Administration

DATE: Nov. 4, 1975

FROM : Michael J. Bradley MJB
Special Assistant Attorney General

SUBJECT: New rules relating to aid to non-public school pupils -- designated as Edu 740-759

Enclosed please find proposed rules relating to aid to non-public school pupils. My clients are under great pressure to get the program under way. Therefore, if you could aim for approval within ten days, rather than twenty, it will be greatly appreciated by all.

There were four changes made in the rules as adopted compared with the rules as proposed. In Edu 741(a)(1)(aa) the word "individual" was inserted before students in line 3 for clarification. The word "individual" was used in place of the word "general" in line 3 - the use of the word "general" had been an oversight which was caught at the hearing. The phrase "and rental of films and audiovisual materials" was deleted from Edu 741(a)(1)(bb). It was recognized at the hearing that the rental of materials was not included in the enabling legislation and therefore did not belong in the rules. Finally, in Edu 741 (a)(1)(cc) the word "classroom" was replaced with the word "individual." That change was also necessitated by an oversight in the original draft. None of the changes affect the operation of the rules and should not be thought of as substantive changes.

CHAPTER THIRTY-SEVEN: EDU 740-759

INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS FOR PUPILS ATTENDING NONPUBLIC SCHOOLS

(ALL NEW MATERIAL)

Edu 740 Policy

In order to promote equal educational opportunity for every school child in Minnesota and to assure all Minnesota pupils and their parents freedom of choice in education, the benefits provided by Minn. Laws 1975, Chapter 396 shall be made available to pupils in nonpublic schools as provided in this chapter.

Edu 741 Instructional Materials

(a) Eligible Instructional Materials.

(1) The term shall be limited to "textbooks," "school library and audiovisual materials," and "instructional supplies" as those terms or their equivalent are described or designated in the manual of instructions for uniform accounting for Minnesota school districts.

(aa) Textbooks include elementary and secondary textbooks furnished free to public school pupils including supplementary textbooks, and dictionaries. Textbooks are primarily for use in certain classes or grades rather than for general school use.

(bb) School library and audiovisual materials include materials such as school library books and pamphlets available for use by individual students; maps and globes for individual use; periodicals and newspapers for individual use; audiovisual materials used in the instructional program such as films, filmstrips, recordings, exhibits, models, and television and radio teaching materials exclusive of equipment.

(cc) Instructional supplies are consumable items such as tests, chalk, paper, test tubes, ink, pencils, paint, paint brushes, crayons, chemicals, shop supplies for vocational education, oils, cleaners, instructional farming supplies, supplies for the operation of equipment used in the teaching-learning process, workbooks, physical education supplies, printing of classroom materials, and magazines or periodicals for individual use.

(2) Instructional materials must be secular, neutral, and nonideological such as the materials normally provided for pupils in public schools.

(b) Ineligible Instructional Materials.

Items such as unabridged dictionaries, encyclopedias, and other major reference works are classified as equipment and are therefore ineligible instructional materials.

Edu 742 General Administration

(a) The department of education shall administer funds allocated for the purchase of instructional materials to be loaned or provided to nonpublic school pupils.

(b) The department of education, in cooperation with the state auditor's office, shall establish proper accounting methods for fiscal control, fund accounting, and the maintenance of records for the acquisition of instructional materials to be loaned or provided to nonpublic school pupils.

Edu 743 Local Administration

(a) An application for instructional materials to be loaned or provided shall be made by or on behalf of each participating nonpublic school pupil through the nonpublic school to the public school district in which the nonpublic school is located. For the 1975-76 year the application shall be made within 30 days of the effective date of these regulations. For the following school year it shall be made on or before September 15. The applications shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner. Application forms shall be available in the office of the public school superintendent on the effective date of these regulations.

(b) The department of education shall determine the allocation of aid for instructional materials.

(c) The local school district shall purchase and transmit the instructional materials to the nonpublic schools in the district for distribution to the pupil applicants.

(d) Instructional materials loaned to pupils in nonpublic schools shall be maintained on inventory by the local school district except in cases of consumable or nonreusable instructional materials.

(e) The local school district may declare loaned school books unusable after five years and remove them from the inventory.

(f) The nonpublic school shall maintain on file all applications for instructional materials loaned or provided to nonpublic school pupils. The applications shall be available for inspection by the department of education.

(g) Upon completion of the distribution of the instructional materials each local school district may claim from the department of education (1) the cost of the instructional materials and (2)a sum for the actual cost of administration which shall not exceed five percent of the cost of the instructional materials distributed. The administrative costs shall be in addition to the allocation for the nonpublic school. Handling and shipping charges by the supplier shall be included in the allocation for each nonpublic school.

Edu 744 Availability of Funds

(a) The allocation for instructional materials shall be the total expenditure for instructional materials by all public school districts in the state divided by the total number of pupil units based on an unduplicated count of pupils enrolled in the districts during the same fiscal year.

(b) Kindergarten pupils shall be counted as one-half unit: elementary pupils (grades 1-6) shall be counted as one pupil unit and secondary pupils (grades 7-12) shall be counted as 1.4 pupil units notwithstanding the local nonpublic school organization.

