Mr A.W. Latham,
Sec. of the Minn. Horticultural Society,

Dear Sir:-

We have been advised not to accept the advertising of Mr Sampson, on the ground that he did not treat his customers fairly, and we have been referred to you for particulars. We try to be very careful about the character of advertising we run in the Agriculturist, and yet our revenue comes from our advertising, and we cannot afford to turn down any responsible or reliable advertiser, through prejudice or mistake.

We have carried the advertising of Mr Sampson for several years, we carried it last year, and the year before, and we must say that our own experience has not in any way verified the basis on which our adviser stated that we should not run his advertisement; in other words, we have never yet had a single complaint about him from any of our readers, and yet we hear every once in a while vague rumors from members of the Horticultural Society, that he is not in good standing and that he did some crooked work, but we cannot get definite facts.

Now if you know of any reason why Mr Sampson should not advertise in the Northwestern Agriculturist, you will do us a very great favor by frankly stating it, with the full agreement and understanding that anything you tell us will be strictly confidential. We will return your letter to you by return mail, but we want the information definitely for our own guidance.

We know that Sampson became financially embarrassed some time ago, but that in itself is not at all a reason why we should not allow him to continue to live on earth or to do business, as long as he paid his bills and treated his customers squarely.

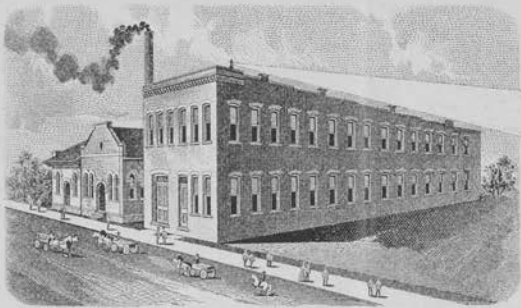

Yours truly,
