CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE: EDU 680-699
COMMUNITY SERVICES
(NEW MATERIAL)

Edu 680 Philosophy

The community education program, the basis for providing community services, is an education-based partnership between the community and the formal education system whereby the resources of both are used as available for the continuing growth or betterment of both.

Edu 681 Inclusions

Community services, as defined for school districts, includes all services rendered by a school district for those persons not enrolled as elementary and secondary pupils during the calendar year. Any program exclusively for elementary and secondary pupils or for which such pupils constitute a quota or minimum number are ineligible as community services. However, any program open to the public without educational level restrictions may be qualified, even if elementary and secondary pupils are enrolled.

Edu 682 Limitation an Aids and Levies

General purpose community education aids and levies may not replace financing specifically provided by categorical aids or other dedicated financing.

General purpose community education funds shall not be used for adult vocational training. An exception may be permitted when the advisory council deems that the vocational training has a special community significance in addition to individual benefit.

Community service funds shall be used for community service administration and leadership, the expansion of existing programs, the implementation of new programs and the maintenance of existing programs.

Edu 683 Financing

All community service activities, regardless of financing, shall be operated from the Community Service Fund, No. 4, and not the General Fund, No. 1. Year-end balances from this fund are to be reserved for future community service activities and shall not be transferred to other funds. Capital Expenditure Fund monies may be transferred into the Community Service Fund for equipment or other capital expenditures. In addition,General Fund monies may be transferred into the Community Service Fund for any purpose of that fund. All fees collected for any community service program shall also be deposited into the community service fund.

Edu 684 The District Advisory Council

1. The advisory council on community services to the district shall be composed of members who represent a cross section of various community organizations, agencies and interested citizens. The important factor in determining the size of the council is to have representation and input from the various facets of the school district population.

2. Recommendations for the use of Community Service Funds shall be made by the advisory council to the district board of education. The school board retains final authority in deciding which programs are to be adopted and how they are to be implemented. The school board shall not initiate any programs which do not have prior approval and favorable recommendation of the advisory council.

3. Each advisory council shall have a minimum of four meetings per school year.

Edu 685 Community School Directors

Where a school district employs a community school director, all community education funds shall be administered by the community school director. However, any community education program financed by categorical aids from the State Department of Education may be exempted from this rule by action of the local board of education.

Edu 686 Levy Effort

For purposes of Laws 1975, Chapter, Sec. (M.S. 124.271, Subd. 1), any district which did not qualify for a community school levy in 1974, shall be deemed not to have levied at the maximum permissible.

Edu 687 Annual Report

Each year on or before June 20, each district having a community service levy shall report to the Department of Education on forms authorized by the Commissioner.

AFFIDAVIT OF MAILING

In the matter of the proposed adoption of rules of the state board of education amending and supplementing MINNESOTA ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND REGULATIONS — Rules and Regulations of the State Board of Education, 1973 Edition and as amended in 1974:

Gary Nachman, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: That on the 18 day of November 1975, at the City of St. Paul, County of Ramsey, State of Minnesota, he served the attached Notice of Hearing by depositing in the United States mail at said City of St. Paul, a true and correct copy thereof, properly enveloped, with postage prepaid, to all persons and associations at the addresses listed on labels referred to in the attached Certificate of the Secretary of State as well as the list of all persons on file in the office of the Commissioner of Education.

Rules Relating to Early

Edu 41(b)

STATEMENT OF NEED

The above captioned rules are amendments to existing rules of the State Department of Education. The last time the above captioned rules were amended was February 16, 1971.

The need to adopt this amendment is to define the phrase early graduation as it is contained within Minn. Stat. § 120.80 (1974). It is necessary to clearly preclude from the definition of early graduation, for purposes of receiving state aid, those students who graduate after the date on which they would normally have graduated but prior to the completion of another academic year. Those schools with late graduates will receive state aid on a pro rata basis for full time equivalence.

STATEMENT OF NEED

The above captioned rules are amendments to existing rules of the State Department of Education. The last time the above captioned rules were amended was November 4, 1975.

The need to adopt these rules arises because Minn. Stat. § 126.02 (1974) makes health education a required course of study in all public schools. It is therefore necessary that each school maintain on file a written course of study for the health education program so that the schools may show compliance with the state law.

STATEMENT OF NEED

The above captioned rules are not amendments to existing rules of the State Department of Education.

The need to adopt these rules arises because:

Edu 680 - Philosophy--This rule is necessary so that the purposes of Community Service programs are specified in some detail.

Edu 681 - This rule is needed to define which programs are included within community service education.

Edu 682 - Limitations on Aids and Levies--Because State and Federal funds are already provided for K-12 programs, and because adult vocational programs already receive Federal and State money and do not need additional monies, this rule is necessary to state that community service funds shall be used for all programs and leadership outside of the K-12 program not previously State or Federally funded.

