Students of Hamline University:

On behalf of myself and the City of Saint Paul, I would like to thank you for your involvement in the upcoming service projects in the community. Your hard work and dedication to help improve our city is extremely admirable. I cannot think of a better way to begin your college career, than by assisting others and making an impact in the community around you.

Completing service projects is not only a wonderful way to better your community, but offers you a great opportunity to better know the neighborhoods that surround you. By being involved in your community you will gain a better understanding of the diversity Saint Paul has to offer and broaden your perspective on what is happening around you.

You will grow intellectually and otherwise over these next years, and I wish you the best of luck in all your academic endeavors. Your education will serve you well in the future and I urge you to make the most of it and find where your passion lies.

Sincerely,

Christopher B. Coleman,
Mayor
