In conclusion will state that in the matter of road construction the general consensus of opinion in our County seems to be for permanent construction, in which I heartily concur. There are a great many Theorists, some of whom claim Oil, and other who claim Tar, to be the only solution for a perfect road. In my opinion paving, either of Brick or Creosote block on a Concrete base is the most permanent, which would cost approximately $25000 per mile. The next nearest would be a composition of Selected Gravel, sand and Cement, this would cost about $8000 per mile. During the years of 1907 and 1908 Hennepin County has built 14.13 miles of Macadam road at an average cost of $2644.24 per mile in other Counties of this State Macadam roads are costing from 6 to 8 thousand dollars per mile and from a permanent stand point, are not as durable as ours. No road can last many years without care and maintenance. By expending $200 per mile each year in filling ruts and holes and sprinkling with water. They will practically last forever and would recommend that there be employed on every 6 miles of Macadam road a man with team and wagon and sprinkler and a man as helper. This I believe could be done consistently under the Repair Clause in the Law pertaining to the road and bridge fund.

In the matter of Bridges would recommend, that the Approach to bridge No. 8 over the Minnesota River should be rebuilt.

That Bridge No. 60 Should be rebuilt.
" " " 114 " " "
" " " 333 " " "

Would further recommend that all bridges be built of Steel and Concrete Construction, believing that the public demands such construction.

Further I desire to thank your Honorable Body for the uniform courtesy received, and your liberal approval of and co-operation in my endeavors to secure for Hennepin County the best System of roads at the lowest possible cost.

Respectfully Submitted

Frank E. Haycock,

County Surveyor.
