"Last Will and Testament of Mary Lepsa."

I, Mary Lepsa, of the City of Winona, in the County of Winona, and State of Minnesota, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament.

First,- I order and direct that my executrix, hereinafter named, pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Second,- After the payment of such funeral expenses and debts, I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Elizabeth Achterling, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, in case she is living at the time of my death, but in case she should not survive me, then said sum of Two Hundred Dollars, is to be given and bequeathed to the own children of said Elizabeth Achterling, in place of said Elizabeth Achterling.

Third,- I give and bequeath to my beloved son, Thomas Lepsa, the sum of Ten Dollars.

Fourth,- All the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal and mixed, of whatsoever kind or nature, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Catherine Grams, in case she survives me, but in case she does not survive me, said property so herein given, devised and bequeathed to Catherine Grams, I give, devise and bequeath to the children of said Catherine Grams, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike.

Fifth and Lastly,- I hereby constitute and appoint my daughter Catherine Grams, to be executrix of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, the 20th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1899.

[First Publication Wednesday, Feb. 6.]
IN PROBATE COURT—State of Minnesota, County of Winona, ss. Special Term,
February 6, 1901.
In the matter of the estate of Mary Lepson, deceased.
The court, on the petition of E. S. Davis, for the appointment of a receiver of the estate of said deceased, do hereby order that the said receiver be appointed, and that he do take possession of the estate of said deceased, and do administer the same according to law.
It is further ordered, that all debts and claims against the estate of said deceased be presented to the said receiver within thirty days after the date of this order, and that the said receiver do allow and pay the same, and that he do render an account of his administration to the court at the next term of said court.
It is further ordered, that notice of the time and place of the hearing and examination of the account of the said receiver be given by publication in each week for three successive weeks prior to the day of the hearing and examination, in the Winona Daily Republican and Herald, a newspaper printed and published in said county.
Witness my hand and the seal of said court, at Winona, the 6th day of February, A. D. 1901.
By the Court,
D. E. VANOR,
Judge of Probate.
W. L. LAMMERS, Attorney.

E. S. Davis of said county being first duly sworn deposes and says that he is now and during all the time of the publication of the annexed printed notice of Hearings on Claims in Estate of Mary Lepson was foreman printer of the Winona Daily Republican and The Winona Republican and Herald, legal daily newspapers printed and published in the city of Winona, in said county; that he knows of his own knowledge that said printed notice was taken from said newspapers and was duly printed and published therein for the period of three successive weeks on Wednesday of each week, commencing in said Winona Daily Republican on Wednesday the sixth day of February A. D. 1901, on which day last mentioned it was first published, and ending in said The Winona Republican and Herald on Wednesday the 27th day of February A. D. 1901, on which day it was last published; that each and all of said publications were made in the English language.

That on the 18th day of February A. D. 1901 the said Winona Daily Republican and the Winona Daily Herald, both legal daily newspapers, as defined by Chapter 33 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1893, and acts amendatory thereof, were consolidated and united in one daily newspaper under the name and style of The Winona Republican and Herald, which newspaper as so consolidated has ever since said consolidation been printed and published by Frederic N. Van Duzee and Scott Laird and the Republican and Herald Publishing Company, a corporation, at the established office and known place of business of said Winona Daily Herald in said city of Winona. That the said Winona Daily Republican was printed and published by The D. Sinclair Publishing Company, a corporation, and said Winona Daily Herald was printed and published by Frederic M. Van Duzee prior to said consolidation; that said The Winona Republican and Herald was ever since said consolidation and is now a collection of reading matter in columns and sheet form, the matter consisting of general and local news, comments and miscellaneous literary items printed and published daily (excepting Sundays) at an established office and known place of business in the English language, equipped with the necessary materials and skilled workmen for preparing and printing the same in said City of Winona where it is dated, and generally circulated in the city, county and state aforesaid.

That said The Winona Republican and Herald ever since said consolidation consisted and now consists of not less than four pages of five columns or more to each page, each column not less than seventeen and three quarters inches in length, and never made up wholly of patents, plates and advertisements or either or any of them, and is not now nor never has been substantially a duplicate of any other news-

~~paper, and that the proprietors and publishers thereof have printed,~~ published and delivered at each regular issue of said The Winona Republican and Herald, not less than two hundred and forty complete copies of such publication to paying subscribers, and have delivered a copy of each issue of said newspaper as so consolidated to the subscribers of The Winona Daily Republican and The Winona Daily Herald aforesaid, since the date of such consolidation; that the publishers of said The Winona Republican and Herald, prior to the date of the publication of the notice hereto annexed, made an affidavit setting forth the facts required by Section 2, Chapter 33 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1893, which has been duly filed in the office of the County Auditor of said Winona County.

