GENERAL INVENTORY

Filed and approved this

Judge of Probate.

4-00-1500

State of Minnesota,
County of Winona.

In Probate Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of Peter Brang, deceased.

The undersigned, John Meyers, presents this his Petition, and respectfully represents to the Court:

That the above named Peter Brang, deceased, left a Last Will and Testament, in and by which, in addition to provisions for the disposition of his property, he appointed the undersigned as Executor of his said estate; that being thus appointed the undersigned, in pursuance of his official duty, presented said will to this court for allowance ~~in~~ probate; that the probate thereof was contested by Lizzie Gradel, Henry Gradel, and other heirs-at-law of said deceased; that after a full and complete trial of said matter in the Probate Court of said county said will was denied and disallowed to probate by the order of this court, all of which appears from the records of this court.

Your petitioner further says that as his official duty required, he represented and defended the said will throughout the foregoing proceedings in this court, and that in so doing he was compelled to employ an attorney or attorneys to represent him, and that he did actually employ the law firm of Tawney, Smith & Tawney of Winona, Minnesota, as attorneys to represent him as Executor in the contest of said will, said firm of Tawney, Smith & Tawney being the attorneys mentioned by the said deceased Peter Brang in said will as the legal advisers of your petitioner as such executor, and that your petitioner necessarily incurred in such contest proceedings upon said will the following items of expense:

Printing fee, hearing on will,	$4.50
--------------------------------	--------

WITNESS FEES:

Andrew Gerlicher, 2 days attendance, 4 miles travel,	2.24
Carl Gerlicher, 1 days attendance, 2 miles travel,	1.12
J.W. Lauer, 1 days attendance, 2 miles travel,	1.12
Fred Miller, 1 days attendance, 12 miles travel,	1.72
Attorneys fees, Tawney, Smith & Tawney, counsel, preparing petition for proof of will, and services in contest of will in probate court,	150.00
Personal services of your petitioner,	5.00

That it was necessary that your petitioner should have legal counsel and advice in said matter, and should have a lawyer or lawyers to represent him in said contested proceedings upon said will, and that the services of said attorneys, Tawney, Smith & Tawney, so employed by your petitioner were and are, as he is informed and believes, reasonably worth the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars.

That the services of your petitioner as such Executor named in said will in connection with the probating of the same were and are reasonably worth the sum of five dollars.

And your petitioner further says that he has not been in any way reimbursed for the expenses above stated or any part thereof, nor has he received any compensation for his own services, or that of his said attorneys so employed by him as aforesaid, and that there is no person or source from whom or which he can or expects to recover the same or any part thereof unless the same is to be paid out of the estate of the said deceased.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays for an order of this court directing the Administrator of said estate to pay to your petitioner, out of said estate, the amount of said expenses so incurred by him, and such sum for his said services and that of his said attorneys as the court may think just and reasonable.

Dated May 29th, 1901.
