Dear Sir .-

I learn that you have been shipping some apples to the Minnesota Fruit Association, and I wish you would let me know confidentially how you were satisfied with your dealings with this association. We are after information along this line for the benefit of other members of the society who are making inquiries, and we will appreciate it very much if you write frankly in regard to it.

Yours fraternally,

A. W. Latham Sec'y.

Just returned from Pastmaster convention at Denver, which caused delay. My dealings with the Minn Fruit Assn have been very satisfactory
Very Truly Yours
