Friend Latham.

I have taken the liberty to cut out some of the facts finding that I think better not to make a matter of permanent record, and condensed other matters in the interest of brevity

A. W. Latham Secretary
Minn. State Horticultural Society

Dear sir,

By to days mail I send you samples of a Hardy seedling apple grown on this place which has been kept in ordinary cellar all winter.

The seed was planted some 12 or 15 years ago by my self.

I would like to have your opinion about same if you think it a valuable addition to the list of hardy apples of Minnesota or not

Yours truly

Mr. Ole Oredalen
