-around headsup basketball. He gained 16 points for his mates with five baskets and six free throws.

Ballard accounted for 7 points and Jacobson, 9. The trio were well-supported by their mates Larsen, E. Sorenson, C. Nielsen, A. Sorenson and Peterson.

McChesney, the Lynd crackerjack, garnered 12 points including his two game-winning shots under tremendous pressure. Mellenthin followed him closely with 10 points, and Watkins contributed 7 points. Vanstrom played a whale of floor game and assisted in numerous setups under the nets. J. Sharratt made 4 points, and Williams 2.

Hendricks Noses Out Minneota

Victor By Margin Of One Basket.

Hendricks opened the District 9 tournament yesterday afternoon by defeating Minneota 21 to 19 in the first round play.

Like the Lynd-Tyler game, it was a thrilling fight all the way with never more than three points dividing the squads.

Buller of Hendricks and Amundson of Minneota both played bangup games, the former contributing 9 points and Amundson 8.

Minneota took the offensive from the opening whistle and spent most of their time under the Hendricks bucket. Their tip in shots weren't working, however, and near the end of the half Hendricks perked up and led Minneota by 1 point, 9 to 8.

The score by quarters:

Hendricks	4	9	16	21
Minneota	6	8	14	19

As this chart indicates, the battle was nip and tuck all the way. Hendricks was leading 9 to 8 when the third quarter started. Buller of Hendricks shot one bucket and then another for four points, then a gift. Shortly afterwards, Johnson of Minneota sunk a beauty. The Score: Hendricks 14, Minneota 10.

Christianson and Hanson of Minneota each made a gift. A. Ronning shot a basket. Ahern of Minneota shot one, and the score was Hendricks 16, Minneota 14 at the end of the third quarter.

Fourth quarter. Singnaas swished a bucket for Hendricks. A. Ronning followed with a free throw. Ahern of Minneota followed with a long bucket that tied the score 19 all.

E. Digre zipped in an angle shot, and the game ended shortly thereafter, Hendricks 21, Minneota 19.

Tracy Too Much For Balaton

Doubles Up Score In First Round Play.

The Tracy Scrappers defeated the Balaton Braves 35 to 17 last night in first round play of the District 9 tournament.

The game was uneventful for the most part except late in the third quarter when big Seval Olson, the Balaton spearhead, standing near the center line, shot two long loopers in the basket, one about a minute after the other. On another occasion he pounded his way the entire length of the floor through the entire Tracy team to score on a tip in.

Tracy revealed themselves as an exceedingly dangerous quintet. In Welch and Catlin they have two smart and accurate shooters. Peterson, with his speed and fine ball handling, is a threat every time he gets hold of the ball. Starr is fast and sure also, and besides he has a good eye for the basket. Stone, Pinckney and Langpap supplement the speed, ball handling, guarding and shooting of their mates in a capable manner.

All in all the Scrappers are a rugged, rangy and tricky squad. They take most of the balls off the jumps and bangboards, and they have a good percentage in gift shooting.

With a perfect record of the season behind them, they put on an exhibition of basketball last night against a stubborn Balaton team, which decisively spikes the rumor that they have gone stale. If the Scrappers have gone stale, a lot of district coaches wish they knew the recipe for putting their squads in that condition.

Stop The Booming, Asks Adams

Superintendent F. R. Adams of Marshall this morning issued the following statement:

"The sportsmanship in District Nine tournaments has been of high type for a good many years. People who have visited tournaments all over the state have repeatedly reported that this was one district where there was no booming. The players have always shown the highest type of sportsmanship and it seems that the fans should show them the courtesy of cooperating.

"The officials hired are always men with years of successful experience in refereeing and they certainly know the rules better than any fan. The officials are closer to the players and are in a better position to determine whether a foul has been committed than any spectator could possibly be.

"Officials are only human and the best of them are bound to make errors in judgment under the pressure of the game. Just common courtesy should realize this fact.

"Whether rightfully or not, Marshall fans are getting the blame for a large amount of booming. As hosts Marshall should set the pace in a high type of sportsmanship. The rules give the officials the right to call a foul on the crowd if decisions are questioned. If poor sportsmanship continues, this will undoubtedly be done. If you truly want to back your favorite team do not do anything to lessen their chances.

"There is some sentiment throughout the state to do away with all tournaments. The attitude that fans have towards these games will to a large extent determine whether it is desirable to continue them.

"Let's show our guests that we are good sportsmen!"

Hasbrouck Gussed Lynd And Hendricks

Marshall Man Prognosticated Both Sensational Upsets.

Because many persons have asked what Marshall man was quoted yesterday in the Daily Messenger as predicting Hendricks would beat Marshall and Lynd would defeat Tracy, his name is here given—Bert Hasbrouck, chef at the Marshall Cafe.

The Messenger reporter returning to the office from lunch yesterday about 1.30 met Mr. Hasbrouck in front of Roy Edwards' oil station.

Hasbrouck: Who's going to take the tournament?

Reporter: How the heck should I know Bert? Am I a magician?

Hasbrouck: With that beard you look like a minor prophet. And since you won't talk, I'll tell you who will: Hendricks will take Marshall, and Lynd will take Tracy.

Reporter: How did you arrive at those profound conclusions Bert?

Hasbrouck: Well, Hendricks has what I think is a tournament team, and since they haven't had a break yet this season, I really think they are due for some in the tournament.

Reporter: How about Lynd?

Hasbrouck: Any team that can run up 85 points like Lynd did against Verdi and a team that has shooters like McChesney, Vanstrom and Mel-lenthin, really had something on the ball. All Lynd needs is that psychological push and they can take anything in the district except Hendricks. Hendricks will take the tournament.

Incidentally it just occurred to this reporter that shortly after the sub-district last week, Harry Kragness night chef at the Marshall Cafe, made exactly the same prediction, although he was less confident that Hendricks would take the tournament.

Lue Robinson also made the prediction but this was after Hasbrouck had. The honors are therefore divided thusly: Bert Hasbrouck, champion; Harry Kragness, runnerup; Lue Robinson, consolation.

Tourney Flashes

District tournament fans never got more for their money than they did last night—two thrilling upsets.

The Marshall-Hendricks game furnished plenty of excitement with its close score and overtime, but the Lynd-Tracy clash was the smash-hit of the evening.

Lynd was a championship team last night in no unmistakable terms. It had to be to defeat a team that hadn't lost a game all season.

The wear on the bleacher seats was practically nil last night as the crowd was on its feet most of the time.

Voices this morning were so husky from yelling that strangers in town thought there was an influenza or tonsillitis epidemic.

There were three good bets yesterday—Marshall to defeat Hendricks, Tracy to take Lynd, and Tommy Farr to whip Max Baer. At 10 o'clock last night, they were the poorest bets in the land.

It looked bad for Lynd when Vanstrom went out on personals just after the fourth quarter opened, but the Lynd lads never lost their stride.

Marshall also had a champion last night, a champion prognosticator. The dope in yesterday's Messenger, given without mention of names, that Hendricks and Lynd would win, was issued by Bert Hasbrouck. Bert's divining rod is so good we'll wager he can tell right now how the next war is going to come out.

The Marshall High School Band went through some entertaining maneuvers during the evening, among other things forming an "M" and an "H" between halves of the first game.

Hand it to Shirley Silver for getting those 65 musicians on and off the floor without snarling them into a single knot.

We suspect the booming is coming largely from the adult fans—it's poor sportsmanship, and doesn't do any good.

The tournament management deserves a good deal of praise for the fine way the tourney is handled. Down to the last detail the crowd is given every consideration.

The First game tonight begins at 6.30, and it's no fair standing in line for seats before at least 4.15!

Hendricks Beats Tigers In Overtime

Buller Sinks Shots That Bring Victory.

The Marshall Tigers went down to defeat in the hands of Hendricks last night by a score of 17 to 13.

Hendricks victory came at the end of an overtime period, when Buller, fouled by a Tiger under the hoops, sank both gift shots.

Under tournament rules the first team to acquire two additional points is declared the victor whether the overtime period is up or not. Buller won his team the victory at the end of two minutes.

Buller won the game for Hendricks with 12 points—three buckets and six free throws.

The score by quarters:

	1	2	3	4	5
Hendricks	4	8	12	15	17
Marshall	1	6	13	15	15

This thrilling game, like the Lynd victory over the Tracy Scrappers, was a stunning upset. Generally, it was believed that Marshall would defeat Hendricks, and Tracy would take Lynd—such is basketball.

Marshall sustained a bad break shortly before the second half ended when Gervais, one of the best shots and floormen among the Tigers went out of the game on four fouls. Assigned to guard the brilliant Buller, Gervais suffered the usual penalties inflicted on anyone carrying out this difficult task.

Buller has a highly developed gift of swiftly rushing down the floor with the ball and sidling away from those sent to guard him. In addition to that he has a deadly eye for the basket.

Along with McChesney and Vanstrom of Lynd, he is among the most skillful players in District 9. Some say he is the superior of all, in all departments save long-range shooting.

Like all championship material, Buller plays his heart out despite any handicap or pressure. In Buller's case the pressure is a serious personal one—the severe illness of his father.

Richard Ullery played a fine game for Marshall and turned in two baskets and three free throws for 7 points. Chollie Healy accounted for 4 points, Gervais for 2, and Don Ullery for 2.

The Tigers, while revealing some fine setups to bring the ball into the basket area, seemed greatly off with their shooting eyes. On a number of occasions, a Tiger would tip the ball in only to have it touch the rim and become a free ball.

E. Digre contributed 2 points for Hendricks, Singaas, 2, and H. Digre, 1.

Hendricks will face Lynd for the championship of District 9 tonight at 9 o'clock.

Tracy Scrappers Face Marshall

Tyler Meets Minneota In Consolation Tonight.

Details of games appear on sports page.

It's Lynd against Hendricks tonight for the basketball championship of District No. 9, with a packed house and a great ballgame a certainty.

Lynd and Hendricks went into the finals by virtue of sensational upset victories last night over Tracy and Marshall.

Three games are on the program tonight, the consolation final, the game for third and fourth place, and the championship.

Tyler meets Minneota in the opening game, beginning at 6.40 o'clock.

Tracy and Marshall will battle it out for third and fourth positions in the second game, starting at 8.50.

The championship clash between Hendricks and Lynd will go on at 9 o'clock.

Following the championship game, trophies will be awarded and the all-district team announced.

Hendricks fought its way to the finals last night by taking a nip and tuck battle from Marshall 17 to 15, in a game that necessitated an overtime period.

Lynd took out Tracy, previously undefeated this season and strongly favored for the title, to the tune of 30 to 27, in a thrilling game that had the fans on their feet most of the time. Lynd showed tremendous drive and speed, along with good headwork, to take a lead early in the first period and maintain it throughout.

Tonight it will be the fast-breaking attack of Lynd's eagle-eyed basket shooters against the power of Hendricks' tightly-knit defense.

Tracy and Marshall will also both be giving their all tonight in a smashing effort to redeem themselves for their losses of last night.

In the first round of the consolation games held this morning, Tyler swamped the Balaton Braves 44 to 27, and Minneota defeated Canby 19 to 12. Tyler will therefore play Minneota tonight starting at 6.40.

The consolation winners are also well matched—which insures a large crowd.

Lynd And Hendricks Score

Lynd Trounces Scrapper Team

Plays Great Ball To Dethrone Champions.

Lynd will be a deserted village to night.

The town will be dark because all residents from toddlers to grandads and grandmas will be in Marshall to see their boys play Hendricks for the basketball championship of District 9.

In the biggest upset in Minnesota district play last night, the Lynd boys showed some magnificent basketball to defeat the Tracy Scappers, 30 to 27.

Entering the game as underdogs, the Lynd cagers took an early lead after the first few minutes of play, and maintained it throughout the entire game, as indicated by the following score by quarters:

Lynd	8	17	26	30
Tracy	6	11	21	27

From the start, Lynd found they could do little against the skintight guarding of the Scappers near the basket, so they fed to Vanstrom well near the center line and a little to one side, and he plunked them in from far away. He accounted for five of his six field goals by this remote shooting.

Then when Tracy smothered him with guards, the ball would go to "Windy" McChesney, who, by his own peculiar methods would manage to plunk one in at intervals himself near and far from any angle.

Vanstrom contributed six field goals and two gifts before he went out of the game early in the final quarter. His playing was inspired and brilliant and he more than fulfilled each of his assignments.

Tracy, meanwhile, was living up to its name of "Scappers," playing hard and fast, and waiting for breaks and trying to make them. With the exit of Vanstrom, it looked like the turning point in the game had arrived. But Lynd showed they had the stuff that champions are made of.

Williams came in for Vanstrom, and playing under that great pressure, he showed he was a worthy substitute. He did a great job of guarding, and besides sank a long field goal. Mellenthin and Watkins also accounted for one basket each.

Upset Wins

McChesney again proved by his generalship, floorwork, guarding and shooting, that he is one of the top players in the district. He contributed four buckets and two free throws for 10 points.

Mellenthin played a fine game for Lynd, and particularly so in the final quarter when he was responsible for slapping balls from the hands of Tracy players time after time. Watkins and Sharratt supplemented the efforts of their mates in great shape.

Lynd held the sharpshooting Cat-in of Tracy down to two field goals and three gifts. They effectively held the dangerous Welch down to no buckets at all. But in concentrating on these two and on Starr, they failed to stop the swift and stocky Peterson. Early in the game he sought to shoot from a distance, and that he succeeded is shown by his record of five baskets. Three free throws gave him 13 points—high man for the Scappers and second high man for the game.

In a nutshell, Lynd won because they went tenaciously for the ball at every opportunity, because they took advantage of every little break, and because in Vanstrom and McChesney they went tenaciously for the ball at basket shooters in the district.

Incidentally, their masterly stalling at intervals in the final quarter was also an important factor in their victory.

Lynd Wins Title Before Record

Takes Hendricks Team 36 To 27

McChesney And Vanstrom Lead Attack.

Led by McChesney and Vanstrom, their all-district flashes, the Lynd basketball team achieved the championship of District 9 Saturday night by their decisive 36 to 27 victory over Hendricks.

Immensely improved in confidence and poise after their upset of the Tracy Scappers, the Lynd squad looked more than ever like champions in their work against the always-dangerous Hendricks quintet.

Lynd took the lead early in the championship battle and maintained it throughout the four quarters as follows:

Lynd	7	24	31	36
Hendricks	5	12	19	27

Vanstrom had his day against the Tracy Scappers with 14 points. McChesney had his against Hendricks with 17. These twin artists of net swishing are remarkable shots. They have to be to make so many points against such great defensive squads as Tracy and Hendricks.

Always dangerous from any angle on the floor, near or far, they are both the shock troops and the generals of the Lynd squad. And after all is said and done a team must have baskets to win a game. McChesney and Vanstrom are the lads to do it if it is at all possible. They will be well-aided by Mellenthin, Williams, Watkins, Sharratt, Kindler and Pearcy.

What can Lynd do with Lester Prairie, champions of District 12, against whom they are paired in first round play here Friday night? The dope is meager. Lester Prairie defeated Olivia for the championship. In season play they have beaten Glencoe and Hutchinson.

Buller of Hendricks, again proved himself to be one of the top players in the district. In the championship game Saturday night against Lynd he garnered 12 points under difficulties. He and his mate, Buseth, were honored after the game by being named to the all-district team. E. Digree contributed seven points for Hendricks, Buseth three, and Sing-saas five.

Crowd

Players from at least three different teams competing in the District 9, have stated that the Hendricks team is composed of the finest bunch of sportsmen they know. Always clean playing and fair, even under the hottest competition, they are well-liked by both fans and competitors. This in itself is a great and individual honor.

Tigers Flash To Win Over Tracy

Play Great Ball In 37 To 14 Victory.

Playing brilliant basketball, the Marshall Tigers won third place in the District 9 tournament by defeating the Tracy Scappers, 37 to 14.

The Tigers played as they never had before during the season. Snapping out of the stunning upset handed them Friday night by Hendricks in the semi-finals, the Tigers used a series of complicated plays, timed so effectively and clicking with so much precision that by half-time they were leading the surprised Scappers by a score of 21 to 5.

The Scappers weren't the only ones to be surprised by the Tigers' devastating attack. Most of the fans were also, for it was believed that Tracy would give Marshall the worst drubbing of the season. But this prediction was reversed, as the Tigers started the game with an inspired attack which kept the Scappers on the defensive most of the battle.

The game was Weidauer's night to howl. Once or twice in a blue moon, this game little fighter gets hot in his shooting and he rarely missed after a setup. He was hot once before, in the Cottonwood game, and he was hot against Tracy, making five field goals and four gifts for 14 points—high man for the game.

Chollie Healy, by his wise and steady generalship and polished ball handling, indicated in this game that he reserved the all-district rating he received after the tournament.

Dick Ullery, Marshall's other all-district man played his usual smart game and a lot more. He shot three baskets and four on the house for 10 points.

Cott

Cont March 14/1938

Don Healy turned in the best game of his career at Marshall, contributing seven points towards Tracy's defeat.

Gervais, Don Ullery, Howard Gag and Mercer all played fine games during their service in the battle.

The score by quarters:

Marshall	8	21	28	37
Tracy	3	5	10	14

It was a heart breaking defeat for the Tracy Scrappers. Coming to the District 9 tournament with an undefeated record, including a win over the Carleton College freshman squad, they first bowed to the Lynd cagers in the semi-finals, and then were placed in fourth place position by the Marshall Tigers, their traditional rivals whom they had twice defeated during the season.

Observers do not think that the Scrappers lost to Marshall because they suffered a letdown after the Lynd upset; it was rather that Marshall, also upset by Hendricks, played the best basketball they have played all year.

