Excursion Mine

Nov 30 1900

I am inclined to think Mrs. Down would hardly do, take it all around. Though she would be quite an interesting writer if she was at all interested in the subject.

But she is quite heartily tired of fruit growing, and I am not much surprised. For it seems hardly possible for a woman of so frail appearance to make a livelihood for a family where there is so much hand work as there is connected with fruit growing

She has three very children to care for and probably wouldn't leave them

The above are my records but I may be mistaken
as I quite often am

Dear Sir,

I am not very well posted as to the best kinds of Blackberries, Currants and Gooseberries for planting in this State. The blackberries are almost a failure, on account generally of dry weather July and Aug. Gooseberries not profitable here only occasionally. Think you will do better to turn this over to some one else better posted than myself. I would very much prefer that other members ~~should~~ write out the papers, but as we ought each to do his share for the benefit of the Society, if requested, I might write a paper on "growing the half hardy fruit and other trees," or "weather records of the past 40 years" or "the new notes on growing sweet Potatoes." Yours fraternally John A. Cummings, Secy.

The first title might read better
"Some experience on growing the ~~put hardy ~~apple~~~~ fruit and other trees
If you must have something from me; would make out a paper on any one of the three subjects, above named

My dear Sir :

Your letter of Sept. 13th, addressed to me at Ames, has been forwarded to my present address as above. You probably have not learned that I have taken up work in Cornell University in connection with the University Extension movement, and, in consequence, left Ames at the end of the last month.

I regret that the bulletins promised in the enclosure with your letter did not reach you. I am asking the person in charge of the office at Ames to see that these are forwarded to you without bill.

Yours very truly,

John Craig