Came personally before me C. L. Foss and being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he now is and during all the time hereinafter mentioned has been the Fairman Printer of The Winona Morning Independent, a Daily newspaper printed and published in the City of Winona, in said County.
That he knows of his own knowledge that the printed notice hereto attached, cut from the columns of said newspaper, was inserted, printed and published, in said newspaper, for the period of three successive weeks, and that all of said publications were made in the English language. That said notice was first inserted, printed and published in said newspaper on Thursday the 3rd day of October, 1901, and was printed and published therein on each and every Thursday thereafter until and including Thursday the 17 day of October, 1901, that during all the time aforesaid said newspaper was a collection of general and local news, comments and miscellaneous literary items, and regularly issued and published from a known office of publication, said office being equipped with the necessary materials and skilled workmen for producing the same, and has consisted of not less than four pages, of five columns or more to each page, each column of not less than seventeen and three-fourths inches in length, and never made up wholly of patents, plates and advertisements, or either or any of them, and has not been substantially a duplicate of any other newspaper, and has been regularly delivered to more than two hundred and forty paid subscribers, and that said newspaper, composed and consisting as above set forth, was printed and published in the English language.....and generally circulated in Winona County for more than one year next preceding the date of the first publication of said notice. That the publisher of said newspaper, prior to the date of the publication of said notice, filed with the County Auditor of said Winona County an affidavit setting forth the AFFIDAVIT OF PUBLICATION.

State of Minnesota, } ss.
COUNTY OF WINONA.

Henry Busdickes Jr.
being first duly sworn, says that he now is and during all the time of the publication of the notice mentioned below was Foreman Printer of THE WINONA DAILY HERALD, a legal newspaper, and personally knows the facts stated in this Affidavit; that the Order for Hearing Proof of Will a printed copy of which is hereto attached, was duly published in said newspaper on Monday in each week, for the period of three successive weeks, beginning on the 7 day of January 1901.

That for more than one year immediately prior to the first publication of said Order the said WINONA DAILY HERALD was, and it has continued until the present time to be, a newspaper complying with the laws of the State of Minnesota, now in force, which define the requirements of a legal newspaper, to-wit:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter thirty-three of the general laws of 1893 as amended by chapter one hundred twenty-one of the general laws of 1895, is hereby further amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1, chapter 285, general laws of 1897. A newspaper in order to entitle it to publish the laws of this state shall conform to the definition herein contained, except that such paper may be published wholly or in part in a foreign language, and a newspaper in order to entitle it to publish any legal notices required by law to be published, shall, in addition to all requirements of the law now in force, conform to the following definition, viz:

A newspaper is a collection of reading matter in columns and sheet form; the matter consisting of general and local news, comments and miscellaneous literary items, printed daily, tri-weekly, semi-weekly or weekly, at an established office or known place of business, in the English language, equipped with the necessary materials, excepting newspaper press, and skilled workmen for preparing and printing the same in whole or in part in the village, town or city, in which it is dated; and generally circulated in the town, city or county where said office or place of business is located; provided, that no publication shall be considered a newspaper of general circulation unless it shall have been printed in whole or in part and published in the county for one year, and shall consist of the equivalent in space of four pages or more, or five columns or more, to each page, and each column shall be not less than seven and three-quarters inches long, and the proprietor or publisher thereof shall print, publish and deliver at each regular issue not less than 240 complete copies of such publication to paying subscribers; provided further, that publications which are duplicates of publications which are made up wholly of patents, or plates and patents and advertisements, and publications which are made up wholly of general circulation; provided further, that any newspaper which has heretofore, or may hereafter become a legal newspaper within the terms of the foregoing definition of a legal newspaper; and which shall heretofore and issue shall have been after be destroyed by fire or other casualty so that its regular publication and issue shall continue to be a legal newspaper within the meaning of this act, and for all purposes, immediately upon the resumption of its publication and issue by the same publisher, his heirs or legal representatives, under the same name and in the same town, village or city where it was published and issued prior to its destruction and suspension by fire or casualty.