Edu 683 - Financing--This rule is needed to insure that community service funds are accounted for and used for what they were intended, therefore, a separate fund #4 is provided in the Accounting Manual; furthermore, because community service funds may not be adequate, general fund and capital expenditure monies may be transferred to community service fund #4.

Edu 684 - 1. Minn. Stat. § 121.88 allows the establishment of citizen advisory councils, this rule is necessary to provide good cross representation from the community on those councils.

2. This rule is necessary to explain the duties of the school districts with respect to the recommendations of the citizen advisory councils.

3. This rule is necessary to set forth the minimum number of times that the citizen advisory councils should meet. It is believed that the councils should meet at least four times each school year.

Edu 685 - Community School Directors--This rule is necessary to specify the fiscal responsibilities of community school directors, if such a person is employed by a school district. It is also deemed necessary to exempt categorical aids from this rule.

Edu 686 - Levy Effort--This rule is needed to remind school districts of the requirement in law that any district that did not levy or levied under their maximum potential in 1974 shall not receive state aid for 1975.

Edu 687 - Annual Report--This rule is necessary for accountability purposes and to provide necessary feedback.

Early Graduation Edu 41(b)(1)

FINDINGS OF FACT

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before the Minnesota State Board of Education and Howard B. Casmey, Commissioner of the State of Minnesota, on the 18th day of December, 1975, at 9:00 a.m. in Room 716, Capitol Square Building, St. Paul, Minnesota, after proper notice required by M.S. 1975, Section 15.0412 was served upon all persons, associations, and other interested groups registered with the Secretary of State for that purpose.

After affording interested persons an opportunity to present written and oral data, statements, and arguments, having heard all of the testimony, having considered all of the evidence adduced and upon the records, files, and proceedings herein, I find the following:

EDU 41(b) makes provision for early graduation in Minnesota Statutes 120.80. Since there existed no definition of early graduation, it was determined that Minnesota Statutes 120.80 could not be implemented without defining early graduation. It was necessary to clearly preclude from the definition of early graduation those students who graduate after the date on which they would not normally have graduated, but prior to the completion of another academic year. This definition supports the apparent legislative intent to encourage schools to allow accelerated students to graduate early. Absent such aid, schools tended not to allow early graduation because such early graduates cost the schools state aids. If the definition were to include late graduates who graduated in the middle of a year, it could have the adverse effect of encouraging schools to hold back otherwise qualified graduates, and was not the apparent legislative intent. Edu 41(b)(1) specifically defines early graduation; thus making it possible to implement the above stated statute.

The existing regulations do not include the words "health education program"; therefore, it becomes necessary in order to carry out the provisions in Minnesota Statutes 126.02 to add the words "health education program" to both Edu 141(b) and Edu 142(b).

FINDINGS OF FACT

The above-entitled matter came on for hearing before the Minnesota State Board of Education and Howard B. Casmey, Commissioner of the State of Minnesota on the 18th day of December, 1975, at 9:00 A.M. in Room 716, Capitol Square Building, St. Paul, Minnesota, after proper notice required by M.S. 1975, Section 15.0412 was served upon all persons, associations and other interested groups registered with the Secretary of State for that purpose.

After affording interested persons an opportunity to present written and oral data, statements and arguments, having heard all of the testimony, having considered all of the evidence adduced and upon the records, files and proceedings herein, I find the following:

EDU 680 - sets forth the purpose of community service programs. Because those programs are relatively new, questions had arisen as to their scope and purpose. It was determined, based upon legislative mandate and testimony at the hearing, that the purpose is to provide a partnership between the community and the formal education system whereby the resources of both are used as available for the continuing betterment and growth of educational programs outside of the normal kindergarten through 12 program (hereinafter "K through 12).

EDU 681 - It was necessary to fully define community service programs. The legislative intent was to provide preschool adult and other education and recreation programs outside of the normal K through 12 program. As such, the definition in 681 comports with that legislative intent.

EDU 682 - Because adult vocational training programs already receive both state and federal monies, the amount of monies available for this program is limited; and the Legislature stated that these funds were to be used for nonvocational programs, it is both reasonable and prudent to preclude the use of community service funds for vocational training. However, situations may arise that would suggest that expenditures for such programs would be valid, a process for creating exceptions is appropriate. The requirement that exceptions be granted only with the concurrence of the advisory council, and local board approval is adequate protection from improper use of the exception clause.

It is also proper that community service funds be used not only for new programs but for expansion and continuing already established programs along with the administrative costs of those programs. The second paragraph of Edu 682 properly reflects that determination.

