Paideia in the Community

This is only the 2nd year that Paideia has participated and the public was looking for us! We were at the Apple Valley Home and Garden show at the Dakota County Government Center on Saturday, March 31. Thanks to Jenny Wollschlager, Liz Townley and Stephanie Abraham who spoke to interested parents and potential students about how Paideia could be their next choice for school. There were a number of families who expressed interest in the school and have asked to be contacted about enrollment.

This year Paideia hosted an project table featuring a Roman mosaic art project, the same art project being taught in our 3rd grade class. We appreciated the assistance of the following upper academy students: Patrick Wollschlager, Joseph Townley, Jeremy Ryan, Brantly Craig and Aryonna Edwards; they did a great job.
