RESOLUTION 76-2-266

Commissioner Robb offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the County of Hennepin owns the property in the City of Minnetonka known as the Naysmith-Townsend Hall and Superintendent's Residence, and environs, leased to the State of Minnesota until 1996, and

WHEREAS, said County and State have been unable to find appropriate use for said property heretofore and have recommended razing these improvements, and

WHEREAS, significant interest for productive, long-term use of said improvements has been generated from the private and public sectors, and

WHEREAS, a long term lease is necessary to capitalize physical improvements which may be desirable,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, The Board of Commissioners of Hennepin County hereby declares its intent to receive and consider offers for long term use and lease of the Naysmith-Townsend Hall, Superintendent's Residence and environs on the Glen Lake Sanatorium property in the City of Minnetonka, Minnesota until May 15, 1976, and directs the County Administrator to solicit, receive, evaluate and recommend to this Board appropriate long term use of subject property.
