She heard deceased moaning on the ground below. Notified her son Murray and Mr. & Mrs. Hagen, same Bldg. Deceased was semiconscious but made no statement at any time to anyone. The fire sirens were blowing hard on street and it is probable that deceased had walked to the window to locate fire when he lost his balance & fell. He was clad in night apparel. Fall was from a 2nd floor rear window. There is a porch fence & cement walk below. Mr. Wm. J. Hayes, 4708 Harriet ave. So. states, he, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Flynn & deceased had attended Minnesota Theater. They visited at Hayes home until about 11 P.M. May 28. They drank no liquor and deceased was in good spirits. REMARKS: Death occurred about 10:30 a.m. today. Deceased & her sister Marie Iverson had returned from swimming at Cedar Lake. Both were upstairs dressing, when Marie heard someone moaning & going out of her room found deceased lying on the floor, apparently unconscious & her entire body jerking, - in convulsion. Her face was cyanotic, but the color returned shortly. Before Dr. Rockilly reached the house death had come. Deceased had taken a rather long swim & may have overexerted herself. The sun was hot. History is suggestive of epileptic attacks in the past. Previous to going to Aurora, Ill. to live in Feb. of 1927 deceased occasionally had "fainting spells", at which time her body jerked & her color changed to a bluish color & again to normal. These spells would last a few minutes. Some weeks ago in June deceased had a sore throat. She never consulted a Doctor for the fainting spells.
John Iverson is her father.

REMARKS: Phillip Johnson, husband, returned home at 6 P. M. & not being able to get in the house thro the doors, broke into a rear basement window. In the bedroom he found his 3 children lying across the bed, all dead. He kicked open the locked bathroom door & found his wife dead in the bath tub. She was dressed except for shoes & stockings, in a sitting position. A stocking was knotted twice around her neck; a large earthenware jar was down over her head. She was in rigor mortis. A kerosine oil heater apparently had been lighted & smoked itself out, for everything in bathroom was covered with soot. An electric cord was attached to a wall socket & was down over the tub. The tub was found by husband full of water, which he at once drained. He pulled up the shade then called to a neighbor Mrs. S. W. Sunby, 4641 - 31 Ave. So. that his wife & children were dead. Both she & another neighbor, to south of Johnson's, Mr. Carlson told Dr. Hobbs that Mr. Johnson always went to work before daybreak & got home about 6 P. M. Neither one knew any Mental condition existed in Mrs. Johnson - Dr. Julius Johnson had been attending deceased because of mental trouble. For the past 2 mos. she had not been right. A sister, Mrs. Marvin Juell, 2505 - 24 Ave. So., had been staying at the house, but because Mrs. Johnson seemed so well, she had left the day before the tragedy occurred. The baby's clothes were wet. Both boys were naked, but their hair looked as if it had been wet. Rigor Mortis & lividity present in all three children

Considerable water was in the ditch. His foot was caught & at length he pulled his foot out of the shoe. His head & face were in the water. He tried to lift the car & could not; then he tried to stop 2 motorists, then he ran to Crystal Bay & finally roused P. E. Stongland at Crystal Bay. Identification of the girls was delayed for about 36 hours. At the other end of the ravine is the river. It appears deceased had walked to this spot after being shot, then sat down on the rock until exhausted leaned backward & expired. From position of feet he had not fallen backward suddenly. By the nature of wound he could have walked some distance after the injury. Direction of wound is upwards - several gun wads found in chest. Dr. C. E. Harkey states that deceased attempted suicide a few weeks ago by cutting his left wrist with a razor blade. Gun can not be found. It is possible he threw this in the river or that some one picked it up. Photos made of R. W. Parliman reports taken in closed wire casket & mass by F. C.
