In Probate Court.

In the matter of the estate of Jacob C. Schneller deceased.

To the Probate Court of Winona County, Minnesota:

The petition of G. H. Krundick of Winona, Minnesota, administrator de bonis non of the estate of Jacob C. Schneller deceased respectfully shows:

That the time originally limited by this court for the settlement of said Estate expired on the 12th day of June 1902.

That said Estate has not been fully settled and that further delay in the settlement thereof is necessary for the reason that the only remaining asset of said Estate not distributed to the heirs of said deceased consists of a cause of action against the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company growing out of the death of said Jacob C. Schneller by reason of the wrongful acts of said Company in favor of his administrator for the benefit of the next of kin of said deceased.

That an action has been brought upon said cause of action by your petitioner against said Company and is now pending in the District Court of said Winona County, and that twelve months additional time from and after the 12th day of June 1902 is deemed requisite by your petitioner for the final disposition of said action and the final settlement of said Estate.

Wherefore prays that twelve months from and after the 12th day of June 1902 be granted to him within which to make such final settlement.

Dated August 19, 1902
