Dear Paideia Community,

Welcome back for the 2nd quarter! I hope you had a wonderful two weeks with your children and that they are well-rested and ready to come back to school. We have all worked hard here to prepare for our re-teaching week next week (based on analyses of students' DDI assessment data), upcoming Parent-Teacher Conferences (Thursday, 10/23 – 4:00pm-8:00pm and Friday, 10/24 – 8:00am-12:00pm), College Month, our upcoming Family Night (11/6), and addressing our newly-released MMR results.

We are truly focused on ensuring that every child is supported to meet high expectations, whether that is supporting them through a Title I program to provide additional instruction in Math and/or Reading, or offering the opportunity to participate in an extracurricular competitive math program. Please share with your child's teachers, during conferences, how your child feels about school and any strategies you have for helping us better meet his/her needs or build on his/her strengths and interests.

During College Month, we will continue to educate our students on the benefits of post-secondary education, introduce them to some of the various programs and majors that different colleges have to offer, and take our 8th graders to visit the University of Minnesota. Please take some time to talk with your child at home this weekend about long-term and short-term goals: What are your goals for the second quarter? What are your goals before graduating from Paideia? What kinds of experiences do you want from high school? What sort of career are you looking for? What sort of education would you need to be successful in that career?

By working together, we can help each child consider multiple options for the future and guide them toward experiences that support them in feeling successful and productive.

Enjoy the weekend with your families! We look forward to seeing your wonderful children on Monday morning.

Sincerely,

Marci Levy-Maguire

Director

Remember... Paideia Academy is a Healthy Snack / Lunch School!

As we get back into the swing of things at school, please remember that sending your child with a healthy snack each day is a great way to set them up for success! Please check out this link to a list of fun, healthy snacks that can be sent to school on a daily basis, or as special birthday treats:

Donations Needed:

The art room is looking for a few donations! One thing that was brought in at the beginning of the year were sharpies. This is something that is used on a regular basis by all grade levels– so they tend to run out fast. We would love to have more donations of thin and fine point black sharpie markers to keep our supply up. If you have any you would like to donate, feel free to send them with your son or daughter to art -OR- you can leave them at the front desk marked “Art” and I will gladly pick them up! Thanks and have a wonderful fall break -Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Schwartz