Tracy fought all the way during the game and never once let up, but in the Tigers they were against a team that was turning out the best brand of basketball they had played all season.

Peterson, later named on the all-district, contributed five points, Catlin, four, Welch, three, and Langpap, two.

8 Men Named On All-District

Nearly 1,900 See Saturday Night Games.

Lynd High Schools basketball team Saturday night won the District 9 championship before the largest tournament crowd in Marshall's history.

The score in the final game was Lynd 36, Hendricks 27.

Long before the championship game started, ticket sellers were announcing standing room only. Between 1,800 and 1,900 persons saw the game. Approximately 200 more were unable to gain admittance to the gym, the line having been drawn at a point that would insure safety for those inside.

Just previous to awarding the tournament trophies at the close of the final game, Superintendent F. R. Adams, who made the presentation, said that it was the largest tournament in Marshall's history from the standpoint of both attendance and receipts.

To Lynd, which played its way to the title by successive victories over Tyler, Tracy, and Hendricks, went the district championship trophy.

To Hendricks, defeated by Lynd in the final, went the runnerup trophy.

The Marshall and Tracy teams, which placed third and fourth in the tournament were presented with basketballs used during the tourney.

To Tyler, which took the consolation title from among the four teams that lost in the first round, went the consolation trophy.

The last event on the tournament program was the announcement by Superintendent Adams of the all-district team chosen by the tournament officials.

Eight men were picked, as follows:

- W. McChesney, Lynd, forward.
- Richard Ullery, Marshall, forward.
- C. Peterson, Tracy, forward.
- Lyle Buller, Hendricks, center.
- Charles Healy, Marshall, center.
- F. Vanstrom, Lynd, guard.
- M. Nielsen, Tyler, guard.
- Archie Buseth, Hendricks, guard.

Lynd is a popular champion with the fans and will have the staunch back of District 9 in the Region 2 tournament which is to be played on the Marshall floor Friday and Saturday of this week. It is paired with

Tyler Team Wins Consolation Title

Defeats Minneota 44 To 32.

Tyler defeated Minneota Saturday night, 44 to 32 to win the consolation title of District 9.

Previously, the Tyler quintet had won from Balaton in the first round of the consolation series.

Jacobsen and M. Nielsen starred for Tyler with 16 points each. Larsen contributed eight, Ballard four, and E. Sorensen 2.

Tyler	13	26	31	44
Minneota	7	15	25	32

Amunson as usual played a whirlwind game for Minneota, but Tyler managed to keep him from shooting and he contributed but one free throw. Conger came through with 10 points, Haugejorde with eight, Johnson with eight, Thorseyinson four, Ahern three, and Hanson two. Christianson turned in a nice game.

Tourney Flashes

Lynd is champion, and a worthy one. They'll have plenty of support from fans throughout this territory in their try for the regional title.

And in case any team should beat Lynd, it will know it's been in a basketball game, because it will take some great basketball to beat them.

Those Lynd boys are eagle eyes on the basket and in addition have the necessary drive and endurance that it takes for championship tournament play.

The crowd Saturday night was the largest in Marshall's history, which ought to keep Marshall tops in the whole state again for successful tournaments.

Tension wasn't as tight Saturday evening as Friday, the crowd seeming to have its mind fairly made up on the outcome. But Marshall's victory over Tracy was a startler.

The Tigers were a real team Saturday night, too. They also had to be good, to so soundly whip a team that walloped them twice during the season.

Lynd School Is Small, But Team Packs Power

One Of Two Smallest Towns In State To Compete In Regionals—Has Scored 1,006 Points.

The Lynd basketball team, champions of District 9, and contenders for the Region 3 tournament in Marshall this Friday and Saturday, is one of the two smallest communities in the state represented in regional tournaments this weekend. The other is Middle River in northern Minnesota.

Lynd has a population of 202, with a total four-year high school enrollment of 58, of whom 25 are boys. The boys on the team have learned most of their basketball in their own backyards.

But they've really learned basketball, as their record this season plainly shows. Lynd has won 20 games, lost only 2, and has piled up a total pointage of 1,006 to their opponents' 485.

In the regional first round Friday night, Lynd is paired with Lester Prairie, while in the other bracket New Ulm plays Appleton.

McChesney and Vanstrom have been outstanding in Lynd's scoring. McChesney piling up 321 points and Vanstrom 200 in 18 games. Another dangerous shooter is Watkins, who counted 132 points in 18 games. Counting the district tournament, McChesney's total is now 385.

In addition to taking the district championship, Lynd also won the "Little Six" Conference title, a loop made up of Tyler, Hendricks, Minnesota, Ivanhoe, Balaton, and Lynd.

Coaching the Lynd team is Superintendent C. A. Bisel, of St. Cloud Teachers College and the University of Minnesota. The assistant coach is D. Mellem, and the student manager is E. Becker.

Dopesters Busy Again On Region

Their Pick Will Win, They Hope.

Except for one instance, comparative dope on Lynd, Lester Prairie, New Ulm and Appleton is non-existent.

That single instance relates to New Ulm and Lynd, and is so remote that it is small value in attempting a prediction. Here it is:

Tracy defeated Lamberton badly, something like 56 to 14. New Ulm defeated Lamberton by only four or five points. Lynd defeated Tracy 30 to 27; so as Roundy the Wisconsin sportswriter would say, you can write your own ticket.

Like the District 9 tournament, the Region 3 affair here Friday and Saturday will probably be anybody's fracas. One thing is certain, and that is the fans will see some very fast and exciting cage play. Gareth Heibert, sportswriter for the New Ulm Daily Journal sees New Ulm and Lynd favored to win the first round of Region 3 over Appleton and Lester Prairie.

Bert Hasbrouck, Marshall's champion pronosticator who predicted the Tracy and Marshall upsets in the District 9 tournament, called the Region 3 competition as follows:

New Ulm will take Appleton, and Lester Prairie will take Lynd in the first round.

The Daily Messenger guesser has been put on the spot and told to quit passing the buck regarding predictions, so he guesses thusly for first round play:

Not knowing anything substantial about either New Ulm or Appleton, he doesn't commit himself; as for the Lynd-Lester Prairie game, he is, as always, trailing along with Lynd.

Lue Robinson is picking New Ulm Over Appleton and Lynd over Lester Prairie.

Four Crack Teams Ready For Season Records Closely Matched

First Round Of Regional Friday Night

Appleton And New Ulm Open Tournament.

Four district champions tomorrow will take to the Marshall gymnasium floor to follow the hard and difficult path that leads to the regional championship and the right to represent Region 3 in the state tournament.

All four teams — Lynd, Lester Prairie, New Ulm, and Appleton — are primed for the event and will play their hardest and best for the honors at stake.

First round games will be played Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. The championship game and consolation will take place Saturday night.

The tournament committee and local schools have again made arrangements to handle in the best way possible the biggest crowd that the gym will hold, and capacity attendance is expected both nights.

A few facts on each of the four regional contestants playing here Friday and Saturday follows:

Lester Prairie, Coach, Roy Foster, this is their first championship in the 12th District. During the season they won 13 and lost two, being defeated by Hutchinson and Norwood-Young America; in the district meet, Lester Prairie defeated Hutchinson 23-21 in an overtime period; they defeated Glencoe 25-24 in two overtime periods; they defeated Glencoe three times during the season; they have also defeated Brownton and Olivia.

Lynd, who plays Lester Prairie during the first round of the Region 3 tournament here Friday night, is coached by C. A. Bisel; the season record including the tournament includes 20 victories and two defeats; total points, 1,006, opponents 485; McChesney 321 in 18 games; Vanstrom, 200 in 18 games; Watkins 132 in 18 games; Both Vanstrom and McChesney have been all-district men for the past two seasons; won "Little Six" conference made up of Tyler, Hendricks, Minnesota, Ivanhoe, Balaton and Lynd; defeated Tracy and Hendricks in the District 9 tournament.

New Ulm, who plays Appleton in the first round of the Region 3 tournament here tomorrow night, is coached by Joseph Harmon; New Ulm made the state tournament last year, defeating Triumph-Monterey in the first round, but lost in the state semi-finals to Edison of Minneapolis, who won the state event; New Ulm has three of its 1937 team playing this year; New Ulm has lost three times this season; New Ulm copped the District 10 championship from Gaylord in the finals by a score of 22 to 15; veterans who gained state tournament experience last year are Richard Eichten, Bradley Kusske, and Richard Spelbrink.

Appleton, coached by Richard Windemuth, will play New Ulm in the first round of Region 3 tournament here Friday night. This team had won the West Central High School Conference and the District 11 championship; big and rugged, Appleton is paced by their three West Central conference stars, Moro-zek, Veum, and Werring; Appleton has won eight straight conference games this season, including victories over Dawson, Montevideo and Clarkfield.

Lynd has lost two games, New Ulm three, Appleton two, and Lester Prairie two.

Capacity Crowd Seen For Regional Tourney

Teams Here, Fans Arriving—Gym Doors Open At 6.45, First Game At 8.

Marshall tonight is again the mecca for hundreds of cage fans from throughout this territory as the Region 3 tournament opens in the high school gymnasium.

Last week eight district teams were here to compete for the district title.

Tonight four district champions, the four best teams among 64 schools, are here to play for the regional championship and the right to represent this section of Minnesota in the state tournament next week.

First round games tonight will see New Ulm of District 10 pitted against Appleton of District 11, and Lynd of District 9 meeting Lester Prairie of District 12.

All four teams are strong, have approximately the same season record behind them, with the result that the tournament opens with no outstanding favorite. Fans generally expect hard, exciting games.

The championship game between tonight's winners will be played Saturday night, with the consolation between the two losers of tonight's games preceding it. Award of trophies will follow the title game.

With an impressive victory record behind it and a total of over 1,000 points scored, Lynd is the District 9 entry in the Region 3 tournament opening at the Marshall High School gymnasium tonight. Left to right, first row, are J. Sharratt, W. McChesney, R. Watkins, A. Mellenthin, and F. Vanstrom. Back row, left to right, Coach C. A. Bisel, R. Pearcy, H. Kindler, G. Williams, and Assistant Coach D. Mellem. In the front is E. Becker, student manager.

cont All arrangements have been made by tournament managers to handle capacity crowds as efficiently and effectively as possible. The Marshall High School Band will entertain both evenings. Ushers will find seats for as many fans as possible. Wrap checking facilities will be available, and it is suggested that use of these will enable closer seating and permit more people to see the games.

The first game each night will begin at 8 p. m., with doors to the gymnasium opening at 6.45 p. m. Once a capacity crowd is inside, no more will be permitted to enter because of safety regulations. Those who leave the building during or between games will not be readmitted even though they have door checks, providing the crowd is of capacity size, which is approximately 1,900.

The four competing teams arrived in town this morning, while the influx of fans was underway this afternoon. New Ulm expected to send 200 supporters here for tonight, and similar large followings were arriving from the other three towns.

Tonight's meeting here is one of four regional tournaments in the state at which champions will be decided this evening. Four regional champions were named last night. The eight teams play for the state title next weekend in Minneapolis.

Last night's gathering was a colorful one, with scores of fans from each town represented in the play. Appleton's delegation was accompanied by a band, and Lynd, Lester Prairie and New Ulm also had large-sized groups of supporters.

The Marshall High School 65-piece band opened the program with the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner," and also entertained between the halves.

Tight Battle Is Expected Tonight

Capacity Crowd In Sight For Championship Game.

The winner of the Region 3 championship battle tonight between Lynd and Appleton will play Minneapolis North, Region 5 champion, next weekend in the first round of the Minnesota state basketball tournament.

Lynd and Appleton will play for the basketball championship of Region 3 here tonight and the right to represent this region in the state tournament next week.

Appleton last night went through to the finals by turning back the favored New Ulm quint 31 to 24, while Lynd advanced to title play with a 34 to 31 victory over Lester Prairie.

Tonight's program will open with a consolation game between New Ulm and Lester Prairie, slated to get under way at 8 o'clock. The championship game is set for 9.10 o'clock.

With the elimination of Lester Prairie and Middle River, in northern Minnesota, Lynd is the smallest school in the state remaining in regional tourney play. It has an enrollment of 25 boys.

The crowd at last night's first round entertainment jammed the gymnasium to the rafters and was unofficially estimated at more than 2,000. Doors opened at 6.45 p. m., and within half an hour the ticket sellers were calling "standing room only."

Another capacity crowd is expected for the championship program tonight. Doors to the gym open at the same hour as last night.

While there was a great variety of comment as to the possible outcome of tonight's title affray between Lynd and Appleton, opinion was pretty general that either team may go through to victory. It will be Lynd's fast break, ball tenacity, and sharpshooting basket eyes against Appleton's systematic offense, tight defense, and expert side shooting.

March 19, 1934

Lynd And Appleton Win Way To Finals

Appleton Turns Back New Ulm

Morozek High Man In 31 To 24 Victory.

Appleton earned its right to compete in the Region 3 championship flight tonight by virtue of defeating New Ulm 31 to 24 last night in first round play.

A sluggish first half showed Appleton slightly ahead, 13 to 11, when the gun sounded. Coming out in the third quarter, the victors, led by Veum, Morozek, and Twitchell, began a steady drive for baskets which placed them in the lead, 25 to 17, as the third period ended.

The game continued uneventful into the final eight minutes, enlivened only by a brief spurt on the part of New Ulm, led by the valiant Kusske.

Morozek of Appleton led the scoring for his team, and the game, with 10 points—four buckets and two on the house. He played a fine game, all in all, keeping his head in the tough spots, and reliable under pressure.

His mates, Veum and Werring, each contributed five points; Twitchell came through with seven, and Smith with four.

Most colorful figure in the game, and a fine basketball player to boot, was Kusske of New Ulm. Kusske shot four nice baskets and a gift. Korth of New Ulm showed some great guard work, and besides contributed three points. Spelbrink and Eichten accounted for five points each, and Buenger, two.

A highlight of the game came during the middle of the second quarter when New Ulm took an 8 to 7 lead. A moment later, Appleton's Veum sank a long beauty. In the next minute or so Werring shot one, and then Morozek duplicated his feat with another to make the score Appleton 13; New Ulm, 8. From that point on, the game seemed in the bag for Appleton.

Lynd Beats Lester Prairie, 34 To 31

McChesney And Mellenthin Lead Attack.

Lynd's basketball team entered the finals of tonight's regional tournament here by winning from Lester Prairie 34 to 31 in last night's first round game.

After maintaining an easy lead in the first two periods, which ended 7 to 2 and 19 to 13 respectively, Lynd faced a nip and tuck battle in the last half to emerge the victor. The third quarter score stood 23 all, and the count was tied once or twice more before the game ended.

Lynd had to overcome a decided disadvantage in height, three of the Lester Prairie boys standing six feet or more, which gave them long odds on recovery off the boards.

Both teams sank 13 field goals, and both had the same number of personals. Lynd made eight gifts to Lester Prairie's five.

Mellenthin was high point man for the game, ringing up a total of 11, while McChesney of Lynd and Daggett of Lester Prairie were next with 10 each. Ernst of Lester Prairie was close behind with 9 points.

McChesney and Mellenthin time and again won the plaudits of the crowd by their interception of passes and clever ball handling against their taller opponents, while Watkins and Vanstrom were always dangerous. Daggett and Ernst stood out for Lester Prairie.

Fans seeing Lynd for the first time were surprised at the effectiveness of its unorthodox attack, against which Lester Prairie's roving zone defense proved about as good a defense as yet seen against the eagle-eyed Lyndsters.

All-Region 3 Team Selected

Although there was no official all-region team named here at the tournament Saturday night, it was felt that because other regions in the state did name unofficial all-regions, the same should be done for Region 3.

The Daily Messenger, therefore submits the following players as its choice for the all-Region 3 squad:

Veum, Morozek, and Werring of Appleton; McChesney and Vanstrom of Lynd; Kusske and Eichten of New Ulm; Daggett of Lester Prairie.

Special mention goes to Gorth of New Ulm for his excellent guarding; Maetzold of Lester Prairie and Mellenthin of Lynd are given honorable mention.

To Morozek of Appleton goes the mythical captaincy for his all-round, heads-up playing.

Balaton Plans Cage Tourney

Marshall DeMolayans To Play Tuesday.

The Marshall DeMolay basketball team has entered in the Independent Team Tournament at Balaton, which starts Tuesday, March 22, and continues for three days.

The DeMolayans are entering their regular season team composed of boys not on the high school squad so as to get them tuned up for the state DeMolay basketball tournament in Minneapolis in April.

Marshall tackles the tough Balaton team in the first round. Balaton has one of the best teams in this territory only having suffered one defeat this season.

The DeMolays have met Balaton but once and that time they took a defeat by a safe margin. This time, however, they hope for better luck.

Other teams entered in the meet are Cottonwood, Balaton, Slayton, Tracy, Lynd. With this tournament Howard Hess, athletic advisor and coach of the DeMolays wants to whip into shape two fighting teams to compete in the state tourney.

Men's Rook Club Ends Season

Normania—The men's rook club ended its season at the home of Gordon Jolstad on Monday evening. This was the eighth and last session. Wendell Miller, having won the most games, was the winner of first prize and received a fine card table, and Gordon Jolstad, a close second, was also presented with a card table. Henry Gunderson, low man, received a hall tree. Following is the standing of the 16 contestants, the first figure representing games won and the last figure games lost:

Wendell Miller, 29, 11; Gordon Jolstad, 28, 12; Albert Martinson, 26, 14; Lars Jolstad, 22, 18; Orville Kompelien, 22, 18; Henry Hanson, 21, 19; Oliver Martinson, 21, 19; Jewell Haaland, 20, 20; Thurman Kompelien, 19, 21; Lestof Miller, 19, 21; Philander Berre, 18, 22; Elmer Severson, 18, 22; Henry Broughton, 16, 24; Orley Miller, 15, 25; Arne Swennes, 14, 26; and Henry Gunderson, 12, 28.

