 State of Minnesota } ss.
 County of Hennepin }

At a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of said County held October 2^d 1882, a copy of the report of the Committee appointed by us at our last session to examine the road hereinafter named having been duly returned, by which said report it appears that the said Committee met at the time and place designated in our order of appointment, and examined the highway to be laid out and opened viz: Beginning at the corner of Sections 34 & 35 T. 29 R. 24 & Sections 2 & 3 T. 28 R. 24, at point of intersection of roads known as Portland Avenue & Lake Street, thence due South as near as practicable on the line between Sections 2 & 3, 10 & 11 and 14 & 15 to a point at or near where said line strikes the shore or edge of Pearl Lake, thence along the shore of said Lake and on the east side thereof, as near as practicable, crossing the bar or divide between Pearl and Diamond Lakes, thence as near as practicable along the East shore of said Diamond Lake to the intersection of the line between Sections 22 & 23 T. 28 R. 24, connecting ^{with} the so called Bloomington road at or near the quarter post between said Sections 22 & 23. The names of the owners ^{of the lands} as far as known through which the same may pass are M. J. Dayton, J. K. Stevens, M. J. Mayhew, Josiah Jones, J. Estes, F. Graffum, James Mansfield, L. White, J. H. Brown, L. D. & J. H. Day, O. A. Smith, J. S. Gray & H. J. Cobb.

And recommended that the prayer of the petitioners for the laying out & opening said highway be granted; and being of the opinion that the public interest would be promoted by the laying out & opening of said highway and that the laying out & opening of said road would be of sufficient advantage to the County to warrant the paying