SECTION 2, chapter 33, general laws of 1893. The publisher of any newspaper in this state desiring to publish the laws or legal notices required by law to be published shall file with the county auditor of the county wherein said newspaper is published an affidavit in writing, or partly in writing and partly printed, subscribed by the affiant and sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, stating the name of the town, county, city or village where said newspaper is printed and published and whether said newspaper is a daily, tri-weekly, semi-weekly or weekly newspaper, and the day of the week on which said newspaper is issued, and that the number of the regular paid subscribers of said newspaper exceeds two hundred and forty; and until the filing of said affidavit no money shall be paid the proprietor or publisher for the publication of the laws of this state or any official notice of any county, town, village or city, and no action shall be maintained by such proprietor or publisher for the collection of any fees for publishing any notice required by law to be published.

SECTION 3, chapter 121, general laws of 1895. Any newspaper conforming to the description given in section one (1) of this act and complying with the requirements of section two (2) of this act shall be considered a legal newspaper in all meanings of the term, and shall be entitled to publish all legal notices, general laws, foreclosures of mortgage sales, probate notices and other legal notices of any kind, whatsoever, required by law to be published in a newspaper; provided, that the making and filing of the affidavit provided for in section two (2) of this act shall be prima facie evidence that said newspaper conforms in all respects to the description given in section one (1), and in case any probate notice, summons, notice of mortgage foreclosure sale, execution sale or other legal notice in proper form, shall heretofore have been published in a newspaper in the proper county for the number of times prescribed by law, or by the order of the court or judge directing such publication to be made, if the publisher of the newspaper in which such legal notice was published shall have filed with the county auditor the affidavit provided for in section two (2) of said chapter thirty-three (33), such publication shall be and hereby is legalized and made valid and effectual and of the same effect in all respects as if the newspaper in which such publication was made conformed to the description given in section one (1) of said chapter thirty-three (33), whether such newspaper did in fact, at the time of such publication, fully conform to such description or not; provided, that nothing therein contained shall be construed to apply to any suit now pending which involves the legality or validity of any such publication.

SECTION 1. Chapter 256 General Laws of 1897. That section one (1) of chapter (33) of the laws of the State of Minnesota for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (1893) as amended by chapter one hundred and twenty-one (121), general laws of the State of Minnesota for the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (1895), be and the same is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Provided, further, that in order to constitute a legal newspaper under the provisions of this act it shall not be necessary that such paper be published or issued upon Sundays or holidays. And provided, further, that in newly organized counties, during the first fifteen months after such organization any newspaper which does not comply with this act as to length of time of publication and number of papers printed and published, shall nevertheless, be considered a legal newspaper upon complying with all the other requirements of this act.

And that the publishers of said paper have duly filed with the County Auditor of said Winona County an Affidavit duly subscribed and sworn to and fully complying in form and contents with the requirements of Section two (2) of Chapter thirty-three (33), General Laws of Minnesota.

The Petition of Rebecca Duncanson of the Town of Warren in the County of Winona and State of Minnesota, respectfully shows: That William Duncanson who was, at the time of his death a resident of the Town of Warren in the County of Winona and State of Minnesota, died on the 8th day of December A. D. 1900, at the City of Winona in the County of Winona and State of Minnesota, leaving estate therein and without leaving any last Will and Testament to the knowledge, information or belief of your petitioner.

That the names, ages and residences of the heirs of said deceased, so far as known to your petitioner, are as follows: Sons and daughters of said deceased,

David Duncanson	Age 54 years	Residing in Town Warren	Minn
Maggie Welch	" 55 "	" Minneapolis	"
Jerry Duncanson	" 49 "	" Winona	"
Orrin Duncanson	" 42 "	" Lewistown	"
Julia Davis	" 40 "	" Monroe	Wis
John Duncanson	" 39 "	" Warren	Minn
William Duncanson	" 37 "	"	"

And Rebecca Duncanson (widow)

That the probable value of the personal estate is twelve hundred Dollars; and the probable value of the real property is seventeen hundred Dollars; and its character is as follows: forty acres an improved farm occupied by the decedent as his homestead at the time of his death and forty acres of unimproved rough land used as a wood lot.

That your petitioner is the widow of said deceased.

That the name of the person for whom administration is prayed, is John Duncanson and his address is Warren, Winona County, Minnesota

Your petitioner therefore prays that Letters of Administration of the estate of the said intestate be granted to the said John Duncanson.