Appleton Wins Region 3 Championship Title

Record Crowds See Champions Defeat Lynd Of District 9 By 39 To 28.

Additional facts on the Region 3 tournament held here last week will be found on page 5.

The Appleton basketball team defeated the Lynd cagers Saturday night 39 to 28, thereby winning the Region 3 title and the right to compete in the state tournament this weekend in the Minneapolis auditorium.

In a game preceding the championship event, New Ulm defeated Lester Prairie to win the third place rating.

Following the game Saturday night Superintendent Hubert Olson of Buffalo Lake, a member of the Region 3 committee, presented awards to the winners of the various games.

Appleton was presented with a plaque, emblematic of their championship, and Lynd was awarded a trophy as winners of second place. New Ulm was given the ball used during the tournament.

The crowd Saturday night approximated something less than 2,000, or about the same as Friday night. Doors were open at 6.45, and by 7 o'clock, a halt was called for ticket sales because the gymnasium was practically packed. Many were turned away, including a couple who had driven from Mankato on purpose to see the game.

Appleton will play Minneapolis North Thursday night in the first round of the state tournament. John Jacobi, coach of Minneapolis North, was present to scout the Lynd-Appleton game. He was accompanied by Marvin Quinn of the Minneapolis Tribune.

Mrs. Elmer Benson, wife of the governor of Minnesota, was present Saturday night to cheer for the Appleton players, her home-town team.

Appleton Wins Region 3 Championship Saturday

Defeat Lynd By 39-28 Score

Vanstrom Has Bad Night With Bucket Eye.

Appleton won the Region 3 basketball championship Saturday night before a crowd of approximately 2,000 fans by defeating the gamey Lynd team 39 to 28.

Appleton will engage with Minneapolis North quintet Thursday in the first bracket of State Tournament play in the Minneapolis auditorium.

Scouting the Lynd-Appleton battle Saturday night were Coach Jacobi of Minneapolis North and Marvin Quinn of the Minneapolis Tribune. They were charting the game with extreme care.

Morozeck of Appleton repeated his fine performance of Friday night in the Appleton-New Ulm game, and a little more besides. He sank eight buckets for 16 points.

Veum, his mate, duplicated his performance with the same number.

These men were in excellent form in both their floor work and their basket shooting. The whole squad, as a matter of fact, were a different team than the sluggish quintet which defeated the New Ulm lads 31 to 24 the night before in first round play.

Appleton showed a polished brand of ball handling, deadly accurately shooting on the part of Morozeck and Veum, and skintight guarding—all in all, a cool, steady, group of lads who love their basketball, try to make breaks when they don't come to them, and take advantage of them when the breaks just happen.

Twitchell, another Appleton player, revealed himself as a dangerous threat on any man's team.

Appleton is a worthy representative of Region 3 in the state tournament, and Districts 9, 10 and 12 wish them success in their play at the state tournament this week, and particularly against Minneapolis North.

Postmortem—Without wishing to detract in the slightest iota from Appleton's defeat of Lynd, and without offering any sort of an alibi for District 9's Lynd, it is still greatly interesting to speculate what the outcome might have been if Vanstrom had been hot in his shooting Saturday night.

As a matter of fact, this lad was colder than the north end of a gravestone. Such is the great American game of basketball. He shot about 16 times against Appleton in something like the same manner he did against Tracy in the District manner, with this slight difference, that against Tracy he connected about six times, while against Appleton he connected exactly 0 times. In short, a lot of District 9 fans and players, while admitting Appleton is one grand team and well able to take care of Region 3's interests at the state tournament, are sighing: "How different things would be if they had only been different!"

But Vanstrom played a swell floor game against Appleton, as witness the gasp that came from both sides of the gallery Saturday night when he first launched a series of spectacular dribbles into the heart of the Appleton territory.

Top man for Lynd, however, and certainly one of the finest players in the Region 3 competition here Friday and Saturday was Wendy McChesney. He was the gadfly buzzing about the Appleton setups, and he spoiled many of them. He tried to be everywhere on the floor at the same second, and all that kept him from this interesting situation were the simple laws of physics. Wendy did everything for his team, and against the Appleton men, but the officiating. He shot four spectacular buckets against difficulties, and one on the house for a total of 9 points.

Incidentally, Wendy's bucket eye was somewhat off-color against Appleton, for he sustained one black eye in the Hendricks game last week, and another one against Lester Prairie Friday night. Both came from elbows he met in the heat of play.

Mellenthin shot three buckets and a gift for seven points. The smallest man on the floor, he showed by his spirit and playing that he was the equal in courage to any playing.

Watkins and Sharratt bowed their way out of Lynd basketball competition with honor last night with three baskets each. Along with McChesney, Mellenthin and Williams, they played their last prep school basketball of their careers against Appleton. Next year, Coach C. A. Bisel starts with a nucleus of Vanstrom, Kindler and Pearcy.

The score by quarters of the Region championship game follows:

Appleton	6	12	18	28
Lynd	10	20	30	39

By half time, the number of fouls committed by each team was one each. The total fouls at the end of the game came to three each.

This situation may mean one of two possibilities. One is that there were fewer fouls committed. The second possibility is that fewer fouls were called.

But the observer at the game would say that the most logical possibility was the last one. The reason is probably this:

Leonard Plotnik of Benson acted as referee at the first three games. Mr. Plotnik officiates in Region 3 games during the season, where the fouls are called closer.

New Ulm Noses Out Lester Prairie

Named Third Place Winner In 21-19 Battle.

New Ulm took third place in the Region 3 tournament Saturday night by virtue of their 21 to 19 noseout of the hard-fighting quintet from Lester Prairie.

Kusske of New Ulm again showed he was one of the A No. 1 players of the region by his general, busy-body, razzle-dazzle, push-em-up-Tony play during every minute of each quarter.

In the last quarter with the score standing New Ulm 21, Lester Prairie 15, Beise shot a long, long one to make it New Ulm 21, Lester Prairie 17; then Beise shot a gift to make it 21 to 18.

A minute later, Maetzold of Lester Prairie shot another to make it New Ulm 21, Lester Prairie 19.

Here the score stayed for the last three minutes of the last quarter with both sides making desperate attempts to score. The remarkable guarding of New Ulm's Gorth was an important factor in keeping Lester Prairie from scoring during this final three minutes.

New Ulm	12	16	18	21
Lester Prairie	3	7	15	19

Maetzold of Lester Prairie garnered seven points to top his mates for scoring and win second place for the game in points.

Eichten of New Ulm was high man for his team and the game with four buckets and one on the house.

Spleis and Daggett contributed some fine plays for Lester Prairie, as did H. Ernst, Spleis, and Norman.

Balaton Braves Take DeMolayans

Lose 41 To 47 In First Round Of Tournament.

The Marshall DeMolay Basketball Team came close to upsetting the favored Balaton Braves last night in the first round of the tournament played at Balaton. Balaton easily led the field the first half, but the DeMolays came back and really fought and whittled the score to Balaton 47 and Marshall 41.

It was a knock down and drag out battle all the way with both teams fighting hard and fast battles. Figure of the night was Dick Ullery who was unable to miss his long shots. Rose, Todnem, and Mercer played their usual fine game.

Coach Hess had fine material in the field last night which showed great promise. When his lineup is supplemented by more boys from the high school squad he has a team that shows great promise for the state DeMolay tournament.

High point man for Marshall was Ullery and for Balaton, Rasmussen, each garnering 12 and 10 respectively.

Students To Hear Cowboy Act

Howard Dibble will present a cowboy and saddle adventure program Friday before the Marshall High School as part of the students' activities program. Principal Merrill W. Olson said today.

Mr. Dibble will demonstrate, among other things, trick riding and the famous diamond hitch. He will wear full western regalia. He is well known for his ability to draw vivid word pictures of pack trips in the western mountains in early Spring.

Walker Loses To Lyons On Decision

Ernie Walker, Marshall featherweight boxer, lost by a decision to Vern Lyons at a fight card held in Mankato last night at the Manufacturers' convention.

Lyons won the Golden Gloves last month in the featherweight class. He defeated Ernie in the semi-finals of that event by a decision also and knocked him down once.

Last night, seeing Walker growing weary in the third round, Lyons attempted desperately to knock out Ernie, but failed to even knock him down.

Appleton Plays In State Tonight

Region 3 Champ Meets Minneapolis North.

Appleton's basketball team, which won the Region 3 championship here in Marshall last week, plays its first round game in the state tournament against Minneapolis North tonight at 9 o'clock, the final clash of the first round bracket.

The state tourney got underway this afternoon in the Minneapolis auditorium, with Virginia meeting Crosby-Ironton at 3 o'clock and Thief River Falls facing Faribault at 4 o'clock. The other first round game, to be played at 8 tonight, is between St. Paul Central and Luverne.

This is Appleton's fourth appearance in the state tournament. In 1927, it won the sportsmanship trophy. It also competed in the 1928

One team after another has been the favorite in tournament talk the past few days, but as play actually opened, all teams were conceded practically an even chance at the title.

Appleton's hopes are placed largely on its star scoring threats, Veum and Morozek, both of whom collected eight field goals apiece in the regional at Marshall last weekend.

Spring Football Drill Underway

Tiger Prospects None Too Bright.

With the loss through graduation of such stalwarts as Chollie Healy, Roy Weidauer, Charles White, Adrian Knutson, Bur Gervais, Andy Gag, Tracy Mercer, Neil Marcotte, and Edward Longtin, Marshall's football prospects looked none too bright as the Tigers began their Spring football drills this week in preparation for another strenuous football campaign next Autumn.

Although the turnout of approximately 50 men indicates the same enthusiasm for football that has carried the Tigers to the top, the general quality of the squad indicated that it will be below par.

Encouraging, however, was the number and quality of the returning lettermen. Two ends, one a starter, will be back. They are Kenny Marks and Coco Healy. Three backs with experience, Chet Wiener, Don Lee, and Gerald St. Albans, are back. Charley Gilbert and Buck Neill, last year's centers, are still with the squad.

Two regular linemen and two others who won letters are also available. They are George Senden and Norb Kerkvliet, regulars, and Leo Bloome and Hank Cool, letter winners. Bill Brull, although not graduating this spring, will be ineligible because of the age rule. Few new men joined the squad this spring, but with only four exceptions, all the underclassmen who reported for football last fall, have reported again this Spring. This gives them the advantage of an additional year of seasoning.

The present plans call for about 20 practices and intensive drill, Coach Bernie Cole stated this procedure will be followed by an informal practice game with some neighboring town, possibly as in the past, with Clarkfield.

Teams To Play Semi-Finals Tonight

Virginia, Faribault, Luverne,
Appleton In Consolation.

Minneapolis—(AP)—Thief River Falls, Crosby-Ironton, St. Paul Central and Minneapolis North advanced into the semi-final round of the twenty-sixth annual state high school basketball tournament in the Minneapolis municipal auditorium Thursday, all scoring impressive first round victories.

In the upper bracket of the semi-finals round at 8 p. m. Friday night the Thief River Falls team will tangle with Crosby-Ironton while Minneapolis North and St. Paul Central will resume their feud at 9 p. m.

In the two Thursday afternoon games Crosby-Ironton opened tournament play by smashing through to a 37 to 27 victory over Virginia while Thief River Falls eliminated Faribault by a 37 to 29 margin.

St. Paul Central's rangy crew of athletes spilled Luverne, 40 to 35, and Minneapolis North demonstrated the best offensive of the first round play by crushing Appleton, 43 to 28.

Friday afternoon consolation games will be played, Virginia meeting Faribault at 3 p. m. and Luverne playing Appleton at 4 p. m. The two winners of the consolation games Friday will play in one of three games winding up the tournament Saturday night.

Approximately 7,000 spectators watched Thursday's four games, 5,000 of whom came for the evening program. Appleton, besides being the smallest town in the tournament, also sent the smallest team. Still it made a splendid showing, battling the Polars point for point into the middle of the third quarter. From then until the finish, however, North's superior speed and ruggedness prevailed.

The lead see-sawed through most of the early action, Appleton held a 9 to 7 lead at the quarter, but North came back to a 19-16 half time advantage. Early in the third quarter, Appleton sliced the lead to one point, at 19-18, but that was its last grave challenge. The Polars began the fourth quarter with a 26-20 lead and moved farther ahead in the last eight minutes against tired opposition.

For Appleton, its "big man," Leo Mrozek was also its big caging gun. He played a splendid all-around game, marking up three field goals and five free throws for 11 points, Burt Werring, clever guard speedster, also snatched a share of the game's top-most honors with a strong floor game and a nine-point scoring total. Werring and Mrozek scored seven of the eight Appleton field goals.

Balaton Braves Win Tournament

Defeat Tracy 42-26
In Final.

The Independent Braves defeated Tracy 42 to 26 to win the independent tournament at Balaton this week.

This score is no indication of the comparative strength of the two teams, however, as it was a tight defensive battle all the way.

Balaton played the best game of the season defensively, holding Tracy to a field goal and a free throw during the first half, while scoring 16 points themselves.

L. Wichmann was a pillar of strength on defense as he blocked shots and retrieved them from the backboard.

Rasmussen led the Balaton scoring with 13 points followed by K. Tate with 9.

Culp scored 8 points for Tracy, and Holstein counted 7. Balaton cashed in on 14 free throws out of 19 attempts.

In the consolation, Lynd defeated Slayton 42 to 27 with the two McChesney brothers counting 12 points each. B. Larson counted 8 points for Slayton.

Marshall Is Tops As Tournament City

Shows Best Region 3
Gate Receipts Since 1931.

As predicted in this paper several weeks ago Marshall still ranks at the top as a tournament town.

While it is impossible to make a comparison with other regions in the state as to attendance and receipts for this year, it is possible to compare other towns in region No. 3 with Marshall as tournament towns for past years. For our own satisfaction we went back as far as records were available, and here's the record. It should be remembered that for all regional events the same admission price is charged. Receipts for the years were as follows:

1931 held at Marshall	$1,096.30
1932 held at Montevideo	976.75
1933 held at Glencoe	683.80
1934 held at Marshall	1,115.00
1935 held at New Ulm	640.00
1936 held at Montevideo	974.75
1937 held at Glencoe	982.75
1938 held at Marshall	1,508.75

Unless figures can not be depended upon, it would indicate that Marshall is by far the best town in southern Minnesota for drawing a crowd for an athletic event. It cannot be said that the teams this year were outstanding, drawing a record crowd because of that.

A comparison with Region 2 to the south gives the following figures:
1932 held at Fairmont $599.70
1933 held at Mankato 651.69
1934 held at Jackson 850.10
1935 held at Fairmont 914.00
1936 held at Jackson 877.65
1937 held at Fairmont 981.00

Three Schools To Give Plays Here

Tracy, Redwood, Marshall Plan Joint Program.

Three one-act plays will be presented in the High School auditorium on Friday evening. The program is an exchange among the Drama Groups of Marshall, Redwood and Tracy, and is third in a series of joint productions held this year.

Marshall showed its Christmas Drama, "Dickens' Christmas Carol", in Redwood last December; A comedy was Marshall's second offering at Tracy in February. Now at the close of this most beneficial and valuable series the Drama Club takes pride in presenting to the public, Eugene O'Neill's "Where the Cross is Made," on the local stage under the direction of Miss Mary McEniry.

The play is a grim tragedy of the sea, powerful in its conception, fascinating in its realism. Captain Isaiah Bartlett, of the schooner "Mary Allen" has transformed a room on the third floor of his house into a ship's cabin. Because of a treasure found at sea, he sent the ship to haul it back several years before the story opens. Although the "Mary Allen" was reported lost at sea and her crew drowned, Bartlett still believes the ship will return, so he watches from the "deck" of the house with a crazed persistency year in and year out. This gnarled old sea captain, is played by Richard Stevens with skill and adroitness.

Nat Bartlett, the captain's son, is about 30 years old, tall, lanky, unsure of himself and bitter. His rather holds a weird fascination over him which Nat fears, but is unable to shake. In an accident at sea, when still a very young boy, Nat lost his arm; secretly he blames his father for this. During the ensuing years Nat develops terrific hatred for his father until, finally, unable to bear it any longer, he plots to put the captain in an insane asylum. Bartlett wanted his son to believe that the "Mary Allen" would return, but Nat is terrorized at dreams and unrealities; thus is gained the full effect in tone color, and climatic surging in Eugene O'Neill's art.

Melvin Krute has showed his adaptability to character roles in the part of Scrooge last year; and is outstanding now in his performance of this difficult role in "Where the Cross is Made."

Others helping to modulate and support the story are: one Dr. Higgins, played by Luther Halvorsen who makes his first appearance in a speaking role on the Marshall stage;

Sue Bartlett, played by Ethel Peterson in a poised and dignified manner. This is a difficult "equilibrium role" for through the character of Sue one sees into the deranged minds of the father and son.

Horne, the mate, is played by Dan Jones; Cates, the bo'sun is played by Bobby Ohlsen, and Jimmy Kanaka, the Hawaiian harpooner, is played by Bill Brull. The lighting and sound effects are skillfully handled by Donald Burnham and Edward Marks.

Student Activity members will be admitted to this program on Activity tickets. For non-activity members and adults the tickets will be fifteen cents to defray the cost of production.

Drama Students Present Plays

Exchange Program Is Entertaining Event.

Drama students of three neighboring high schools presented a trio of very entertaining playlets here last night in the auditorium.

