BUT I FORGOT MY...

Forgotten items are proving to be a time consuming endeavor for Paideia; in addition, we do not wish to disturb students in their classroom any more than necessary.

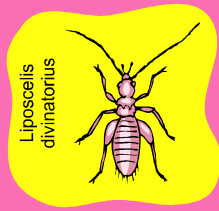

As a result, you are welcome to drop off forgotten items at the “student pick-up” area by the elevator. Please place your student’s name on the item. Students will be encouraged to look for forgotten items at lunch and throughout the day.

We realize this may result in homework being turned in late and other such needs going un-met, however we hope that the end result would be teaching the students responsibility. By implementing this, we can minimize the number of classroom interruptions, better use personnel and keep security tight in the building.

Paideia Academy will make every effort to get students their forgotten items but is not responsible for items that are not picked up.

Thank you for your cooperation.

From The Office

If your child is sent home with head lice:

- Obtain product @ your local drugstore or call your doctor.
- Follow instructions listed on the product exactly!
- As stated in the Paideia handbook; the student may not return to class until they are NIT FREE. Students will be sent home if not NIT FREE.
- Wash any clothing (hats, jackets, pajamas, bedding, car seats) used 3 days prior to infestation. Backpacks, stuffed toys or other items that can't be washed should be placed in sealed plastic bags for 2 weeks.

Please Note: We have been experiencing technical difficulties with our emails/server. We apologize for any late correspondence.

Out and About

It is time to register your daughters for Girl Scouts. Registration night is Wednesday, September 15, 6:00-9:00 pm at Falcon Ridge Middle School.

We are looking for troops of all ages. If you cannot attend, please let Mindy Stansbarger know. We look forward to representing Paideia and seeing everyone there.

Thank you,
Mindy Stansbarger

NOTES FROM THE SITE DIRECTOR

Communication is a valuable asset to helping the YMCA achieve its mission of building strong kids, strong families, and strong communities. In order to keep you updated of events occurring throughout the year, the staff will be sending out a monthly newsletter. Also please be sure to check your family folder often for any other information you might need. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask Kim or Jay.

A copy of the Parent Handbook can be found at www.ymcatwincities.org.

In the handbook you can find helpful information, including the new policy for Release Days and what to do on Snow Days!

Our Release Days for the first half of the year will be registered for at the beginning of the school year once again. Please be aware that the forms will be distributed during September and will be due by the first of October.

We look forward to another school year filled with fun and adventure for your kids!