(c) For the 1975-76 school year, the allocation shall not exceed $45.43 per nonpublic pupil unit. Future allocations will be based upon the most recent data available.

Edu 745-759 Reserved for future use.

BEFORE the

In the matter of Proposed
Rules relating to Edu 740-759

STATEMENT OF NEED

The above captioned rules are new and need approval by the State Board of Education.

A Board Resolution would establish Regulations for loaning text books and instructional materials to pupils attending nonpublic schools pursuant to Laws of Minnesota, 1975, Chapter 396 (M.S. 123.931 - 123.937).

Secretary, State Board of Education

STATE OF MINNESOTA
COUNTY OF RAMSEY

BEFORE THE
STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the matter of Proposed
Rules relating to Edu 740-759

STATEMENT OF NEED

The above-captioned rules are new and need approval by the State Board of Education.

Minnesota Laws 1975, Chapter 396 establishes a system of public aid to nonpublic schools. That law also requires that the State Department of Education promulgate rules and regulations. The following are the reasons in support of the specific rules which are proposed:

1. Edu 740 is a condensed form of the policy statement contained within Chapter 396. The policy statement was condensed to avoid the use of possibly unconstitutional statements found within the policy statement of the Act.

2. Edu 741(a)(1), which defines "textbook" and "instructional supplies" as described in the manual of instructions for uniform accounting for Minnesota school districts is based upon Chapter 396, Section 2 which likewise limits those terms to their definitions as contained in the manual of instruction for uniform accounting for Minnesota school districts.

3. Edu 741(a)(1)(aa), (bb) and (cc) lists the definitions of textbooks, school library and audiovisual materials, and instructional supplies and consumable items as they are defined in the manual of instruction for uniform accounting for Minnesota school districts. The definitions have been modified somewhat from the definitions contained in the manual to avoid certain constitutional limitations.

4. Edu 741(a)(2) incorporates the specific requirement of Chapter 396, Section 2 that instructional materials be secular, neutral and non-ideological.

5. Edu 741(b) defines certain items to be classified as equipment. This classification is necessary to avoid certain constitutional problems which might otherwise jeopardize the rules.

6. Edu 742(a) states that the department of education shall administer the funds received under this Act. This provision is derived from Chapter 396, Section 8.

7. Edu 742(b) establishes a system of fiscal and accounting controls which will be acceptable to the State of Minnesota.

8. Edu 742(c) states that administrative costs for the department of education shall not exceed two percent of the state allocation. That is the amount of money deemed necessary to administer the program. The costs will include additional staff, preparation of application forms, processing payments, and the monitoring of the program.

9. The first sentence of Edu 743(a) is derived from the language contained within Chapter 396, Section 3. The second sentence of that paragraph requires applications for instructional materials to be made for the 1975-76 year within 30 days from the adoption of these rules. The 30 day limitation is necessary to expedite the commencement of the program. The third sentence requires that for the 1976-77 year the application shall be made by September 15. The September 15 date is sufficient for the nonpublic schools to determine their needs for the upcoming year. The remaining sentences merely state the method by which application forms for instructional materials will be made available.

10. Edu 743(b) is derived from the language contained within Chapter 396, Section 3.

11. Edu 743(c) is derived from the language containedwithin Chapter 396, Section 3.

12. Edu 743(d) is based upon the language contained within Chapter 396, Section 3 which retains title to all instructional materials, except consumable or nonreusable materials, in the local school district. Title to consumable and nonreusable materials is vested in the nonpublic school pupils by Chapter 396 and this rule.

13. Edu 743(e) provides that after five years a local school district may declare loaned materials to be unusable. That five year provision is necessary to comport with the practices of public schools within the state.

14. Edu 743(f) requires the local school district to keep a record of all applications received for instructional materials and to make those records available to the department of education. That rule is necessary to ensure that only appropriate materials are loaned, and that the materials are for the benefit of the individual nonpublic school children.

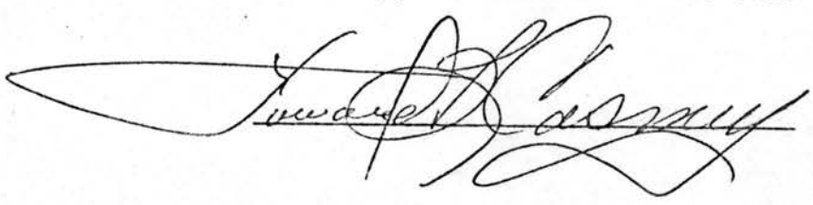

15. Edu 743(g) clause (1) is derived directly from Chapter 396, Section 3. Clause (2) and the remaining sentences of that paragraph provide for the repayment to local school districts of the costs of administering the program. This is deemed to be required by the intent of the Act which is that the program be free from cost, to the local school districts. The five percent maximum on reimbursed expenses is necessary to ensure that school districts act reasonably in making expenditures under the program.