The titles of the plays, the members of the casts and the directors were as follows:

Marshall
"Where the Cross is Made," by Eugene O'Neill; Melvin Krute, Nat Bartlett; Luther Halvorsen, Dr. Higgins; Ethel Peterson, Sue Bartlett; Richard Stevens, Captain Bartlett; Daniel Jones, Silas Horne; Robert Ohlsen, Cates; Bill Brull, Jimmy Kanaka; Miss Mary E. McEniry, director.

Tracy
"Sauce for the Goslings," by Elgine J. Warren; Jack English, Robert Taylor; Lorraine Larson, Elizabeth Taylor; Madonna Bourelle, Mrs. Taylor; Keith Thaxton, Mr. Taylor; Marvis Anderson, Martha Lee; Alvin Mose, James Ward; Winifred Hanson, a maid; Miss Irene Nelson, director.

Redwood Falls
"The Blue Teapot," by Jeanne Lee Latham; Sidney Alexander, Jimmy; Leila Radke, Cynthia; Delores Neale, Ma Brown; Charles Johnson, Pa Brown; Miss Hazel Myhre, director.

This presentation last night was the last of a series of exchange programs between the drama sections of the three high schools.

Marshall 'M' Club Organized

Voluntary Unit Has Many Good Aims.

This is another in a series of articles from "Work and Administration of the Marshall Public Schools Annual Report.

During the Christmas vacation, boys having earned letters at Marshall High School met and organized the Marshall "M" Club. The boys on their own initiative decided to organize the club and meet three times a year. Their meetings were to be purely social, to bring the club together and for the following purposes:

1. To further the interest of athletics in the school.
2. To create a greater sense of loyalty to the school among the students.
3. To promote better sportsmanship.
4. To aid in any athletic contest as ushers, officials, when requested.
5. To form a better understanding and friendship between lettermen in the club.
6. To do all in its power to establish the reputation and supremacy of Marshall High School.—Merril W. Olson.

Local DeMolay Win Consolation

Todnem Given Place On All-State Team.

Staving off a strong fourth-quarter rally, a favored Red Wing quint defeated Thief River Falls, 43 to 31, to win the state DeMolay basketball tournament in the University of Minnesota Athletic building Saturday night.

The consolation game found Marshall leading all the way to defeat South St. Paul, 40 to 32, mainly through the efforts of Ted Todnem, All-State forward, who scored twelve points.

Cliff Bohmboach, sharp-shooting Red Wing star, was named the other forward on the All-State five chosen by the officials, W. R. Smith and Dr. Carl Nordly, Don Lorentson, Thief River Falls guard, was placed at center and Duane Nordenskjold, Red Wing, and Roy Lee, All-State high school guard from Thief River Falls, received the guard posts.

Hibbing received the sportsmanship trophy.

Marshall won its way into the semi-finals by defeating Anoka 41-15 and Bemidji, last year's champions, 24-22. Its chances to compete in the finals was quashed by Thief River Falls, 23 to 23. Marshall gave Thief River every inch a battle. At one point in the last quarter Thief River only led by one point, but Thief River's ability on free throws pulled them through.

Teddy Todnem was chosen All-State forward, a singular honor among all the excellent players in the meet. Marshall had many consistent stars during the tournament. Richard Ullery did an excellent job of holding Thief River's famed Roy Lee down to only one field goal. Mercer flashed brilliantly during the South St. Paul game. Charles Healy turned in his usual great game every minute. Don Ullery, Chet Wiener, Kenneth Marks, Don Nelson, Don Rose, and Roy Weidauer turned in fine records. All in all, Marshall presented a fighting well balanced team which was the only one of last year's four semi-finalists to return to that rating.

The athletic director of Marshall Chapter, Howard W. Hess, did an excellent job of coaching the DeMolay teams not only during the state tournament but also during the season. Assistants to Coach Hess were Gordon Forbes, manager, and Gordon Jacobson, trainer.

Conference Of Teachers Called

Will Meet At Tracy
This Saturday.

Under the direction of a committee consisting of Earl Olson, Balaton, Oswald Egertson, Westbrook, and Miss Hattie Larson, Tracy, chairman, teachers of the rural and city schools within a radius of 30 miles of Tracy will hold a conference at the Tracy High School, Saturday, April 2.

This conference is one of the five being held in the Southwest Division for the purpose of providing means of contact for the teachers from communities nearby.

The conference will open at 9 o'clock Saturday with music by the Tracy High School music department. The remaining part of the morning will be taken up by two speakers for the general meeting followed by sectional meetings.

For the general meeting of the morning session, Dr. Fred Brown, chief psychologist of the Minneapolis Schools, has been secured to discuss the problem of guidance, while Captain Broderick will also discuss "Safety Must Come Through Education, Not By Law." Captain Broderick is of the Minnesota Association of Police and Peace officers and he will speak on the formation of safety patrols in the schools of this territory.

The elementary teachers will meet with Miss Ruth Moscrip, supervisor of the intermediate grades of the St. Cloud State Teachers College. There will be sectional meetings for the various departments of the high school. A noon luncheon will be served at which Senator A. L. Almen, of Balaton will discuss "Teaching a Profession."

The afternoon program opens with a general meeting at which President Selke of the St. Cloud State Teachers College will discuss "Stabilizing Education." President Selke is a fine speaker of many years experience in the educational work, a close student of affairs and well informed as to educational trends.

Dr. Brown will conduct a panel discussion on guidance for the high school teachers, while the elementary teachers will have demonstrations on lessons in second grade reading and in fourth grade social studies. There will be an illustration lecture on visual aid.

The conference will close with a coffee party at which the Tracy teachers will be host.

School To Give Easter Play

Will Be Presented At Parent-Teacher Meeting.

In the regular Parent Teachers Association meeting Tuesday, April 12, the Marshall High School Drama Club in an all-school play will present "At the Gate Beautiful." The story is based on the biblical tale of the cripples healed by Peter, the beloved disciple.

While the high school does not expect to put on an annual Easter play, it was possible this year to work one in. As a result, "At the Gate Beautiful" was chosen. It will very nearly approach the Christmas productions which have drawn record crowds at Marshall the past few years.

A large cast is necessary to portray this beautiful play.

Tournament Here Praised By Coach

Appleton Mentor Lauds
Regional Management.

Warm praise for local school officials' management of the Region 3 basketball tournament held here several weeks ago was received this morning at the Marshall High School.

Dick Windemuth, coach of the Appleton team, wrote as follows:

"During the past week at the state tournament, I had the opportunity of talking with quite a few coaches who had participated in regional play. Somehow or other there seemed to have been some sort of difficulty in all regions except Region 3. Region 3 can be proud of your management of the tournament held in your schools.

"We appreciated very much coming down there and finding things the way they should be found. Personally this was my first experience in regional play, and it was a very pleasant one. Everything was well done, and your tournament manager, Mr. Merrill W. Olson, certainly must have spent a great deal of effort on the event.

"Again let me thank you for everything you have done for us and the boys."

Charles Gilbert PTA President

Other Officers Also Named At Final Meeting.

Charles J. Gilbert was elected president of the Marshall Parent-Teachers Association at the last regular meeting of the year held last night in the high school auditorium.

Other officers chosen were: Miss Edra Gray, vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Kienholz, secretary; Merrill W. Olson, treasurer.

The treasurer's report for the past season revealed that a total of $199.07 had been utilized from the total receipts of $238.05 for the purchase of milk. Miscellaneous expenses amounted to $10.30. A balance of $28.68 remains in the treasury.

The program last night consisted of a brief and excellent concert by the Marshall High School Band, under the direction of George Wingert; a number by a clarinet trio; a number by a saxophone quartette; talks on special department objectives by Lawrence Kienholz, Allan Weber, Julian Waller, and Joseph Nowatny; and an operetta by members of the Junior High School Girls' Glee Club directed by Miss Vivian Erickson.

C. O. Fitts, retiring president, presided at the meeting. The secretary's report was presented by Mrs. Roy Castle. Mrs. Wesley Kugler was chairman of the refreshments committee.

The operetta was titled "In Mozart's Time", and the cast was composed of Dorothy Haynes, Marjorie Wetherbee, Kathleen Pierce, Marguerite Meade, Mary Johlfs, Mable Rasmussen, Marian Buysse, Helen Sandberg, Erna Gilbertson, Betty Jefferson, Carol Bisbee, Ruth Weiner, Donna Rowe, Eileen Ford, Eleanor Gag, Antoinette Deutz, Florence Kerkvliet, Irene Sheets, Beatrice Goltz, Vivian Osweiler.

The prologue was read by Beatrice Goltz, and Ruth Brenner was the accompanist.

"At the Gate Beautiful," a biblical pageant-drama was to have been presented, but illness on the part of two leading members of the cast postponed it until next Tuesday.

Because the four talks on department objectives were so long, they will be printed separately in the next few days.

PTA Tuesday To See Bible Drama

High School Students Compose Cast.

The Junior and Senior high school with the aid of the Junior High Mixed Chorus and a chorus of fifth and sixth grade children will present the religious drama "At the Gate Beautiful" in the high school auditorium Tuesday, at the regular PTA meeting.

The story depicts the well known Biblical tale of the cripple healed by Peter the beloved disciple.

The characters are as follows:
Demis—the shrewd and crafty vendor of idols played by Lambert Juba.
Berith—the mother, Florence Sullivan.
Abigail—the Christian, Myrtle Englebretson.
Issochar—a boy of 12, Paul Gilbert.
Raamah, a cripple, who had never walked, J. Warren Whitney.

The disciples, Peter and John, are played by Bob Harmon and Neil Nash.

The pageantry seeks to portray the customs of the times. You will see the matrons of various ages: Eleanor Woodruff, Lorraine Edberg, Charlotte Fodness, Irene Geernaert, Everal Brosseau, Peggy Adams, and Audrey Ahlers.

The maids in their colorful attire who blend into the picture are: Donna Feyereisen, Mary Catherine Johlfs, Beatrice Goltz, Blanche Storek, Eleanor Fellows, Ruth Brenner, Erna Gilbertson, Betty Jefferson, Jeanette Shippee, and Marjorie McGuire.

Nowotny Discusses Recreation Program

Play Impulse Is Universal, He Tells Audience.

This is the first of several talks given at the last P. T. A. meeting.

By JOE NOWOTNY

The impulse to play is universal. The child playing with his blocks, the boy and girl playing games in the street, the young man and young woman dancing, playing tennis, or skating; the older men intent on making a good golf score, the music lover taking part in a community sing, or an amateur playing his part on the stage, all are expressing the play impulse.

They are doing the things they want to do for the joy and satisfaction it brings. The problem of play is the problem of a rich and free life.

"Play and art," professor John Dewey has said, "are moral necessities to keep the balance which work cannot definitely maintain. Play and art add fresh and deeper meaning to the usual activities of life; they are responsible for the enriching and freeing of life's meaning."

To the child, play is the winning of life; to grownup people it is the renewing of life. In leisure rightly used, men and women in industry, business and occupations of all kinds find relaxation, recreation and the opportunity for creative expression and for service to the community which make free time an asset rather than a liability.

Play traditions have come down through the ages from the time of primitive men. Play is fundamental. It has profound values not only for the individual but for the community. The group becomes more articulate and expressive through play. Communities live in their civic celebrations. It pulls them together. Community spirit which is engendered by a wholesome play life and by the provisions for groups of people of common interest, will find expression in improved physical resources for the city in a greatly enriched life.

April 14, 1938

Former president Herbert Hoover states: "Our state of civilization is not going to depend upon what we do when we work as much as what we do in our time off. The moral and spiritual forces of our country do not lose ground in the hours we are busy on our jobs. Their battle is the time of leisure."

J. W. Studebaker says: "It would seem that if we can be sure of anything these days, we can believe that all of the processes of modern civilization point very directly toward an increasing amount of leisure for which people must be adequately prepared, if this important time is to be used in wholesome and constructive ways."

Calvin Coolidge: (At the Outdoor Recreation Conference in 1934) I want to see all Americans have a reasonable amount of leisure. Then I want to see them educated to use such leisure for their own enjoyment and betterment, and the strengthening of the quality of their citizenship. We must make America a land of vision, a land of work, of sincere striving for good; but we must also add to all these, in order to round out the full stature of the people, an ample effort to make it a land of wholesome enjoyment and perennial gladness."

Through play, citizenship is built up and community morale is strengthened. Play is a process whereby the essential powers of the race are developed in the individual. It is nature's method of education. It realizes inherited desires of the child and brings to him the joy of accomplishing things in increasing more difficult things to which his nature is directed. The older a man grows, the less he retains the effervescent spirit of youth, and the more necessary it becomes that he shall deliberately cultivate his powers to bring about his hidden resources in spirit, and art, in science and social relationships. Play counteracts the effects of highly specialized industrial work and makes it possible for a man to throw off the worries and strain of the day by complete absorption in the game. It tones up the entire system by a prevailing sense of the joy of living.

Have you ever after a hard day's work gone out and played a game, even a game in which physical exertion is required. If you recall, you will remember that even though you were tired from working, you played vigorously, forgot about everything completely and after a good shower you felt like a new person.

You seemed to look straighter, you were more patient, you were kinder toward other people. You wondered at the truth of the saying; "I felt like a new person."

Industrialism, the monotony of factory work, must have an antidote. Men under our industrial system, an inventor employed at an automatic machine, a thinker tied up to a foolproof machine, a man tightening a certain screw or bolt all day long in an auto factory—all are the victims of a disappointed instinct, subject to all kinds of nervous and emotional disorders.

The radical remedy for this condition, if its ever to be found, will be in making industry more expressive, and in education, in recreation and leisure activities.

Coit P.T.A.

Then follow the youths: Roger Anderson, William Rohlin, Edward Traxler, Bobby Rogne, and Robert Cowan.

The children: Nola Ruth Ahlers, Marcella Edberg, Kathleen Pangburn, Eileen Ford, Carol Marks, Donna Rowe, Vivian Osweiler, Marilyn Hess, Mederece Musch and Virginia Herman.

The little children: Rosalie Robson, Janet Peterson, Phyllis Kugler, Delores Fleming, Katherine Shrader, Annette Anderson, Frank Backlund, Dean Haynes, Pat McGuiggan, Douglas Peterson.

Other characters are: High Priests Bruce Olson, Andrew Weingartner, Luthe Halvorson; couch bearers: Ralph Waldorf, Dick O'Connell; inevitable guard: Richard Hardy.

To Give Easter Play Tuesday

Postponed Program Set For Tomorrow Night.

The Easter play "At the Gate Beautiful" will be given Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium.

The setting of this play is during the time of Christ when men still sold their wares in front of the temples. Demas, a dealer in gods, sells Berith, the mother of a crippled boy, a goddess which is supposed to cure her son. Abigail warns Berith against all the heathenish religions of the dealers, telling her to believe only in Christ. The Apostles, Peter and John, are called and heal a cripple, and Berith seeing, believes.

A cast of 50 boys and girls appears in this beautiful story.

While the play is given after Easter, due to illness of two of the principal characters when it was first scheduled, it still will carry the beautiful message of Easter.

No admission will be charged and the public is invited to attend.

School Presents Bible Play Tonight

A cast of 50 boy and girl students will present a Biblical drama tonight in the high school auditorium. The public is invited. There will be no admission.

The title of the play is "At the Gate Beautiful," the time is the days of Christ, and the plot revolves around the turning away from false idols, the triumph of faith, and the miracle of healing the sick.

Originally scheduled to have been given on the Tuesday before Easter, the play was postponed until tonight because of the illness of two members of the cast who had important parts.

Play Is Chosen By Senior Class

"Milestones" To Be Presented April 29.

The Senior Class of Marshall High School will present their class play April 29 in the high school auditorium.

The Senior Class was not content with the selection of just an ordinary play and as a result, "Milestones" by Bennett and Knoblock was selected.

"Milestones" is a character portrayal of three generations. The play carries the life story of a man who was a visionary and a progressive character in his youth. Upon reaching middle age his views became reactionary, he no longer wished to plunge ahead with new schemes and ideas. The same characters taking first the part of youths, then of middle age, and finally of old age, will be something never attempted before in Marshall High School.

The presentation of "Milestones" will complete the dramatic productions for the year with the exception of a single one-act play to be presented about the middle of May.

Bible Play Is Well Presented

Audience Praises Work Of Students.

The Bible drama "At the Gate Beautiful," the story of the cripple healed by the Disciple Peter, was received with a good deal of admiration by an audience at the high school auditorium last night.

The audience was deeply impressed with the fine work done by the student actors and with the thoroughness of production. The costuming and stage setting were especially effective, and the action was colorful throughout the play. Music which formed an integral part of the play was beautifully sung by the Junior High mixed chorus and a chorus of fifth and sixth grade children.

The difficult lead roles, played by Lambert Juba, Florence Sullivan, Myrtle Englebretson and J. Warren Whitae, were exceptionally well played.

Others in the large cast of 50, all of whom did well, were:

Paul Gilbert, Bob Harmon, Neill Nash, Bruce Olson, Andrew Weingartner, Luther Halvorson, Ralph Waldorf, Dick O'Connell, Richard Hardy.

Florence Trembley, Dorothy Raish, Margaret Melvin, Vivian McKay, Robin Robinson, Kathryn Thompson, Helen Spong, Angela Molle, Roger Anderson, William Rohlin, Edward Traxler, Bobby Rogne, Robert Cowan.

Tiger Herald Wins Honors

Gets "Excellent" In National Rating.

The Marshall High School was notified today that the Tiger Herald, student newspaper, has won an honor rating of "Excellent" among 1,517 school newspapers in the United States in the 1938 All-American Critical Service conducted by the National Scholastic Press Association.

Only five school newspapers in the same classification group won this honor, and only one paper in this group surpassed the Tiger Herald for an All-American rating.

