REMARKS: P. Ferguson who lives down stairs at address above & owns the house, says he thinks it was last Friday when when he saw Lorentzen last. This morning at 10:30 he went upstairs to see if anything was wrong, & in the second room he found Lorentzen dead, - stiff, in a sitting attitude, with a bullet wound under left eye, & one in back of neck, the wound of exit. In front of him, his right foot against it, was a 4½ foot long box, in which a gun lay, without stock, with barrel pointing toward deceased. The trigger was caught over a screw in the end of the box. One empty cartridge, about a 30x30 was in the gun. A large bullet hole was visible in the ceiling. Apparently the man had stooped over to pick up the gun & the trigger had caught on the screw, discharging the bullet at once. He must have took hold of gun near the end. Ferguson said Lorentzen had lived there 3 years & always was working over firearms, it was a hobby. Officers M. D. Bleeker and Sergt. J. J. O'Connell were present & both knew the man, as a clean living man, kind to children. Bullet entered head over left eye, ranged from back of neck. The eye was bulging. Wound in back of neck was large & edges rather ragged, larger than wound in front.

REMARKS: Admitted 9:45 P. M. last night, by Dr. Stone to Mann's service. Died at 6:35 A. M. today. Was brot in police ambulance, Dr. Swanson & Mr Miller in charge. E. A. Durfee, Superintendent of Plymouth Bldg., says that Leon Sessions, night elevator operator, is the only one who knows anything of the accident; this operator says that Dingels always used elevator No 2 at night; when necessary; that before 9 P. M. he had been to the basement to get some tool, & returning, left the elevator on first floor. Sessions ran his elevator No 3 up & 2 or 3 times, then noticed that the door to No 1 elevator, which was never used, was open. He ran his car down to the sub-basement & found Dingels on the floor shaft. He was at once taken to the city hospital, where it was found he had a fractured skull, fractured leg, torn perineum & minor abrasions. Dingels fell about 40 feet. He has worked steadily in Plymouth Bldg since Nov. 4, 1914, & was a man of good habits, & dependable. Apparently in an absent minded moment, he opened the No 1 elevator door; the car is always left at the top of the shaft & not used.

REMARKS: Mr. Geo. A. Brown, Pres. & Mgr. of the Company (Brown Sheet Iron & Steel Co.) says that deceased had been employed by him for the past 3 mos.

Deceased & John Anderson, 627 – 7th St. So. were starting the acetylene gas generator about 7 A. M. Christianson was on top of the tank examining the parts for possible leaks. Anderson was standing on the floor, starting the generator. Suddenly a terrific explosion occured, & Christianson was thrown some feet away, his body landing on a partition between toilets. Anderson says there was a big flame, his own face and hair were singed; he doesn't know how there happened to be any flame, for rules forbid smoking or lights of any kind in the shop. The probability is that more pressure was formed than realized; the rubber hose leaking from the escape valve was kinked, & the pressure simply lifted the top of the tank off, breaking the small bolts that held it to the tank. Deceased's skull was crushed in and face & lips & chin badly torn & mangled.

REMARKS: Death occurred about 9 A. M. Deceased went upstairs, as he said, to get some tools. A few minutes later his mother, Mrs. W. A. Swasson, heard the report of a gun, & found her son lying on the floor, the top of his head blown off.

The body lay across the shot gun, the head under a window; brain substance & blood were spattered over the ceiling & four walls of room; also fragments of the skull were on floor & bed.

Reason for believing it suicide: (1) a brother a few years ago shot himself thro the head not far from this home; (2) deceased was reported as having been drinking heavily lately; (3) he had expressed displeasure at the way his wife & children were treated by his father, at whose home they had been stopping. (4) He had been dissatisfied with conditions in Wisconsin where he had been some months, & had returned to live near Excelsior.

Dr. S Kemp of Excelsior was called to the house. His opinion is that suicide was cause of death.
