ANNUAL Football Dinner
*In Honor of the 1945 Marshall
 Squad and Coaches*

The Quarterbacks first organized in 1937 with a membership of 65, increased to 110 in 1945—meeting every Monday during the football season, the quarterbacks discuss football, past, present and future.

The interest of this club has always been and will continue to be the youth of the community—this annual quarterbacks banquet is staged to show the appreciation of the quarterbacks for some fine games this fall.

Every boy in Marshall can be assured of the backing of this club during the 1946 season.

Marshall Downtown Quarterbacks

ANNUAL Football Dinner

In Honor of the 1946 Marshall
Squad and Coaches

The Quarterbacks first organized in 1937 with a membership of 65, increased to 110 in 1946—meeting every Monday during the football season, the quarterbacks discuss football, past, present and future.

The interest of this club has always been and will continue to be the youth of the community—this annual quarterbacks banquet is staged to show the appreciation of the quarterbacks for some fine games this fall.

Every boy in Marshall can be assured of the backing of this club during the 1947 season.

Marshall Downtown Quarterbacks
Annual Football Dinner

In Honor of the 1956
Football Squad
and the
Marshall Coaching Staff

The Quarterbacks were first organized in 1937 with 65 members and have become a Marshall institution. They meet every Tuesday during the season to discuss football, past, present, and future. With an average attendance of 100, the Quarterbacks have played an important part in Marshall football traditions. This dinner is staged for the 118 boys on the squad and their eight coaches in appreciation of a fine football season.

The Quarterbacks were first organized in 1937 with 85 members and have become a Marshall institution. They meet every Tuesday during the season to discuss football — past, present, and future. With an average attendance of 100 of the 154 members, the Quarterbacks have played an important part in Marshall football traditions. This dinner is staged for the 135 boys on the squad and their eight coaches to show the interest which the Quarterbacks have in boys.
