Newell Inn March 5th 1902
Mr A. W. Latham

Principals
Dear Sir.

Your account will say that I paid $100 while the Institute was held in Newell Inn I was very much disappointed because no one of the speakers talked on Hort. They let Mr M. Penning talk about 3 minutes on plums
the meetings were very good and new in the history of Newell. That the farmers gave their attention as al.

This meeting and midnightly, for lots of good. Please forward to my address the cloth bound report, and. If you have Green Amateur Print Drying
I lost mine, & Oblige
Respectfully yours
John Zeller

P.S. Should this come in time please tell A. D.
Apple Tree Barrens not to forget to buy a ticket for New Ulm. He promised to visit my place if possible this week, J. Z.

Dear Sir: your account I will say that all New Members go of Mr. Johnson. But I did not get one Report. I merely gave him the $1.00 saving myself the trouble and in return, had I received a report. I should have not been asked you to send me one Respectfully yours Truly