The staff of the Tiger Herald includes the following:

James Bailey, editor-in-chief; Elizabeth Silver, associate editor; Helen Snyder, Edith Struthers, and Robert Harmon, make-up editors.

Miss Alice Johnson acts as advisor to the student staff.

Robert Harmon also acts as sports editor; news editors are Edith Struthers, James McGuire, and Helen Snyder; Robert Ohlsen is staff artist.

A letter from Fred L. Kildow, director of the All-American Service, states in part:

"The scores are never flattering. You have been told the truth as the judges see it, for we are convinced that we can help you only by being absolutely honest."

The Tiger Herald is issued every three weeks. It was printed by the Marshall Daily Messenger presses.

Last year, the Tiger Herald won first class rating for monthly newspapers published by High schools with enrollments of from 500 to 899 in competition extending over the northwest, sponsored by the National Scholastic Press Association and the Associated Collegiate Press. Miss Johnson was advisor then, as this year.

Redwood Track Men Coming Here

Tigers Have Dual Meet Next Tuesday.

With less than a week before the first dual meet, Coaches Larry Kienholz and John Fuhlbruegge have been driving their trackmen in preparation for another track season. A full schedule awaits the Tigers, opening in a dual meet against Redwood Falls Tuesday, April 26, followed by the Southwestern meet Saturday, April 30, and the Carleton Relays Saturday, May 7.

Coach Keinholtz will have trouble replacing Regnier, Fitts, and Van Robays, last year's heavy point winners in every meet. Regnier who set two new records in the Southwestern-Conference meet last year, will be hardest to replace.

He will have Gervais in the pole vault, Healy in the discus and broad jump, Captain Brull in the shot and discus, St. Albans in the dashes, Robinson in the hurdles, Jones in the 880, and Teerlinck, all letter men around which to build. Strength looks concentrated in the field events, with not too much in the running events.

First Track Meet Held Here Today

The Marshall and Redwood Falls track teams met in the first dual meet of the season this afternoon on Legion Field starting at 4 p. m.

Coach Larry Kienholz was minus the stars who placed Marshall near the top in track the past two years, but he had Bill Brull, Chollie Healy, and Gervais. These men won points last year at the Carleton relays.

Coach Kienholz also has some promising first year tracksters including young Peltier in the distance runs.

The Tigers have a hard schedule ahead of them after the meet today. The Southwestern meet will be held here Saturday, followed by the Carleton relays May 7, and the District on May 14.

Students Write Airmail Essays

State Winner To Get Trip To Washington.

All high school students in Marshall have been invited to participate in a nation-wide essay contest on the topic "Wings Across America" in connection with National Airmail Week.

First prize in each state will be an air trip to Washington, D. C., and return. The national prize is a five-day air trip to Miami, Fla., and return, with expenses paid.

The essays are not to exceed 250 words, and must be postmarked not later than midnight May 1, addressed to State Chairman, National Air Mail Week Essay Contest, care of the local postmaster.

Judging of the essays will be on the basis of 50 per cent for originality of ideas, 25 for continuity and construction, and 25 for spelling, punctuation and neatness.

With the subject "Wings Across America," the essays should deal with the ideals, purposes, and advantages of air transportation as it affects modern communication.

Gives Background Of Class Play

First Scene Of "Milestones" Set In 1860.

For the benefit of the audience who will attend the class play "Milestones" April 29, the following background of industrial conditions is given for the purpose of helping toward a better understanding of the action in the drama:

In the year 1860, the world saw a great industrial revolution. The industry of shipbuilding was foremost in the progress of new ideas. The change that was wrought in this business was a gigantic one.

To replace the old wooden galleys of the early 19th century, iron rrigates were hurled into vogue. Conservative manufacturers were aghast at the idea, and because they failed to understand the trend, they ridiculed the idea.

But there were a few visionary geniuses who did not deride there progressive notions, but heralded them with a flourish.

It is with this foment in social problems that our story deals in the Senior class play, "Milestones," which was written by Arnold Bennett, the well-known English novelist and playwright.

The scene is laid in London at the John Rhead home in Kensington Gardens.

From the era of social upheaval in 1860 when young John Rhead, age 25, breaks partnership with one Samuel Sibley, reactionary and conservative, the next milestone takes the audience into 1885, two and one half decades later. John Rhead is a middleaged man now. His 25 years of success and triumph in the making of iron ships, is passing — the times have given way to the inevitable change and evolution that cannot be evaded. Steel ships are being dreamed of now, but to John the idea is absurd.

When steel ships do replace the iron steamers, and the world marches ahead 24 years, John Rhead is an old man of 75. He has "lived and learned," as he says in the closing lines of the play.

Here is this powerful drama, we have a cross section of life—serious, gay, sad, happy, tragic, beautiful. The hopes the aspirations, and the fears and dreams of three generations are poured molten into the receptacle of "Milestones" to emerge with a moral perhaps, and sure a purge for theatre goers.

Going To Prove Tigers Were Good

Marshall football history reared its head again today when Eddie Van Dorin, halfback on the 1937 champion Tigers, wrote from Fort Snelling that he wishes The Messenger would send him the accounts of the seven games played last year.

It seems that Eddie's fellow soldiers are skeptical about how good the Tigers were last season, and he wants to convince them with the written word.

Eddie enlisted last Autumn in the Third Infantry stationed at Fort Snelling, and is now a member of the Third Infantry Band.

Eight Teams To Compete Here

Neighboring Schools Consider Six-Man Football.

At the April meeting of the Schoolmen's Club of District Number 9, which was held last night at the New Atlantic Hotel, plans were made for spring activities and athletics. The date was set for the District Track Meet which is to be held at Marshall May 14.

The following schools have signified their intention of entering this meet: Balaton, Tyler, Ivanhoe, Hendricks, Minneota, Lynd, Milroy and Marshall. It is possible that others may decide to enter later.

Plans were also made for a softball tournament to be held at Marshall May 28. At the present time 10 towns have agreed to enter teams. It is probable that the first round will be played before that date. The tournament will be composed of eight teams. The two preliminary rounds are to be played in the morning and the championship game in the afternoon.

The smaller schools in the district voted to adopt six-man football in place of the usual eleven-man football. This would mean the starting of this sport in several schools in this area that have not had any football before.

Among these schools are Hendricks, Balaton, Russell, Lynd, Ruthon and Cottonwood. Milroy, Ivanhoe and Tyler are considering changing from eleven-man football to six-man football.

Reports on the meeting of the State High School League at the Curtis Hotel in Minneapolis on March 24 were made by Superintendent C. A. Bisel of Lynd who was the representative of this district.

Arrangements for the May meeting include on the program C. B. Lund, state director of the N.Y.A. Department in Minnesota.

'Milestones' Has Fine Woman's Part

Rose Sibley Rhead To Be Played By Helen Snyder.

A delicately etched figure against a darkened confusion of colors with finely chiseled classic features! From the storied fame of 1860, Arnold Bennett, collaborator of "Milestones", has molded a lovely woman—Rose Sibley.

At the story's opening, Rose is a young woman of 22 years, innocent, understanding, sympathetic, interested, talented, and sincere. She stands for the ideals of a Victoria, has demeanor of a princess, and the imagination of a child, the belief of a Portia. She is in love with John Rhead, the figure around whom the story revolves, and it is quite by coincidence that his love for her and their consequent marriage is brought about in Act I.

Rose is a woman whose generosity, whose unselfishness, whose femininity would be satisfied only in basking in the shadow of her husband's reflected glory. Her purpose in living was not comparable to John's; it was identical with John's success, his achievements, his triumphs.

In 1885, when middle age has given her somewhat of a lavender and old lace dignity, Rose Sibley is mother to a daughter, now turned 22. But it is not for the interests of this child that she lives even now. The one place she has in her heart and her affection, is still occupied by her idol, John, her husband.

So it is with expected shock that Rose renounces her individualistic daughter, Emily, when that young lady wishes to marry a young inventor whose character might well be compared to that of John Rhead's 25 years before. Rose disapproves because John disapproves, and the scene of a quarter of a century ago is re-enacted.

Human affairs sweep onward. At the end of another milestone, Rose is old—very old. She has just turned 73, and celebrates her golden wedding anniversary in the third act. Now she is stooped, sized, palsied, but the love she bears her husband has not wavered. The old boy, John, now 75, has kept his dominating, authoritative attitude toward his grandchildren that he had with his own child, Emily.

It seems that another generation has got to the marrying stage now, and John won't hear of the match. Rose, "granny", approves of the match; she differs with her husband for the first time in their 50 years of marriage. The final curtain finds the old couple compatible once more, with a song in their hearts and a smile on their lips when they dream of the past and tolerate the future.

Congratulations go to Helen Snyder who plays the part of Rose in the Senior Class Play, "Milestones." Her interpretation of this very difficult character role has taken a definiteness not common among amateur actors. For her audience, she has in store, smiles, admiration, wonderment, tears, laughter. She will be remembered for the portrayal of this role long after the class of 1938 has passed on from the Marshall High School into their dreams of the future.

The play is under the direction of Mary E. McEniry of the High School Dramatic Department.

Character Role Is Difficult One

Lulu Carrow Does Fine Work In "Milestones."

With a charm that is both innate and inimitable, Lulu Carrow gives us "Gertrude" out of the pages of Arnold Bennett's "Milestones." The role is a character part whose life does not end with the play, and whose inherent and basic qualities never fade away even though she has just turned 73 in the third act.

Gertrude is a strong, feminine heroine during the first milestone who prides herself on her individuality and stick-to-it-iveness. She is a "feminist" in that she will not be subdued by the mid-Victorian idea that women were mere ornaments in life not part of living with a right to free discussion and expression of ideas. Because her fiance, Samuel Sibley, will not talk over a vital matter of industry with her, she breaks off her engagement and chooses to remain a maiden lady for the rest of her life.

With the passing years, this woman of strong and powerful character with her natural abilities of home management and social hostesship stunted and her inborn instincts of mother love and wifely demeanor frustrated, waxes into thin, acid spinster with cynicism and bitterness in the heart. Her only joy is to pretend she is mother to her niece, Emily, a young girl, with "heart trouble too."

In her humanness Gertrude is delightfully comic, in her seriousness she is tragic. Our pleasing effect is a tragi-comic character whose tears and smiles are provoked by genuine human emotions.

When she is old, she is shrill voiced, steady, determined when she sees the same story of 50 years ago about to be re-enacted as her great niece, Muriel, is about to be caused to throw over her true lover.

May we recommend Lulu Carrow to her audience as genuinely pleasing, delightfully provocative and altogether satisfying in the role, Gertrude Rhead of the house of Rhead, London!

Senior Play Begins At 8 p. m. Friday

"Milestones" Built Around Three Generations.

The class of 1938 will present "Milestones" Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

"Milestones" is not a comedy, but a costume play of three generations. The cast members and property committee have been working very hard in preparation of this play, in which, will represent a true picture of the costume and speech of three generations. One will see three generations in costumes as nearly authentic as it is possible to reproduce.

Beautiful stage settings have been arranged for each act, and the inside of the homes may be pictured from the stage setting. "Milestones" will be remembered as one of the most beautiful costume plays of all time.

Miss Mary McEniry has charge of its production and Richard Hallen, of staging.

The cast includes:

Mrs. Rhead	Elizabeth Silver
Rose Sibley	Helen Snyder
Gertrude Rhead	Lulu Carrow
Thompson	Donald Burnam
Ned Pym	Duane Shippee
Sam Sibley	Merill Keith
John Rhead	James McGuire
Emily Rhead	Edith Struthers
Arthur Preece	Edward Marks
Nancy	Betty Moore
Webster	Donald Burnam
Lord Monkhurst	James Bailey
Muriel Pym	Pauline Henderson
Richard Sibley	Richard Anderson

School To Give Science Awards

Goes To Senior Making Greatest Progress.

Marshall High School has again been named as a member of a group of twelve hundred high schools to award the Bausch & Lomb Science Medal, according to Merrill W. Olson, principal, who received the medal today.

The bronze award, established in 1932, is presented by the faculty to the senior who has made the greatest progress in science during the last three years of high school work. Originally presented in the high schools of the State of New York, the award is now in use in every state in the United States and in some territorial possessions.

It has thus become a symbol of national recognition for exceptional work in science by high school students. Many of the 25,000 students who have won the honor are continuing their excellent records in some 50 colleges and technical schools, according to the award committee at Rochester, New York.

This year 91 students are eligible to compete for the medal which requires proficiency in at least three science subjects. The winner of the medal will join a national group believed to be the most advanced high school students in the country.

Big Eight League Opens Season Sunday

Marshall Plays At Cottonwood

Other Games At Granite, Ivanhoe, Wood Lake.

Marshall baseball followers will take their initial look at the new Big Eight league setup when the newly formed circuit opens its 1938 campaign on four fronts.

Of course there will be difficulty the first week or so in keeping the two leagues separate. The Southwestern Minnesota league of which Marshall has been a member for five seasons has definitely moved to the south where it absorbed new clubs and will in no way conflict territorially or otherwise with the Big Eight.

However, four of the former Southwestern clubs now make up the new circuit. Tyler, Ivanhoe, Minneota and Marshall form the southern division of the Big Eight.

Sunday's openers will be held in Cottonwood, Granite Falls, Ivanhoe and Wood Lake. Marshall meets Cottonwood, Clarkfield goes to Granite, Tyler meets their neighbors, Ivanhoe, in the Polack park and Minneota plays at Wood Lake.

Because of the many changes, it is impossible to draw a bead on the outstanding clubs of the circuit. It is known, however, that Granite Falls, Wood Lake, and Clarkfield were strong clubs last season and may repeat.

You'll remember that Ivanhoe started the latter part of June to blast its way to the championship of the old Southwestern Minnesota loop last year. Indications are that they will have relatively the same club.

Tyler is always a good attraction and can be the biggest surprise year in and year out of the group.

Little is known of either Marshall or Minneota since changes are necessary at both spots. Dr. Cottingham, local braintruster, has had his stooges out every night the weather permitted and pronounces them in fair condition for the Opener Sunday at Cottonwood.

The season is no longer a split one in which winners are declared each half and pitted for the championship. It will be played through with the clubs ending in the first division meeting in a four-way playoff at the close of the year. This winner, however, will not be declared the season's champion. The winner of the regular playing schedule will cop the pennant.

Games Sunday, then, at Cottonwood, Ivanhoe, Wood Lake and Granite Falls.

Music Department Prepares Program

All Groups To Participate May 5.

The music department of the Marshall Junior-Senior High School will present the annual spring program on Thursday, May 5 in the high school auditorium.

The program will consist of numbers by each of the musical organizations, namely the Junior High Mixed Chorus, Junior and Senior High Girls Glee clubs, the Senior High Mixed chorus and concert band and orchestra. In addition to these, two mixed chorus groups will sing several selections together and there will also be several small ensemble and solo numbers.

Although there are to be two music festivals given in Marshall this spring this will be the last formal presentation of an all Marshall program as the other schools of this district will meet for the second annual district festival on May 13th and the combined choirs of the Tracy Redwood Falls and Marshall High Schools will present a program later in May.

'Milestones' Cast Gives Fine Play

Large Audience Attends Senior Class Performance.

Another senior class play passed on into High School history last night with the presentation of Arnold Bennet's "Milestones" before a large and enthusiastic audience in the school auditorium.

This play was something a little extra-special, not only because of Miss Mary McEniry's fine direction but also because the cast seemed to put that little extra something into their parts that lifted it above the average of high school dramatics.

James McGuire as John Rhead, and Helen Snyder as his wife, had the most difficult, but the fattest parts and they did effective acting in all three acts, particularly in the last one as the elderly couple.

The way that these two young people shifted their mannerisms from youth to middle age to doddering old age in the three acts of the play was extremely successful, and it would be difficult to say which was the better.

One of the finest bits of acting in the entire play was the performance of Lulu Carrow, as Aunt Gertrude in her scene in the second act with Emily Rhead played by Edith Struthers.

In this scene when Aunt Gertrude is asking Emily about her feelings toward Arthur Preece, played by Edward Marks, she carried the audience along with her on a comic note, then suddenly shifted to the tragedy of her own broken love affair with Sam Sibley, and abruptly changed the tone of the whole scene into sadness, which is pretty darn good acting.

In the humorous part of this scene, Aunt Gertrude was asking Emily if she would permit Arthur to kiss her again if they were alone. When Emily replied that she didn't think she would object to the kissing, Aunt Gertrude shrugged and made a gesture with one gloved hand that sent the audience into a gale of laughter which is pretty good acting too.

Merill Keith did an exceptionally fine job as Sam Sibley. Two good humorous parts were taken by Betty Moore as Nancy Sibley, Duane Shippee as Ned Pym, and they got plenty of response from the audience.

Another member of the cast who played a thankless part, but who played it excellently was James Bailey as the fatuous British ass, Lord Monkhurst.

Pauline Henderson gave a spirited performance as Muriel Pym; and Edith Struthers gave a good performance as Emily, particularly in the last act. Edward Marks played a difficult role as Arthur Preece, and he played it well both as a young man, and as a labor leader in Parliament.

Minor parts were well taken by Eliabeth Silver as Mrs. Rhead; Donald Burnham as Thompson and as Webster; and Richard Anderson as Richard Sibley.

After the first act curtain, James McGuire, on behalf of the cast, presented Miss McEniry with a token of esteem.

Before and entreaetes, the Marshall High School Orchestra, directed by George Wingert, played a number of selections.

Properties were handled by Rudy Johnson, Arline Kristenson, Loreen Persohn, and Norma Bjerke.

Makeup was done by Miss McEniry assisted by Miss Senora Charlson, Miss Gladys Iverson, Miss Grace Dahle, and Miss Vivian Erickson.

