This man and wife have given me trouble since the very beginning of our work.

They did not believe in war, and did not intend to do anything, in any way to encourage or support it so they told me. They also said "We consider ourselves Christian people - the Lord said 'Thou shalt not kill' and 'Love thy neighbor as thyself etc etc', they have been unresponsive to every movement, even to accepting the Red Cross Salvage card.

In this Americanization work, I tried sending at different times, three Block Chairmen, thinking they would have no difficulty to gain entrance as they were strangers, she was seen showing about inside by all of them but would not come to the door.

These people have given trouble in every campaign, and was reported once I believe - The block chairman turned in this card with what information she could obtain written at top of card - afterwards tried myself to obtain an interview and was informed very sarcastically she did not consider this work at all necessary - and no one's business - that she did not intend to give out their ages, especially to a block chairman (neighbor) I asked her if she would give me the required information omitting ages, she replied that she would not, she was getting good and tired being bothered so much - "First its Liberty Bonds, then Red Cross donations, then something else" as she expressed it.

Perhaps a special committee could handle the situation - With us they are impossible.