16. Edu 744(a) is necessary to compute the amount of aid which the nonpublic school pupils will be entitled to for the 1975-76 year.

17. Edu 744(b) is derived from Minn. Stat., Section 124.14, Subd. 1 (1974) as amended by Minn. Laws 1975 Ch. 432, Section 21.

18. Edu 744(c) is derived from Chapter 396, Section 3 which states in part that the "cost per pupil unit of the instructional materials . . . shall not exceed the statewide average cost per unit spent by the Minnesota public elementary and secondary schools . . ." The figure of $45.43 is the statewide average cost per unit as specified in Chapter 396, Section 3.

COUNTY OF RAMSEY

BEFORE David C. Brandon, et al
State Board of Education

In the matter of the Proposed
Adoption of Rules of the State
Board of Education Governing
Adoption of Edu 740-759

FINDINGS OF FACT

The above entitled matter came for hearing before the State Board of Education of the State of Minnesota on the 26th day of September at 9:30 a.m. in the Auditorium of the State Office Building, Saint Paul, Minnesota after proper notice required by M.S. 1974 Section 15.0412 was served upon all persons associated and other interested groups registered with the Secretary of State for that purpose.

After affording interested persons an opportunity to present written and oral data statements and arguments, having heard all of the testimony, having considered all of the evidence adduced and upon records, files and preceedings herein we find the following:

1. Edu 740 is a condensed form of the policy statement contained within Chapter 396. The policy statement was condensed to avoid the use of possibly unconstitutional statements found within the policy statement of the Act.

2. Edu 741(a)(1), which defines "textbook" and "instructional supplies" as described in the manual of instructions for uniform accounting for Minnesota school districts, is based upon Chapter 396, Section 2 which likewise limits those terms to their definitions as contained in the manual of instruction for uniform accounting for Minnesota school districts.

3. Edu 741(a)(1)(aa), (bb) and (cc) lists the definitions of textbooks, school library and audiovisual materials, and instructional supplies and consumable items as they are defined in the manual of instruction for uniform accounting for Minnesota school districts. The definitions have been modified somewhat from the definitions contained in the manual to avoid certain constitutional limitations.

4. Edu 741(a)(2) incorporates the specific requirement of Chapter 396, Section 2 that instructional materials be secular, neutral and non-ideological.

5. Edu 741(b) defines certain items to be classified as equipment. This classification avoids certain constitutional problems which might otherwise jeopardize the rules.

6. Edu 742(a) states that the department of education shall administer the funds received under this Act. This provision is derived from Chapter 396, Section 8.

7. Edu 742(b) establishes a system of fiscal and accounting controls which are acceptable to the State of Minnesota.

8. Edu 742(c) states that administrative costs for the department of education shall not exceed two percent of the state allocation. That is the amount of money necessary to administer the program. The costs will include additional staff, preparation of application forms, processing payments, and the monitoring of the program.

9. The first sentence of Edu 743(a) is derived from the language contained within Chapter 396, Section 3. The second sentence of that paragraph requires applications for instructional materials to be made for the 1975-76 year within 30 days from the adoption of these rules. The 30 day limitation will expedite the commencement of the program. The third sentence requires that for the 1976-77 year the application shall be made by September 15. The September 15 date is sufficient for the nonpublic schools to determine their needs for the upcoming year. The remaining sentences merely state the method by which application forms for instructional materials will be made available.

10. Edu 743(b) is derived from the language contained within Chapter 396, Section 3.

11. Edu 743(c) is derived from the language contained within Chapter 396, Section 3.

12. Edu 743(d) is based upon the language contained within Chapter 396, Section 3 which retains title to all instructional materials, except consumable or nonreusable materials, in the local school district. Title to consumable and nonreusable materials is vested in the nonpublic school pupils by Chapter 396 and this rule.

13. Edu 743(e) provides that after five years a local school district may declare loaned materials to be unusable. That five year provision comports with the practices of public schools within the state.

14. Edu 743(f) requires the local school district to keep a record of all applications received for instructional materials and to make those records available to the department of education. That rule ensures that only appropriate materials are loaned, and that the materials are for the benefit of the individual nonpublic school children.

15. Edu 743(g) clause (1) is derived directly from Chapter 396, Section 3. Clause (2) and the remaining sentences of that paragraph provide for the repayment to local school districts of the costs of administering the program. This is required by the intent of the Act which is that the program be free from cost, to the local school districts. The five percent maximum on reimbursed expenses will ensure that school districts act reasonably in making expenditures under the program.

16. Edu 744(a) computes the amount of aid which the nonpublic school pupils will be entitled to for the 1975-76 year.

17. Edu 744(b) is derived from Minn. Stat., Section 124.14, Subd.1 (1974) as amended by Minn. Laws 1975 Chapter 432, Section 21.

18. Edu 744(c) is derived from Chapter 396, Section 3 which states in part that the "cost per pupil unit of the instructional materials ... shall not exceed the statewide average cost per unit spent by the Minnesota public elementary and secondary schools ..." The figure of $45.43 is the statewide average cost per unit as specified in Chapter 396, Section 3.