Staging, directed by Richard Halen, was accomplished by Leroy Shellum, assisted by Richard Stevens, Donald Burnham, George Davis, Donald Cowan, and Everett Mattson.

Tiger Trackmen Win Third Place

Pipestone First In Southwestern Meet Saturday.

Gathering a first place, five seconds, a third, a fourth and a tie for fourth, Coach Larry Kienholz's Tiger trackmen placed third in the Southwestern Conference meet held Saturday afternoon in Lakefield, with 26 1-4 points.

The veteran Pipestone team won first honors with 41 points, followed by Lakefield with 32; Worthington garnered 17 1/2, Mountain Lake, 8, and Jackson, 7 points.

The two closest races of the day were the 440 and the half mile. In the 440 Krute ran a nice race but was taken by inches in the stretch.

Peltier in the 880 came from behind to force his opponent, but he also missed first place by inches.

Chollie Healy took a first in the discus; Brull a second in the high jump; Krute a second in the 440; Peltier a second in the 880; Healy a second in the broad jump; Gervais a second in the pole vault; Brull a third in the shot put; Peniston fourth place in the century; Juba tied for fourth in the pole vault.

With football practice over, many new men are reporting for track, and Coach Kienholz hopes to find material in these new candidates to bolster the weak spots of the Tiger tracksters.

100 yard dash—Nau, Lakefield 1; Rouse, Lakefield 2; Sorenson, Pipestone 3; Peniston, Marshall 4. Time 10.4.

220 yard dash—Nau 1; Sorenson 2; Rouse 3; Anderson, Pipestone 4; Time 23:7.

Pole vault—Priebe, Pipestone 1; Gervais, Marshall 2; Decker, Mountain Lake 3; Juba, Marshall and Carlson, Pipestone, tied for 4. Height: 10.9 1-4.

Shotput—Brown, Pipestone 1; Douglas, Jackson 2; Brull, Marshall 3; Frien, Mountain Lake 4. Distance 40 feet.

120 yard high hurdles—Reasmeyer, Pipestone 1; Stout, Pipestone, 2; Johnson, Worthington 3; Schulte, Worthington, 4. Time: 16.5.

Half mile run—Larson, Worthington 1; Peltier, Marshall 2; Uhlanick, Lakefield 3; Priby, Jackson 4. Time: 2:13.2.

High jump—Olfert, Mountain Lake 1; Brull, Marshall 2; Rue, Lakefield 3; Sorenson, Pipestone 4. Height 5.4.

Music Program Wins High Praise

Regarded As Among First Ever Given Here.

The Spring music program presented last night in the high school auditorium before an audience of approximately 500 persons, was generally conceded to be one of the finest ever given here by a high school music group.

Both the instrumental and the vocal presentations won considerable praise from the listeners, and Miss Vivian Erickson, in charge of the vocal training, and George Wingert who directs instrumental training, received many congratulations for their excellent work with the students.

All musical units in the High School participated in this Spring program, including:

The Concert Band and the High School orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Wingert; The Junior High Mixed Chorus, the Junior High Girls' Glee Club, the Senior High Girls' Glee Club, the Senior High Mixed Chorus, directed by Miss Erickson.

Members of the orchestra and band are as follows:

Kienholz Selects Men For Carleton Relays

Coach Larry Kienholz has picked nine Tiger trackmen to compete Saturday at the Carleton Relays but he still has one position to fill, which he will probably do tonight after the final workout.

The nine men already chosen are: Peniston, St. Aubin, Krute, Peltier, Gervais, Brull, Jones, Chollie Healy, and Cowan.

Gervais and Brull saw service last year at the Carleton classic when Marshall copped fifth place. Gervais took a third in the pole vault and he may do better this year. Unfortunately, Brull's specialty, the javelin, has been taken out of high school competition, and this omission is sure to cost the Tigers some certain points.

Adult Education Plans Advanced

C. & C. Furthers Move To Establishes Classes.

Plans for the establishment of adult education classes here will continue, the Civic and Commerce Association decided this noon after hearing a report from its committee on that program.

The report was made by County Agent F. G. Meade, chairman of the committee which has as its other members Rolland Sherman and R. G. Ogle.

The committee's report expressed the opinion that adult education here was both feasible and desirable, though it has not yet worked out detailed plans for classes.

Mr. Meade pointed to the steadily increasing amount of leisure time as one of the great needs for adult education classes. It is important, he said, that this extra time be put to constructive endeavor.

Two definite lines of approach are open, he said, to adult education. One is continuation study, where people further their education by continued study in their chosen or allied vocations. The other is hobby education, where people further their knowledge on their particular hobby or receive instruction in some hobby that appeals to them as one they would like to take up.

The courses, said Mr. Meade, should be limited to eight or 10 weeks, with one or two hours a week.

After hearing the report, the Association voted that the committee continue its work by working out means for holding such classes.

Other action at today's meeting of the Association was naming of a committee to seek restoration of proper facilities for Boy and Girl Scout camps at Camden State Park.

Marshall Team 4th At Morris

Livestock Judging Boys Make Good Showing.

The livestock team which represented the Marshall schools at a livestock judging contest held at Morris Saturday placed fourth among the 18 schools represented in the general livestock division. Lawrence Tholen of Marshall was also fourth high individual of the 54 boys in the group.

The contest is an annual event open to all schools in this district of the state. It is held each year at the West Central Experiment Station. Ortonville placed first this year.

The boys who accompanied Mr. Weber to the contest were: Marvin Dandurand, Orin Hoiland, Harold Maxwell, Stanley Schlorf, and Lawrence Tholen.

The local judging team will compete in the state contest to be held in connection with the Agricultural Congress at Universtiy Farm, St. Paul, on May 19, 20, and 21.

Bjerke's Team Wins Opener

Defeats Convent Nine By 10 To 5.

Glenn Bjerke's ball team won the first game of the season over the St. Joseph's Convent nine by a score of 10 to 5.

Ross went the route for the victors, with 8 strikeouts to his credit. The Bjerke team lineup included: Wiener C, Ross P, Ausen 1st, Young 2nd, Blair SS, LeBeau 3r, Cool CF, Samuels RF, and Bjerke LF. Nogaj, Waldorf, and Storck are substitutes.

Osborne started for the St. Joseph men, but was relieved in the fifth inning to be replaced by Gervais. The lineup: Grogan C, Osborne P, Gervais P, Paradis 1st, Gregoire 2, Gervais and Osborne SS, Juba 3d, the DeBaets brothers and Istas played in the fielding positions.

Local Students Visit St. Paul

Four Marshall High School students studied the school system in the South St. Paul High School yesterday accompanied by Principal and Mrs. Merrill W. Olson.

The students were Edith Struthers, president of the Student Council, Robert Harmon, Betty McCready, and Robert Ohlsen.

The Marshall group was received by a courteous group of South St. Paul pupils, and each Marshall student went through a day's activities under the guidance of a representative student of the St. Paul school. The day ended with an informative discussion on various student activity problems.

PTA Program Has Big Crowd

600 Watch Pupils At Class Work.

Upwards of 600 persons were present last night at the open house of the Marshall Parent-Teachers' Association.

The majority of the audiences were parents who came to watch classroom instruction and see exhibits and demonstrations of various departments.

Classroom instruction was shown as follows:

First Grade—Mrs. Staley, word study, reading class, phonics class; Miss Riedesel, word drill and reading class.

Second Grade—Miss Ross, reading; Miss Funfar, social studies and reading.

Third Grade—Miss Hellebo, nature study; Miss Bell, social study.

Fourth Grade—Miss Taylor, geography lesson; Miss Schneider, geography.

Fifth Grade—Miss Jackson, geography; Miss Benson, geography.

Sixth Grade—Miss Lammi, music; Miss Perkins, geography.

The industrial arts classes demonstrated metal and woodwork, and the Home economics, commercial art, physical education, and music departments gave demonstrations and exhibits in the auditorium.

Tigers Defeated By Canby Team

Effective Pitching Too Strong For Locals.

The Marshall High School baseball team lost its opening game to Canby there yesterday by a score of 9 to 4.

Billington, Canby pitcher, proved to be too effective for the Tiger Batsmen, setting them down without a run for six innings, and allowing only one hit.

With a nine-run lead, Coach Thoeny decided to try his reserve pitcher, Millard, who was nicked for four runs on two hits and three bases on balls.

Eight Schools Send 197 Entries New Records Seen For Some Events For District Track Meet Here Saturday

Seven Teams To Run In Relay Race.

The biggest track meet ever to be held in District No. 9 is slated for Saturday May 14. Eight towns have sent a total of 197 entries for the big field day.

Heading the list are 23 entries in the broad jump, 21 in the discus and 20 in the shot. The dashes have 19 and 18; the 880, 17 entries; the 440, 16; the high jump, 18; the pole vault 14; the low hurdles, 13; and the high hurdles, 11. The day will be completed with seven teams running the relay event.

Records stand in danger in some of the events. Gervais, winner at Carleton, should hang up a new record in the pole vault, now held by Ivanhoe, while Healy has already bettered the mark in the broad jump set by Tate of Balaton.

The rest of the field looks like they were starting together, all towns sending a record entry list. Zeipher of Milroy will be the favorite in the 100 yard dash and 220 yard event, having run second to Marshall's Regnier the past two seasons. His main threat will be a speed merchant from Hendricks by the name of Erickson. The 440 and the 880 yard events will be wide open as will the high and low hurdles.

In the field events, the field will again be wide open with the exception of the pole vault, where Gervais will receive the nod by virtue of his win at Carleton and his last chance to set a new record in District No. 9. Charles Healy also will receive the nod and the chance of setting a new record in the broad jump by virtue of having jumped within 1 inch of 20 feet at the Redwood meet early this season.

Last year's event was dominated by the Tiger's veteran track team, but with that team graduated and all the other schools sending in record entry lists, interest in the outcome is increasing by leaps and bounds.

With a nice day, the Marshall track will be just as fast as two years ago when Regnier and Arfman set records in the dashes and half-mile, which today have not been equalled.

Coaches in District No. 9 will run the meet as they have done in the past.

12 Schools Coming Here For Big Music Festival

600 To Take Part In Massed Chorus And Massed Band Numbers.

Schools in District No. 9, will send their organizations to Marshall Friday evening for a grand musical festival open to the public without charge.

Starting at 8 p. m. tomorrow afternoon the massed choruses, glee clubs and bands will rehearse for the evening performance.

The festival begins at 8 p. m., and the public will have the opportunity of hearing the various groups. A massed chorus of 300 voices, a girls' glee club of 200 voices, and a massed band of 300 pieces will be the highlights of the evening's performance.

Schools represented in the festival are:

- Minneota, Ivanhoe, Wood Lake, Cottonwood, Hendricks, Russell, Lynd, Dawson, Arco, Milroy, Ruthton and Marshall.

The directors of the three groups have been chosen by all of the schools participating and are as follows:

- Girls' Glee Clubs, Mrs. Almen of Balaton; Mixed chorus, Robert Myers of Minneota; Massed band, Adolph Buckneberg, of Hendricks.

The program will differ from that of last year in that all numbers will be presented by massed groups and none of the schools will present individual numbers as they did in last year's program. As a result there will be more massed numbers than last year and the program will be shortened considerably.

The program will begin promptly at 8 and the auditorium doors will be open to the public at 7.30.

Public Asked To Music Festival

12 Schools To Give Program Tonight.

The audience at the 12-schools music festival in the auditorium tonight will hear, among other numbers, a massed chorus of 300 voices, a girl's glee club of 200 voices, and a massed band of 300 pieces.

Singers and players from these towns will be present: Minneota, Ivanhoe, Wood Lake, Cottonwood, Hendricks, Russell, Lynd, Dawson, Arco, Milroy, Ruthton, and Marshall.

Mrs. A. L. Almen of Balaton will direct the girls glee clubs; Robert Meyers of Minneota, the mixed chorus; and Adolph Buckenberg of Hendricks, the massed band.

All numbers will be presented in massed groups instead of individually by schools, as last year. The program will start at 8 p. m., and will be much briefer than that given a year ago.

District Track Meet Saturday

Eight Schools Will Compete In Marshall.

Eight towns represented by 197 entries will compete here tomorrow afternoon for the track championship of District No. 9.

The track meet which will be the largest ever held here, will start at 1 p. m. tomorrow afternoon.

Given a good field, there is reason to believe that Gervais may set a new district record in the pole vault, and Chollie Healy may establish a longer mark in the broad jump.

The century and the 220—always the most interesting events to the average cash customer—will see Zeipher of Milroy probably showing his sturdy heels to the field. Erickson of Hendricks, however, is reported to be an up and coming lightfoot lad, too, and he will undoubtedly press Zeipher to a faster time, as Zeipher used to press Tommie Regnier in 1936 and 1937.

Outside of the pole vault and the broad jump, the field events will be anybody's business, as will the 440, the half mile, and the hurdle races. Krute in the 440 grueler, and Peltier in the half will attract a lot of attention from the Tiger backers, for both lads have been showing lots of potentialities during what is laughingly called this "Spring."

Marshall Goes To Granite Falls

Other Games At Wood Lake, Tyler, And Ivanhoe.

Rainy Sunday afternoons may be the clear dope for the general farm outlook, but they're just plain DOPE to the baseball busters in the two leagues of Southwestern Minnesota.

For instance the Big Eight league opened their season's festivities against a blast from the south that amounted to a small cyclone.

The second week fell in the middle of seven-day wet and was nullified entirely. So with no games last week the Big Eight will attempt to get under way once more this week.

Of most importance hereabout is the contest between Marshall and the threatening Granite Falls club over in the dells.

Opening up with the biggest threat in the circuit so far Granite has started early to corner a piece of the bright spot by outstanding play in their opener.

The best guess is that Les McEnaney will see duty against them because the majority of the votes come from the left side of the plate. And old Mac knows how to deal with such offiders, being one himself.

With rain and cold weather holding up strenuous workouts, neither club is in the best of condition but are far better off than when the openers were staged. It will be Marshall at Granite Falls, then.

Other games will see Clarkfield at Wood Lake, Tyler at Minneota and Cottonwood at Ivanhoe.

The three clubs to beat are undoubtedly Minneota, Ivanhoe and Granite and at least a couple of them should win in Sunday's schedule and continue another week in the undefeated class.

All games are scheduled at 2.30 o'clock in the Granite Falls, Ivanhoe, Minneota and Wood Lake parks.

Music Festival Makes Big Hit

Audience Of Over 1,000 Hears Fine Program.

An enthusiastic audience of over 1,000 listeners attended the annual Spring music festival in the auditorium last night presented by singers and players from the school music departments of 13 schools in this district.

Student music groups from the following communities participated in the festival:

- Arco, Balaton, Cottonwood, Dawson, Hendricks, Ivanhoe, Lynd, Marshall, Wood Lake, Milroy, Minneota, Russell and Ruthton.

For the majority of the audience the festival was an extraordinary musical experience hearing as they did, the music of Bach, Wagner, Mendelssohn, Palestrina, and Melius Christiansen, and others, sung or played by the massed band of 300 pieces, the massed chorus of 300, and the massed girls' glee club of 200 voices.

Adolph Buckneberg of Hendricks directed the massed band; Mrs. A. L. Almen of Balaton the massed Girls' Glee Club; and Robert L. Myers, the massed mixed chorus.

The complete program was as follows:

- Massed Band
- Komm Susser Todd ----- Bach
- E Pluribus Unum ----- Jewell
- Pilgrim's Chorus ----- Wagner
- Footlifter ----- Fillmore
- Girls' Glee Club
- Lift Thine Eyes ----- Mendelssohn
- Good Night ----- Marchner
- Sympathy ----- Friml
- When Song is Sweet ----- Sans-Souci
- Now Thank We All Our God ----- Bach
- Mixed Chorus
- Sweet and Low ----- Barnby
- Adoramus Te ----- Palestrina
- Sunbeam Out of Heaven -----

- Christiansen
- In Heaven Above ----- Christiansen
- Today There is Ringing Christiansen

Marshall Beats Granite In 16 Inning

Tiger Tracksters Cop District Title

Three Records Fall As 8 Schools Compete.

Coach Larry Kienholtz's Marshall track team captured the District 9 championship Saturday afternoon with a total pointage of 85 2-3 over a field of eight schools.

Milroy was second with 35 1-6 points; Tyler, third with 19; Ivanhoe, fourth with 13 1-6; Hendricks, fifth with 11 2-3; Balaton, sixth with 5 1-3; Minneota, seventh with 5; Lynd, eighth with 3.

Three District 9 records were broken. Coco Healy set a new time of 25.1 in the 220 low hurdles; Zupher of Milroy cut the 220 time to 22.8; Marks of Milroy heaved the discus for a new distance of 105 feet, 2 inches.

Brull of Marshall and Zupher of Milroy tied for high point position. Brull got firsts in the shot and the high jump, second in the discus and fourth in the broad jump. Zupher won the century, the 220, and the broad jump, and won the relay for Milroy.

Coco Healy appeared as a new star for the Tigers, garnering two firsts in the hurdle races.

Probably the most spectacular race of the meet was the half mile, with Marshall's Peltier coming from behind to win easily.

Melvin Krute was the favorite to cop the quarter mile, but a strong side wind hampered him on the home stretch, and the heavier Parmentier from Milroy edged him out.

Both Krute and Peltier are scheduled to go places in those two tough grinds, the 440 and half respectively. Another year will most probably see them with that added maturity and experience which will cut their time down plenty. They are both slightly built fellows, but possess the toughness and courage needed for these grueling grinds. All they lack is the extra something given by training and a year's growth.

The events follow:
100 yard dash—Zupher, Milroy 1; Peniston 2; Nielsen, Tyler 3; Teerlinck 4; Sorenson, Tyler 5. The time: 10.4.

