Insanity of:
Fred STEINBACH

SEVENTEENTH.—Did the patient manifest any peculiarities of temper, habits, disposition or pursuits, before the accession of the disease; any predominant passions, religious impressions, etc.? No

EIGHTEENTH.—Was the patient, or were either of his parents, ever addicted to intemperance in any form, or the habitual use of any narcotic? No

NINETEENTH.—Has the patient been subject to any severe disease, to epilepsy, to convulsions in any form, or had any injury of the head? No

TWENTIETH.—Has any restraint or confinement been employed? No If so, of what kind and how long?

TWENTY-FIRST.—What is supposed to be the cause of the disease? Severe fever

TWENTY-SECOND.—What treatment has been pursued for the relief of the patient? (Mention particulars and the effects.) None

TWENTY-THIRD.—Facts learned on personal examination. (Mention every appearance or condition of the patient bearing on the question of the existing insanity.) Patient is restless, keeps lips and tongue moving constantly.

Seems apprehensive, and broods over trouble

We recommend the commitment of said Frederick Steinbach to a hospital for the insane because because he has dangerous tendencies and his disease is of such a nature as it requires treatment while under legal restraint

From the personal examination of said Frederick Steinbach

made by us, and from testimony introduced upon said examination, we find and hereby certify that said

Frederick Steinbach is insane, and a proper person for care and treatment in a hospital for the insane.
