The Complaint of John Sturman of said County made made before F. H. Lindsley Esq., one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for said County, who being duly sworn, on his oath, says, that on the 26th day of Sept. A.D. 1917, at the Village of Delano in said County Helen Riebel did unlawfully and wrongfully and wilfully assault John Sturman, this complainant with a hoe and did then and there use profane and indecent language to and in reference to said John Sturman and in his presence, and said John Sturman has great cause to fear the said Helen Riebel will again repeat said unlawful acts and conduct unless said Helen Riebel is put under bonds to keep the peace.

The said John Sturman therefore prays surety of the peace to be granted unto him against the said Helen Riebel, and this he does, not from any private malice or ill will toward the said Helen Riebel but simply because he is afraid, and has good cause to fear that the said Helen Riebel will again assault him against the form of the statute in such case made

Dec. 21st 1929. Defendant appeared by his Attorney F. H. Lindsley, and waived the reading of the Warrent and entered a plea of "Not guilty" and said that Defendant was ready for trial — George Mason sworn on the part of the state, and testified, Wittnes was cross examened by Defendants Attorney, Defendant introduced a contract between William Book and Carrie M. Book and Henry J. Rohlfsen, that showed the Complaining Wittnes was a trespasser on the lands where he claims the offense was committed, and that he later found all of the tools that he complained about, near the place where he left them.
The State failed to proof its case, and the Attorney for the Defendant moved that the case be dismissed and the Defendant be discharged.