120 yard high hurdles — Coco Healy 1; Gervais 2; Nielsen, Ivanhoe 3; Conger, Minneota 4; Schleuter, Ivanhoe, and Petersen, Tyler, tied for 5; The time: 17.

440-yard dash—Parmentier, Milroy 1; Krute 2; St. Albans 3; Ahern, Minneota 4; Dolan, Milroy 5. The time: 57.4.

Shotput—Brull 1; Olson, Balaton 2; Marks, Milroy 3; Vanstrom, Lynd 4; Nelson, Tyler 5. The distance: 41 feet, 2½ inches.

Pole vault—Gervais 1; Marks 2; Ronning, Hendricks 3; Juba, Marshall, Smith, Milroy, and Ronning, Hendricks, tied for fourth place; Faulds, Ivanhoe, Bartz, Ivanhoe, and Towne, Balaton, tied for fifth place. The height: 10 feet, 5 inches.

220-yard low hurdles—Coco Healy 1; Robinson 2; Lee 3; Peterson, Tyler 4; Bartz, Ivanhoe 5. The time: 25.1

Discus—Marks, Milroy 1; Brull 2; Chollie Healy 3; Frenco, Ivanhoe 4; Kindler, Lynd 5. The distance: 105 feet and 2 inches.

High jump—Brull 1; Jones 2; Buller, Hendricks 3; Faulds, Ivanhoe 4; Tate, Balaton 5. The height: 5 feet, 5 inches.

880-yard run—Peltier 1; Faulds, Ivanhoe 2; Buller, Hendricks 3. Larsen, Tyler 4; Snyder, Marshall 5. The time: 2:20.5.

Broad jump — Zupher, Milroy 1; Nielsen, Tyler 2; Chollie Healy 3; Brull 4; St. Albans 5. The distance 20 feet 6 inches.

220-yard dash—Zupher, Milroy 1; Nielsen, Tyler 2; Peniston Marshall 3; Teerlinck 4; Dolan, Milroy 5. The time: 22.8.

Half mile relay—Milroy 1, Marshall 2, Tyler 3, Hendricks 4, Minneota 5.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND TO PARADE TONIGHT

The Marshall High School Marching Band will make its first public appearance this spring when it parades tonight boosting National Air Mail Week. Weather conditions permitting, the band will leave the school at 7:05 and proceed to the Postoffice corner, then to Main Street, and to the Atlantic Hotel corner. They will then counter-march to the Third and Main intersection and play several numbers before continuing back to the high school. The Marching Band of 60 pieces will be under the direction of Shirley Ann Silver.

Kienholz To Take 13 To Region Meet

District 9 Expected To Do Well In Most Events.

Coach Larry Kienholz takes his Tiger track squad to Montevideo in Regional competition this coming Saturday.

By qualifying 13 men to enter the Regional events the Tiger squad will have entries in every event listed, and in some events, more than one.

Some of Marshall's stars who have dominated events in past Regional meets will be missing due to graduation, but new ones have appeared to take their place and carve out a name for themselves in future events.

The best competition in years will be seen at the Regional with Redwood Falls, Gaylord, and New Ulm sending good delegations from District No. 10, Marshall and Milroy from District No. 9, and Montevideo, Appleton, Madison and Ortonville from District No. 12. District No. 11 appears to be the weak sister in this year's competition.

Gervais will receive stiff competition from Redwood in the pole vault, while the Montevideo district is an unknown quantity.

In the hurdle races Marshall's Donald Healy will run, and Redwood and Montevideo. The outcome should be the best race of the afternoon.

With three jumpers in District No. 9 doing around 20 feet 6 inches, this event also holds much interest.

Both districts are sending high jumpers around the 5½ foot mark.

District No. 9 will have an even chance to again dominate the sprints with Zupher of Milroy carrying the honors. If District No. 9 can again dominate the sprints, it will mark the fourth year they have carried the honors. Marshall's Regnier has carried honors the past three years.

Melvin Krute and Peltier will uphold honors in the 440 and 880-yard events and appear to be comers in both races.

The weight events are a different story, with all districts unknown quantities.

Swimming Instructor Named For Marshall's New Pool

Lawrence Kienholz Chosen To Give Instruction And Life Saving Tests.

Through the cooperation of the City Council, the Marshall chapter of the Red Cross, and the local School Board, it has been possible to obtain the services of Lawrence Kienholz, instructor in the Marshall High School, as a swimming instructor for the new Marshall Municipal Pool.

Mr. Kienholz will have general charge of the swimming pool and will conduct classes in swimming. He will also give Red Cross life saving tests.

Mr. Kienholz, who is teaching his first year in the Marshall High School, has had extensive experience in swimming instruction and life guard work. He worked three years with the Red Cross corps at Minneapolis, giving life saving instruction. For seven years he was with the Minneapolis Park Board, acting as a life guard at one time or another at all of the Minneapolis beaches. He taught swimming for four years at a swimming pool in Minneapolis, and he was instrumental in getting free swimming lessons for Minneapolis children.

During the time that he attended college he also gave swimming lessons. It is hoped that when the pool is formally opened, it will be possible to organize several classes in life saving and that a large number of children and adults will learn to swim and secure junior or senior Red Cross life saving emblems.

The local Red Cross is to be commended for their financial help in this program. Each one of the co-operating groups is to pay one month's salary.

It is doubtful if a more competent instructor and supervisor for the pool could be secured.

Phy. Ed. Show To Feature Dancing

Will Be Held Thursday In Auditorium.

One of the interesting features of the Physical Education show at the High School auditorium next Thursday evening will be dancing by the two groups of student girls.

The Dance Through the Nations will be shown in the costumes of six nations by Sophomore girls, and a more modern dance in six complete costumes by the Freshmen girls.

Joe Nowotny of the Physical Education department in the Marshall Public Schools says: "Dancing makes its appeal, not only as a good exercise, and as a necessary factor in education, but as a socializing recreation—and its most essential and elusive quality is joy—the quality that has the power to hold and unify peoples of all ages and nationalities."

"And so on through the gamut of simple emotions, love and hate, loyalty and jealousy desire and achievement, primitive man expressed his mood in terms of dance. And so from primitive man to our modern age, through all the nations of the world, we have a continuance of the dance."

Tigers' Track Records Good

13 Men Going To Regional At Monte.

School track records as they stand today at Marshall High School indicate the place the Tigers have been going in the past few seasons they have had a track team.

Some of the records are excellent and each year finds improvement in some of the others. The marks in the 220, 880, and relay appear to be safe for some time to come.

The records follow:
100-yard dash—Regnier, 1935 Regional and Carleton Relays 10 seconds flat.

220-yard dash—Regnier, 1937, Region at Montevideo, 2.8.

440-yard dash — Pitts, 1937, district, 56.4.

880-yard run—Arfmann, 1935 Regional, 2:06.6.

120-yard hurdles—Donald Healy, 1938 district, 17 flat.

200-yard hurdles—Donald Healy, 1938 district, 25.1.

880-yard relay — 1935 regional, Regnier, Le Beau, Rose, Penniston, 1:36.9.

Shotput—Rose, 1935 regional, 44 feet, 10½ inches.

Discus — Osweiler, 1936 regional, 112 feet.

Javelin—Brull, 1937 State meet, 168 feet.

High jump—Brull and Jones, 1938 district, 5 feet, 5 inches.

Broad jump—Healy, 1938 district, 20 feet, 6 inches.

Pole vault—Gervais, 1938 Carleton Relays, 11 feet.

Thirteen Tiger trackmen will compete in the Regional track and field meet Saturday at Montevideo.

Tigers Prepare For Monte Meet

Marshall And Milroy To Represent District 9.

Trackmen from Marshall and Milroy will represent District 9 Saturday afternoon in Montevideo at the annual regional track and field meet.

Tiger Trackmen Second In Region

Monte Cops Meet With 32 3-4; Marshall, 30.

Marshall High School's track team traveled to Montevideo Saturday entering 14 men in regional competition. The meet developed into a hotly contested meet, with records on the whole very good. District No. 9 again led the way in placements. Milroy and Marshall together earned a total of 49 points.

Montevideo took first in the meet with 32 3-4 points, followed by Marshall with 30 points, Milroy with 19 points, and other schools trailing.

While it is impossible to give a summary of events in today's paper, an endeavor will be made to get this information for tomorrow's paper.

In the 100-yard dash, Penniston of Marshall took fifth; in the 440-yard dash, Krute of Marshall took fifth; in the 880-yard run, Bud Snyder set a killing pace the whole distance, and led the entire field till Harding of Montevideo passed him in the last 20-yard run for the tape. Snyder's performance was brilliant due to the fact that this was his first big competitive race and he ran it like a fighter. Time was excellent, 2 minutes and 8 seconds.

In the 120-yard hurdles, Coco Healy stepped the high in 16.8 to gain third place in the fastest competition in years. Coco gave every indication of becoming a valuable high hurdler at Marshall High School. In the 220-yard lows, Healy again ran them in 25.1 time with Robinson of Marshall for third place.

Brull in the shot put won fourth place and Healy copped second in the broad jump with a jump of 20 feet 2 1/2 inches. In the high jump a boy from Hutchinson jumped 5 feet 9 inches, and very well to take the broad jump, with 20 feet 9 inches both good in high school competition.

Gervais again led the field in the pole vault, getting a first with 10 feet 5 1/2 inches. In the relay the Marshall team composed of Teerlinck, Robinson, St. Aubins, and Penniston won the gold medals with a run of 1:38.8. Again the race proved to be one of the most thrilling of the afternoon. Montevideo is to be complimented on running an excellent tournament—and the Tigers again demonstrated the high place that they hold in track.

Aid Needed To Put Up K-Ball Lights

Last week, Monday, the well-meaning K-ball players who planned to work on the lights at the Legion Field court were rained out, so they are notified by Director Joe Nowotny kindly to report tonight and Tuesday night starting at 6.30 o'clock.

Managers are asked to gather as many workers as possible out of their teams to help put up the lights.

Three Marshall Men Going To State Meet

Gervais In Pole Vault; Chollie Healy In Broad Jump; Snyder In 880 Run.

Gervais, Chollie Healy, and Bud Snyder of Marshall, and Zupfer of Milroy will represent District 9 in the state track meet this month, by virtue of winning first or second places in the regional in Montevideo in last week.

Gervais took a first in the pole vault, Healy a second in the broad jump, and Snyder a second in the 880.

Zupfer of Milroy took first in the century and the 220.

Montevideo placed first in the regional with 32 1-4 points; Marshall second with 30; Redwood Falls third with 20 3-4; Milroy with 19; Hutchinson fifth with 15.

7 Tigers Set For State Meet

When the Minnesota High School Track and Field meet is held Saturday at the University Stadium, the Marshall tracksters will be represented by seven boys:

Gervais, polevault; Chollie Healy, broadjump; Snyder, 880-yard run; and the relay team consisting of Penniston, Teerlinck, Robinson and St. Aubins.

The other District 9 school which will be competing at the stadium will be Milroy represented by that great one-man track team, the stocky and swift Zupfer in the century and the 220. If Zupfer runs the 220 in 22.8 at the state meet, as he did in the district, he will probably lead the field.

Marshall Loses To Canby Nine

Local School Team Defeated 12 To 10.

The Canby High School baseball team defeated the Marshall school nine 12 to 10 yesterday on the Legion Field diamond.

The game was marred by numerous errors on both sides, Marshall being the worst offender with 10. Billington went the route for Canby, although he was in difficulty most of the game.

He was liberal with his passes, giving six free tickets to first, but on the other hand, struck out 10 batsmen.

Gag was nicked for 10 hits in 5 2-3 innings, struck out two and walked two. With bases full and two down in the sixth, Lambert replaced Gag and struck out Billington to retire the side. He gave up one hit and one run in the remaining inning.

The box score:

CANBY	AB	R	H
Jacobson, Ed	4	3	2
Millard, ss	4	1	0

Tigers Are First In Monte Relays

Return Home With Three Trophies.

The Marshall track team journeyed to Montevideo last night to take part in the Montevideo Relays held by that school, and the Tigers brought back the first place for all of the teams entered, which included Montevideo, Marshall, Appleton, Litchfield, and Benson.

The Tigers counted 31 points for first place. The Montevideo Relays consist of eight events, five relays, the pole vault, high jump, and broad jump. In the pole vault, the bar was at a height of 10 feet, and broad jumpers had completed their preliminary trials and the bar in the high jump was a 5 feet, 5 inches. Three relay events had been run when the skies opened and buckets of water descended so that it was impossible to continue in the various field events.

The Marshall team had Marks and Gervais left in the pole vault, Brull in the high jump and Healy, Brull, and St. Aubins in the broad jump. The standing were taken as they finished their preliminary trials. The Tigers had already won the medley relay race, placed second in the shuttle relay race and after the down-pour, placed third in the regular 880-yard relay race. The Tigers brought home three trophies.

May 29, 1938

A well-rounded, entertaining program will be presented, including games, contests, relays, apparatus, spring board work, tumbling, recreative games, dancing, clowns, and fun. The acts will be short and snappy, none taking more than a few minutes, furnishing you an enjoyable evening. The Physical Education Department will endeavor to show a wide variety of short activities rather than a few longer numbers.

Memorial Day March Order

The order of march for the Memorial Day parade here next Monday was announced today by Charles Blanchette, Memorial Day program chairman.

The order will prevail, said Mr. Blanchette, both for the morning processions to the cemetery and for the afternoon parade, with the exception that school children from the public and parochial schools will join the afternoon march.

- The order will be as follows:
1. Marshall Municipal Band.
 2. Grand Army Colors.
 3. Women's Relief Corps.
 4. Gold Star Mothers.
 5. Massed colors of American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and their auxiliaries.
 6. All War Veterans in a Body.
 7. Auxiliaries to Veterans' Organizations.

8. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

"All war veterans," said Mr. Blanchette, "will wear caps or uniforms of their respective organizations, if they have them. If not, don't fail to be there anyway, as we need you in the Memorial Day exercises to our honored dead."

Veterans will meet at their respective halls at 7.30 a. m., Monday to prepare for the morning services at the various cemeteries. In turn, they will go to Calvary Cemetery and the Marshall Cemetery, then to Green Valley, Ghent, and Lynd.

The day previous, Memorial Sunday, services are to be held in the Methodist Church at 11 a. m., with veterans organizations meeting half an hour earlier for the march to the church.

Physical Ed Show Tonight At 8

Program Is Free To Public.

The annual Physical Education Demonstration will be held in the high school auditorium tonight starting at 8 o'clock.

The demonstration this year is open to the public without charge and everyone is invited to attend. The demonstration will show the work of the Physical Education Activities in classes one through six and Junior and Senior High School. Each group will show the activities carried on in their quest for health. In addition to this, there will be the awarding of the posture prizes to the boy and girl who have earned first place rating in posture contest during the past school year.

Clown acts will add humor to the program, which will be completed with a group of plastic poses by members of the Physical Education Club.

The demonstration this year is put on without charge hoping that everyone interested will be able to come and see the activities carried on at Marshall High School in the Physical Education Department.

Joe Nowotny is in charge of the demonstration, aided by Miss Gladys Iverson, girls' Physical Ed instructor, and members of the grade faculty.

Marshall To Play Clarkfield There

Big Game Sunday Is Ivanhoe vs Minneota.

In a clash that might well be heard throughout the Big Eight baseball circuit, Minneota will tangle with Ivanhoe next Sunday on the latter's grounds.

By far the outstanding struggle of Sunday's schedule, this contest will see the two leading clubs of the loop against each other. Neither team has lost a single game this season.

It will be Ivanhoe's power against a weaker Minneota attack. It will be perhaps a little weaker pitching for Ivanhoe against what is reported to be the outstanding throwing of the league.

From that point on, little can be predicted concerning the outcome. One sure forecast is that the Ivanhoe park will be packed to the fences with followers of both clubs and enthusiasm will bear the over-running point when 2.30 o'clock Sunday comes around.

Next of importance to local fans will be the Marshall Clarkfield game on the Clarkfield lot when Doc Cottingham sends his club north to invade that park for the first time.

Last Sunday Marshall took the edge of an 8 to 7 contest with Wood Lake behind the crooked slants of Phil Gervais, but Sunday's starter is still unannounced.

Gervais worked for eight innings but was shelved for McEhaney who completed without trouble.

Granite Falls drops down to Wood Lake for their first meeting of the season and indications are they will continue their winning stride for another week.

Granite has not been against the two strongest teams according to reports but the schedule and a postponement have handed them a chance to get well under way before other leaders are encountered.

Marshall is the only team to win from Granite and that took 16 innings. They won last Sunday from Tyler but it was none too handily at that winning by a 4 to 1 count.

The final game in Sunday's schedule will see Cottonwood at Tyler. Both clubs have had difficulty in getting under way this season and this game will give one of them an opportunity to emerge from lower brackets. It will no doubt be Bud Nelson against either Hansen or Arnie Utoft.

Games, Sunday, then will be at Clarkfield, Ivanhoe, Wood Lake and Tyler. All games start promptly at 2.30 o'clock.

Plans For Memorial Day Are Completed

Decoration Of Graves In Morning Hours, Auditorium Exercises In Afternoon.

The time schedule for Memorial Day exercises here Monday, and the program for the Memorial Sunday service the day previous, were announced today.

The Memorial Sunday service will be held in the Methodist Church at 11 a. m., with veterans organizations and their auxiliaries meeting at Legion Hall half an hour earlier for the march to the church.

The Rev. W. A. Korfhage will deliver the Memorial Sunday sermon. He has chosen as his subject, "Keep America Out of War."