EDU 683 - to insure that community service funds are accounted for and used for their intended purpose it is necessary to adopt certain accounting practices. Edu 683 comports with generally accepted accounting principles and is adequate to protect the purposes of this program.

EDU 684 - Minnesota Statutes 121.88 requires the establishment of citizen advisory councils. The purpose of the councils is to provide cross representation from the community in order to ensure that the needs of the community are satisfied. The statute is silent as to the size of those councils, their function, and how often they should meet.

Edu 684 does not specify the exact size of the councils because it is recognized that local school districts themselves vary in size and will have different needs and interests to represent. Therefore, it is sufficient that the rule merely states that in determining size it is important to have representation and input from the various facets of the school district population.

It would be improper for the advisory council to have binding power on the school board, therefore, the school board should retain final authority over all programs as is stated in Edu 684.

A minimum of four meetings a year of the advisory council is proper if the council is to be of any real benefit in making recommendations to the school board.

EDU 685 - Minnesota Statutes 121.88 authorizes school districts to hire district-wide directors for community service programs. If such a person is hired, it is important that the director be responsible also for the fiscal aspects of the program. A director who did not have original responsibility for the funds of the program would not be as effective as a director that did have such responsibility. Therefore, Edu 685 places the administration of community service funds on the director subject to the supervision of the superintendent.

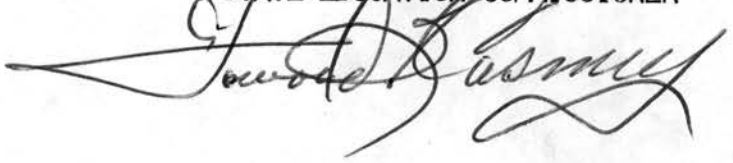

However, because categorical aids may be under the control of management of persons other than a director, it is appropriate to allow an exception for such funds where the local board deems that an exception is advisable.

EDU 686 - This rule states the statutory requirement that any district that did not levy or levied under their maximum potential in 1974 shall not receive state aid for 1975. Because many people refer only to the rules and fail to read the statutes, it is proper to include this requirement in the rules.

EDU 687 - To ensure that the program is administered properly and to assist the Department of Education to evaluate the program and to make reports to the Legislature, it is advisable that an annual report be required from participating school districts.

CHAPTER THIRTY-ONE: EDU 680-699

COMMUNITY SERVICES
(All New Material)

Edu 680 Philosophy

The community education program, the basis for providing community services, is an education-based partnership between the community and the formal education system whereby the resources of both are used as available for the continuing growth or betterment of both.

Edu 681 Inclusions

Community services, as defined for school districts, includes services rendered by a school district beyond the regular K-12 program, as recommended by the Community Services Advisory Council and approved by the local board of education.

Edu 682 Limitation on Aids and Levies

General purpose community education aids and levies may not replace financing specifically provided by categorical aids or other dedicated financing.

General purpose community education funds shall not be used for adult vocational training. An exception may be permitted when the advisory council, with local board of education approval, deems that the vocational training has a special community significance in addition to individual benefit.

Community service funds shall be used for community service administration and leadership, the expansion of existing community service programs, the implementation of new community service programs, and the maintenance of existing community service programs.

Edu 683 Financing

All community service activities, regardless of financing, shall be operated from the Community Service Fund, No. 4, and not the General Fund, No. 1. Year-end balances from this fund are to be reserved for future community service activities and shall not be transferred to other funds. Capital Expenditure Fund monies may be transferred into the Community Service Fund for equipment or other capital expenditures. In addition, General Fund monies may be transferred into the Community Service Fund for any purpose of that fund. All fees collected for any community service program shall also be deposited into the community service fund.

Edu 684 The District Advisory Council

(a) The advisory council on community services to the district shall be composed of members who represent a cross section of various community organizations, agencies, and interested citizens. The important factor in determining the size of the council is to have representation and input from the various facets of the school district population.

(b) Recommendations for the use of Community Service Funds shall be made by the advisory council to the district board of education. The school board retains final authority in deciding which programs are to be adopted and how they are to be implemented. The school board shall not initiate any programs which do not have prior approval and favorable recommendation of the advisory council.

(c) Each advisory council shall have a minimum of four meetings per year.

Edu 685 Community School Directors

Where a school district employs a district-wide director, all community services funds shall be administered by the community services director under the supervision of the local superintendent. However, any community services program financed by categorical aids from the State Department of Education may be exempted from this rule by action of the local board of education.

Edu 686 Levy Effort

For purposes of Laws 1975, Chapter 432, Sec. 43 (M.S. 124.271, Subd. 1), any district which did not qualify for a community school levy in 1974, shall be deemed not to have levied at the maximum permissible.

Edu 687 Annual Report

Each year on or before June 20, each district having a community service levy shall report to the Department of Education on forms authorized by the Commissioner.