Three churches will unite in this service, the Methodist, Evangelical, and Federated, along with the veterans organizations. The public is likewise invited to attend. The complete program for the day appears on another page of this paper.

The time schedule for Memorial Day, Monday, as announced by Charles Blanchette, chairman, is as follows.

7.30 a. m.—Veterans meet in respective halls.

8.30 a. m.—March to Calvary Cemetery.

Take cars across bridge on East Main street to cemetery. Decorate graves, then take cars on East Main and get off near Shrunk garage. March on Main street, then north on Fourth street to Marshall street and take cars there for Marshall cemetery.

9.30 a. m.—Decoration of graves at Marshall cemetery.

10.30 a. m.—Decoration of graves at Green Valley.

11.00 a. m.—Decoration of graves at Ghent.

11.30 a. m.—Decoration of graves at Lynd.

12.00 noon—Sailors' Memorial at bridge at Legion Field.

12.15 p. m.—Lunch at Legion Hall served by joint committee of American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

1.20 p. m.—Fall in, in front of American Legion Hall for march, picking up school children and ending at high school auditorium for program.

The Memorial Day address at the auditorium will be given by Allan T. Briggs, department parliamentarian of the Minnesota Department of the American Legion.

The public is invited to attend the exercises at the auditorium, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. The complete program of the exercises there will appear in the Messenger tomorrow.

Intramural Track Records Set Up

Are Result Of Meets Held Saturdays This Spring.

The 7th and 8th grade track teams have hung up good records for the boys of the intramural competition next year to shoot at.

Seventh Grade

Pole vault—6 feet 8 inches—Gilbert and Gamm; high jump—3 feet 10 inches—Gilbert; broad jump—12 feet 8 inches—Gamm; 220 yard run—29 seconds—Jim McGandy; 75 yard dash—11 seconds—Mc Gandy; 50 yard dash—8 seconds—Mc Gandy; shotput—29 feet nine inches—Nielsen; 50 yard low hurdles—12 seconds—Gilbert.

Eighth Grade

Pole vault—7 feet 4 inches—Wiener; high jump—4 feet 10 inches—Meyers; broad jump—13 feet 2 inches—Ross; 440 yard run—72 seconds—Cool; 100 yard dash—13 seconds—Meyers; 50 yard dash—6 seconds—Meyers; shotput—42 feet 3 inches—Samuels; 60 yard low hurdles—12 seconds—Wiener.

These boys received intensive training in fundamentals in physical education classes under Joe Nowotny, and then competed in teams in trackmeets held on Saturday mornings at Legion Field.

Big Crowd Present At Phy Ed Show

Posture Prizes Awarded To Boy And Girl.

An audience of over 700 persons was present last night at the annual demonstration presented by the physical education department.

Dorothy Jefferson was adjudged the girl with the best posture, and Albert Bot in the boys' competition. Prizes, which were the gifts of the Marshall Parent-teachers Association, were presented to these two students by Superintendent F. R. Adams.

Musical entertainment consisted of numbers by the High School Band under the direction of George Wingert, and a solo, "When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day," by Exine Anderson.

The demonstration proper was concerned with the following features:

The kindergarten and grades one to six demonstrated physical education activities under the direction of their teachers.

Girls in grades seven, eight, nine, 10 and 11, under Miss Gladys Iverson, demonstrated relays, races, folk dances, dances of their own invention, basketball, and tumbling. The girls' tumbling team also performed in this section.

Boys in grades seven, eight, nine, 10 and 11, under Joseph Nowotny, showed basketball fundamental, medicine ball stunts, football skilly relays, calisthenic drill, apparatus work, and volleyball.

Four boys, Thomas Murphy, Harry Grogan, Jerome Juba, and MacDonald Henderson demonstrated recreation games suitable for the home, including badminton and paddle tennis.

The tumbling team of the Boys' Physical Education Club gave an interesting performance, and the program closed with an attractive plastic poses number by William Brull, Donald Cowan, Virgil Penniston, and Vernon Van Robays.

Divertissement during the program was supplied by Lawrence Lambert, Charles Whitney, Clair Ryan, and Douglas Moore in the "Big Broadcast of 1938" and other numbers, and by Exine Anderson in a vocal solo.

Teachers in the lower grades who participated in presenting the program were Miss McNelly, Miss Riedesel, Mrs. Staley, Miss Funfar, Miss Ross, Miss Bell, Miss Hellebo, Miss Schneider, Miss Taylor, Miss Benson, Miss Jackson, and Miss Lamm.

It was the general consensus of the audience last night that Miss Gladys Iverson deserved a great deal of credit for her work with the girls during the year, and so also Joseph Nowotny for his training of the boys.

6 4-H Plays To Be Given Saturday

Performance Scheduled For Afternoon And Evening.

Six Lyon County 4-H Clubs will compete in a one-act play contest Saturday afternoon and evening in the Little Theatre.

The clubs competing and the names of the playlets they will present are as follows:

Grandview Willing Workers, "The Pampered Darling"; Island Lake Zeps, "Father's Day: Or Mother's Day Off." Cottonwood Livewires, "Be A Little Coccoo"; Lyons-Coon Creek, "Kidnaping Betty." Lynd Lions, "The Old-timers' Bureau"; Fairview Greens "Hot Biscuits."

The Grandview, Island Lake, and Cottonwood plays will be staged in the order given starting at 2 p. m.

In the evening starting at 8 p. m., the Lyons-Coon Creek, Lynd and Fairview plays will be presented in the order named.

A small admission charge will be made at each performance to defray expenses.

Numbers between acts will be given by Eleanor and Pauline Henderson, Dorothy and Betty Jefferson, and Exine Anderson, and the Lake Marshall Girls' Trio.

School Exams Are Underway

Final Tests Continue For Next Three Days.

Final examination time, that perennial plague to the youth of the land, reared its ugly head in thousands of high schools today, and in Marshall High School starting at 10 o'clock this morning.

The examinations here will continue Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

On June 7, the graduates will receive their sheepskins, and from that date on, their paths will deviate, some to work, some to college and university, and some to marriage.

At first sight, it would seem that the outlook is generally brighter for these 1938 graduates than for those of several years ago, when the depression was at its worst. Many will continue their education, and many already have jobs or promises of jobs.

Track Banquet Set For Thursday Night

The businessmen of Marshall will be hosts to the Marshall High School track team at their annual track banquet Thursday night in the New Atlantic Hotel, starting at 6.30.

Between 20 and 25 boys will be honored at the banquet for their fine work during the 1938 track season.

T. A. Regnier, who with Harris Persons, James Von Williams, and George G. Lowe, started the series of track banquets five years ago, will act as toastmaster.

Members of the coaching staff will give brief talks during the program, letters will be bestowed to sound members, and the 1939 captain will be named.

June 3, 1938

Melvin Krute Is Track Captain

Named At Banquet Held For Team.

Melvin Krute was named captain of the 1939 Tiger track squad at the annual banquet given by business and professional men last night in the New Atlantic hotel.

Speakers at the banquet were: Charles Healy, speaking for the seniors; Bud Gervais, for the juniors; Principal Merril W. Olson, who gave a history of track at Marshall High School; Superintendent F. R. Adams; Coach Lawrence Kienholz, who cited the results of the past season; and Dr. Edward Lawrence of Spokane, Wash.

The latter, who is visiting his father, James Lawrence, gave a very interesting account of his acquaintance with two of the greats of American track—Glenn Cunningham, the famous distance runner, and Eddie Tolan, the Negro dashman.

The boys who were presented with letters were:

William Brull, 3 bars; Lionel Gervais, 3 bars; Charles Healy, 2 bars; Donald Healy, 1 bar; Daniel Jones, 2 bars; Melvin Krute, 1 bar; Kenneth Marks, 1 bar; Dellard Peltier, 1 bar; Virgil Penniston, 1 bar; Clair Ryan, 1 bar; Vernon Snyder, 1 bar; Gerald St. Aubin, 2 bars; Francis Teerlinck, 2 bars; James Robinson, 3 bars; Donald Lee, 1 bar.

Bill Brull gave the speech of welcome, and T. A. Regnier acted as master of ceremonies.

To Honor Track Team Tonight

Marshall Boys Set Up Fine Record.

Fifteen boys will receive letters at the annual Track banquet put on by the business men of Marshall at the Atlantic Hotel tonight at 6.30 p. m.

The track squad completed their season Saturday by attending the state track meet at Minneapolis. The Tigers had qualified 6 boys in the various events. The completion of the track season marked a successful season for Marshall High School.

The boys opened with a dual meet against Redwood Falls, winning it handily, followed by third place in the Southwestern Conference, and then a top heavy score in District No. 9, followed by second place in the Regional, in which Montevideo nosed out the Tigers by two points. They then went on to win the Montevideo Relays, bringing home three beautiful trophies.

The Tigers succeeded in placing first in the Carlton Relays and fourth in the pole vault in the State meet. Several important records were set this year with D. Healy hanging up records in the hurdles and C. Healy in the broad jump. Gervais also set a new record in the pole vault.

The boys earning letters are as follows:

William Brull, 3 bars; Lionel Gervais, 3 bars; Charles Healy, 2 bars; Donald Healy, 1 bar; Daniel Jones, 2 bars; Melvin Krute, 1 bar; Kenneth Marks, 1 bar; Dellard Peltier, 1 bar; Virgil Penniston, 1 bar; Clair Ryan, 1 bar; Vernon Snyder, 1 bar; Gerald St. Aubin, 2 bars; Francis Teerlinck, 2 bars; James Robinson, 3 bars; Donald Lee, 1 bar.

Starting out in March with a squad of 40 boys, the Tigers have established a consistent record in Southern Minnesota. They hold records in the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, and the pole vault in the Southwestern Conference; records in the 100 yard dash, low hurdles, half mile, relay, and shot put in the district; and half a dozen records in the Little Ten Conference. Each record in itself is good, and each succeeding Track team is bettering the events a little in each event.

One record which the Tigers are proud of is the 880 yard relay which they have dominated for the past four years in regional competition. Each year for the past four years the Tigers have brought back the trophy indicating the best relay team in the region and when one considers that some 60 schools are represented in this event,

June 2, 1938

During six years of competition the Tigers have placed a second three times always within one or two points of the leaders and copped one regional title.

The interest and support of the business men of Marshall has in no small way attributed to the success of the Marshall Track squad.

100 yard dash, Regnier, Carlton Relays, 10 seconds, 1935.

220 yard dash, Regnier, Montevideo Meet, 22.8 seconds, 1937; 440 yard dash, Fitts, District, 56.4, 1937.

120 yard high hurdles, D. Healy, Regional 16:8, 1938.

Broad Jump, C. Healy, District, 20' 6", 1938.

High Jump, Brull and Jones, District, 5' 5", 1938.

Discuss, R. Osweiler, Regional, 112' 1937.

Shot, Rose, Regional, 44' 10 1/2", 1935.

Pole Vault, Gervais, State Meet, 11', 1938.

Javelin, Brull, State Meet, 168' 7 1/2" 1937.

91 Students Receive Diplomas

Sincerity And Character Count, Says Speaker.

Ninety-one students ended their careers at Marshall High School in Commencement exercises held last night before approximately a thousand relatives and friends. It was one of the largest classes in the school's history.

Honor and awards went to the following seniors and students:

Citizenship award given by Luther I. Snapp Post of the American Legion—Muriel Luick and Richard Ullery.

June 8, 1938

Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Gray award—Elizabeth Silver and Elizabeth DePover. Five other students received honorable mention.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Persons awards—Marjorie Rose Wetherbee and Jackie Hiller.

Josten Citizenship award—Charles Healy and Lula Carrow.

Bausch and Lomb science award—Richard Ullery.

Attorney and Mrs. James H. Hall awards—Edith Struthers and Audrey Ahlers.

Bud Ross Trophy given by Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rose—Charles Healy.

Dr. William Bockoven, former Marshall resident, gave an award in observance of his graduation from the Marshall High School 25 years ago and in memory of a well-loved superintendent, Professor Pobes. The Bockoven award went to Edith Struthers.

June 8, 1938

Superintendent F. R. Adams presented the Bockoven and Hall awards and the Bud Rose Trophy. Principal Merrill W. Olson presented the Gray essay awards, the Persons awards, the Josten awards, and the Bausch and Lomb Science awards. Commander W. J. Osborne presented the Legion award.

At the close of the presentations, Superintendent Adams gave the diplomas to the graduating class, following a brief talk during which he stated that it was an outstanding class in all activities, scholastic, athletic and musical.

The commencement program included the following:

Invocation, the Rev. Thurlow Baker; Salutatory, James Bailey; "O Gladsome Light," sung by the Senior High Mixed Chorus; Valedictory, Helen Snyder; Address by Dr. George P. Conger, department of Philosophy of the University of Minnesota; "Salvation is Created," sung by the Senior High Mixed Chorus; Presentation of awards; presentation of Diplomas by Mr. Adams; Benediction, the Rev. Thurlow Baker.

Dr. Conger, the main speaker of the evening, took as his subject Mahatma Gandhi, whom he described as one of the seven or eight greatest men of this time; a man to whom it is given to influence, during his lifetime, hundreds of millions of his fellowmen.

The speaker explained that while he was on a leave of absence studying religions and philosophies in India, he spent some days talking with Gandhi near Wanda in the center of India.

Gandhi's ideal is service for his homeland, to make it self-sufficient economically, he said. Striving for this end, he has with superhuman courage and faith, tackled the five great problems of India with the courage, grit, determination, and self-sacrifice that should set an example for anyone.

Any single one of India's five great problems would discourage the most hopeful and intelligent of any of the other great minds of the world, but Gandhi has gone forward to assault them with a single-mindedness, energy, hope, and faith and intelligence that is already showing traces of results.

How can he do this great work, asked Dr. Conger, with that frail body and at the advanced age of 65? Well, for one thing, he has reduced living to the essentials; his mind is keen and humane, and he is nourished by a flaming vision of freedom and self-sufficiency for his people; he has a quality that draws millions to him; they trust and love him, in fact worship him as the leader of men.

From Gandhi's life, Dr. Conger concluded that nothing really matters except sincerity—nothing really counts but character.

School Activities Set New Record

Youths Get 28 Programs At Six Cents Each.

By MERRILL W. OLSON

Marshall High School students have completed their biggest activity program in the history of the school, both from a standpoint of activities themselves and finances.

Starting the year, 25 numbers were promised, and here is what the students received.

- 4 football games
- 11 basketball games
- 11 lyceum numbers
- 1 exchange play
- 1 music program
- Tiger Herald, one year

Marshall students responded to the activity program in such numbers that it was possible to add four additional programs, thereby reducing the cost of each individual program. At 50c for the Tiger Herald, our boys and girls paid $1.90 for 28 programs, or about 6c each.

This 6c included athletic contests 15 in all. At a conservative price of 25c each for all 28 activities and the Tiger Herald, students received $7.50 for their $2.40 activity book. The Student Council spent some time preparing the 1938-1939 program, and can promise students 25 numbers including athletic contests.

One of the biggest advantages in Student Activities, of course, is the financial side, but in addition to this the united support of all students in Junior and Senior High School is the most worthwhile side of activities. Ninety-five per cent of the students in senior high school and 80 per cent in junior high school—all working toward the same goal, makes for better and more worthwhile activities.

Student Activities have helped in no small way to put across accomplishments which include:

1. Southwestern, Little Ten and State Football Champions.
2. An excellent season in track.
3. An enlarged physical education program to include every boy in high school.
4. A complete school handbook.
5. Record attendance in District No. 9.
6. Record attendance in Region No. 3.
7. Posture campaign started.
8. Purchase of Loud-Speaking system.
9. The largest band in history.
10. Completed with the aid of school district No. 8, payments on Athletic Field and Grand Piano.

We have already outlined several major items that we wish to accomplish in the school year 1938-39, and

Swimming Pool Ready To Open Within Week

Charges For Use Of Pool Are Fixed, Hour Schedule Drawn, Lifeguards Named.

Marshall's new swimming pool will be ready for use by the end of next week, possibly sooner.

Orvis Fitts and Francis Teerlinck were chosen lifeguards during a competitive examination held this morning under a board consisting of Lawrence Kienholz, Lloyd Ostrander, Cliff Dale, and Joe Nowotny.

The test given was the standard Senior Red Cross Life saving test. Arthur Samuels was selected alternate. He will work in the absence of any of the others.

There will always be two lifeguards at the pool and most of the time three men will be on duty.

The daily period of swimming without admission charge will be from 10.30 to 12 noon.

Here is the schedule of prices for the others hours:

Children
 Single admission-----10 cents
 Rental on bathing suit-----10 cents
 Rental on towel-----5 cents
 Most children, however, will bring their own bathing suits and towels, it is believed.

Adults
 Single admission-----20 cents
 Rental on bathing suits-----10 cents
 Rental on towel-----5 cents

Season Tickets
 For $4 the swimmer may purchase a ticket on which there are $6 worth of swims.

Anyone in the family may use the cards.

It is advised that these cards be kept at the bath house where they will be filed alphabetically and punched by the attendant as they are used.

To make it easier for the children who wish to buy season tickets, they may pay a dollar down, and the rest during the season.

The cards will be on sale at the bath house.

The hours during which the swimming pool may be used are as follows:

- Morning
 From 9 a. m. to 10.30—swimming lessons.
 From 10.30 to 12 noon—free period.
- Afternoon
 From 2 p. m. to 5.30 p. m.—bath house open.
- Evening
 From 7 p. m. to 10 p. m.—bath house open.

Lawrence Kienholz, manager of the pool, will also act as lifeguard at certain periods, and as swimming instructor. He will give the children free instruction in swimming and life saving each morning from 9 o'clock to 10.30. The schedule for other swimming lessons will be announced later.
